CHANCERY SALE OF THE MAGNIFICENT MANSION AND GROUNDS AT THE SOUTHEAST CORNER OF WASHINGTON AND TWENTY-FIRST STREETS, IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, THE FORMER RESIDENCE OF GOVERNOR HENRY D. COOKE. By virtue of a decree of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, passed on the 19th day of December, 1876, in a cause therein pending, wherein Edwin M. Lewis, trustee of Jay Cooke and Company, bankrupts, are complainants and Henry D. Cooke and others are defendants, the same being Equity Cause No. 4,618, and by virtue of a supplemental decree, dated April 17, 1877, passed in the same cause, we will sell at public auction, on the 4th day of May, 1877, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, in front of the premises, on SATURDAY, the 12th day of May, 1877, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, the real estate in Georgetown, District of Columbia, contained in the following metes and bounds: Commencing on the southeast corner of Washington and Stoddart streets; running thence southerly along the east line of Washington street two hundred and fifty-three feet; thence easterly at right angles to Washington street one hundred and twenty feet; thence northerly and parallel with Washington street eleven and nine-tenths feet; thence easterly parallel with Stoddart street thirty feet; thence northerly and parallel with Washington street one hundred and ninety-two feet to the south line of Stoddart street; thence along the south line of Stoddart street to the place of beginning, one hundred and fifty feet to the place of beginning, together with the mansion, buildings and improvements thereon. The mansion is a large Italian villa, with imposing beauty and artistic grace on all sides, surmounted by a high belvedere or observatory. It contains about twenty-three rooms, all artistically frescoed. On the main floor are a fine library with richly carved bookcases, a music or ball-room, two parlors, a large dining-room, butler's pantry, and store-room, all connected by a fine hall. The house contains all the modern improvements, including hot and cold water throughout, furnaces, gas and costly chandeliers. The grounds are enclosed by an iron railing with granite basis, and are ornamented by shade and fruit trees, a stone fountain and stone and gravel walks. There is a large press-brick stable on the premises, complete in its appointments. The cars and the Baltimore railway run within one square of the property. The neighborhood is the best in Georgetown. The person who has charge of the house will permit any one calling there to inspect it. The terms of sale prescribed by the decree and supplementary order are: One-third of the purchase money in cash, the residue in three equal payments at one, two and three years from day of sale, the deferred payments to be secured by the notes of the purchaser, bearing six per cent. interest, with a surety or surety to be approved by the trustee; (or all cash at purchaser's option.) The trustee will reserve a lien on the property until the whole purchase money is paid. A deposit of $500 will be required when the property is struck off. All conveyancing at cost of the purchaser. G. B. WASHINGTON, Trustee, 416 Sixth street, Washington. THOMAS DOWLING, ap18-Th&tTuAds Auctioneer.
