The Contest and Results of the Old Bay State.

[Special dispatch to the National Republican.]

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—The election which has occurred in this State to-day has been the most exciting one held for many years, the vote being larger and the interest deeper than on the occasion of the last Presidential election. Returns received up to this hour at the Journal office, from 300 cities and towns, give a total vote of about 220,000. There are about forty towns to hear from, and the total vote will probably reach 250,000. Boston has cast a total vote of over 45,000 against 35,000 cast for the Congressional candidates in 1876. Butler has carried the city by a plurality of nearly 5,000, but is overwhelmingly defeated in the State, Talbot leading him by about 25,000. Talbot's majority over all is about 10,000. Abbott, Democrat, has polled an exceedingly small vote, probably little over 10,000, and Miner, Prohibitionist, has a still smaller showing.

The Legislature is, as usual, very largely Republican in both branches. Of the eleven Congressmen elected ten are Republicans. Leopold Morse, Democrat, is re-elected in the fourth district. Benjamin Dean, who, during the last session, wrested the seat from Walbridge A. Field, has been defeated by that gentleman in the third district. Messrs. Crapo, Harris, Loring, Claflin, Rice, Norcross, and Robinson are re-elected. William A. Russell is elected in Butler's district, and Selwyn Z. Bowman in the district now represented by by General Banks. The result of the election gives very general satisfaction. The streets in the vicinity of the newspaper offices have been crowded from an early hour in the afternoon until the present hour, and the returns as announced have been received with the most intense enthusiasm. F. W. WEBER.

Ben Butler Bounced.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Two hundred and eight towns in Massachusetts, including all the cities, give Talbot 16,949 majority over Butler. This is a rough calculation of returns as received at the Associated Press office, but will be found to be nearly correct.

COMPARATIVE VOTE BY CITIES.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—The following is the comparative vote of cities and towns in this State:

	Talbot.	Butler.	Rice.	Gaston.
Fitchburg	1,212	877	525	855
Brookline	765	504	587	221
Provincetown	375	248	278	98
Waltham	893	632	729	558

Somerville	1,629	1,137	1,107	854
Woburn	835	928	539	691
Haverhill (corrected vote)	1,299	1,132	814	645

The indications are now that Morse, Democrat, is elected to Congress from the fourth district. W. A. Field, Republican, is said to be elected to Congress from the third district by 300 majority. The vote of Boston in detail is as follows: Talbot, 20,702; Butler, 25,214; Abbott, 1,663; Miner, 148. Butler's majority 4,452. William Claflin, Republican, is probably re elected to Congress from the eighth district. W. W. Crapo, Republican, is probably re-elected to Congress from the first district. B. W. Harris, Republican, is re-elected to Congress from the second district by a large majority.

A Worcester special says W. W. Rice, Republican, carries the ninth Congressional district by probably 3,000 majority. Selwyn Z. Bowman, Republican, is elected from the fifth Congressional district by 2,000 majority over the Greenback candidate.

WORCESTER, MASS., Nov. 5.—Talbot, 4,352; Butler, 3,785; Abbott, 259; Miner, 123. Congressional vote—Republican, 4,441; Democratic, 3,800; Greenback and Temperance, 100.

Talbot's Election Conceded.

As nine p. m. Talbot's election by 30,000 plurality is conceded by Butler's friends. All the Republican Representatives to Congress from the eleven districts, with the exception of the fourth, where Brimmer is defeated by Leopold Morse, Democrat, are undoubtedly elected, so far as present returns indicate. The vote of 223 towns gives Talbot a majority over Butler of 19,481.

Republican Gain of Congressmen.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—The Journal's footings from 200 towns is as follows: Talbot, 101,293; Butler, 84,817; Abbott, 6,523; Miner, 1,062. Talbot is surely elected by 25,000 to 30,000 majority. All of the Republican candidates for State officers are elected. Further returns do not change the results in the Congressional districts, which are all carried by the Republicans with the exception of the fourth district.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—In the tenth Congressional district Norcross, Republican, is elected. Talbot's majority will exceed 2,500.

BOSTON, MASS., Nov. 5.—In the seventh district Russell, Republican, is elected, defeating Tarbox.

NEW YORK.

Tammany Defeated—A Republican Legislature Secured.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5, 9 p. m.—Three hundred and forty-five election districts of this city give a majority of 11,077 for Cooper for mayor. The entire Anti-Tammany Republican combination ticket for city offices is elected. Returns from the interior of the State show Republican gains, and indicate the election of George F. Danforth, Republican, as Judge of the Court of Appeals by a considerable majority. The Republicans claim a decided majority in the Assembly.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The ninth Assembly district complete gives Schell 2,598 and Cooper 4,749.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The following Congressmen are elected: Bourke, Anti-Tammany; Cox, Democrat; Wood, Democrat; Morton, Republican; McCook, Republican.

TROY, N. Y., Nov. 5.—W. A. Wood, Republican, is elected to Congress from the seventeenth district by a large majority.

BUFFALO, Nov. 5.—The returns indicate that Pierce, Republican, is elected to Congress.

SARATOGA, Nov. 5.—Starin, Republican, is probably elected to Congress.

SYRACUSE, Nov. 5.—Hiscock, Republican, is elected to Congress by a large majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The returns received indicate that Danforth is elected Judge of the Court of Appeals, and that Dwight, Republican, for Congress, from the twenty-eight district; Ketchum, Republican, thirteenth district, and Van Arnam, Republican, from the thirty-third district, are elected.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—In the sixth Congressional district the total vote for Congress is, Cox, 10,901; DeVries, 6,497.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Ketcham, Republican—is elected to Congress by an immense majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The fifth Congressional district gives Muller, 9,569; Burke, 8,197. The tenth Congressional district gives Potter, 8,939; O'Brien, 11,145. The eighth Congressional district gives Jerome 6,882 and McCook 11,838.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 5.—F. H. Woods, Democrat, has a small majority for Congress in this city. The Republicans elect all four members of the Assembly. The Democratic majority in this city is less than 1,000.

BINGHAMTON, Nov. 5.—Dwight, Republican, for Congress, has over 2,000 majority in the twenty-eighth district.

NEW BRIGHTON, L. I., Nov. 5.—In Richmond County the Democrats have elected all their candidates with one exception.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Murphy is elected State Senator in the seventh district by about 300 majority, and one district to hear from.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Total vote of the city, Cooper, 79,742; Schell, 69,381. Cooper's majority 19,361.

The City Vote on the General Ticket.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The vote in this city on the general ticket is as follows: Bradley, 87,570; Danforth, 51,766; Bradley's majority, 35,804. Bedford, 91,436; Cowing, 78,983; Cowing's majority, 17,439. Smyth, 60,844; Phelps, 79,522; Phelp's majority, 18,678. Tuomey, 58,772; Ellinger, 81,372; Ellinger's majority, 22,604.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Sufficient is known to indicate the success of the following candidates: Mr. William Barrell, Democrat, is elected over Steinmetz, Republican, for comptroller; Andrew Cunningham, Democrat, is elected over Albert Ammerman for city auditor, and Charles F. Henry and William Shipman, Democrats, for charity commissioners over Chauncey Felt and Joseph Reeve.

Congressmen in the Brooklyn District.

Congress—In the second district Daniel O'Reilly, Republican, is elected over E. C. Litchfield, Democrat; in the third district S. B. Chittenden, Republican, is elected over Huntley; in the fourth Congressional district Archibald M. Biles, Democrat, is elected over Lyon.

FLUSHING, L. I., Nov. 5.—James W. Covert, Democrat, is re-elected to Congress from the first New York district by a majority of about 2,000.

UTICA, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Prescott, Republican Representative for Congress, has 500 majority in the Oneida district.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Danforth's majority over both Bradley and Tucker in this city is 631. Hiscock, Republican Representative for Congress, has a majority of 1,130 in this city and his majority in the twenty-fifth Congressional district will probably be 4,500.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Crowley, Republican Representative for Congress, has over 1,000 majority in Niagara County.

A Barren Victory.

YONKERS, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Alex. Smith, the Congressman elect in the twelfth district, died at ten o'clock to-night.

TROY, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Troy gives Walter A. Wood, Republican, 635 majority over Charles E. Patterson, Democrat, for Congress.

FLUSHING, L. I., Nov. 5.—J. W. Covert, Democrat, for Congress, is elected by a majority estimated at 1,200.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Chemung County, complete: Danforth, 3,235; Bradley, 2,649; Tucker, 2,861. Congress—Richardson, Republican, 3,253; Babcock, Democrat, 2,426; Beaumont, Greenback, 3,063.

A Gain of Five Republican Congressmen Conceded.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The Sun concedes twenty-two Republican and eleven Democratic Congressmen elected in New York. The Republicans undoubtedly have a majority of the Legislature.

AUBURN, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Camp, Republican Congressman, has 4,000 majority in the district. The entire Republican county ticket is elected.

PENNSYLVANIA.

A Sweeping Republican Victory.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—At the mayor's office it is estimated that the majority in Philadelphia for the Republicans will be about 12,000. Kelley has been badly cut in the fourth district. No doubts are entertained of Randall's election in the third district by a reduced majority.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6, 12:30 a. m.—At this hour the Democratic State Committee concede the election of Hoyt, Republican, for Governor, by 10,000 majority; the Republican Committee claim it by 25,000.

In the sixth Congressional district William Ward, Republican, is re-elected by 5,000 majority.

READING, PA., Nov 5.—In the eighth district Hebster Clymer, Democrat, is re-elected by over 5,000 majority.

WILKESBARRE, PA., Nov. 5.—In the twelfth district Hendrick B. Wright is undoubtedly re elected to Congress. Returns are meagre, and figures cannot yet be given.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—In the twenty-fourth Congressional district William S. Shallenberger, Republican, is elected by 400 majority. In the twentieth Congressional district A. G. Curtin, Democrat, is elected by 650 majority.

The Result on Congressmen—Randall Elected by a Diminished Majority.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—In this city twenty-six wards out of thirty-one show a Republican gain of 8,166 and a Republican majority of 15,066. In the first Congressional district H. H. Bingham, Republican, is elected. In the second district Charles O'Neill, Republican, has a majority of 4,029. In the third district Samuel J. Randall is elected by about 1,900 majority. In the fourth district William D. Kelley, Republican, has 6,221 majority, and in the fifth district A. C. Harmer, Republican, is elected by a majority of 4,543. In the tenth Congressional district B. K. Bachman, Democrat is elected, but no estimate of the vote can be given to-night.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—Randall's election is conceded by the Republicans by a reduced majority. He was badly scratched in the uptown precincts of his district, but held his own in the lower wards. General Harry Bingham is elected in the first district, O'Neill in the second, Kelley in the fourth, Harmer in the fifth, and Ward in the sixth.

In the country districts and the western part of the State Republican gains are everywhere recorded, and it is certain that the Republicans have increased their strength by three members in the delegation. Governor Curtin's election is by a reduced majority. All of the districts now represented in the present Congress by Republicans return Republican candidates.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—In the seventh Congressional district William Godshalk, Republican, is elected by about 1,000 majority.

POTTSVILLE, Nov. 5.—In the thirteenth Congressional district John W. Ryon, Democrat, is probably elected.

PITTSBURG, PA., Nov. 5.—The Republicans claims the election of Russell Errett in the twenty-second Congressional district, Thomas M. Bayne in the twenty-third, and J. H. Osmer in the twenty-seventh district.

Vote of the State by Counties.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Handsome Republican Gains.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—New Hampshire specials from Republican sources state that Natt Head, Republican candidate for Governor, is making handsome gains, with a decreased Greenback vote.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 5.—Twenty towns give Natt Head, Republican, 2,826; Frank A. McKean, Democrat, 2,078; Warren G. Brown, Greenbacker, 367; scattering, 11. The same places in March, 1878, gave Benjamin F. Prescott, Republican, 2,850; Frank A. McKean, Democrat, 2,590; scattering, 32. Republican net gain in these places, 142.

Natt Head Elected Governor.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 5.—One hundred towns give Natt Head, Republican, 14,753; Frank A. McKean, Democrat, 12,037; Warren G. Brown, Greenback, 1,957; scattering, 46. The same places in March, 1878, gave Benjamin F. Prescott, Republican, 15,262; Frank A. McKean, Democrat, 14,356; scattering, 165. The Republican net loss in these places is 58 from the returns received. It appears that Head is elected by the people. As far as returned the House stands 52 Republicans, 27 Democrats, and 3 Greenbackers. The Republicans claim at least 35 majority in the House.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 5.—The Republicans elect three Congressmen.

CONNECTICUT.

No Election of Governor by the People—Gains in Congressmen.

HARTFORD, Nov. 5.—Fifty-nine towns give Hubbard 14,937; Andrews, 14,915; Greenback, 2,025; Prohibition, 316. Last year the same towns gave Hubbard 17,643 and Robinson 17,450. General Hawley, Republican, is elected to Congress by a plurality of 1,500. He probably carries Hartford city by 558 majority, a gain of 1,158 from the vote of 1876. Wait, Republican, is elected in the third district. There is no election of Governor by the people. The Legislature is probably Republican. Hon. Henry C. Robinson and Colonel L. A. Barbour, both Republicans, are elected to the Legislature from Hartford.

LATER.—Eighty-seven towns give Hubbard, Democrat, 22,987; Andrews, Republican, 23,119; Atwater, 3,420; Prohibition, 498. In 1876 the same towns gave Hubbard 28,263 and Robinson 26,985.

Two Republican Congressmen Gained.

HARTFORD, CONN., Nov. 5.—The Evening Post has returns from 148 towns at 11:15 p. m., which give Andrews, 45,355; Hubbard, 43,191; Atwater, Greenback, 7,998; Baldwin, Prohibitionist, 1,055. The Republicans elects Hawley, Wait, and Miles to Congress. The Republicans will control the Legislature by 35 majority, and as there is no election by the people the Republican ticket will be elected by the Legislature.

The Legislature Surely Republican.

HARTFORD, CONN., Nov. 5.—There is no election of Governor by the people. The Legislature, which is to choose the State officers and a United States Senator, will be Republican by about 35 majority on joint ballot. The Senate will be 14 Republicans to 7 Democrats. Seven Republicans and four Democrats hold over from last year.

VIRGINIA.

Light Vote in the Richmond District.

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 5.—The election was quiet and the vote small in this city, only about 2,000 polled out of a registered vote of over 13,000. The smallness of the vote is due mainly to the fact that the payment of the capitation tax is required before voting. General Joseph R. Johnston carries the city by over 2,000 majority. Returns from a number of precincts in this the third district indicate Johnston's election beyond a doubt. Newman may carry one or two counties, but this will not amount to anything. Nothing as yet from other districts.

Goode's Re-election Claimed.

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 5.—The election quiet; vote small. Indications are that Goode is re-elected to Congress by 1,000 majority. This city and Portsmouth give Goode 1,032 majority.

General Hunton Re-elected.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., Nov. 5.—The election here was very quiet. No interest was manifested, and the vote not half out. Hunton, for Congress, had no organized opposition. His majority here is 370. Carter, Greenback candidate, received but 214 votes, and Cochran, Radical, but 3. Hunton's election is sure, but the vote in the district is very small. Dispatches to the Gazette from Loudoun and Fauquier state that but a small vote was polled in each of those counties. A Leesburg dispatch says Loudoun County was close, owing to the very small vote.

Reports from the Congressional Districts.

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 5.—General Johnston's official majority in this city over Newman is 2,012. Further returns from the counties of the district indicate that Johnston's majority will be from 1,600 to 1,800. Meagre returns from the first district indicate the election of R. L. T. Beale, Conservative, over Critcher, Independent, in the second district. The cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth and Norfolk County give Dezendorf, Republican, about 150 majority over Goode, Conservative, but returns from other points indicate Goode's election by a fair majority. Returns from the fourth district are too meagre to base calculations on. The contest is between Jorgensen, Republican, and W. E. Hinton, with chances in favor of Jorgensen. The fifth district re-elects George C. Cabell, Conservative. In the sixth district J. Randolph Tucker carries Lynchburg by 485 majority, a gain of 358 over the election in 1876. Rockbridge County gives him a majority of 350. Tucker's election is assured by a large majority. There is an exciting contest in the seventh district between Hon. John T. Harris and John Paul, forcible readjuster of State debt. Returns from over half of the districts favor Harris' election. General Eppa Hunton is re-elected in the eighth district without opposition. There is nothing definite from the ninth district, where there are four candidates, J. R. Richmond, F. McMullen, and L. H. Newberry, Conservatives, and Campbell, Republican.

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 5.—But few returns have been received from the ninth district, but those received indicate a close contest between Richmond, Conservative, and McMullin, Independent Conservative.

Mr. Jorgensen Re-elected.

PETERSBURG, VA., Nov. 5.—The total vote of this city is 2,098. Hinton's majority is 274. Returns from the fourth district are favorable to Jorgensen, Republican, and indicate his re-election.

NEW JERSEY.

Five Republican Congressmen Elected, Including ex-Secretary Robeson.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 5.—New Jersey has turned a complete political somersault. Five out of the seven Congressmen elected are Republicans, with one district yet in doubt. Ex-Secretary of the Navy Robeson, Republican, carries the first district by about 2,500 majority. J. Howard Pugh, Republican, is re-elected for Congress from the second district. Charles A. Yourhis, Republican, carries the fifth district by a good majority.

John L. Blake, Republican, carries the sixth district by about 1,800, and Lewis A. Brigham, Republican, the seventh district by 2,000 majority. The fourth district, which is the strongest Democratic district in the State, re-elects Alvah A. Clark, Democrat, but his majority is greatly reduced. In the third district the contest is between Miles Ross, the present incumbent, and Amos Clark, jr., from whom Ross took the district in 1874. It is yet in doubt.

The Republicans have elected seven of the eight State Senators, and thus secured control of the Senate. Large gains have been made in the Assembly. The last House stood 33 Democrats to 23 Republicans. It will now stand 32 Republicans to 28 Democrats.

GEORGIA.

AUGUSTA, GA., Nov. 5.—The vote in the eighth district is light. Alexander Stephens is re-elected to Congress without opposition.

Congressmen Probably Elected.

AUGUSTA, GA., Nov. 5.—The vote in the eighth district is small. About 1,000 votes were polled in this county for Stephens. Returns from other districts come in slowly. The following Congressional candidates are probably elected: First district, J. C. Nicholls, Democrat; second district, M. R. Smith, Democrat; third district, P. Cook, Democrat; fourth district, H. R. Harris, Independent Democrat; fifth district, M. J. Hammond, Democrat; sixth district, J. H. Blount, Democrat; seventh district, William H. Fenlon, Independent Democrat; eight district, A. H. Stephens, Democrat; ninth district, J. A. Billups, Democrat.

The official count may change the seventh and ninth districts. The vote in these districts will be close, and may result in the election of G. N. Lester, Democratic nominee, in the seventh in the place of William H. Felton, Independent Democrat. Emory Speer, Independent Democrat, will run J. A. Billups very close in the ninth district.

Later Returns Correct the Above List.

ROME, GA., Nov. 5.—The indications are that Lester, Democrat, will be elected in this district over Felton, Independent.

COLUMBUS, GA., Nov. 5.—Returns indicate that Henry Persons, Independent Democrat, is elected over H. R. Harris, present member, by 500 to 1,000 majority in the fourth district. Persons is inclined to the Greenbackers. Felton, Independent, in the seventh Georgia district, is running behind. Lester, Democrat, is probably elected.

MACON, GA., Nov. 5.—J. H. Blount was unanimously re-elected from the sixth Congressional district, there being no opposition. The vote was light. The race in the lower end of the fifth district was very close between N. J. Hammond, Democrat, and R. Arnold, Greenbacker. Phil Cook, in the third district, and W. E. Smith, in the second district, are re-elected.

ATLANTA, GA., Nov. 5.—Special dispatches to the Constitutionalist indicate that Smith is re-elected in the second district, and that Persons, Independent Democrat, has defeated Harris, Independent Democrat, in the fourth district. Cook, Democrat, in the third district; Blount, Democrat, in the sixth district; Hammond, Democrat, in the fifth district; Felton, Independent Democrat, in the seventh district, and Speer, Independent Democrat, in the ninth district, were elected without opposition.

TENNESSEE.

Very Light Vote in the State.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Nov. 5.—The election here was unusually quiet, and but little apparent interest was felt. The indications are that the vote will be the lightest polled in the State for years.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., Nov. 5.—Returns indicate the election of Pettibone, Republican, in the first and Dibrell, Democrat, in the third district of Tennessee. The election is very close in the second Tennessee district. Houck, Republican, is ahead.

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 5.—The latest returns from the first district indicate the election of Taylor, Democrat, over Pettibone, Republican, by 1,500 majority. Watkins, Democrat, in the second district, is pushing Houck, Republican, closely. The result is doubtful.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 5.—Bright, Dibrell, and Atkins are re-elected to Congress. In the ninth Congressional district Slemmons, Democrat, is elected. Houck, Republican, is elected in the second district, and in the first district the Republicans concede the election of R. P. Taylor, Democrat, over Pettibone, Republican. In the fourth district McMillen, Democrat, is probably elected over Gollihay, Independent. In the seventh district the vote is close between Whittorne and Moore, both Democrats. Returns indicate the re-election of Whittorne.

The Legislature will be very largely Democratic. Marks, the Democratic nominee for Governor, has a majority over both Greenback and Republican candidates.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., Nov. 5.—Returns to midnight show Taylor, Democrat, elected in the first district over Pettibone, Republican; Houck, Republican, over Watkins, Independent, in the second district. A very light vote has been polled on both sides except in the first district, which is closely contested.

Casey Young Re-Elected.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 5.—Casey Young, Independent Democrat for Congress, from the tenth district, carries this city by not less than 600 majority over W. M. Randolph, Republican. The Greenback vote was very light. Reports from Hardeman and Fayette Counties indicate Young's re-election by 1,000 majority. H. D. Money, Democrat, for Congress, from the third district of Mississippi, is elected.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Five distinct tickets are in the field in this city, and ballots are consequently badly scratched and coming in very slowly. Republican, Democrat, Greenback, National, Socialist, and Prohibition parties have each nominated tickets. Up to half-past nine but five precincts out of 112 have been heard from, and these indicate nothing. From scattering returns received from Fort's, Henderson's, and Springer's districts it would seem that these gentlemen are elected.

Republican Gains in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The indications are that the Republicans have carried the entire county ticket and elected their three Congressmen in the city, a gain of one Congressman. The returns generally show Republican gains. In the first Congressional district three precincts give Aldrich, Republican, 331, and Doolittle, Democrat, 96. In the second district nine precincts give Davis, Republican, 1,408, and Kehoe, Democrat, 1,097. In the third district five precincts give Barber, Republican, 749, and Free, Democrat, 545.

Partial Returns from the State.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Returns from 110 towns and precincts in Illinois give the following totals: For State Treasurer, Smith, Republican, 15,986; Cronkrite, Democrat, 8,329; Bates, Greenback, 3,459. The Congressional vote continues in about the same proportion.

A Gain of Two Congressmen and the State Republican.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Returns from the Congressional districts of this State, although incomplete, show that the Republicans have gained two Representatives—Davis in the second and Thomas in the eighteenth. If these figures hold good the Congressional delegation from Illinois in the next Congress will stand—Republicans, 15; Democrats, 6. Thomas and Davis replace Hartzell and Harrison, the present members.

One hundred and eighty towns in Illinois give Smith, Republican, 23,958; Cronkrite, Democrat, 13,238; Bates, National, 5,537 for Treasurer. There are no indications yet as to the Legislature, except that it will be very close, with probabilities of a few Republican gains.

MARYLAND.

Urner Elected by 1,000 Majority.

[Special dispatch to the National Republican.]

HAGERSTOWN, MD., Nov. 5.—Urner carries Frederick by 13,028, Washington by 288, Allegheny by 420, Garrett by 50. Peter carries Montgomery by 450. Urner's majority is 1,000. LOUIS E. MCCOMAS.

Democratic Majorities in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—Full returns from the third Congressional district, composed of the first nine wards of this city, give Kimmel, Democrat, 11,472; Thompson, Greenback and Independent, 4,908; Kimmel's majority, 6,564. Full returns from the fourth Congressional district, composed of the other wards of the city excepting the seventeenth, which is included in the fifth district, give McLane, Democrat, 11,061; Holland, Republican, 6,071; Quigley, Greenback, 628; Gittings, Independent Democrat, 398. McLane's majority over Holland, 4,792; over all, 3,311. The seventeenth ward gives Henkle, Democrat, 1,180 over Crane, Republican.

My Maryland Solid no More.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—Sufficient returns have been received from the counties on the Eastern Shore composing the first Congressional district to insure the election of Henry, Democrat, by not less than 1,500 majority. In the second district Talbott's (Democrat) majority will be 1,000. In the fifth district Henkle's (Democrat) majority is estimated at Democratic headquarters at 1,500. At this hour (midnight) no returns have been received from the lower counties—Charles, St. Mary's, and Calvert—in this district. In the sixth district, Frederick County is reported as having given over 1,200 majority for Urner, Republican, which insures his election in the district, making the delegation stand five Democrats and one Republican.

LOUISIANA.

An Account that Indicates Ball-Dozing.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Nov. 5.—The election throughout the State, so far as is known, passed quietly. E. A. Burke's majority for State Treasurer in New Orleans is estimated at 18,000, and it is believed that his majority in the State will exceed 30,000. Returns as far as received indicate the election of Congressmen as follows: First district, Gibson, Democrat; second district, Ellis, Democrat; third district, Acklen, Democrat; fourth district, Elam, Democrat; sixth district, Robertson, Democrat.

The Democratic State Central Committee have reports that the colored voters were supporting King and Young, Democrats, in the fifth district, to such an extent as to indicate the strong probability of their election. The negroes appear to have voted in large numbers for Burke and the Democratic Congressional candidates, and some enthusiastic Democrats to-night estimate Burke's majority in the State as high as 50,000.

The amount of scratching in the election for municipal officers renders it impossible to make a close estimate of the result at this hour (eleven p. m.), but the following is given as approximating the vote: Democratic Conservative ticket, 13,000; citizens' Conservative, 10,000; Nationals, 5,000; tax-payers, 1,000. The Nationals and Republicans claim the election of Hubert for Congress in the third district over Acklen.

MICHIGAN.

Republicans Carry the State.

[Special dispatch to the Republican.]

DETROIT, MICH., Nov. 5.—Election returns in this State come in very slowly and scattering. Croswell, Republican, is undoubtedly elected Governor. Returns for Governor so far show that the Greenback or National party is polling a heavier vote than the Democrats. Partial returns for Congressmen indicate the election of Republicans in the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, and ninth districts. The contest is very close in the first and fifth district. Impossible to give fuller returns to-night. GOODSELL.

[By Associated Press.]

DETROIT, Nov. 5.—Returns come in slowly. Fifty-seven towns already heard from give Croswell, Republican, for Governor, 7,179; Barnes, Democrat, 3,968; Smith, National, 4,931.

DETROIT, Nov. 5.—Returns from 157 towns give Croswell, Republican, for Governor, 17,716; Barnes, Democrat, 9,285; Smith, National, 11,824.

DETROIT, Nov. 5.—Returns from 177 towns give Croswell, Republican, for Governor, 22,848; Barnes, Democrat, 13,241; Smith, National, 14,350.

WISCONSIN.

Republican Gains in Congressmen.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 5.—Milwaukee and county, with one township heard from give Frisby, Republican, fourth Congressional district, 1,260 over Deuster, Democrat—a Republican gain of 3,500 over the vote of 1876. The Republicans elect the whole county ticket, with a possible exception of coroner. Returns from the interior come in slowly, and gains and losses are about equally divided.

Losses and Gains in the Different Districts.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 5.—In the fourth Congressional district 21 towns and the city of Milwaukee show a Republican gain of 3,070. Frisby's (Republican) majority in Milwaukee County is 1,660. He is probably elected. In the fifth district 41 towns show a Republican gain of 1,110. In the first district 48 towns show a Democratic gain of 243.

In the second district 36 towns show a Republican gain of 1,164. In the third district 15 towns show a Democratic gain of 457. In the sixth district 31 towns show a Democratic gain of 1,176. In the seventh district 35 towns show a Democratic gain of 682. In the eighth district 36 towns show a Democratic gain of 70.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

How Conciliation Makes Republican Majorities Vanish.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 5.—Returns from all parts of the State show heavy Democratic gains. Governor Hampton and the present State officers are re-elected without opposition. Aiken and Evins, Democrats, are re-elected from the third and fourth districts with scarcely any opposition. In the fifth district Tillman, Democrat, is claimed to have beaten Smalls, colored Republican, by nearly 800 majority.

In the first district the indications are that Richardson, Democrat, is elected over Rainey, colored Republican, by a small majority. In the second or Charleston district the vote has been very heavy and close, with the chances so far favoring the election of O'Connor, Democrat, over Mackey, white Republican.

In Charleston city the Democratic majority is estimated at from 4,000 to 5,000, but the Republican strongholds, the Sea Island precincts, cannot be heard from until to-morrow. The election was quiet and orderly throughout the State, no disturbance of any kind having occurred in any quarter.

MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—Partial returns from this city indicate that something more than half of the Republican ticket has been elected. The contest in both the second and third Congressional districts seems to be closer than was expected, and the results cannot be forecast at the present writing.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—There seems to be no doubt of the election of Frost, Democrat, in the third district, over Metcalfe, Republican, the present incumbent. In the second district Cole, Republican, is so close to Wells, Democrat, that the Republicans are claiming his election. The returns from the third district are very meagre, but there is no doubt of the election of Clardy, Democrat. If Wells carries the second district the Democrats will gain three Congressmen from this city.

A dispatch from St. Joseph, Mo., says that Rea, Democrat, for Congress in the ninth district, will probably have 2,000 majority over Ford, Greenback.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Waddell Running Way Behind.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 5.—The complete returns of this city are: Waddell, Democrat, for Congress, 1,031; Russell, Greenback-Republican, 1,924, making Russell's majority 923, against a majority of 1,000 for Canady, Republican, in 1876. There is a falling off of about 25 per cent. in the Democratic vote and 20 per cent. in the Republican vote. On the basis of this reduced vote throughout the district Waddell's majority would be about 500.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 5.—Davis, Democrat, carries the fourth district by a majority estimated at 1,800. The second district is close with the chances in favor of Kitchen, Democrat. In the third district, Waddell, Democrat, has an estimated majority of 500. In the fifth district Scales, Democrat, has 2,000 majority. In the sixth, seventh, and eighth districts Democrats are certainly elected, as there was no opposition. The elections were quiet and a small vote polled.

RHODE ISLAND.

Republican Congressmen Elected.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 5.—Lattimer W. Ballou, Rep., is re-elected Representative in Congress in the second district by about 700 majority over Barnaby, Dem., and Smith, Greenback. Nelson W. Aldrich, Rep., is elected in the first district by about 3,000 majority over Davis, Dem., and Sayles, Greenback.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 5.—The Journal has returns from the entire State except Block Island. In the first district Nelson W. Aldrich, Republican, has 5,940; Davis, Democrat, 1,324; Sayles, Greenback, 661; scattering, 101. Aldrich's majority, 3,875. In the second district Lattimer W. Ballou, Republican, has 5,569; Barnaby,
