MANHOOD:

How Lost, How Restored.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Cullen's WELLINGTON'S ESSAY on the radical cure of certain weaknesses, the effects of Errors and Abuses in early life, &c. &c. &c.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of such errors and abuses may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Treatise should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent under seal in plain envelope to any address, postpaid on receipt of six cents, or two Post-Notes.

Also, Dr. Cullen's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers, "WELLS & CO.," 127 Bowery, New York, Post-Office Box 4,586. Jan. 25, 1872—1c.

A BILL

Entitled "An Act to authorize the County Commissioners of St. Mary's County, Charles County and Prince George's County, to subscribe to the Capital Stock of the Washington City and Point Lookout Railroad Company."

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the County Commissioners of St. Mary's County, Charles County and Prince George's County, be and they are hereby authorized, in the name of, and for each of their respective counties, to subscribe for and hold shares of stock in "The Washington City and Point Lookout Railroad Company," a corporation duly organized on the twenty-fourth day of February, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, as follows, viz: The County Commissioners of St. Mary's County, to an amount not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars; the County Commissioners of Charles County, to an amount not exceeding one hundred and fifty thousand dollars; and the County Commissioners of Prince George's County, to an amount not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars.

Section 2. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of meeting the said subscriptions, the said County Commissioners, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds in the name of their respective counties, in denomination not less than fifty dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, bearing interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, and payable within a period of not more than twenty years from the date of their issue; and to each of said bonds shall be attached coupons, for the payment of the interest thereon, payable semi-annually, which said coupons shall be receivable in payment of the county taxes, levied by the County Commissioners of the said counties respectively; and the bonds so issued shall be exempt from county and municipal taxation, and the faith of St. Mary's County is hereby pledged for the redemption of said bonds to be issued by her County Commissioners; and the faith of Charles County for the redemption of said bonds, to be issued by her County Commissioners; and the faith of Prince George's County for the redemption of said bonds, to be issued by her County Commissioners.

Section 3. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of said counties shall levy on the assessable property, in their respective counties, such sums or sums of money, as shall, in their discretion, be necessary for the prompt payment of the interest on the said bonds, issued by their respective counties, and for the creation of a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof; and the amount so levied, from year to year, for the payment of said bonds, shall be paid into the Treasury of the State, to be invested by the County Commissioners of this Act, or in such other proper mode, as they may see fit.

Section 4. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of said counties shall be authorized to collect the county taxes, and such other officers or officers shall pay the amount of such taxes, so levied, for the principal of said bonds, into the Treasury of the State, as required by law; and the bonds of such Collector or Collectors, or other officer or officers, shall be liable for the payment of the same; and the said Treasurer shall keep separate accounts of the amounts of taxes levied and Collected, and of the income, interest and dividends, paid into his hands, under the provisions of this Act, viz: one account for St. Mary's County; one account for Charles County; and one account for Prince George's County, and shall invest the said funds, as hereinafter provided, keeping sacred and inviolate the funds so realized, on account of each of said counties for the redemption of the said bonds, issued by its County Commissioners under the provisions of this Act.

Section 5. And be it enacted, That the said bonds so to be issued, shall be received by the said County in the payment of the stock so to be subscribed; provided, that the said bonds shall be delivered to said company in the following manner, and at the following periods, viz: As soon as one-half of the length of the said line of railroad lying within the limits of any or either of said counties shall have been graded, the County Commissioners of such county or counties, shall deliver to said company one-fourth of said bonds of such county or counties, and as soon as the whole of said railroad within the limits of any or either of said counties shall have been fully built and constructed, the County Commissioners of such county or counties shall deliver to said company another fourth of said bonds of such county or counties, and the remaining one-fourth of said bonds shall be delivered to said company when the said railroad shall be fully built and constructed and in running order along the whole line within all of said counties, and the said bonds shall not be issued in any greater instalments nor at any earlier periods than above provided for.

Section 6. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of each of said counties be, and they are hereby authorized, to sell or pledge the shares of stock which may be so subscribed for and held by the County Commissioners of said counties, respectively, and apply the proceeds to the payment of the respective bonds issued by the County Commissioners of said counties, respectively, and the interest thereon.

Section 7. And be it enacted, That so long as the said bonds of any one of said counties, both principal and interest shall remain unpaid, all dividends upon said stock so to be subscribed by such county, shall be paid by the said county into the State Treasury to be added to the proper sinking fund for such county, created under the provisions of this Act, unless the said stock shall have been sold by the County Commissioners of such county, as hereinafter provided.

Section 8. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of each of the said counties, or a majority of the County Commissioners of each of said counties, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to vote the stock so to be subscribed for by their respective counties at any meeting of the stockholders of the said company, either in person or by proxy, under such conditions as the private stockholders may be authorized to vote their individual stock.

Section 9. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful at any time for any taxpayer of either of said counties to transfer to and deposit with the County Commissioners of the county in which he sitsuate the property as taxed, an amount of the said bonds of such county equal to one-twentieth part of the assessable property of such taxpayer in such county, and such taxpayer shall be forever thereafter fully, and to all intents and purposes, released, exempted, acquit and discharged from any and all further tax or assessments, to be thereafter levied on account of the principal and interest of said bonds of the principal and interest of said bonds of such county, to be issued by her County Commissioners, and the faith of St. Mary's County is hereby pledged for the redemption of said bonds, to be issued by her County Commissioners; and the faith of Charles County for the redemption of said bonds, to be issued by her County Commissioners; and the faith of Prince George's County for the redemption of said bonds, to be issued by her County Commissioners.

Section 10. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of said counties shall levy on the assessable property, in their respective counties, such sums or sums of money, as shall, in their discretion, be necessary for the prompt payment of the interest on the said bonds, issued by their respective counties, and for the creation of a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof; and the amount so levied, from year to year, for the payment of said bonds, shall be paid into the Treasury of the State, to be invested by the County Commissioners of this Act, or in such other proper mode, as they may see fit.

Section 11. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of said counties shall be authorized to collect the county taxes, and such other officers or officers shall pay the amount of such taxes, so levied, for the principal of said bonds, into the Treasury of the State, as required by law; and the bonds of such Collector or Collectors, or other officer or officers, shall be liable for the payment of the same; and the said Treasurer shall keep separate accounts of the amounts of taxes levied and Collected, and of the income, interest and dividends, paid into his hands, under the provisions of this Act, viz: one account for St. Mary's County; one account for Charles County; and one account for Prince George's County, and shall invest the said funds, as hereinafter provided, keeping sacred and inviolate the funds so realized, on account of each of said counties for the redemption of the said bonds, issued by its County Commissioners under the provisions of this Act.

Section 12. And be it enacted, That the said bonds so to be issued, shall be received by the said County in the payment of the stock so to be subscribed; provided, that the said bonds shall be delivered to said company in the following manner, and at the following periods, viz: As soon as one-half of the length of the said line of railroad lying within the limits of any or either of said counties shall have been graded, the County Commissioners of such county or counties, shall deliver to said company one-fourth of said bonds of such county or counties, and as soon as the whole of said railroad within the limits of any or either of said counties shall have been fully built and constructed, the County Commissioners of such county or counties shall deliver to said company another fourth of said bonds of such county or counties, and the remaining one-fourth of said bonds shall be delivered to said company when the said railroad shall be fully built and constructed and in running order along the whole line within all of said counties, and the said bonds shall not be issued in any greater instalments nor at any earlier periods than above provided for.

Section 13. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of each of said counties, be and they are hereby authorized, to sell or pledge the shares of stock which may be so subscribed for and held by the County Commissioners of said counties, respectively, and apply the proceeds to the payment of the respective bonds issued by the County Commissioners of said counties, respectively, and the interest thereon.

Section 14. And be it enacted, That so long as the said bonds of any one of said counties, both principal and interest shall remain unpaid, all dividends upon said stock so to be subscribed by such county, shall be paid by the said county into the State Treasury to be added to the proper sinking fund for such county, created under the provisions of this Act, unless the said stock shall have been sold by the County Commissioners of such county, as hereinafter provided.

Section 15. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of each of the said counties, or a majority of the County Commissioners of each of said counties, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to vote the stock so to be subscribed for by their respective counties at any meeting of the stockholders of the said company, either in person or by proxy, under such conditions as the private stockholders may be authorized to vote their individual stock.
