FIRE! FIRE! FIRE!

DWELLINGS, FURNITURE, BARN, OUT-HOUSES, FARM BUILDING, &c., insured on the Mutual Plan by the STATE OF MARYLAND MUTUAL FIRE Insurance Company OF BALTIMORE, Office No. 17 South street. B G HARRIS, President.

DIRECTORS: S H Caughey, Noah Walker & Co, Philip T George, George & Jenkins, T D Anderson, Anderson & Bro, John Stack, Carpenter and Builder, H N George Brent, Court of Appeals, George P Jenkins, Charles county, George Combs, St. Mary's county, I. C. Harris.

This is a Home Company, gotten up expressly in the interest of the citizens of Southern Maryland, to enable them to overcome the difficulties they experienced in procuring Insurance in the ordinary Insurance Companies, with a majority of its Directors well known in that community.

It has been in business now over four years. All losses accrued, and they have been unusually large, have been faithfully and promptly paid, which is our best guarantee for the future.

The plan adopted is the safest and cheapest known in Insurance, and affords to all insured by its exact cost, and ought to be encouraged by all who wish to protect their selves against loss or damage by fire.

If those interested will get their patronage and interest themselves in the increase of its business, in a few years it will rank among the largest Insurance corporations in Maryland, a credit and benefit to all, and an honor to the State.

1873. THE AGE. 1873

A LEADING DAILY AND WEEKLY NEWSPAPER.

The Firm Advocate of Democratic Principles. No Expenditure and Energy Spared to Maintain it in the First Rank of Journalism.

For the past ten years The Age has been the firm and earnest defender of the great principles enunciated by the founders of the Republic and incorporated in its institutions. Seeking no alliance with elites or "Rings," it has been subject to no corrupt influence, but has always labored without fear or favor for the general good. It has, therefore, been the persistent and vigilant advocate of all reforms, general as well as municipal.

Receiving no aid from official patronage, The Age relies on the subscriptions and support of Democrats, and of fair and intelligent citizens who desire to see men and measures freely canvassed, knowing that free and fearless discussion by the press is now the best defence of all private rights and public interests.

In the varying fortunes of parties, the intelligent and patriotic will rally to sustain free, pure, civil government, for the people and by the people, to oppose corruption and usurpation, and to preserve impartially the American institutions that made our country the "Model Republic" of the world. Its administrative and political spirit in which it was formed, can only be conducted on what we claim as true Democratic principles, for which The Age will still contend with an abiding faith in their ultimate triumph.

THE DAILY AGE CONTAINS:

1 The latest intelligence from all parts of the world.

2 Articles on Government, Trade, Politics, Finance and all the current questions of the day.

3 Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotations, Marine and Commercial Intelligence.

4 Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Legal Reports and Book Notices.

5 Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music.

6 Agricultural Matters, and Discussions of all Subjects of General Interest and Importance.

7 Special Telegrams, and all the Dispatches of the Associated Press, from every part of the World.

The Age is the only Democratic newspaper in Philadelphia in the English language, and is therefore one of the best mediums for Advertising.

THE WEEKLY AGE

is a newspaper for those outside of the great cities who are without regular daily facilities, and desire to be kept informed of what is transpiring around them, combining home duties with domestic instruction and recreation.

Its columns are devoted to: Stories, original and selected by the best authors; Poetic Gems, from every available source; Choice Miscellany, Scientific, Amusing and Instructive; a column of Sunday Reading and Religious Intelligence; an AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, conducted by a practical Agriculturist, Mr. Thomas J. Edge, now earning a living upon a rented farm in Chester county; in which all questions are considered which have an interest for the tillers of the soil; Weekly Contributions for the Children; Editorial Briefs; News Items, &c.; Able Editorials; and a carefully prepared compendium of Foreign and Domestic News, Washington, New York and Miscellaneous Correspondence; Religious and Commercial Statistics; Fall Markets; Select Advertisements, to which a very limited space is appropriated, &c.

With all these advantages, the Weekly Age is acknowledged to be the best Family Journal printed in Philadelphia.

TERMS OF THE DAILY AGE: One year, by mail, $8 00 Six months, 4 25 Three months, 2 25 For any period less than three months, at the rate of one dollar per month. Payment required invariably in advance.

TERMS OF THE WEEKLY AGE: One copy, one year, $1 50 Ten copies, 12 50 Twenty copies, 22 00 The following reduced rates will be charged when all the papers ordered are sent to one person, and not addressed severally to the members of the club: Twenty copies, $20 00 Fifty copies, 50 00 The copy will be furnished gratis for getting up a club of five or more for one year. We have no Travelling Agents, and are pleased to receive for us. Specimen copies sent free on application. ROSE & BIDDLE, Nos. 14 and 16 South 7th St., Philadelphia. Jan 9, 1873.

THE ILLUSTRATED

Phrenological Journal, VOLUME FIFTY-SIX, 1873.

The Science of mind is the central point around which revolves the whole circle of the sciences. It is the key to universal knowledge, and self-knowledge is the key to the Science of Mind. Phrenology, the basis of Mental Philosophy, Shows how human character and capacity are related to the universal laws; and how humanity is harmonized with Divinity.

"Know Thyself"—Since the Grecian sage inscribed the immortal words on the Temple of Delphi, the world has sought toward a solution of the problems of human existence.

The Origin of Races, Involving the Origin of Life, earnestly discussed by Ethnologists and Physiologists, cannot fail to interest the truth-seeker.

Physiology and Psychology are prominent features, embracing the subjects of Soul, Mind, Bodily Structures and Functions, Social Habits, Education, Religion, Criminal Jurisprudence, etc.

Physiognomy and Temperaments, Signs of Character, Penalties of Organization considered, with illustrations from life.

Self-improvement, All the gifts of Science and Art should be applied to perfecting our souls and improving the race.

Happy Homes are the result of a normal education, and a life according to the laws of life.

The Phrenological Journal for 1873 will keep pace with the march of events, scientific, social, and political, and seek to declare the good and true.

TERMS: Monthly, at $3 a year, in advance. Single numbers, 30 cts. Clubs of ten or more, $2 cts. per copy.

ANXIOUS MOTHER, a splendid Oil Chromo, price $5, given to every subscriber. Phrenological Journal, $3; Science of Health, $2 and the Chromo $8, all for $4.50. Our Chromo is now ready for delivery. If sent by mail, mounted and varnished, ready for framing, 30 cts. extra. Agents wanted everywhere, and cash commissions given. Send P. O. Orders, or registered Letter. Address all letters to S. R. Wells, Publisher, 389 Broadway, N. Y. Feb 20, 1873.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH.

The Science of Health having been sustained together beyond our expectations, we are prepared to respond more fully to the popular demand for an honest and independent Hygienic Organ. We shall publish—

Popular Physiology, illustrated, a complete explanation of the structure and functions of the human system; succinct and clear exposition, illustrated, of various diseases, with advice for their cure.

All Medical Systems, giving a history of all medical theories that have prevailed in all ages of the world.

Domestic Economy, Household Affairs, Hygienic Cookery, the Selection and Preservation of Food, etc.

The Economy of Health.—By adopting the Hygienic system, people would prevent the enormous waste caused by sickness and improper living.

The Labor Problem.—Correct habits will insure the worker the best and strength, pre-requisites for his independence.

Health is Happiness.—Health reform is the basis of all reform. What is more valuable than a sound mind in a sound body?

TERMS—$2 a year; single numbers, 20 cts.; ten copies, $15, and an extra copy to agent.—The

Illustrated Christian Weekly

FOR 1873

Will continue to merit the claim of its pages to be the handsomest illustrated paper in the world. New portraits of eminent men, equal to those already given of Beecher, Spurgeon, Lowell, Mason, and others, are in preparation. Religious work, at home and abroad, social and domestic life, scenery in this and other lands, events of the day, are among the topics which will be illustrated in the best manner by such artists as Darley, Herrick, Beard, Dixon, and others. Each number of the paper will contain seven or more finely executed engravings.

In the literary department, Dr. C. S. Robinson, whose original sketches have been an acceptable feature of the paper the present year, will furnish a new series descriptive of life and customs in the East. On the conclusion of John S. C. Abbott's fascinating "History of William the Conqueror," other historical sketches from the same masterly pen will be forthcoming. S. E. Todd will give us designs of medium-priced houses, and show how to build them cheaply. Contributions may also be expected from Rev. Drs. Theodore L. Cuyler, Howard Crosby, J. G. Craighead, Cyrus Hamlin, J. E. Rankin, Prof. H. M. Baird and W. C. Wilkinson, Jacob Abbott, A. L. Noble, Mrs. E. L. Barr, Mrs. A. E. Barr, Mrs. M. E. Miller, Mrs. M. A. Denton, and other popular writers.

Twelve pages weekly. Two dollars a year.

The cheapest Family Paper in the world. Agents wanted. Specimen copies free. American Tract Soc., Publishers, 150 Nassau street, New York. Dec 5, 1872.
