GEORGETOWN NEWS.

Collected by Republican Reporters.

The long-anticipated marriage of Mr. Isaac Birch, son of Mr. Joseph Birch, one of Georgetown's most prominent citizens, and Miss Minnie Graves, daughter of Mr. J. B. Graves, well known in this community, took place yesterday afternoon at the West-street Presbyterian Church, at 4:30 o'clock. Old Sol never beamed more radiantly than on this occasion, and the day in all respects was most auspicious for the two young people who pledged their vows before the hymenial altar. The church was completely filled in ample season. Music from the organ by Professor Pond announced the entrance of the bride and groom, accompanied by the ushers, Messrs. William D. Brace, Claude Barrett, W. Riley Deeble and William Jackson. On reaching the large and beautiful floral arch in front of the pulpit the party halted and here Rev. S. H. Howe quickly tied the nuptial knot. The newly married couple then left the church, entered their carriage and departed for Philadelphia, to be gone several weeks. The bride was richly dressed in a pearl-colored cashmere trimmed with fringe and satin to match. Many and costly presents were bestowed upon them, and good wishes of all Georgetown followed.
