Peterson's Magazine
Cheapest and Best of All.
SPLENDID OFFERS FOR 1872.

THIS popular Monthly Magazine gives more for the money than any in the world. It has the best colored fashions, the best original stories, and the best engravings of any lady's work. Great and costly improvements will be made in 1872, when it will contain
One Thousand Pages!
Twenty-four Pages of Music!
Fourteen Splendid Steel Plates!
Twelve Colored Berlin Patterns!
Twenty Mammoth Colored Fashions
One Thousand Wood Cuts!
All this will be given for only two dollars a year, or a dollar less than Magazines of the class of "Peterson." Its Thrilling Tales and Novelties,
are the best published anywhere. All the most popular writers are employed to write originally for "Peterson." In 1872, in addition to its usual quantity of short stories, five original copyright Novelties will be given, viz: "Bought with a Price," by Ann S. Stephens; "The Island of Diamonds," by Harry Danworth; "Once too Often," by Frank Lee Benedict; "Lindsay's Luck," by Miss F. Hodgson; and "A Wife, Yet Not a Wife," by the author of "The Second Life."
Mammoth Colored Fashion Plates
Ahead of all others. These plates are engraved on steel, twice the usual size, and contain six figures. They will be superbly colored. Also, several pages of Household and other receipts; in short, everything interesting to ladies.

1873. THE AGE. 1873.
A LEADING DAILY AND WEEKLY NEWSPAPER.

The Firm Advocate of Democratic Principles. No Expenditure and Energy Spared to Maintain it in the First Rank of Journalism.
For the past ten years The Age has been the firm and earnest defender of the great principles enunciated by the founders of the Republic and incorporated in its institutions. Seeking no alliance with cliques or "Kings," it has been subject to no corrupt influences, but has always labored without fear or favor for the general good. It has, therefore, been the persistent and vigilant advocate of all reforms, general as well as municipal.
Receiving no aid from official patronage, The Age relies on the subscriptions and support of Democrats, and of fair and intelligent citizens who desire to see men and measures freely canvassed, knowing that free and fearless discussion by the press is now the best defence of all private rights and public interests.
In the varying fortunes of parties, the intelligent and patriotic will rally to sustain free, pure, civil government, for the people and by the people, to oppose corruption and usurpation, and to preserve and purify the American institutions that made our country the "Model Republic" of the world. Its administration, in the spirit in which it was formed, can only be conducted on what we claim as true Democratic principles, for which The Age will still contend with an abiding faith in their ultimate triumph.

THE DAILY AGE CONTAINS:
1 The latest intelligence from all parts of the world.
2 Articles on Government, Trade, Politics, Finance and all the current questions of the day.
3 Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotations, Marine and Commercial Intelligence.
4 Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Legal Reports and Book Notices.
5 Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music.
6 Agricultural Matters, and Discussions of all Subjects of General Interest and Importance.
7 Special Telegrams, and all the Dispatches of the Associated Press, from every part of the World.
8 The Age is the only Democratic morning paper in Philadelphia in the English language, and is therefore one of the best mediums for Advertising.

THE WEEKLY AGE
is a newspaper for those outside of the great cities who are without regular daily mail facilities, but desire to be kept informed of what is transpiring around them, combining home duties with domestic instruction and recreation.
Its columns are devoted to: Stories, original and selected by the best authors; Poetic Gems, from every available source; Choice Miscellany, Scientific, Amusing and Instructive; a column of Sunday Reading and Religious Intelligence; an

THE ILLUSTRATED
PHRENOLOGICAL Journal,
VOLUME FIFTY—1873.
The Science of mind is the central point around which revolves the whole circle of the sciences. It is the key to universal knowledge, and Self-knowledge is the key to the Science of Mind. Phrenology, the basis of Mental Philosophy. Shows how human character and capacity are related to the various laws; and how humanity is harmonized with Divinity.
"Know Thyself."—Since the Grecian sage inscribed the immortal words on the Temple of Delphi, the world has struggled toward a solution of the problems of human existence.
The Origin of Races, involving the Origin of Life, earnestly discussed by Ethnologists and Physiologists, cannot fail to interest the truth-seeker.
Physiology and Psychology are prominent features; embracing the subjects of Soul, Mind, Dotted Structures and Functions, Social Relations, Education, Religion, Criminal Jurisprudence, etc.
Physiognomy and Temperaments, Signs of Character, Peculiarities of Organization considered, with illustrations from life, scientific, social, and political, and seek to declare the good and true.
Self-Improvement—All the gains of Science and Art should be applied to perfecting ourselves and improving the race.
Happy Homes are the result of a normal education and development, and a life according to the laws of life.
The Phrenological Journal for 1873—will keep pace with the march of events, scientific, social, and political, and seek to declare the good and true.
TERMS.—Monthly, at $3 a year, in advance. Single numbers, 30 cts. Clubs of ten or more, $2 each. And an extra copy to agent.—The

Harper's Magazine.
"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptability to popular tastes and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.
The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and the literary culture that has kept pace with it, has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It is entitled them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Harper's Bazar.
Notices of the Press.
The Bazar is edited with a contribution of fact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.
The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by its illustrations, to the young ladies by its fashion-plates in endless variety, to the provident nation by its patterns for the children's clothes, to the patrician by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing gowns. But the reading-matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. Its editor has acquired a wide-spread popularity for the fine and enjoyable it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.
