LIFE IN WASHINGTON.

SKETCHES ABOUT THE CITY BY THE REPUBLICAN'S REPORTERS.

PROSPECTIVE DOMESTIC INFELICITY.—Marriage licenses have been issued as follows: William Grove and Minerva M. Hoolidridge; Lemuel Crawford and Mary Douglass; William A. Stewart and Laura V. Smith; David B. Lee and Sarah E. Spokes, of Georgetown; William B. Fields, of Montgomery county, Maryland, and Catherine Murphy, of this city; Dominick Christopher and Laura Jones.

SUSPECTED OF MURDER.—A man named Joe Dishman was yesterday morning arrested in Uniontown on suspicion of being one of the men who killed McGrath in the Capitol grounds on Wednesday night. Dishman is a black, muscular fellow, bulky in appearance, and single. He acknowledges to having been present during the affray in which young McGrath was killed, but stoutly denies having any hand whatever in the murder. There are strong circumstances, however, pointing to him as the culprit, and he is held for a preliminary hearing.

THE NEW SCHOOL BUILDING FOR COLORED CHILDREN.—The contract for rebuilding the John F. Cook building, on O street, near Fifth, which was recently destroyed by fire, has been awarded to James G. Naylor, his bid of $15,504 being the lowest. The plans, which have already been described in THE REPUBLICAN, were prepared by T. M. Plowman, supervising architect of the District, and the building will be erected under his and Mr. John H. Brooks' immediate supervision. The work will commence next week, and by the terms of the contract must be completed on or before the first of August next.

THE BUILDING SEASON.—Notwithstanding the oft-repeated expression about the depression and demoralized state of the country, the scarcity of money and the dearth of business the building season has opened bright and auspicious, as daily evidenced by the increasing number of applications for permits to build, remodel and repair. The season opens better than usual, and much more encouraging than last year. President Hayes has been regularly and firmly installed, and the era of prosperity has set in in reality. Among the building permits granted within the past few days was one to C. Edmunds, etc., to erect four brick dwellings on New York avenue, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, at a cost of $21,000; one to Wm. Schiver, for a brick building on H street, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth, at a cost of $6,000, and another to Wm. Orme, for a brick store and dwelling on Eleventh street, between E and F, at a cost of $4,000.

GEORGETOWN PUBLIC LIBRARY.—The Peabody library of Georgetown, a bequest of the lamented George Peabody, which is located in the Curtis school building, and which was established less than a year ago, has become a most popular resort for the youth of that city, and is consequently productive of much good in keeping them from the haunts of vice, and storing their brains with useful information. A number of standard works, to the value of $350, have recently been added to the library, which now include over 1,500 volumes of the best class of English literature—science, history, travels, poetry and fiction. A new catalogue is in preparation. The trustees have lately made several changes in the rules which will give general satisfaction. By them books will be distributed on Tuesday and Friday, and the usual deposit of $3 has been reduced to $2. It is also decided to close the library at 9 o'clock p. m. hereafter, except on days when books are distributed, when it will remain open until 10 o'clock, as heretofore.

THE UNITY CLUB.—A meeting of the Unity Club was held at the residence of Mr. Germond Crandell, No. 810 H street, last evening. General William Birney was the essayist for the evening, and gave a very entertaining lecture upon "Progress and Those Who Make It." The whole treatment of the subject of reforms and reformers was most thorough in historical illustrations, and showed a careful study of the whole subject, although many points were quite novel, and some of them would provoke controversy. The lecture was well worth being given to the public, and the Unity Club may feel complimented that it has such an able membership. After the lecture the club was favored with some very fine songs by Misses Lottie Swallow, Emma Swalwe, and Lucy Worden—among others, "The Mermaid's Song" and "Good Night." Colonel Flint, president of the club, read a graceful original poem, descriptive of Watkins' Glen. Quite a large number of the members of the club were present, and many invited guests.

A KANSAS SOCIABLE.—The Kansas Republican Association held their second annual sociable last evening at the parlors of the National Hotel, in the form of a complimentary supper to the outgoing members of their Congressional delegation, that was made highly enjoyable under the management of the following committee: E. J. Dallas, J. E. Vail, William Hutchinson, J. F. King, E. H. Grant, G. W. Weed and W. H. Powell. A large number were present who are now temporarily here from Kansas, as well as the full Congressional delegation, with the member-elect. After short speeches from several of them and a pleasant season of social interchange, they withdrew to the dining-room about ten o'clock, where the jaw-breakers made a most heroic attack upon the viands prepared in the best style. They were finally called off by the strains of Professor Perbeun's orchestra, when, at a late hour, the merry dance concluded an entertainment that will be long remembered.

ON FALSE PRETENSES.—A man named Louis M. Babcock, claiming to be a newspaper reporter and advertising agent, was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday charged by F. A. Lehman, patent attorney, with having obtained money on false pretenses. Leman testified that Babcock came to him pretending to be a newspaper correspondent and advertising agent for six or seven hundred country newspapers. Witness entered into a arrangement to advertise in several hundred papers, and gave defendant a promissory note for $56.50, payable in two months from the time of its issuance. Babcock disposed of the note, and afterwards collected the $5 as an installment on the note to be indorsed on it. At the time of the payment of $5 the note was not produced, and defendant gave a receipt for it on account of the same. Witness afterwards ascertained that the note had passed out of defendant's hand, and he had to pay the full face of the paper at the bank, no credit being given him for the $5 installment. Mr. Smith, a tailor, testified that last December Babcock tendered the note in question in payment for a suit of clothes. Witness asked for more, saying that he needed it. Babcock gave him $5 and the note, with the understanding that if witness could dispose of it he could do so and return the $5 in cash. Witness took it, and later gave it in exchange for some groceries to Mr. Ergood. About two days before the note matured Babcock went to witness, and stated that he (Babcock) and Lehman had found it impossible to meet the note, and asked for a postponement. It was not given, and the note was placed in bank for collection. The court held Babcock in $500 bonds for the grand jury. Babcock claims to be an amateur, and says the judgment in his case is withheld until it is finally disposed of in court.

CITY BREVITIES.

Guy Thompson was fined $20 yesterday for assaulting Eva Fries, a white lady, who went to Thompson's office to collect money which he owed her.

August Bachus, formerly a well-known restaurant keeper in this city, died in Cincinnati last Monday. His body arrived from that city last night and was taken in charge by Germania Lodge K. of P.

The District Commissioners have revoked the appointment of Mr. S. H. Bodfish, assistant engineer of the District, to take effect on the 10th inst., as there is little prospect of work on improvements for some time.

Richard Allman was arrested by Officer Miller, last night, for stealing a coat, the property of Henry Hoffman, from the hallway of a house on Tenth street, near Pennsylvania avenue. He will have a hearing to-day.

The Alumni Association of Howard University has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: E. Goerner, M. D., president; L. M. D. Spaulding, M. D., vice president; M. Pearson, M. D., secretary; S. R. Watts, M. D., treasurer.

Miss Ida Strauss, aged about fifteen years, living near Mount Olivet Cemetery, while on her way home Thursday afternoon, had a bad fall and dislocated her hip. Officer Sullivan conveyed her to her home and medical aid was rendered by Dr. Ketchum.

The law class of 1877, of the Georgetown University has elected the following officers: President, Ansel B. Cook; vice president, M. J. McNeirney; secretary, Wm. H. Clagett, jr.; treasurer, Samuel W. Carrington; executive committee, Moses Bradshaw, Edward H. Thomas, J. T. Fallon and J. T. Nicholson.

The Woman's Temperance Union has elected the following officers: Mrs. Julia M. Church, president; Mrs. M. Connolly, Mrs. Chapin, Mrs. Cohen, vice presidents; Mrs. Rose E. Hartwell, corresponding secretary and treasurer; Mrs. King, recording secretary; and Mrs. Howes, assistant recording secretary.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Lemons."

"Lemons" has had a successful week at the National. The play in itself is worthless. There are some laughable parts, but it would be more appropriately presented on the variety stage than in a legitimate theatre. Augustin Daly believes himself that he is a marvelous playwright, but it is a well-known fact that most of his plays are written by other persons. As there were few other attractions during the week, however, the play drew moderately well. Next week the "Big Bonanza" will be presented.

VIRGINIA.

Immigrants Wanted in the Old Commonwealth—A Conference of the Friends of Immigration into the State.

At a meeting of the friends of immigration into the State of Virginia, held yesterday morning, Senator J. W. Johnston was called to the chair, and Addison Borst was appointed secretary.

Upon motion of Major John D. Rogers, W. W. Corcoran, esq., of Washington, D. C., and Col. Wm. Lamb, of Norfolk, were made vice presidents.

A resolution was offered to prepare business for the consideration of the meeting, whereupon the Chair appointed Messrs. Rogers, Borst and Kilgour.

The committee retired, and reported the following resolutions:

Whereas it is the sentiment of this conference that the development of the material resources of Virginia, and the adoption of the means required to secure that end, constitute the most important subject that can now engage the attention of her people; and whereas it is deemed advisable that some suitable person be indicated for this work, whose past devotion and zeal may be considered a guarantee of enlarged usefulness in this connection:

Resolved, That General Fitzhugh Lee be respect ally solicited to continue his efforts in behalf of this great interest, with a view of inducing immigration and capital into our midst from the Northern and Western States, from Europe, in whatever manner he may deem expedient as to the general plan, and with reference to such details as may be adjusted by himself and a committee to be appointed for that purpose.

Resolved, That Hon. John W. Johnston, United States Senate; Colonel John A. Carter, Loudoun county; General William M. Elliott, Major William T. Sutherlin, Danville; Dr. R. H. Stuart, King George; Col. Robert Beverly, Fauquier county; Major John D. Rogers, King George; Colonel William Kilgour, Alexandria; George C. Wedderburn, Richmond; A. K. Phillips, Fredericksburg; R. Barton Hardale, Orange county, Va.; Addison Borst, Fredericksburg, be declared an executive committee to confer with General Lee, should he accept, in regard to this matter, at such time and place as shall be determined.

Upon motion of Mr. George C. Wedderburn the resolution as reported, together with the committee named, were adopted.

Colonel Kilgour then read the following

LETTER FROM GENERAL FITZHUGH LEE,

which was ordered to be printed upon the minutes of the meeting:

RICHLAND, STAFFORD COUNTY, VIRGINIA, March 8, 1877.

Mr. Addison Borst:

MY DEAR SIR: I have duly received a letter requesting my attendance at a conference of gentlemen to take place at Washington to-morrow, the 9th instant, and deeply regret my inability to comply with an invitation by which I am honored. Unavoidably I lose the opportunity of giving that practical proof upon the subject of my and my family's interest in an occasion which personal presence bestows. I understand this meeting is held to devise such measures and to put into practical operation such plans as will most redound to the honor, welfare and prosperity of the old Commonwealth in order to quicken into life her dormant resources, and to bring capitalists within her open portals. It is a movement upon the part of citizens who, while privately disinterested, are yet publicly interested in all that pertains to the progress and growth of Virginia.

It is indeed a genuine effort of her sons to put their shoulders to the chariot wheels of State that good may come to thousands of her inhabitants. In all such labors you have my hearty co-operation, my sympathy and my assistance, with the earnest wish that upon your laudable efforts may be placed the crown of success, and that your highest reward may be the gratitude of a grateful people.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

FITZHUGH LEE.

There being no further business, took occasion to state that this movement of immigration had his most cordial indorsement; that if properly carried out it would do much to build up and reopen the resources of the old Commonwealth. There was perhaps no State in the Union which held out to the enterprising emigrant such a variety of inducements. Her people invited immigration; the warm and cordial shake of the hand over attested the sincerity of Virginians. Her climate is unequaled; her soil is adapted to the highest state of cultivation, while every generous inducement of a free and liberal education is one of the most generous of her statutory acts. That it, at any time, he had appeared indifferent to the many letters looking to the invitation of immigration into Virginia, he begged to be believed that it arose from no indifference to the movement, but from the fact that the extraordinary political excitement had absorbed his entire thoughts. But now that there was some probability of quiet, so that all interests could receive legitimate attention, he hoped that he would be able to throw whatever influence he can command looking in the direction of immigration into his State.

SENATOR JOHNSTON

The friends of this movement have been greatly encouraged and assured that all needful facilities will be tendered by the various lines of communication, both "domestic and foreign," upon which it is dependent.

Upon motion, the conference adjourned.

FUNERAL OF MAJOR CASH.

A Large Concourse of Distinguished Citizens.

The funeral of Major J. C. Cash, paymaster United States marine corps, took place yesterday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. About half o'clock a battalion of marines, consisting of four companies, under command of Lieut. Col. Haywood, arrived at the residence of the deceased, corner of Second and E streets northwest. The companies were commanded as follows: First company, Lieut. Nokes; second company, First Lieut. Goodall; third company, Lieut. Watson; fourth company, Captain Williams; adjutant, W. I. Zeilin.

The remains lay in a handsome walnut casket, covered with black cloth, and elegantly mounted with silver mouldings and silver bar handles, tipped with black. On the lid was a solid silver plate, bearing the name, date of birth, rank and death of the deceased. The floral decorations were superb. They consisted of innumerable crowns, crosses, wreaths, anchors and other emblems, all formed of the rarest exotics. As the remains lay in state at the mansion the face of the deceased presented a placid appearance truly remarkable, and many were the expressions of sorrow at the sudden departure of this truly worthy and honored citizen.

At 4 o'clock the family of the deceased took their farewell of the head of the household, and the casket was borne by Mr. Harvey, the undertaker, and borne to the hearse by eight bearers, composed of the Marine corps, the following being as pall bearers: Rear Admiral John J. Glass, United States Navy; Commander Ammen, United States Navy, General Whipple, United States Army; Major A. S. Nicholson, United States Marine corps, and Messrs John A. Lockwood and C. Green.

On leaving the house, the cortege proceeded out E street to Third street to Trinity church, where the remains were borne up the centre aisle to the chancel. The Rev. Dr. Addison, D. D., pastor of the parish, performed the beautiful service of the Episcopal denomination, at the conclusion of which the family and accompanying mourners retired from the church, re-entered their carriages and returned to the house of the late paymaster.

Among the prominent citizens present were Admiral Porter, U. S. N.; ex-Mayor Wallach, Marshall Brown, Paymaster General Watmough, U. S. N.; Thomas J. Hume, A. H. Purcell, G. Meintyre, W. S. Mitchell, O. H. Browning, M. McLeason, John W. Maury, Major McMillan, U. S. A.; Major Frank Taylor, U. S. A.; Colonel Wright Ewes, B. N. Keyser, R. W. Downman, ex-Mayor M. G. Emory, Drs. S. C. Palmer, Magruder, C. H. Nichols, J. B. Blake, —— Clark and ex-Second Comptroller J. M. Brodhead. The remains were left in the church until this morning, when they will be conveyed to Philadelphia on the 9:00 train, and be interred in Oakland cemetery, a city of the dead located near that city.

ORIENTAL GOODS AT AUCTION.

Mr. Dowling will continue the sale of Turkish and Persian goods at the Shepherd building this morning. In point of display and elegance of goods it surpasses anything that was ever in Washington, and our citizens should take advantage of it, as the articles are selling remarkably cheap.

THE COURTS.

MOUSING AMONG THE RECORDS SEARCHING FOR JUDICIAL NEWS.

The Bummers' Huddling Place—How the Stock of the Belt Line Road was Taken, and a Call from the Company for a Surrender—A Generous Board of Directors.

The bleak winds sweeping through Judiciary square and cutting around the court-house yesterday rattled the windows and made the inmates of the building hug about the heaters to keep comfortable. The attorneys hastened in with high-colored cheeks, disheveled hair and reddish noses, indicating that Old Boreas without was holding high carnival and trying to exercise undisputed control of the streets. Looking through the windows on the south side, where the centre of the building is protected by the two wings and the sunshine is a warm and welcome visitor, could be seen a curious sight. In the corners and recesses beyond the visitations of the wind could be seen numbers of colored Arabs, huddled together, apparently perfectly comfortable in their sun-toasting and indifferent to the outside world.

They amused themselves in collecting the "stokeys" that the lawyers cast aside on entering the building, and smoking out the unfinished cigars, at the same time they would comment on the superior brand used by one attorney over that smoked by another. Day after day the same faces may be seen in these sunny corners, their owners bringing them early in the morning and never departing until all prospects of getting a "stump" or a few pennies have fled. Inside one court was in session, the Supreme Court of the District, and the case of Shedd vs. Ordway occupied the entire day.

How to Become a Railroad Stockholder.

Messrs. Hine and Thomas, as counsel for the Capitol, North O street and South Washington Railway Company, have instituted suit against Joseph Williams and Lester A. Bartlett, to compel the surrender of certain certificates of stock, which it is claimed were fraudulently issued. The defendants were two of the corporators named in the charter, and Williams subsequently became a director of the road. On September 12, 1875, the first board of directors, without the knowledge of the stockholders, voted Williams eight shares of stock, in consideration of alleged services rendered by him in procuring the charter of the company. Williams attended this meeting, and it is believed that he was generous enough to vote the disposing of the stock in the manner aforesaid, and, furthermore, accepted the same and had the certificates filled out in his name. The company claim now that this issue of stock was a surprise on the directors, an abuse of their trust and a fraud upon the stockholders. Williams has been requested to return it, and refused to comply with the request. At the time this generous spirit pervaded the board of directors other members received similar recognition of the valuable services rendered before Congress, and handsomely rewarded at the expense of the honest-like unsuspecting stockholders. Two of these, entertaining doubts of the propriety of such a transaction, and their morals carrying them high above corruption, turned back the stock they had received as a recognition of their valuable services, for which they were not entitled to remuneration. Mr. Williams, however, did not look at the matter in that light, but in order to relieve himself of any disagreeable consequences that might arise out of the transaction, he transferred the stock to Lester A. Bartlett, the latter gentleman being a rough horse to ride, Bartlett would prove the better equestrian and stick in the saddle. The company refused to transfer the stock on their books, and hence this suit for its surrender or the payment of its equivalent in money.

Unliquidated Claims of the Territories.

Mr. Stanton has asked the Court of Claims Term to pass the following:

Ordered, That the clerk of the court be and he is hereby authorized to receive from the Comptroller of the Currency his check or that officer on the United States Treasury for the sum drawn payable to the order of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, said sum being the amount of the claim of this court against the First National Bank of Washington, D. C., based on certain certificates of deposit issued by said bank, resulting that said bank had deposited in certain cherry coupons, that had respectively deposited the sums named in said certificates in said bank in the name of this court, to the credit, respectively, of said cases, and subject to the order of this court and further ordering said check of the Comptroller of the Currency, said check is hereby made to indorse the same in the name of this court, and to collect the proceeds of the same; and thereafter proportionate payments thereof shall be held by the clerk in order to be paid to the several claimants named in which the court acquired control of the various funds the aggregate of which constitutes said claims.

Entry of this order will contain a list of said chancery causes, and in each of their report of the collection of the fund thereto belonging shall be made by said clerk, and directions taken as to the further disposition of the same. The clerk will also report to the court, and hold the certificates of deposit aforesaid after receiving the check of the Comptroller of the Currency in payment of said claim, and to execute in the name of this court any and all receipts, acquittances and other instruments in respect of all claims on account of said certificates of deposit.

The court took the granting of the order under advisement.

Claiming Damages for a Broken Leg.

John G. Schultz wants $5,000 damages for a broken leg, and has entered suit against Chas. H. Johnson, claiming that amount for injuries received. He states that on November 9, 1876, while a large crowd was assembled at Jeunemann's pleasure gardens, and he was sportively addressing the company from a chair upon which he was standing, Johnson purposely and with violence pulled the chair from under the plaintiff, so that the plaintiff fell and broke his right leg.

Law Summary.

There was a full bench of Justices sitting in the General Term yesterday.

In the case of Hevner vs. Dockenhorn the appeal has been dismissed by consent.

Bernard Burnette has sued Adrian Kloeswski et al. on a certain promissory note for $100.

On Motion Mr. W. J. Miller, the appeal in the case of the American Button Company vs. Kelly has been dismissed.

Jane E. Slamm has received an injunction against Benjamin F. Morsell and others, restraining them from selling certain property.

The argument in the case of Shedd, admr., vs. Ordway occupied the attention of the court to-day during the session yesterday.

Edward Burns has brought suit against Hallet Kilbourn to recover balance of bill amounting to $221.50, for meals and refreshments furnished the defendant.

The register in bankruptcy reports that there is due James Coleman the sum of $272.46, in the estate of F. T. Campbell, bankrupt. His share in the first dividend is $54.50.

The Washington Club has been sued by Edward Barrett for $4,000.50, the amount claimed as due for catering for the club, and money advanced from time to time to supply items for the stewards of the epicurean club.

Messrs. Loan & Beall, attorneys for David M. Davis, have obtained an injunction against George K. Ashley and M. B. Ansley, to prevent them from disposing of the stock of the late firm of Davis & Ashley.

Justice Andrew Wolfe has entered suit against Anna Brooks to recover $1,100 on one, and preliminary notes. His honor sold a piece of property to the defendant and took the notes, which she let go to protest.

Mr. J. S. Brown, register in bankruptcy, returns the account of G. G. Cornwell, assignee in the matter of F. C. Weston, with exceptions. There are no vouchers to show how the various disbursements were made.

Mary A. Cockhill enters suit against Geo. B. Corkhill and the Chronicle Publishing Company for money, payable to wit: On an overdue promissory note, payable to the order of W. H. Corkhill, for $256.40, with interest, and another, payable to the order of Geo. B. Corkhill, for $2,08.25, at eight per cent. interest.

This collection embraces the eminent men of America. In addition to the medals received in New York for many years, and in London in 1862, is awarded the highest award medal at the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia, 1876.

WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF PURE COD LIVER OIL AND LIME.

The advantage of this compound over the plain Oil is that the nauseating taste of the Oil is entirely removed, and the whole rendered entirely palatable. The offensive taste of the Oil has long acted as a prominent objection to its use; but in this form the trouble is entirely obviated. A host of certificates might be given here to testify to the excellence and success of "Wilbor's Cod Liver Oil and Lime." But the fact that it is regularly prescribed by the medical faculty is sufficient. For sale by A. B. Wilbor, Chemist, Boston, and by all druggists.

FALSE IMPRESSION.

It is generally supposed by a certain class of citizens, who are not practical or experienced, that dyspepsia cannot invariably be cured, but we are pleased to state that Greene's August Flower has never, to our knowledge, failed to dyspepsia and liver complaint in all its forms, such as sour stomach, costiveness, sick headache, palpitation of the heart, low spirits, &c., &c. Out of Seven dozen bottles sold last year, not a single failure was reported, but thousands of complimentary letters testified to the wonderful curative powers of this medicine. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sample bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by C. Stott & Co., wholesale agents.

[Extract from Mr. Herbert Hillyer's card.]

The physician cured the wife of Dr. Duncan, editor of the Eagle, Indianapolis, of catarrh, deafness and ill health, this city, followed by others of the highest responsibility. Inclosed in an early envelope was Dr. Hartley regarding a severe heart complaint, from which I had suffered a long years. I could make an affidavit that the form assumed that my sensitive mind had been seriously affected, and threatened with every symptom of consumption. I am happy to state that the result of my experience has proved most gratifying, and the cure is complete, which prompts me to make this unsolicited acknowledgment. HERBERT HILLYER,

VEGETINE.

JUDGMENT OF THE PUBLIC!

During the past five years the public have carefully observed the wonderful cures accomplished from the use of VEGETINE. From its use many an afflicted sufferer has been restored to perfect health, after having expended a small fortune in procuring medical advice and obtaining poisonous mineral medicines.

Its medical properties are Alterative, Tonic, Solvent and Diuretic. There is no disease of the human system for which the VEGETINE cannot be used with perfect safety, as it does not contain any metallic or poisonous compound. It is composed exclusively of barks, roots and herbs; it is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. It is safe and reliable, as the following evidence will show:

VALUABLE EVIDENCE.

The following unsolicited testimonial from Rev. O. T. Walker, D. D., formerly pastor of Bowdoin Square Church, Boston, and at present settled in Providence, R. I., must be deemed as reliable evidence. No one should fail to observe that this testimonial is the result of two years' experience with the use of VEGETINE in the Rev. Mr. Walker's family, who now pronounces it invaluable:

PROVIDENCE, R. I., 166 TRANSIT STREET.

H. R. Stevens, esq.:

I feel bound to express with my signature the high value I place upon your VEGETINE. My family have used it for the last two years. In nervous debility it is invaluable, and I recommend it to all who may need an invigorating, renovating tonic.

O. T. WALKER,
Formerly Pastor Bowdoin Square Church, Boston.

A WALKING MIRACLE.

Mr. H. R. Stevens:

DEAR SIR: Though a stranger, I want to inform you what VEGETINE has done for me.

Last Christmas Scrofula made its appearance in my system—large running ulcers appearing on me, as follows: One on each of my arms, one on my thigh, which extended to the seat, one on my head, which eat into the skull bone, one on my left leg, which became so bad that two physicians came to amputate the limb, though upon consultation concluded not to do so, as my whole body was so full of Scrofula; they deemed it advisable to cut the sore, which was painful beyond description, and there was a quart of matter run from this one sore.

The physicians all gave me up to die, and said they could do no more for me. Both of my legs were drawn up to my seat, and it was thought if I did get up again I would be a cripple for life.

When in this condition I saw VEGETINE advertised, and commenced taking it in March, and followed on with it until I had used sixteen bottles, and this morning I am going to plough corn, a well man. All my townsmen say it is a miracle to see me round walking and working.

In conclusion I will add, when I was enduring such great suffering, from that dreadful disease, Scrofula, I prayed to the Lord above to take me out of this world, but as VEGETINE has restored to me the blessings of health, I desire more than ever to live, that I may be of some service to my fellowmen, and I know of no better way to aid suffering humanity than to inclose you this statement of my case, with an earnest hope that you will publish it, and it will afford me pleasure to reply to any communication which I may receive therefrom.

I am, sir, very respectfully,

WILLIAM PAYNE.

AVERY, BERRIEN COUNTY, MICH., July 10, 1872.

RELIABLE EVIDENCE.

Mr. H. R. Stevens:

DEAR SIR: I will most cheerfully add my testimony to the great number you have already received in favor of your valuable medicine, VEGETINE, for I do not think enough can be said in its praise, for I was troubled over thirty years with that dreadful disease, catarrh, and had such bad coughing spells that it would seem as though I could never breathe any more, and VEGETINE has cured me; and I do feel to thank God all the time that there is so good a medicine as VEGETINE, and I also think it one of the best medicines for coughs and weak, sinking feelings at the stomach, and advise everybody to take the VEGETINE, for I can assure them it is one of the best medicines that ever was.
