GRAIN MARKET.

Wheat—The market for wheat to-day opened with more activity and with a better feeling manifested on the part of buyers, but though there is no quotable change in the rates of prime to choice qualities of both descriptions, we write the general condition of the market firm and steady, with an active milling inquiry for the top grades. The offerings on Change include 9,350 bushels, with sales of 7,900 bushels prime mixed at $1 02¼. The balance of samples were withdrawn and subsequently sold on private terms.

GEORGETOWN NEWS.

Collected by Republican Reporters.

Mr. John R. Offley has removed from West street back to his former residence, No. 4 Cooke's Villas, Stoddart street.

James Durant and W. A. Johnson, of New York; William C. Vanfleet, of Maryland, and L. Dean and family, of the district of Columbia, have taken apartments at the West End Hotel.

Mr. John Keady, residing at No. 189 Bridge street, is lying dangerously ill with pneumonia. The strongest medicines are being administered to him by his attending physician, and yesterday it was found necessary to administer morphine.

St. John's (Episcopal) Church has of late reorganized its choir, and has now a chorus choir of over twenty voices in place of its old quartette. The music, under the charge of Mr. Middleton, as organist, and Mr. W. B. Orme, as director, is well rendered, and, being more congregational, is in the same proportion more earnest and responsive.

Yesterday morning Officers Green and Volkman carried to the station house an insane colored woman named Louisa Claxton, said to reside on P street, near Rock Creek, whom they found at Lynn's Hotel, on High street, between Dunbarton and Beall streets, acting in a disorderly manner. She was taken to Police Headquarters and turned over to Sanitary Officer Cornell for future disposition.

There are at the present time at least 100 boats in the Georgetown level of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, laden with coal, waiting to be discharged. In addition, scattered in the loaded boats, there are hundreds of tons of coal piled on the docks of the several coal companies. They are unable to remove or unload the boats consigned to them (although they have plenty of orders for coal) for want of vessels to transport it to Eastern ports, of which there have been a great scarcity throughout the present season.

The Georgetown Deshaway Club held another large and enthusiastic meeting last night at their new hall, on High street. In the audience were a large number of ladies. Mr. Redgrave, of Baltimore, made a splendid appeal to the young men not to follow in the path that leads to destruction and death. He was followed by "Bud" Eagleston in a fervent prayer for the success of the cause. Mr. Skidmore, of Georgetown, made his maiden speech, and it was a fine effort. Mr. Joe Coombs made a speech that will not soon be forgotten by the "boys." Mr. John B. Wheeler made an earnest appeal, which had the effect of causing a number to sign the pledge. Charlie Nye made an appeal that could not be resisted, and which caused quite an addition to the temperance army. He was followed by Judge Samuel C. Mills, who in turn was followed by Jerry Williams, "the orator," who, by his dry witticisms, provoked roars of laughter and brought forth rounds of applause. About thirty in all signed the pledge.
