1873. THE AGE. 1873

A LEADING DAILY AND WEEKLY NEWSPAPER.

The Firm Advocate of Democratic Principles. No Expenditure and Energy Spared to Maintain it in the First Rank of Journalism.

For the past ten years The Age has been the firm and earnest defender of the great principles enunciated by the founders of the Republic and incorporated in its institutions. Seeking no alliance with cliques or "Rings," it has been subject to no corrupt influence, but has always labored without fear or favor for the general good.

It has, therefore, been the persistent and vigilant advocate of all reforms, general as well as municipal.

Receiving no aid from official patronage, The Age relies on the subscriptions and support of Democrats, and of fair and intelligent citizens who desire to see men and measures freely discussed, knowing that free and fearless discussion by the press is now the best defence of all private rights and public interests.

In the varying fortunes of parties, the intelligent and patriotic will rally to sustain free, pure, civil government, for the people and by the people, to oppose corruption and usurpation, and to preserve and purify the American institutions that made our country the "Model Republic" of the world.

Its administration, in the spirit in which it was formed, can only be conducted on what we claim as true Democratic principles, for which The Age will still contend with an unflinching faith in their ultimate triumph.

THE DAILY AGE CONTAINS:

1 The latest intelligence from all parts of the world.

2 Articles on Government, Trade, Politics, Finance and all the current questions of the day.

3 Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotations, Marine and Commercial Intelligence.

4 Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Letters, Reviews of Books, &c.

5 Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music.

6 Agricultural Matters, and Discussions of all Subjects of General Interest and Importance.

7 Special Telegrams, and all the Dispatches of the Associated Press, from every part of the World.

The Age is the only Democratic morning paper in Philadelphia in the English language, and is therefore one of the best mediums for Advertising.

It is a newspaper for those outside of the great cities who are without regular daily mail facilities, but desire to be kept informed of what is transpiring around them, combining home duties with domestic instruction and recreation.

It is one of the best sources for Stories, original and selected by the best authors; Poetic Gems, from ever available sources; Choice Miscellany, Scientific, Amusing and Instructive; a column of Sunday Reading and Religious Intelligence; an AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, conducted by a practical Agriculturist, Mr. Thomas J. Eige, now earning a living upon a rented farm in Chester county; in which all questions are considered which have an interest for the tillers of the soil; Weekly Contributions for the Children; Editorial Briefs; News Items, &c.; Able Editorials, and a carefully prepared compendium of Foreign and Domestic News; Washington, New York and Miscellaneous Correspondence; Financial and Commercial Statistics; Full Markets; Selected Advertisements, to which a very limited space is appropriated, &c.

With all these advantages, the Weekly Age is acknowledged to be the best Family Journal printed in Philadelphia.

BEGIN WITH THE NEW YEAR.

TERMS OF THE DAILY AGE: One year, by mail, $8 00 Six months, 4 25 Three months, 2 25

For any period less than three months, at the rate of one dollar per month. Payment required invariably in advance.

TERMS OF THE WEEKLY AGE: One copy, one year, $1 50 Ten copies, 12 50 Twenty copies, 22 00

The following reduced rates will be charged when the papers ordered are sent to one person, and not addressed severally to the names of the club: Twenty copies, $20 00 Fifty copies, 50 00

Specimens will be furnished gratis for getting up a club of twenty or more for one year. We have no Traveling Agents authorized to recruit for us. Specimen copies sent free on application. Address: ROBB & BIDDLE, Nos. 14 and 16 South 7th St., Philadelphia, Jan 9, 1873.

THE ILLUSTRATED Phrenological Journal,

VOLUME FIFTY-FIFTH, 1873.

The Science of mind is the central point around which revolves the whole circle of the sciences. The Origin of Races, involving the Origin of Life, earnestly discussed by Ethnologists and Physiologists, cannot fail to interest the truth-seeker.

Psychology and Phrenology are prominent features, embracing the subjects of Soul, Mind, Bodily Structures and Functions, Social Relations, Education, Religion, Criminal Jurisprudence, &c.

Self-improvement—All the gains of Science and Art should be applied to perfecting ourselves and improving the race.

The Phrenological Journal is the result of a normal education and development, and a life according to the laws of life.

The Phrenological Journal for 1873—will keep pace with the march of events, scientific, social, and political, and seek to declare the good and true.

TERMS—Monthly, at $3 a year, in advance. Single numbers, 30 cts. Clubs of ten or more, $2 each. And the ANXIOUS MOTHER, a splendid Oil Chromo, price $5, given to every subscriber. Our Chromos are now ready for delivery. If sent by mail mounted and a rush-made, ready for framing, 30 cts. extra must be sent for each picture.

Premiums—Besides Club Rates, we are offering liberal premiums, a list of which will be sent on application. Local Agents wanted everywhere, and cash commissions given. Send P. O. Orders, or registered Letter. Address all letters to S. R. WATTS, Publisher, 389 Broadway, New York, Feb 20, 1873.

THE Scientific American,

FOR 1873.

BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED.

The Scientific American, now in its 28th year, enjoys the widest circulation of any analogous periodical in the world.

Its contents embrace the latest and most interesting information pertaining to the Industrial, Mechanical, and Scientific Progress of the World; Descriptions, with Beautiful Engravings, of New Inventions, New Implements, New Processes, and Improved Industries of all kinds; Useful Notes, Facts, Recipes, Suggestions and Advice, by Practical Writers, for Workmen and Employers, in all the various Arts.

Descriptions of Improvements, Discoveries, and Important Works, pertaining to Civil and Mechanical Engineering, Milling, Mining and Metallurgy; Records of the latest progress in the Applications of Steam, Steam Engineering, Railways, Ship-building, Navigation, Telegraphy, Telegraph Engineering, Electricity, Magnetism, Light and Heat.

The latest Discoveries in Photography, Chemistry, New and Useful Applications of Chemistry in the Arts and in Domestic or Household Economy.

The latest information pertaining to Technology, microscopy, mathematics, astronomy, geography, meteorology, mineralogy, geology, zoology, botany, horticulture, agriculture, architecture, rural economy, household economy, food, lighting, heating, ventilation and health.

In short the whole range of the sciences and practical arts are embraced within the scope of the Scientific American. No person who desires to be intelligently informed can afford to be without this paper.

Farmers, mechanics, engineers, inventors, makers of maps, chemists, lovers of science, teachers, clergymen, lawyers, and people of all professions, will find the Scientific American to be of great value. It should have a place in every family, library, study, office and counting room; in every reading room, college, academy, or school.

Published weekly, splendidly illustrated, only $1 a year.

The yearly numbers of the Scientific American make two splendid volumes of nearly one thousand pages, equivalent in contents to Four Thousand ordinary Book Pages.

An Official List of all patents issued is published weekly. Specimen copies sent free. Address the publishers, MUNN & CO., 37 Park Row, New York.

IN CONNECTION WITH THE Scientific American, Messrs. MUNN & CO. are solicitors of American and Foreign Patents, have had over 25 years' experience, and have the largest establishment in the world. If you have made an invention, write them a letter and send a sketch; they will promptly inform you, free of charge, whether your device is new and patentable. They will also send you, free of charge, a copy of the Patent Laws in full, with instructions how to proceed to obtain a patent. Address MUNN & CO., 37 Park Row, New York.

Subscriptions to Scientific American received at this office. Nov 28, 1872.

"Unsurpassed, in its typography and wood engraving, by any periodical in the world." Christian Union, N. York

THE Illustrated Christian Weekly

FOR 1873

Will continue to merit the claim of its critics to be the "most domestic illustrated paper in the world." New portraits of eminent men, equal to those already given of Beecher, Spurgeon, Lowell, Mason, and others, are in preparation. Religious and domestic life-scenery in this and other lands, events of the day, are among the topics which will be illustrated in the best manner by such artists as Darley, Herrick, Beard, Dixon, and others. Each number of the paper will contain seven or more finely executed engravings.

In the literary department, Dr. C. S. Robinson, whose oriental sketches have been an acceptable feature of the paper the present year, will furnish a new series descriptive of life and customs in the East. On the conclusion of John S. C. Abbott's fascinating "History of William the Conqueror," other historical sketches from the same masterly pen will be forthcoming. S. E. Todd will give us a series of medium-priced houses, and show how to build them cheaply. Contributions may also be expected from Rev. Drs. Theodore L. Cuyler, Howard Crosby, J. C. Craighead, Cyrus Hamlin, J. E. Rankin, Prof. H. M. Baird and W. C. Wilkinson, Jacob Abbott, A. L. Noble, Mrs. E. L. Barr, Mrs. A. E. Barr, Mrs. M. E. Barr, Mrs. M. A. Denison, and other popular writers.

Two dollars a year. Two dollars a year.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH.

The Science of Health having been sustained together beyond our expectations, we are prepared to respond more fully to the popular demand for an honest and independent Hygienic Organ. We shall publish—

Popular Physiology, Illustrated, a complete explanation of the structure and functions of the human system; succinct and clear expositions, illustrated, of various diseases, with advice for their cure.

All Medical Systems, giving a history of all medical theories that have prevailed in all ages.

Domestic Economy, Household Affairs, Hygienic Cookery, the Selection and Preservation of Food, &c.

The Economy of Health—By adopting the Hygienic system, people would prevent the enormous waste caused by sickness and improper living.

The Labor Problem—Correct habits will insure the worker Health and Strength, pre-emptive of his independence.

Health is Hygiene—Health reform is the basis of all reform. What is more valuable than a sound mind in a sound body?

Terms—$2 a year; single numbers, 20 cts.; ten copies, $15, and an extra copy to agent.—The ANXIOUS MOTHER, a splendid Oil Chromo, price $5, given to every subscriber. Our Chromos are now ready for delivery. If sent by mail mounted and a rush-made, ready for framing, 30 cts. extra must be sent for each picture.

Premiums—Besides Club Rates, we are offering liberal premiums, a list of which will be sent on application. Local Agents wanted everywhere, and cash commissions given. Send P. O. Orders, or registered Letter. Address all letters to S. R. WATTS, Publisher, 389 Broadway, New York, Feb 20, 1873.

Harper's Magazine.

Notions of the Press.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and the literary culture that has kept pace with it, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Subscriptions.—1873.

"A Repository of Fashion, Pleasure, and Instruction"

Harper's Bazar.

Notions of the Press.

The Bazar is edited with a contribution of fact and taste that seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by its neat and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion-plates, in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to the ladies by its tasteful designs for embroidered shawls and luxuriant dressing gowns. But the reading-matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide and popular popularity for the first enjoyment it affords.—N. Y
