CLASS VI.

Stamps for Cigars and Cigarettes.—Twenty-five, fifty, one hundred, two hundred and fifty, five hundred and cigarettes.

CLASS VII.

Exportation Stamps for Tobacco, Exportation Stamps for Spirits, Brewers' Permit Stamps.

Class I.—To be printed and prepared for issue in sheets, twenty stamps on a sheet.

Class II.—To be engraved with nine coupons, and one stub attached to each stamp; each stamp and stub to be numbered in serial numbers and bound in book form; each book to contain one hundred and fifty stamps, three on a page, and book to be appropriately lettered and numbered.

Class III.—Each stamp to have an engraved stub attached, stamps and stubs to be numbered in serial numbers and bound in book form; each book to contain four hundred stamps, four on a page, and book lettered and numbered.

Class IV.—Stamps to be as follows, viz:

One ounce to four ounces, inclusive, to be printed and perforated, with forty stamps on a sheet.

Eight ounces to be printed and perforated, with fifteen stamps on a sheet.

Snuff stamps, as follows:

Two ounces to be printed and perforated, with one hundred and twelve stamps on a sheet.

Four, six and eight ounces to be printed and perforated, with twenty stamps on a sheet.

Sixteen ounces to be printed and perforated, with ten stamps on a sheet.

Class V.—Tobacco stamps, as follows:

One half to five pounds, to be printed without perforation, and delivered in sheets, twelve stamps to a sheet.

Ten pounds to sixty pounds, inclusive, excepting only fifteen pounds, to be engraved with stub attached; stamps and stubs to be numbered in serial numbers and bound in book form; each book to contain forty stamps, four on a page, and book lettered and numbered.

The fifteen-pound stamps to be as above, with the addition of a coupon attached to each stamp.

Snuff Stamps as follows:

One half to five pounds, inclusive, to be printed without perforation, and delivered in sheets, twelve stamps to a sheet.

The stamps included in classes I, II, III and V are to be printed in two colors: the tint or border may be of surface or plate printing, and the value and lettering in every case must be of plate printing.

Specimens of the above mentioned stamps may be seen at the office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., and sizes and descriptions taken therefrom.

A statement of the number of stamps issued during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1874, may also be seen at the office of the Commissioner.

Bidders will state the price per thousand stamps, deliverable at their places of business, including the cost of packing, and this amount will also be the offer of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in Washington.

Bids will not be accepted for less quantities than an entire class, or where stamps are printed in two colors bids may be for one printing for all the stamps printed within the class.

Where bids are for the second printing only—that is, for the printing of the vignette and lettering, which should be in black, the number of impressions must be stated.

Each bid should be accompanied with a specimen of the style of engraving, and the successful bidder, before the final consummation of a contract, will be required to furnish proof impressions of the kind required by the specifications and demonstrations of stamps.

The contract will require all designs, dies and plates when prepared, to be kept bright and sharp, and that new and additional designs, dies and plates shall be made after for the present, at the prices and conditions of the contract, without charge, at the pleasure of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue; and all such designs, dies and plates to be the property of and delivered to the United States Treasury Department at the termination of the contract, or whenever demanded by the said Department; that the stamps shall be prepared and delivered of such kinds and denominations, and in such quantities and at such times as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may for the time being direct, and that all unused or spoiled stamps shall be carefully destroyed.

No bids will be considered except from parties who have been, or are, actually engaged in the business of engraving or printing, and who prove that they have the necessary facilities to execute the work promptly, and give the requisite protection to the stamps, dies and plates in their possession.

Parties not known to the Department will furnish proof as to responsibility.

Bidders will state the time from the date of the contract, if awarded, when they will be ready to commence delivering the stamps, and their daily capacity for delivering the same.

Each bid must be accompanied by a guarantee of responsible sureties, who will be held to pay in case the bid is accepted and a contract entered into, they will become sureties in such reasonable sum as may be required by the Government for the faithful performance of the
