The other changes were as follows: An advance of 1 per cent. in Iron Mountain second preferred income, do firsts preferred income; Mobile Kansas and Texas firsts consol assented, Ohio and Mississippi second, Lehigh & Wilkesbarre consols assented, and Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg firsts consol, ¾ in Cedar Rapids & Northern firsts, ⅝ in Wabash seconds (ex-coupon), ½ in Boston, Hartford and Erie firsts, Canada Southern firsts guaranteed, Kansas Pacific (Denver div.) sixes with coupon certificates and Iron Mountain seconds, ⅜ in Northwestern gold sevens, and ¼ in Jersey Central firsts, consol assented. The stock market was buoyant in the early dealings and prices advanced ½@4½ per cent., the latter C. C. C. & I. The coal shares and Erie were also very prominent in the improvement. During the afternoon there was a reaction of ½@2½ per cent., Michigan Central leading the decline. Toward the close the speculation assumed a strong tone, and the final dealings showed a recovery of ¼@1½ per cent, the coal shares and Erie exhibiting marked buoyancy. The rise in the coal stocks was based on the improved demand for coal, caused by the revival of the iron industry throughout the country, which resulted in an advance in the prices of coal, and which, it is reported, will be shortly followed by another advance. The decline in Michigan Central was due to the announcement of the accident on that road at Jackson, Michigan. The total sales aggregated 583,000 shares, of which 158,000 were Erie, 11,000 Lake Shore, 30,000 Northwestern, 30,000 St. Paul, 8,000 Wabash, 49,000 Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, 49,000 New Jersey Central, 11,000 Delaware & Hudson, 5,000 Morris & Essex, 11,000 Michigan Central, 14,000 Union Pacific, 7,000 C. GEORGETOWN NEWS.

Collected by Republican Reporters.

Colonel Chapman, U. S. A., is spending a few days' vacation among his many friends of this place.

The people of Georgetown will be pained to hear of the death of Rev. Samuel Cornelius, which took place in Georgetown on last Wednesday. The remains will be forwarded here.

In order to give greater scope for carrying on of their increasing business of retailing the frozen element, Barker Brothers have just torn down one of their adjoining frame buildings, which was considered as one of the old landmarks of Georgetown. It was a famous resort in times gone by, and under the proprietorship of Crouse, a character well known to the older inhabitants of this town, many of whom assembled here to while the merry hours away. But the building at last had to give way to the march of progress, and leaves naught of its former existence save its recollection. While under course of demolition a hatchet was found beneath the floor, which is supposed to have been left there over twenty-five years ago. It was in good condition except the handle, which was too rotten to be of any service.

Excelsior Tent No. 37, I. O. R.—that is, the original portion of said tent—returned last night from their long-proposed visit to Alexandria. Arrangements were made to make the trip per canal packet, but in consequence of the unfinished condition of the aqueduct bridge this mode of conveyance had to be abandoned and the cars resorted to. Anyhow, the aforesaid tent reached the far-famed somniferous town, and were accorded a most glorious reception. They were duly met at the station by fraternal lodges and marched about town till their lower limbs gave out, upon which Captain Joshua Ellis invited them to his residence, where a bountiful feast was awaiting the hungry Rechabites. The order was accompanied by fifteen pieces of music and the way they made old Alexandria resound was startling. After appropriately serenading the editor of the Gazette, the excursion party returned home at the latest possible hour. This tent proposes to give a grand ball on Thanksgiving eve.
