CITY NOTES.

—Good board and rooms at the Holly Tree.

—Seventeen lodgers were accommodated in the station-houses Saturday night.

—Turco-Russian and sulphur baths, 903 E st. n. w., cures and prevents malaria.

—The attendance at the out-door concert at the President's grounds last Saturday was very large.

—The police made fifty-two arrests during Saturday and Saturday night. Sixteen were registered "drunk."

—Excellent drip coffee served with those sumptuous twenty-five-cent meals at the Bayard House, corner Tenth and E streets.

—To-morrow evening the farewell ball given to the graduating classes of the Naval Academy by the classes of '80 will come off at Annapolis.

—Fifteen pupils from the Boys' Advanced School entered the competitive examination for the Kendall and King scholarships at the Franklin School last Saturday.

—The excursion season has not yet opened actively. The fare to Norfolk and return has been reduced so low that excursion managers have little encouragement.

—Robert and James Washington, two colored men, arrested some days ago for stealing fish from a Glymont fisherman named Posey, and discharged by Judge Snell, were rearrested on a requisition from Maryland Saturday night and taken to Prince George's County yesterday.

—Lawyers S. R. Bond and H. T. Wiswall had an altercation in the Circuit Court room Saturday morning. Mr. Bond threw Mr. Wiswall to the floor, when other gentlemen interfered and prevented further hostilities. The matter was finally arranged to the satisfaction of all parties.

—A horse belonging to Lewis J. Collins, of Falls Church, Va., ran away on Bridge street, Georgetown, Saturday, and Mr. Collins was thrown from his wagon and seriously injured.

—Religious meetings are held Sunday evenings by street evangelists at the corner of Eighth street and Pennsylvania avenue. Last evening a score or more knelt in prayer on the pavement. The scene was the most impressive in contrast with the moving throng of pleasure seekers hastening by.

—In looking at the cut of the National nine, as published in one of the Sunday papers yesterday, a person is led to believe that the picture was taken immediately after receiving the pounding administered by the Manchester team. A more completely "bunged up" set of men than they appear it would be hard to find.

A Kindergarten Commencement.

The second annual commencement of the Kindergarten Training School was the occasion of much interest to those who met at the Riggs House Saturday evening. The red parlor was handsomely decorated. A long table on one side contained practical exhibitions of the Kindergarten system of training. The first objects presented to the child, balls of various colors, cubes, cylinders, clay molds, miniature houses, landscapes, furniture, and specimens of weaving, and hundreds of curious and beautiful objects were exhibited. Over the centre of the table was Froebel's maxim, "Let Us Live With Our Children," and about this ferns and flowers were tastefully arranged. The graduates, Miss Nellie A. Rich, of New York; Miss Dora N. Brown, of Washington; Miss H. Estelle Dudley, of New York, and Miss Elmira C. Morton, of New York, with their teacher, Miss Graves, occupied seats near the table. Rev. A. P. Mason opened the exercises with prayer, followed by an essay, "Synopsis of Froebel's Life," by Miss Rich. Miss Brown read an essay, "Kindergarten Gift." Miss Dudley followed with an essay on "Kindergarten Occupations," and Miss Morton read an essay on "The Old and New Way." The essays were all scholarly, instructive, and pertinent explanations of the system of training. Miss Graves presented the diplomas and Rev. Dr. Mason pronounced the benediction. The exercises were pleasantly varied with music. The young ladies were the recipients of many floral offerings.

A Deaf-Mute Society.

A meeting of the deaf-mute residents of this city was held Saturday evening in the Y. M. C. A. chapel, at which an organization, to be known as the Kitto Mutual Benefit Association was affected. A constitution was adopted and officers to serve the ensuing year elected, as follows: President C. W. K. Strong, of the Treasury Department; vice-president, J. E. Ellegood, of the Government Printing-Office; secretary, George C. Sawyer; treasurer, John Hipkins; executive committee, John A. Prince (chairman), W. A. Doule, and John Humphry. The object of the association is to seek for the social and intellectual advancement of the mutes and to provide religious instruction on the Sabbath to all. The Bible class met yesterday morning in the vestry of E Street Baptist Church and was well attended. The study was "The Sermon on the Mount." The class will meet hereafter in the chapel of the Young Men's Christian Association building until quarters of their own can be provided. Those of the public who are interested in the welfare of the deaf and dumb are cordially invited to attend the services.

A Boy Shot While at Dinner.

About one o'clock yesterday afternoon two colored men entered the eating-saloon of G. R. Williams, No. 1116 First street northwest, and called for something to eat. They were waited upon, and while seated at the table one of the men named Lamma Tolliver became engaged in a dispute with a boy named John Haskins, who was seated at another table. A fight followed, during which Tolliver drew a pistol and shot Haskins in the stomach. The wounded lad was taken to Dr. Newton's office, who probed for the ball, but was unable to find it. The doctor stated that the wound was a serious one, and might result fatally. Immediately after shooting Haskins Tolliver ran out of the saloon, and up to midnight had not been arrested. The wounded boy, who is in the employ of Mr. Joseph Williams, is represented to be a quiet, inoffensive lad, and the quarrel between him and his assailant was the work of the latter.

Hopelessly Hung.

The jury in the cases of Patrick McNamara, James Shugrue, Henry Harry, James Boland, Morris Roach, and George Luotner, were locked up again last evening, for the third night. They came into court last Saturday afternoon, the foreman stated that they had agreed as to one of the defendants, but could not reach a verdict as to the remainder. After receiving some instructions from the court they again retired. It is understood that the verdict reached is in the case of James Boland, and for acquittal. From all the information that could be obtained last night, it is believed that the jury cannot agree to a verdict as to the guilt of innocence of the remaining accused parties.

C.; Mary Landers, Indianapolis, Ind.; Caroline Waugh Morgan, Washington, D. C.; Adelina E. Smith, Washington, D. C.; Julia May Somers, Beatrice, Neb.; Therese Elizabeth Tilley, Indianapolis, Ind., and Villa Welch, Vineland, N. J. The diplomas will be presented by President Hayes.

Confederate Decoration.

The Southern Memorial Association held a meeting Saturday. It was agreed to decorate the Confederate graves next Friday, the 13th instant. At Oak Hill Cemetery the services will be conducted at half-past two p. m., under the direction of Mr. H. W. Brewer. The ceremonies at Arlington will commence at five p. m., and consist of a prayer and an address by Congressman Blackburn.

Gospel Temperance Meeting in the Police Court—Rev. Clay Macauley's Sermon on William Lloyd Garrison — Children's Day Exercises in the M. E. Churches—A Lesson by Dr. Owen.

Sunday Services at the Police Court.

A Gospel temperance meeting was held in the Police Court room yesterday afternoon, at which Mr. S. C. Mills presided. After prayer by Rev. Mr. Kramer a volunteer choir, under the leadership of Mr. W. T. Nimmo, sang several stirring temperance hymns. The president then addressed the meeting, saying that, as Rev. C. W. Denison had been unable to carry out his plan for meetings at the Police Court, the Dashaway Temperance Society thought Sunday afternoon could be utilized by holding temperance meetings there. This was the second meeting, and the movement already began to show signs of becoming popular. He hoped that in a short time they would have to move out into a larger hall, as he expected the court-room would be too small to hold those who would wish to attend the meetings. No sect would be recognized, but all visitors, no matter what their opinions, would be welcome. The meeting was then addressed by Messrs. Thompson, Savage, Oliphant, Eggleston, and others, after which the benediction was pronounced and the audience dismissed until next Sunday afternoon, at half-past three o'clock.

Mount Zion M. E. Church.

Rev. Dr. Owens, pastor of Mount Zion M. E. Church, occupied the pulpit at that church yesterday morning and preached an interesting sermon, taking for his text Exodus xxxiii., 14—, "And he said, My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest." He designated the above as a life-restoring promise, because without it all would have been death. He then recounted the flight of the Israelites, when Moses was upon the Mount, the demoralizing state into which they fell blasphemy they heaped upon him, making idols and repudiating God's ministers and His service and the command of God to Moses to tell His children that He would not go with them more. Unless God should help them they must perish forever. At this moment they awakened and repented deeply and long, and wept and prayed unto the Lord, saying that if He would deliver them they would honor and serve Him as long as they should live. He then told how Moses tested them and the glory of God came down and rested on the whole place. What we understand by the presence of God is, said he, the Divine consciousness in the heart of the believer in the goodness of God.

Children's Day.

The event in the Methodist Episcopal churches yesterday was the celebration of "Children's Day," the morning being devoted in each church to interesting exercises by the children. In many of the churches the floral offerings and decorations were of a very elegant description. Appropriate sermons were delivered in most of the churches. Dr. Naylor, at the Metropolitan Church last evening, preached on the subject, "The Church and the Cradle."

During the exercises by the Sunday school at Waugh M. E. Church last evening Hon. William S. Shallenberger, of Pennsylvania, delivered an appropriate address. Congressman Hayes, of Illinois, delivered an address at Hamline Church, and Hon. B. F. Martin, of West Virginia, addressed the children at Foundry Church.

The twenty-second anniversary of the Sunday School City Missionary Society was held at the First Presbyterian Church, on Four-and-a-half street, last evening, and the exercises were very interesting.

William Lloyd Garrison.

At All Souls' Church last evening Mr. Macauley paid an appropriate tribute to the memory of William Lloyd Garrison. Mr. Garrison of late years fraternized more nearly with the Unitarian denomination than with any other, although in early life a decided Calvinist. Among his coadjutors were such Unitarians as Samuel J. May, Theodore Parker, William Furness, and a few others; but Mr. Garrison belonged to no sect. Mr. Macauley dwelt chiefly on his Christian character, his purity and fidelity, virtues so vital to a great reformer. The preacher commended the example of Mr. Garrison to all in public and private life.

Charged With Perjury.

Joseph J. Johnson, a witness before the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections, was arrested by Detective McDevitt Saturday on a warrant charging him with perjury, sworn out before Justice Richards by Charles Cavanac. Johnson was taken to the Police Court, and released on bonds in the sum of $500, the hearing being postponed until to-morrow. The alleged perjury consisted in falsely swearing before the committee on the 5th instant, that he (Johnson) did not dictate a single line or word contained in an affidavit offered in evidence.

Architect Tolman's Case.

The case of embezzlement against Architect George R. Tolman, in which Commissioner Phelps charges him with retaining certain plans and specifications, had a partial hearing in the Police Court last Saturday. The case involves the right of an architect to withhold or retain in his possession plans or specifications in which he may have been employed to make. Experts were examined and testified that it was the custom of architects to retain their drawings. Judge Snell was of the opinion that custom did not make law. The case was continued again until next Saturday.

THE MEXICAN VETERANS.

Eulogies of General James Shields and General D. H. Cooper.

The Associated Veterans of 1846, of Washington, D. C., held their regular monthly assembly Saturday night, with Major-General Samuel P. Heintzelman in the chair, the president, General J. W. Denver, being absent in Ohio.

After calling the roll of the local survivors the Secretary, Mr. A. M. Kenaday, said the sad duty devolved on him to announce the recent sudden departure to his final rest of a distinguished veteran among veterans, General James Shields, late Senator from Missouri, who had endeared himself to all men who had the honor to participate in the glorious actions on the battle-fields of Mexico, where he had won high distinction on several occasions for gallantry and meritorious conduct.

At Cerro Gordo he was thought to be mortally wounded on the 18th of April, 1847, but recovered strength sufficient to lead his brave command in the battle of Cherubusco on the 20th of August following, and again at the storming of Chapultepec, on the 13th of September. In this action (so graphically portrayed on the wall of the Senate wing of the Capitol approaching the western gallery, where the General is shown dismounted and coatless, with his arm in a sling, receiving the order from Quitman to storm the heights) he was again severely wounded. His military services won the admiration, unmixed with envy, of men who knew how to estimate their worth.

Mr. Kenaday also recounted the unusual honors won by General Shields in civil life, stating that during his last term as a Senator from Missouri his abilities were mainly devoted to the laudable aim of placing the names of his old companions-in-arms on the American "Cordon of the Legion of Honor," the pension roll, to which their services under the flag, he contended, pre-eminently entitled them in their declining years.

Announcement was also made of the death of General Douglas H. Cooper, formerly a vice-president of the Washington Association, who died in Indian Territory in the latter part of April. General Cooper was a captain in Jefferson Davis' regiment of Mississippi Rifles, and his distinguished bravery at Monterey and Buena Vista contributed greatly to the fame achieved by that gallant regiment, which every true veteran concedes was nobly earned.

The secretary was directed to prepare the customary obituary notices of the deceased, to be recorded in the journal of proceedings. After transacting the usual routine business the association adjourned.

National Theatre—Manager Ford's Benefit.

The performance of "Ingomar," on the occasion of the testimonial tendered to Mr. John T. Ford, at the National, next Wednesday evening, will be, in a dramatic sense, an event of no little importance. It is seldom that the theatre goers of any community are permitted to see two tragedians such as Mr. John McCullough and Miss Mary Anderson cast in the same play. "Ingomar" affords excellent scope for a combination of this sort. Parthenia is pronounced to be Miss Anderson's greatest character, and the part of Ingomar Mr. McCullough has played with great success, making it one of the strongest roles in his repertoire. The box-sheet will be opened at nine o'clock this morning. The price of admission is $1, no extra charge being made for secured places.

Summer Theatre Comique.

The Summer Theatre Comique will be reopened this evening. The managers have arranged another "solid" variety entertainment, for which a score of fine specialty performers have been engaged. Among the artists are the Sherwood Sisters, Reynolds and Walling, Louise Murio, the Suydam Brothers, the Austins, Ophelia Starr, Mulligan and Morris, and George Elwood. Jake Budd, John Robinson, and other members of the regular company will present "A Messenger from Alexandria," and other sketches.

Ford's Opera House To-Night.

The stage attaches of the National Theatre have been tendered a benefit performance to take place to-night. The comedy of "The Poor Gentleman" will be presented with a strong cast from the Thalian Club, and the quarrel scene from "Julius Cæsar" will be rendered, with Mr. Robert L. Downing as Brutus, and Mr. James Bangs as Cassius.

CITY ITEMS.

TELL your wife to buy Burnett's Flavoring Extracts.

YE pimpled, blotched, and ulcerated victims of scrofulous diseases, who drag your unclean persons into the company of better men, take AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and purge out the foul corruption from your blood. Restore your health, and you will not only enjoy life better, but make your company more tolerable to those who must keep it.

WHAT intense pain is caused by tooth-ache. How many sleepless nights and weary days are due to its racing influence. Yet the true cause of all this torment is decayed teeth, produced by neglect and inattention. Could only those who have at present good, sound teeth fully realize this fact, how careful would they be to keep their teeth in good condition. To all such we will give a word of advice. Clean your teeth daily with a good dentifrice, such as THURSTON'S IVORY PEARL TOOTH POWDER. It will preserve your teeth through life, remove all tartar or extraneous matter, keep them clean, sound and white, and tooth-ache, with all its horrors, will be unknown. Sold by all druggists, &c., at 25 and 50 cents per bottle.

How many thousands suffer from biliousness, dyspepsia, &c., and drag on a miserable existence—not ill enough to remain at home and call in medical assistance, yet feeling sufficiently unwell to destroy all the pleasure of life. They suffer daily, and solely for want of some simple remedy to purge and cleanse the system. QUINN'S IRISH TEA is specially adapted for this purpose. Gentle in its effects, yet it carries off all extraneous matter, and leaves the vital organs clear and unobstructed. It purifies the blood and renovates the entire frame. It is truly Nature's remedy, being entirely herbal. Sold by all druggists. Twenty-five cents per package, each making a quart of medicine.

WELLS' MACHINE SPREAD STRENGTHENING PLASTERS are superior to all others. Composed of choice medicinal gums, combined with the true Burgundy Pitch, spread on fine soft lamb skin, they afford mechanical support to the affected parts, and, acting by absorption, relieves almost instantly. For pains in the back or side, caused either by indigestion, rheumatism, or strain, they are unrivaled. Sold by all druggists; 25 cents each.

THOMPSON'S POMADE OPTIME, an oleaginous compound of great merit for dressing and cleansing the hair. Sold by all druggists; 25 and 50 cents per bottle.

BUTLER'S BALSAMIC MIXTURE, the old infallible remedy. Sold by druggists; price, $1 per bottle.

WILSON'S COMPOUND OF PURE COD-LIVER OIL AND LIME.—The advantages of this compound over the plain Oil is, that the nauseating taste of the Oil is entirely removed, and the whole rendered entirely palatable. The offensive taste of the Oil has long acted as a great objection to its use; but in this form the trouble is entirely obviated. A host of certificates might be given here to testify to the excellence and success of "Wilson's Cod-Liver Oil and Lime," but the fact that it is regularly prescribed by the medical faculty is sufficient. For sale by A. B. Wilbor, Chemist, Boston, and by all druggists.
