HOME AFFAIRS.

CITY NOTES.

—Roose sends New York papers in advance of the mail.

—Fifty-four tramps lodged in the station-houses on Saturday night.

—A large hole in the sidewalk on Thirteenth street, between I and K, caused by the recent rains, needs repairing.

—Authoritative statistics show that there is a private increase of children equal to one per week within the bounds of Le Droit Park.

—Four candidates were baptized at the Fifth Baptist Church, Rev. Mr. Meadors, Virginia avenue, between Four-and-a-half and Sixth streets southwest, yesterday.

—The police made forty-four arrests during the twenty four hours ending at eight o'clock yesterday morning. Twenty-two, or just one-half of all, were registered "drunk."

—In Barlow's gallery are to be seen two exquisite panel pictures of flowers, painted by George C. Lambdin, of Philadelphia. Mr. B. pronounces them finer than any of the sort he has ever seen.

—The O. B. R. C. Society, a growing literary association of this city, at a recent meeting, held at the residence of Mr. W. Robison, on Twelfth street, decided to introduce declamation and debating on its roll of exercises.

—The Arlington Hotel, situated on Vermont avenue, is one of the finest and best-kept hotels in the country. It is in close proximity to the White House and Government Departments, elegantly furnished and celebrated for its cuisine.

—About half-past six o'clock yesterday morning Officer Brown, of the Third Precinct, found a dead colored male infant on Road street, near High, Georgetown. He took it to the station house, and the coroner gave a certificate of burial.

—Saturday, Officer Yeatman, of the First Precinct, arrested Samuel Bird, colored, who was driving a horse quite unfit for work, and charged him with cruelty to animals. Bird was fined $10 by Squire Simon Joseph, and, in default, was committed to jail.

—About ten o'clock on Saturday night the office door of J. W. Stiles' lumber yard, Maryland avenue, between Third and Four-and-a half streets southwest, was found open, and upon examination it was evident that some one had broken into the place, as the papers from the desk were scattered over the floor. Nothing was missed.

—About two o'clock on Saturday afternoon fire was discovered in the house of Mrs. Elsher, No. 317 Four-and-a-half street northwest. About $50 worth of damage was done. It is supposed that the fire originated through persons in the adjoining house throwing lighted matches through a hole in the partition wall between the two houses and setting fire to a quantity of paper.

—Belle Dickson, of Fighting alley, was released from jail last Wednesday, and when she left carried off the blanket belonging to the bed which had been assigned to her use. Saturday she was rearrested by Officer Lewis, of the First Precinct, charged with the larceny of the blanket, and locked up for a hearing to-day. Belle said that she wanted to make a petticoat of the blanket. It was found on her bed in Fighting alley.

The House Caterership.

The contest for the House restaurant, which is expected to be decided to-day, is raging fiercely among the different aspirants therefor. There are only fifty applicants for the place, every mother's son of them believing himself the coming man, alone capable of satisfying the gastronomic cravings of the Congressional stomachs. While nothing can be said as to the right of petitions for any place, it is astonishing how all of the applicants feel themselves able to fill the all-important position of caterer for our Solons, notwithstanding that very few can be classed as professional caterers, most of the sanguine gentlemen being restaurant and hotel-keepers, who no doubt think lots of money can be made by selling liquors, which, however, is positively and strictly forbidden by the nineteenth joint rule. It is noticed that a few are men from the District, the majority being from afar. We think such a man ought to be preferred, especially as the District is not overburdened with Congressional patronage. Give it to a District man, gentlemen of the committee, and rest assured that either of them will give no cause for complaint, and then let us have peace. The applicants must also bear in mind that it takes capital, and a good sing sum, too, as it is the custom to purchase the effects, &c., of the present incumbent should he not be the chosen one.

Gay Masqueraders.

The parlors of Mrs. Ambrose, corner of Thirteenth and H streets, were the scene of much merriment on Friday evening. A large masquerade party of young folks assembled at the house, on invitation of the hostess; and dancing, of course, was the principal amusement. During the various intermissions the company was entertained by recitations, such as "Betsy and I," by Miss Jennie Spill, of Baltimore. Among the gay ones were noticed Misses Jennie Owen, Ada Miller, Lula Waters, Jennie Melcher, Jennie Woodworth, Sude Waugh, and Lydia Hollingsworth, Messrs. R. Coltman, George N. Omohundro, E. Finckle, W. Hollingsworth, R. Thompson, O. Darnell and Thomas Coltman. The dancing was kept up until a late hour, when all departed for home to dream over the events of the evening.

What Neatness will do.

Neatness in dress, no matter whether it be of the person or in a place of business, will always receive just commendation, and should it be the latter, draw both attention and patronage. Langley's snuggery, on Sixth street a few doors above Pennsylvania avenue, is about as cosy a place as the imagination can picture and is bound to win the trade of which the proprietor is so deserving.

The Unity Club.

At a business meeting of the Unity Club the following officers were elected for the ensuing quarter: President, General William Birney; Vice-President, Miss Annie Hoppesch; Secretary, William Hutchinson; Treasurer, Mrs. William Birney. The club resolved to give their social series of literary entertainments, the first of which will be given in two weeks.

District Courts.

SUPREME COURT OF THE DISTICT.

On motion of Col. William A. Cook, Col. George R. Corkhill, of Iowa, and on motion of Mr. A. Parker Jordan, William Fisher, esq., of New York, and on recommendation of Gen. Hinkle, of the Examining Committee, Thomas B. McDevitt were admitted to the bar of the District.

When the application for the admission of Mr. Fisher was made, Mr. Merrick, president of the bar association, called the attention of the court to the fact that reciprocal courtesy between the courts of New York and this District was lacking on the part of the former. In New York they required that an applicant for admission must have practiced in another jurisdiction for a specified number of years, or that he must have studied in a law office in New York for a period of two years before he could be admitted to practice, while here lawyers from New York were admitted to the bar without any such requirement. He thought that reciprocity should exist between these courts. He did not desire to make a point on the present application, but spoke of the matter as unfair dealing toward this District.

Chief Justice Cartter remarked that the court here would mete out courtesy similar to that received, and suggested that the Bar Association examine further into the matter. Mr. E. C. Eckloff was appointed a United States commissioner, and Bertram Zeverly an examiner in chancery. Charles T. Brown applied for the appointment of county constable. A Desperate Attack by Burglars.

About half past one o'clock yesterday morning Mr. George Stegmaier, residing at No. 1417 North Capitol street, was alarmed by a noise in the lower part of the house, and getting up from bed he went down stairs to see what it was. He found two colored men there, one of whom attacked him. Mr. Stegmaier struck his assailant with a boot-jack but the other colored man then joined in the attack and Mr. Stegmaier was overpowered. The attack upon him was desperate and brutal. The burglars, for such they proved to be, cut Mr. Stegmaier about his hands, face and head, and beat him terribly. They then made their escape from the house. When Mr. Stegmaier was found he was unconscious, and he remained that way during nearly the whole of yesterday. Dr. Behrends attended him. The injuries are severe but not dangerous. The burglars entered the house by picking the lock of the back door. They had evidently not been in the house long when their proceedings were interrupted by the appearance of Mr. Stegmaier, as nothing was missed from the house.

THE DISTRICT GOVERNMENT.

BUSINESS TRANSACTED AT THE COLUMBIA BUILDINGS.

Annual Report of the Inspector of Buildings—Improvements for the Year—Important Recommendations in the Assessors' Annual Report—Minor Municipal Matters.

Improvements for the Past Year.

The Inspector of Buildings, Mr. Thomas B. Entwisle, has completed the annual report from his office and forwarded the same to the Commissioners, from which the following synopsis is taken: Permits issued for buildings, without fees, from November 23, 1876, to February 3, 1877, 58; valuation of the property, $53,945. Permits issued to date, from February 3, 1877, with fees, 1,450; valuation of property, $1,663,276. Total permits, 1,628; valuation of property, $1,717,221.

The revenue derived from permits for the nine months, from February 3 to November 1, is $3,000, and as this has been a dull season and the beginning of the enforcement of the new regulations the inspector thinks it safe to base the revenues from this source at $4,000 per annum.

The total number of new buildings erected during the year was 747, making the total number in the cities of Washington and Georgetown 27,191. This is exclusive of those owned by the United States. The number of brick buildings erected during the year was 717, the same as last year. Since the adoption of the new regulations no permits have been granted for frame dwellings, but simply for the repair of those standing. Where work has been condemned for non compliance with the regulations the owners have generally been compelled with. There have been entered 271 complaints of unsafe and dangerous buildings, which have been examined and acted upon.

THE EXPENDITURES FOR THE YEAR

for preparing plans and specifications has amounted to $1,659.80. The appointment of Mr. Lauritzen as assistant will do away with this expense in the future, as the plans will hereafter be drawn in the office.

The station-houses are in a good condition, except as to ventilation and such minor repairs as are constantly needed, the First Precinct station excepted. To ventilate them will cost about $500. The general repairs for the coming year will require about $1,000.

The appropriation for the removal of the old jail and building the new work-house will be exhausted at the completion of the contract for the brick and iron work, doors, and sash, and leave the north and centre wings in an unfinished state. To complete them it will require $6,000, and to erect the south wing an additional appropriation of $10,000.

The old Georgetown alms-house, used as an Industrial Home school, has been temporarily repaired for the winter by bracing the east wall, which is in a dangerous condition and must be taken down in the spring. To rebuild it would cost $600.

The number of fire-engines, when consideration is made of the great extent of the District, the inspector thinks is inefficient, and recommends the building of four more engine-houses, which will cost $11,000 each, exclusive of the ground.

A new engine house in the place of No. 5, Georgetown, is also suggested, and the cost for doing this work is estimated at $10,000. It will require $5,000 to keep the others in repair.

THE MARKET-HOUSES

generally are in good condition, and attention is called to the necessity of building the market long since commenced at Seventh and O streets northwest. The building, as originally designed, would cost $130,000—the Seventh street wing $40,000—and he thinks the work should progress. It will require $2,000 to keep the markets in repair.

The school buildings owned by the District are in good condition. The John F. Cook Sch ol building has been completed, and the Miner and Thompson buildings are nearly finished. The inspector recommends that hereafter small buildings, containing four rooms, be erected and spread over a larger area, thus relieving the children from the long great distances. Three or four such buildings might be put up each year, at a cost of $7,000, including the cost of ground. The expenditures for repairs for the next year for schools is placed at $10,000. The estimate of the funds requisite for use of public buildings for the year ending October, 1878, is placed at $165,300.

An Itemized Statement of Appropriations.

The Commissioners have sent the following letter to Secretary Sherman:

Understanding that you are having prepared itemized statements of all the appropriations of Congress for the several branches of the Federal Government, including the District of Columbia, from 1789 to the present year, we will be greatly obliged if you will furnish us copies of all such statements relative to the District. As some time may elapse before they can be furnished in full, we will think you to have such statements to relate directly to appropriations for the public schools of the District, avenues, streets, and alleys, and for the relief of citizens, sent to us within a few days, for which we have a present use in connection with the preparation of our annual report to Congress. The other statements we will thank you to have furnished us at your earliest convenience.

The Charges against Commissioner Bryan.

A number of the citizens of the District have circulated the following memorial which has already received many signatures:

To the Honorable Counsellor on the District of Columbia, Senate of the United States: The undersigned, citizens and tax-payers of the District of Columbia, understanding that representations have been made to your committee by discharged employees of the District government, and other interested parties, intended to prevent the confirmation of Hon. Thomas B. Bryan as District Commissioner, respectfully ask leave to express to you our implicit confidence in the integrity of Mr. Bryan and our earnest wish, in view of the ability, energy, public spirit, and unswerving honesty displayed by him in his short under that his nomination may be promptly confirmed. We are sure that his confirmation will give general and hearty satisfaction to the people of this District.

Minor District Notes.

—A permit has been issued to J. O. Rabbitt to build back-building; $225.

—A drawback is asked for on lots 183 and 185, Beall's addition to Georgetown.

—Mr. L. P. Shoemaker asks that some immediate action be taken to repair Lincoln Hill road.

—Attention is called to the disordered condition of the pump corner of C and Second streets northeast.

—Clara L. Mesick, Laura Sears, and John N. Berryman, indigent insane persons, have been sent to the Insane Asylum by the District Commissioners.

—The Board of Health recommends the grading and paving of the alley between Massachusetts avenue and F and New Jersey avenue and North Capitol street.

—The bridge at the intersection of Sixth and Pomeroy streets, near the Freedmen's Hospital, is in a dangerous state, and should be torn down or repaired.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

The gravel placed on High street is intended as a temporary expedient, as a Belgian pavement or Richmond granite will be substituted when the money can be obtained for doing the work. The proper authorities are doing all in their power to relieve the wants of the people. Want of money prevents them from doing what they wish. Third street will receive attention this week. All the sewers are completed.

GEORGETOWN PARAGRAPHS.

During the twenty-four hours ending yesterday there was but one arrest made by the police and during the same time twenty-three lodgers were accommodated.

A Policeman's Residence Robbed.

Yesterday morning about five o'clock, as Officer Carruthers, who was on his way home, on Fifth street, near M, having just gone off duty, was nearing his house, he discovered two men in his summer kitchen, where his chickens are kept. On his approach they jumped through the window and over the fence. The officer pursued and fired two shots after them, one of which he thinks took effect as the man stopped for a moment. The thieves, however, succeeded in making their escape. On searching his house the officer discovered that he was minus two overcoats, which were evidently taken by the parties at whom he shot.

Our Indian Visitors.

The Ponca delegation visited the National Theatre Saturday night and witnessed the play of "Pink Dominoes." They did not say what they thought about the piece. Yesterday afternoon the entire delegation attended a missionary service at the Foundry Church. The exercises seemed to interest the Ponca braves very much. Three of them made speeches, which were interpreted. The Poncas have all received Christian teachings from missionaries, and many of them have embraced the Christian faith.

"That Old Suit

Won't do to go to church in any more, and the times are so hard that I can't afford to buy a new one." That is what a young gentleman said this morning when he realized that the "cold, chilly winds" were with us once more. Never mind, young man, don't be disheartened, and don't stay away from church on any account. There is one firm in this city who have prices low enough to suit your pocket, and the goods to suit your taste.
