DANSVILLE, LIVINGSTON CO., NEW YORK.—Just on the mountain miskirts of this most beautiful village of 5,000 inhabitants is situated one of the most remarkable establishments in the world, known as the Home on the Hillside. It is an institution where chronic invalids whom medicines fail to restore, recover good health; and where jaded and overworked men, and feeble or delicate women recuperate wonderfully. The home is kept open the year round. There are now here—July 1—nearly 200 ladies and gentlemen, from 24 States of the Union and Canada. Thoroughly educated physicians have the cure in charge, but they give no medicines. Their plan is to create the best possible conditions of health for their patients, and keep them in these, and then rely on the vital force which their patients respectively possess to restore them. It is astonishing to see how nature, under this management, does dispose of the most obstinate diseases, and dispense health instead. We are at liberty to refer to gentlemen and ladies of high standing, resident in various cities and towns of the Republic, who will gladly endorse all that we say. On application to the full information will be given, free of cost. Address as above,
