1873. THE AGE. 1873. A LEADING DAILY AND WEEKLY NEWSPAPER.

The Firm Advertiser of Democratic Principles. No Expenditure and Energy Spared to Maintain it in the First Rank of Journalism. For the past ten years The Age has been the firm and earnest defender of the great principles enunciated by the founders of the Republic and incorporated in its institutions. Seeking no alliance with cliques or "factions," it has been subjected to no corrupt influence, but has always labored with fear or favor for the general good. It has, therefore, been the persistent and vigilant advocate of all reforms, general as well as municipal. Receiving no aid from official patronage, and support of Democrats, and of fair and intelligent citizens who desire to see men and measures freely canvassed, knowing that free and fearless discussion by the press is now the best defense of all private rights and public interests.

THE DAILY AGE CONTAINS: 1. The latest intelligence from all parts of the world. 2. Articles on Government, Trade, Politics, Finance and all the current questions of the day. 3. Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotations, Marine and Commercial Intelligence. 4. Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Legal Reports and Book Notices. 5. Theoretical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music. 6. Agricultural Matters, and Discussions of all Subjects of General Interest and Importance. 7. Special Telegrams, and all the Dispatches of the Associated Press, from every part of the World.

THE WEEKLY AGE is a newspaper for those outside of the great cities who are without regular daily mail facilities, but desire to be kept informed of what is transpiring around them, combining home duties with domestic instruction and recreation. Its columns are devoted to: Stories, original and selected by the best authors; Poetic Gems, from every available source; Choice Miscellany, Scientific, Amusing and Instructive; a column of Sunday Reading and Religious Intelligence; an AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, conducted by a practical Agriculturist, Mr. Thomas J. Etgo, now carrying a living upon a rented farm in Chester county, in which all questions are considered with care; and a column for the Children; Editorial Brevelets; News Items, etc.; Able Editorials, and a carefully prepared compendium of Foreign and Domestic News; Washington, New York and Miscellaneous Correspondence; Financial and Commercial Statistics; Full Markets; Select Advertisements, to which a very limited space is appropriated. With all these advantages, the Weekly Age is acknowledged to be the best Family Journal printed in Philadelphia.

TERMS OF THE DAILY AGE: One year, by mail, $8 00 Ten copies, 4 25 Six months, 4 25 Three months, 2 25 For any period less than three months, at the rate of one dollar per month. Payment required invariably in advance.

We have no Traveling Agents authorized to receive for us. Specimen copies sent free on application. Address: ROBE & BIDDLE, No. 14 and 16 South 7th st., Philadelphia. Jan 9, 1873.

THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. The Cultivator & Country Gentleman, for the past forty years, has ranked, both in this country and abroad, as the Standard Journal of American Agriculture. The Editors and Proprietors, in addition to their own personal labors, are regularly assisted by a very large number of Special Correspondents and Regular Contributors, among whom are included many leading Agriculturists, in all parts of the Country, East and West—and by over Five Hundred Occasional and Voluntary Writers, directly in the ranks of the Best Farmers and Horticulturists of the nearly every State in the Union. With the co-operation of so large a corps of practical men, this Journal is intended to possess exceptional value as the chosen Medium of intercommunication among all classes interested in the Products and Fertility of the Land—those who cultivate and those who consume—the Buyer and Shipper, as well as the first owner of the Crop—Breeder of Improved Animals and their Customers—Manufacturers of Improved Machinery and those who purchase and employ it—Nurserymen and Fruit Raisers—and, especially, to supply fuller and better data as to the progress, prospects and returns of each successive Season, as throwing light upon one of the most important of all occupations—When to Buy and when to sell.

THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is published weekly, on the following terms, when paid strictly in advance: One Copy, one, $2 50; Four Copies, $10, and an additional copy for the year free of charge; Ten Copies, $30, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the club. Specimen Copies Free. Address: LUTHER TUCKER & SON, Publishers, Albany, N. Y. Oct 31, 1872.

Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World. Harper's Magazine.

Notices of the Press. The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular tastes and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the great success as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe. The success which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and the literary culture that has kept pace with it, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also qualifies them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and set an example all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Subscriptions.—1873. Harper's Magazine, one year, $4 00 An Extra Copy of either the Magazine, Weekly, or Bazar will be supplied gratis for every Club of Five Subscribers at $4 00 each, in one remittance; or Six Copies for $20 00, without extra copy.

Harper's Bazar. The Bazar is edited with a contribution of taste and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller. The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—the children by their pretty pictures, to the young ladies by their elegant and varied variety, to the provident nation by its patterns for the children's clothes, to the families by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing gowns. But the reading matter of the Bazar is uniformly of the highest quality. The paper has acquired a wide spread popularity for the free-able enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.

Subscriptions.—1873. Harper's Bazar, one year, $1 00 An Extra Copy of either the Magazine, Weekly, or Bazar will be supplied gratis for every Club of Five Subscribers at $4 00 each, in one remittance; or Six Copies for $20 00, without extra copy.

Harper's Weekly. The Weekly is the ablest and most powerful sheet published in the United States. Its editorial articles are scholarly and convincing, and carry much weight. Its illustrations of current events are full and fresh, and are prepared by our best designers. With a circulation of 150,000, the Weekly is read by at least half a million persons, and its influence is an organ of opinion in the most important circles. Its main object is to give a positive and correct view of political and social problems.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Subscriptions.—1873. Harper's Weekly, one year, $4 00 An Extra Copy of either the Magazine, Weekly, or Bazar will be supplied gratis for every Club of Five Subscribers at $4 00 each, in one remittance; or Six Copies for $20 00, without extra copy.

MAGNIFICENT PRIZE SURPASSING ALL PREVIOUS OFFERS. Harper's Magazine.

These elegant Chromos, copied from beautiful pictures painted from nature by one of the first artists in America, give the most popular views of those interesting and sublime objects, and are faithful reproductions of the originals. The Grand Old Niagara, with its immense body of water falling one hundred and sixty feet, sending up dense clouds of spray to reflect in brilliancy and beauty the vivid colors of the rainbow, is so clearly depicted that, in imagination, you hear its mighty roar. The Yosemite, with its lofty mountains towering to the silvery clouds, and its stupendous falls of sixteen hundred feet, impressing with its awful grandeur, and filling the mind with delight and wonder. These two Chromos are the best pictures ever published for Ten Dollars, and will be sent, mounted and varnished, by mail as a premium to each yearly Three Dollar subscriber to our Monthly Magazine Reader just think, TWO beautiful Chromos for Niagara and Yosemite.

These pictures are valuable gems, and worthy of being cherished in an honored place in our homes. They will be presented to yearly subscribers on receipt of Three Dollars, and Eight cents postage, with your full name and address. Every home in America should possess these invaluable illustrations of art and beauty, and no person of taste and enterprise can afford to be without the Model Magazine, which has been greatly enlarged and now contains the essentials of all other, including the Useful, the Entertaining and the Beautiful, with Original Stories, Poems and Popular Music by the best authors, the only reliable Home Matters in all their details, Gardening, Architecture, and all the utilities, beautiful and useful Literature calculated to make our homes useful, attractive and happy—profusely illustrated, and a splendid volume for binding for the centennial at the end of the year. Prospectus for 1873.—Sixth Year. The Aldine.

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally acknowledged to be the Handmaid Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste. Not for Sale in Book or News Stores. The Aldine, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of The Aldine will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior chromos, as compared with those of a similar class, The Aldine is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possession of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos besides.

ART DEPARTMENT. Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last fall, when The Aldine assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the editors were more than satisfied with the past year; proving that the American public appreciate, and will support, a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxious to justify the confidence placed in them, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work; and the plans for the coming year, as suggested by the readers of the past year, will support a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxious to justify the confidence placed in them, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work; and the plans for the coming year, as suggested by the readers of the past year, will support a sincere effort in the cause of Art.

Every subscriber to The Aldine, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive, without additional charge, a complete set of all chromos, after J. J. Hill, the eminent English publisher. The pictures, entitled "The Village Belle," and "Crossing the Moor," are 14x20 inches—printed from 25 different plates, requiring 25 impressions and 25 to perfect each picture. The same chromos are sold for $30 per pair, in the art stores. As it is a determination of the publishers to keep The Aldine out of the reach of competition in every department, the chromos will be found correspondingly ahead of any that can be offered by other periodicals.—Every subscriber will receive a certificate, over the signature of the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the agent, or the money will be refunded. The distribution of pictures of this grade, free to the subscribers to a five dollar periodical, will mark an epoch in the history of Art; and, considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price for The Aldine, the marvel falls little short of a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventive genius and improved mechanical appliances. (For illustrations of these chromos, see November issue of The Aldine.)

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT will continue under the care of Mr. Richard Henry Stoddard, assisted by the best writers and poets of the day, who will strive to give to the Aldine the highest literary quality, and its artistic attractions. TERMS. $5 per annum, in advance, with 10 Chromos free. The Aldine will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no retailed or club rates; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local agent, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the facsimile signature of James Sutton & Co.

GENTS WANTED. Any person wishing to act as a local agent, will receive full and prompt information by applying to JAMES SUTTON & CO., Publishers, Oct 31, 1872. 58 Maiden Lane, New York.

Peterson's Magazine Cheapest and Best of All. SPLENDID OFFERS FOR 1873. HIS popular Monthly Magazine gives more for the money than any in the world. It has the best editorial assistance, the best original stories, and the best engravings of any magazine. Great and costly improvements will be made in 1873, when it will contain One Thousand Pages! NEW GOODS. Good quality and fair prices AT THE BIG BROWN STORE, LEONARDTOWN, A. A. LAWRENCE, May 9, 1872.

To Invalids and Lovers of Pure Rye Whiskey. WE have on draught a very superior article of pure Baker Whiskey, eight Summers old. We especially recommend it to invalids. Some of our invalid customers have used it with Col Lither Oil, and found it very beneficial, more so than any other whiskey they have ever used. And to the lovers of the article we will add, that one of our firm is an excellent judge, and gave a finer whiskey he never drank. It far surpasses the great railroad Bourbon. We are also just opening a fresh supply of LADIES' BROWN GOODS, embracing all the late Summer styles, to which we respectfully call the attention of the Ladies. Respectfully, JNO. M. LLOYD & CO. June 20, 1872—17.
