THE OLD WORLD'S NEWS.

GREAT BRITAIN.

BALLOTS AND BLUNDERS IN IRELAND.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—A serious riot occurred in an election in Limerick to-day. Two rival candidates of the National party are running, and a fight took place between their partisans. Knives and pistols were freely used, and several persons were wounded. The police came upon the ground in force and put down the riot after arresting a number of participants.

DISORGANIZATION IN ENGLAND.

LONDON, Jan. 31, 1 a. m.—The extensive flour mills at Leith docks started totally destroyed by fire last night. The loss is estimated at £100,000. Four hundred hands are thrown out of employment.

GERMANY.

BUCHTING BOMBS IN THE LANDWAH.

BERLIN, Jan. 30.—There was an exciting scene in the Landtag to-day. Herr M. Kirchmann, an Ultramontane deputy, quoted a passage from a recent work of Pro. Ludwig Bucher, alleging that Bismarck, in 1866, demanded the cession to Prussia of a portion of Bismarck territory.

Prince Bismarck arose and pronounced the statement an audacious and unofficial falsehood.

THE POPE'S FRENCH.

The North German Gazette to-day says if the policy of France is made subservient to the Papal ideas of Papacy, the peace of Europe will be compromised.

ROME.

THE NEW CARDINALS INSTALLED.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—The report that the Pope would hold another consistory next month is treated as a mere number of rumors. The consistory was held to-day, when the final ceremonies of the installation of the recently appointed cardinals were celebrated, and a number of bishops were appointed.

FLASHES FROM THE CABLE.

The British steamship Wallachia has been burned in the harbor of Alexandria, Spain.

The Spanish Government has thanked France for her conduct in the case of the [illegible].

A duel came off yesterday, as Mr. Hawkins, counsel for Kenealy, was leaving the court he was insulted by the friends of the Tichborne claimant. The police interfered to save him from violence, and four persons were arrested.

THE TEXAS IMBROGLIO.

IMMINENT DANGER OF AN OUTBREAK.

AUSTIN, Jan. 30.—This morning a posse of the Travis Rifles marched up from the State armory. Each man her tells his acquaintances that Mayor Wheeler has been arrested by Radical negroes, numbering from forty to two hundred. The long roll was beaten and a call made for reinforcements to rescue the mayor. As if by inspiration, from every direction came men on foot and on horseback, with such arms as could be got, among them several whose white looks indicated they had seen service under the Texas republic. The crowd continued to increase until the streets were filled, when the mayor arrived, having been released. Governor Davis stated to Sheriff Leinpleman that he had arrested Wheeler without authority, and should be promptly corrected.

One company was immediately raised, and placed under command of Mayor Malston, of Galveston.

They marched to Galveston and offered their services to Acting General Sheridan, of San Antonio. Much feeling was aroused, but not fight of a serious nature occurred.

Davis' colored guards, numbering about forty, passed into the basement of the capitol without hindrance.

Davis and his assistant adjutant general, Leimpleman, agreed to-day upon an armistice of twenty-four hours. There is no hope of effective by either party until the expiration of that time. All the bar-rooms are closed.

[LATER.]

All the troops on both sides have disbanded, and there is much rejoicing.

PROCEEDINGS OF LEGISLATURE.

GALVESTON, TEXAS, Jan. 30.—The News has the following special from Austin:

In the morning session of the Legislature, Mr. Epperson offered a resolution to authorize the Speaker to appoint such a number of sergeant-at-arms as may be necessary to preserve order, and retain them as long as required—explaining that Coke had better have a civil posse than an armed guard of soldiers stationed in the capitol. The resolution being adopted, Mr. Epperson reported the result of his interview with General Gibbs, and would send the written communication as soon as typed. Amid the peculiar circumstances the House adjourned.

The Senate late morning was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Hubbard. Mr. Stockbridge asked that no [illegible] be given by the sheriff from paying into the hands of Gen. W. Haney, A. Bledsoe, or any person for them, any public funds, making it a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Mr. Ireland moved that Haney and Bledsoe be restrained from paying out any funds under penalty of two years in the penitentiary.

It is understood the Sheriff thinks that a call was made upon the commandant of the post for troops to protect the State Journal office, they fearing it would be fired. The commandant declined.

The Travis Guards were ordered out by Gov. Davis, according to report to the Adjutant General, but on their arrival at the capital they found the new Governor inaugurated, to whom they reported, and were directed to obey the orders of Gen. H. H. McCulloch, acting adjutant general, or his assistants.

The guards took charge of the two chambers of the house. The Davis guard and an imported colored company had charge of the lower floor. Both parties are acting with great calmness. Everything was quiet to-day, though armed soldiers were stationed at every entrance of the capitol building.

TROUBLE AT THE COAL MINES.

WILKESBARRE, PA., Jan. 16.—A meeting of the Miners' and Laborers' Association, representing over three thousand miners, was held this afternoon. A committee waited upon Mr. Parish, the president of the recently-formed coal organization, and demanded an advance of ten per cent. over last year's basis. Mr. Parish refused to entertain the demands.

A mass meeting of miners will be held here tomorrow afternoon. A resolution was adopted today adhering firmly to the demand of ten per cent. advance, and recommending all districts to effect a thorough organization at once.

All the officers of the new company, of which Mr. Parish is president, are new idle, except one or two near this city, and of this company alone nearly ten thousand men are now idle. It is estimated that four thousand men and boys are idle in this section of the anthracite region.

FRIGHTFUL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 16.—A frightful accident occurred on the Castle Shannon railroad to-day where it crosses Sawhill run, in South Pittsburg, on the trestle-work, 185 feet high. A coal train was passing over the trestle-work, and at the highest point a coupling broke and the entire train, with the exception of the locomotive and two cars, were precipitated into a marine below. The brakeman, John Wolstead, and a boy named Phillips, who was taking a ride, were instantly killed, their bodies being mashed to jelly. It is supposed the elements were caused by the breaking of a wheel.

LARGE FIRE IN ONTARIO.

OTTAWA, ONT., Jan. 18.—The old barracks on the Parliament grounds here, occupied by the Pacific Railway Company as offices, were destroyed by fire this evening. All the plans and field notes of the railway survey, which were there, were burned. The loss will amount [illegible]. The origin of the fire is unknown.

FINANCIAL.

LONDON, Jan. 16.—Consols for money [illegible] for account, 92¼. Bonds of 1867, 104; new five [illegible]; Erie, 16.

The amount of bullion gone into the Bank on balance to-day is £[illegible].

PARIS, Jan. 16.—Rentes closed at 73 francs, 20 centimes.

FORTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

SENATE IN THE SENATE ON THE NATIONAL FINANCES.

REMARKS OF SENATOR SHERMAN AND OTHERS—REPORTS—BILL FOR THE ASSESSMENT OF MERCHANDISE—PRIVATE CALENDAR IN THE HOUSE—RELIEF BILLS PASSED.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1874.

SENATE.

Mr. Allison presented the petition of Chicago, Dubuque and Minnesota railroad companies, the Chicago Board of Trade, and others, in relation to the construction of a bridge across the Mississippi at Clinton, Iowa.

Mr. Robertson introduced a bill directing the Secretary of the Treasury to deliver to the receiver of Mark Lane, of Charleston, S. C., certain State bonds which are now in the United States Treasury.

ASSESSMENT OF MERCHANDISE.

Mr. Boutwell introduced a bill to provide for the appraisement of merchandise in certain cases. It provides that [illegible] merchandise shall be imported by the manufacturer or producer thereof, or when the appraiser shall be of opinion that the invoice of such merchandise does not represent the [illegible] at the time of exportation. All laws and parts of laws inconsistent herewith are repealed. The bill also provides that duties may state truly the cost of the merchandise at the place of shipment and date of exportation, by ascertaining the cost of the same, or of goods of similar character, to other purchasers.

Mr. Logan introduced bill to increase the pay department of the army. Also, to make obligatory the retirement of officers of the army, now appointed seventeen years or more, and a number of bishops were appointed.

NATIONAL BOARD OF TRADE

SUMMARY OF THE BOARD ON LEADING NATIONAL QUESTIONS.

INTERNAL ST. MARIES CANAL—THE TEXAS COMPANION QUESTION—SPECIAL TAXES—LEGISLATURES—RAILWAY MATTERS—BANKING AND CURRENCY—THE REVENUE LAWS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The board was called to order by the president.

A communication from the secretary of the Board of Trade, Canada, announcing the appointment of their annual meeting to February [illegible].

THE MARIES RIVER CANAL.

Mr. Mason of Boston, moved to suspend the rules and take up subject No. 52. The motion was carried and the subject, "Marias River Canal," with the following resolution, reported by the Boston Board of Trade:

Resolved, That the National Board of Trade recommend to the Congress of the United States not to interfere with many acts of the world beyond the water; and as little outside that through the United States will bring the Atlantic ports of the United States into closer connection with those of the Pacific coast than are those of the Atlantic, even with the aid of the Suez canal.

Resolved, That the National Board of Trade recognize the great, commercial and national importance of the Darien canal, as suggested by Commander Selfridge, of the United States navy, and commend this great project to the favorable consideration of the people of the United States.

Mr. Nano read a letter from Commander Selfridge, setting forth the importance of the work, which being stated, the resolution was adopted.

The report of the committee on transportation was read, and after some debate by Mr. Bonney, who read a letter from Col. E. G. Beardsley, of Illinois City, and Mr. Griffin, of Philadelphia, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That Congress be, and is hereby, requested to authorize and [illegible] the construction of the Internal Improvement Canal, and that the Secretary of the Treasury be authorized to [illegible] the proceeds of the sale
