FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

Senator Chandler in His Old Seat in the Senate.

Consideration of the Army Appropriation Bill—Reorganization Clause Stricken Out—A Hitch on the Telegraph Amendment—Internal Revenue Bill—Resumption Repeal Bill Killed.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, Feb. 22, 1879.

The Vice-President laid before the Senate a communication from the Secretary of the Treasury in regard to the exportation of live animals, and suggesting such legislation as will enable the Secretary to prohibit or restrict the exportation of live animals of the United States to foreign countries when disease exists among them, and that he have authority to appoint skilled persons to examine cattle, &c. He submits the draft of a bill to carry out his views. Referred to the Committee on Agriculture.

Mr. FERRY presented the credentials of Hon. Zack Chandler, elected United States Senator from Michigan to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Hon. Isaac P. Christiancy. The credentials having been read, Mr. Chandler was escorted to the Vice-President's desk and the oath of office was administered to him. He occupies the same seat that he did when in the Senate several years ago.

The Vice-President laid before the Senate the credentials of Hon. John J. Ingalls, re-elected United States Senator from the State of Kansas for six years from March 4, 1879. Read and placed on file.

Mr. MONRILL, from the Committee on Finance, reported, with amendments, Senate bill for the interchange of subsidiary silver coin and United States notes. Placed on the calendar.

He also submitted a resolution, instructing the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds to inquire and report by what authority the National Statuary Hall, in the Capitol, set apart for statuary, has been permitted to be used for any other exhibition. Agreed to.

Mr. DORSEY presented a petition of the Committee of One Hundred, appointed by citizens of the District of Columbia, calling attention to the pestilential condition of the river flats in front of Washington, and praying Congress to adopt some economical plan for speedy relief. Referred to the District Committee.

Mr. JONES (Fla.) presented the credentials of Hon. Wilkinson Call, elected United States Senator from the State of Florida for six years from March 4, 1879. Read and placed on file.

The Vice-President laid before the Senate the credentials of Hon. James H. Slater, elected United States Senator from the State of Oregon for six years from March 4, 1879. Read and placed on file.

The Vice-President laid before the Senate the credentials of Hon. John A. Logan, elected United States Senator from the State of Illinois for six years from March 4, 1879. Read and placed on file.

The Senate then proceeded with the consideration of the army appropriation bill, the question being on striking out all the sections relating to army reorganization.

The motion was agreed to—yeas, 45; nays, 18—as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Bacon, Bagley, Bailey, Baker (Md.), Baker (N. Y.), Banks, Bayne, Blair, Bliss, Boyd, Brentano, Brewer, Briggs, Browne, Bundy, Burchard, Burdick, Cain, Calkins, Campbell, Candler, Cannon, Caswell, Chittenden, Clafin, Clark (N. J.), Clark (Iowa), Cole, Conger, Covert, Crapo, Cummings, Danford, Davis (Ill.), Dean, Deering, Denison, Dunnell, Dwight, Eames, Elliott, Ellsworth, Ermentrout, Evans (Pa.), Evans (Ind.), Foster, Frye, Garfield, Hale, Hanna, Hardenbergh, Harmer, Harris (Mass.), Hart, Hayes, Hazelton, Hendee, Henry, Henderson, Hewitt (N. Y.), Hiscock, Hubbell, Hunter, Humphrey, Hungerford, Ritner, James, Jones (N. H.), Jones (Ohio), Jorgensen, Joyce, Keifer, Keightly, Ketcham, Lapham, Latham, Lindsey, Lockwood, Loring, Luttrell, Magoun, Marsh, Maynard, McCook, McGowan, Mitchell, Monroe, Morrison, Morse, Muller, Norcross, Overton, Page, Patterson (N. Y.), Peddie, Pierce, Pratt, Pratt, Price, Prindle, Reagan, Rhoads, Rice (Mass.), Robbins, Robinson (Mass.), Robinson (Ind.), Ross, Ryan, Sampson, Sapp, Sexton, Shallenberger, Sinnickson, Smalls, Smith (Pa.), Starin, Steager, Stewart, Stone (Mich.), Stone (Iowa), Strait, Swann, Thompson, Tipton, Townsend (Ohio), Townsend (N. Y.), Van Vorhes, Veeder, Waddell, Wait, Ward, Warner, Watson, White (Ind.), Williams (N. Y.), Williams (Wis.), Williams (Del.), Willins (Oregon), Willits, Wood, and Wren—141.

NAYS—Messrs. Aiken, Atkins, Bannitz, Beale, Bell, Bickwell, Blackburn, Blount, Bowen, Briggs, Bright, Brogden, Buckner, Butler, Cabell, Caldwell (Ky.), Caldwell (Tenn.), Chalmers, Clark (Ky.), Clark (Mo.), Clymer, Cobb, Collins, Cook, Cox (N. Y.), Crevens, Crittenden, Culbertson, Culler, Davidson, Davis (N. C.), Dibrell, Durham, Eden, Eham, Evins (S. C.), Ewing, Felton, Finley (Ohio), Fleming, Forney, Fort, Franklin, Fuller, Garth, Gause, Giddings, Glover, Goode, Gunter, Hamilton, Harris (Ga.), Harris (Va.), Harrison, Hatcell, Hatcher, Herbert, Hooker, House, Jones (Ala.), Kelley, Kenna, Kimmell, Knapp, Knott, Landers, Ligon, Luttrell, Lynde, Mackey, Manning, Martin, McKenzie, McMahon, Mills, Morey, Morgan, Muldrow, Oliver, Patterson (Col.), Phelps, Phillips, Pridemore, Rea, Reagan, Reilley, Rice (Ohio), Robertson (La.), Scales, Shelley, Singleton, Siemons, Smith (Ga.), Southard, Sparks, Springer, Steele, Throckmorton, Townshend (Ill.), Turner, Turney, Vance, Whitthorne, Wiggleton, Williams (Va.), Willis (Ky.), Wilson, Wright, and Young (La.)—110.

After disposing of several bills on the table, the bill was reached restricting the immigration of Chinese, with the Senate amendments thereto.

Mr. WILLIS (Ky.) moved to concur in the Senate amendments.

Mr. WILSON urged non-concurrence. He desired to have read those sections of the treaty with China which were affected by the bill.

To this Mr. LUTTRELL objected, whereupon Mr. WILSON remarked that the House was making a blunder on that subject which it would hereafter regret.

Mr. WHITE (Pa.) moved to adjourn.

Mr. LUTTRELL. I want the House to notice that it is a Republican who is trying to defeat this bill.

Mr. WHITE. I am opposed to the bill, and I do not care who knows it.

Mr. WHITE then moved to lay the bill and the amendments on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was defeated—yeas, 95; nays, 140. The Senate amendments were then concurred in without a division. The bill now goes to the President for his approval.

The Senate amendments to the bill reducing the tax on tobacco were then taken up.

Mr. TUCKER, by instruction from the Committee on Ways and Means, moved a non-concurrence in the amendments and the appointment of a committee of conference.

Mr. FOSTER, although opposed to the bill and amendments, moved concurrence in the Senate amendments as a test question.

Mr. DUNNELL moved to lay the bill and amendments on the table. Negatived—yeas, 77; nays, 112.

There was a scene of great confusion and uproar in respect to the manner in which the amendments should be voted on. The Speaker suggested that the vote should be taken on the amendments in gross except as to those on which separate votes should be demanded.

Separate votes were demanded on the amendments as to the tax on banks and the tax on matches, and then

Mr. TOWNSEND (N. Y.) insisted on having the amendments voted on one by one.

The first amendment, on the subject of bonds of collectors, was read and concurred in. The second amendment, being merely verbal, was also concurred in. The third amendment (for the appointment of thirty-five internal revenue agents) was then read and concurred in.

Mr. BUCHANAN suggested that, as the amendments were not printed, the House should adjourn and let the amendments come up on Monday.

Mr. TUCKER appealed to the friends of the bill to vote against adjournment and to dispose of the amendments to-night.

The House refused to adjourn.

On the next vote there was no quorum voting, and the proposition to adjourn was renewed, several members declaring that as they could not see the amendments in print they could not vote intelligently.

The House again refused to adjourn—60 to 93.

After another scene of confusion the Speaker extracted another vote from the difficulty, and at his suggestion all the amendments were concurred in in gross, with the exception of those referring to the tax on rectifiers, the tax on matches, the tax on banks, and to the time when the bill shall take effect. These amendments will come up on Monday, and in the meantime the amendments are to be printed.

The sundry civil appropriation bill was reported and ordered printed.

The House then, at 6:30, took a recess till Monday morning, at ten o'clock.

GRAIN MARKET.

Wheat—Owing to the present limited supply of wheat, there is but little doing, and we do not hear of any important transactions. The market continues firm and buoyant and full rates are freely paid for the best descriptions. We quote good to prime Fultz at $1 @ $1 07 and Lancaster at $1 @ $1 10.

Corn—There is a good milling demand for yellow and white corn and we quote nominally at 44@ 45c.

GEORGETOWN NEWS.

Collected by Republican Reporters.

Both Houses of the Virginia Legislature have passed a bill giving the assent of the State to the acquisition of the necessary land for the abutment and approaches of the proposed bridge across the Potomac river at or near Three Sisters Islands, as proposed in the bill which passed the House in December last and is now in the hands of the Senate Committee on the District of Columbia, by which it will probably be reported to the Senate within a day or two. The bill passed the House without opposition, and will doubtless meet with none in the Senate.

Saturday afternoon Sergeant Hess arrested a colored boy aged eighteen years, named Lewis Honesty, charged with assaulting Ida Honesty. He was locked up for a hearing in the Police Court this morning.

George Baker, a colored boy, seventeen years of age, was arrested Saturday evening by Officer Augustus Hess, on the charge of stealing a lot of cigars from George Collins on Thursday evening last.

In an interview with Mr. Borst, president of the Narrow Gauge Railroad, yesterday, he expressed the opinion that the road would be finished from Georgetown to Falls Church by the 1st of April.

The second amendment offered by him is as follows:

"Provided, That the money hereafter received from any sale of United States bonds shall be applied only to the redemption of other bonds bearing the highest rate of interest, and subject to call; And provided, That whenever, from time to time, the proceeds of the sales of bonds shall aggregate $5,000,000, the Secretary of the Treasury shall issue a call for that amount of bonds, and the interest on the bonds called for redemption shall cease to thirty days from the date of such call; and all United States notes received into the Treasury shall be reissued and kept in circulation without change in the aggregate amount of the several denominations existing on May 31, 1878; and it shall not be lawful to issue legal-tender notes of a larger denomination than $1,000."

After a protracted debate the bill and amendments were, on motion of Mr. Garfield, laid on the table—yeas, 111; nays, 110; as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Bacon, Bagley, Bailey, Baker (Md.), Baker (N. BRYAN'S
ELECTRIC BELTS,
A SELF-CURE, WITHOUT MEDICINE,
For all Diseases Arising From a Loss of Vital Force.
Dyspepsia, Paralysis, Rheumatism, Epilepsy, Hysteria, Weak Lungs, Nervous Debility, Weakness, Kidney Complaints, Impotency, and Physical Prostration.
This improvement in electric appliances embraces the effective properties of older inventions without requiring vinegar or other liquid to excite action. The metals in this belt are so nicely adjusted that the heat and moisture of the body is sufficient to evolve the current of Electricity. They encircle the body with Electric and Magnetic influence, restore the Nervous and Debilitated, and impart New Life and Strength to the waning organism.
THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF NEW YORK has this year awarded A DIPLOMA FOR THIS INVENTION, after having been thoroughly examined and tested by the eminent Physicians and Electricians appointed for the purpose by the Directors of the Institution. Some of the most eminent physicians of the city have certified to the merits of this Therapeutic agent.
Read the following from Dr. Guernsey, No. 18 West Twenty-third street: "I have used Bryan's Electric Voltaic Belts with very decided benefit. In all cases where continued action is required they give very decided satisfaction. Their construction is thoroughly scientific, and physicians will find them of great aid in cases that resist every other form of treatment.
HENRY GUERNSEY, M. D."
JOSEPH SAUNDERS says: "My disease, nervous debility, and all its horrors, unfitted me for business, society, or domestic life. Your belt has proved a sovereign balm and effected a perfect cure."
