A Pleasant Wedding.

Miss Emma Louise Baun of New York and Mr. Harry D. Robinson of this city were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock at the parsonage of McKendree church, Rev. Charles Richardson officiating, on Saturday evening last, in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The bride, a handsome demi-blonde, was arrayed in a neat and becoming traveling suit, the groom in a faultless suit of black. The happy couple left on the 7:30 p. m. Baltimore & Ohio train for a short trip north.

The New York Republicans.

The New York Republican association held a large and enthusiastic meeting Saturday evening. About fifty new members were elected. A number of Brooklyn voters were sent home so as to be there to-day to register, this being the last day for that city. Colonel T. G. Hensey was elected marshal of the association, and after the transaction of routine business the meeting adjourned to take part in the parade. Notice was given that the members must call on Judge Lake of the sixth auditor's office for the orders for reduced transportation at as early a day as possible.

The Dashaways.

Tallmadge hall was crowded last night before the hour of meeting. Vice-President Charley Nye presided, President Eglesston being absent in Baltimore engaged in the temperance work. Addresses were made by Vice-President Nye, Mr. John Berry, Judge J. J. Weed, Hon. D. P. Holloway, Mr. J. C. Lee, Mr. R. S. Graham, Mr. B. F. Oliphant, Judge Horn of Texas and Mr. J. S. Hilton. Charley Nye announced that Excelsior tent of Rechabites would attend in a body in full regalia next Sunday night. A large number signed the pledge.

CLOSE OF THE FAIR.

Three Exciting Racing Events Saturday—Good Attendance the Last Day.

The fair at Ivy City closed Saturday with a series of running races, a feature of which was a two-mile dash by lady riders. The attendance was estimated at 2,500. A number of exhibitors removed their goods from the main and machinery buildings Saturday, but there is still considerable stock to be taken away to-day. The success of the two days' running meeting which closed the fair was due in a great measure to the endeavors of Captain Frank Hollingshead. The first race Saturday was a three-quarter-mile heat, in which Wrangler, Marchioness and Eunice started. Wrangler led from the start and was never overtaken, Marchioness second and Eunice third. Time, 1:20. In the second heat the three horses got away on even terms and kept together until within a few feet of the finish, when Marchioness drew in front by half a head. Time, 1:19¼. For the third heat only Wrangler and Marchioness started, the former winning by a short nose. The spectators all thought this a dead-heat, and considerable confusion resulted from the judges making a declaration to that effect and afterward deciding all bets and the heat off. Finally they reversed their decision and awarded the heat to Wrangler. Time, 1:19¼.

For the second race, a mile and an eighth dash, Governor Hampton, New York Weekly, Revenue and Lucky Hit started. The race was between the first two horses, who made a dead-heat, their owners dividing the purse. Time, 2:00.

The ladies' two-mile dash was next in order, the following being the starters and their horses: Miss Ida P. Beall, Dalgasian; Miss Fannie Brawner, Baltimore, jr., and Miss Sarah F. Harbaugh, Unknown. Dalgasian's rider was the best of the trio, and seemed to know exactly what to do, while the other two were a little frightened at the crowd. Upon receiving the word Miss Beall sent her horse away at a splendid gait, Miss Brawner's being a trifle frolicsome, while Miss Harbaugh's could not be induced to move. The race was never in doubt, Dalgasian winning fully half a mile before Baltimore, jr., while Unknown made but one circuit of the track. The time was stated at 3:45.

Sudden Death of a Well-Known Doctor.

Dr. F. A. von Meschzisker, a well-known physician, living at 619 Nineteenth street northwest, was found dead in his bed yesterday morning when the family with whom he lived went to call him. Deceased, who was a native of Poland and of a high family, came to this city from Philadelphia, where his family reside, about a year ago, and established himself as a specialist in diseases of the throat, eye and ear. He was the author of several works on these organs, which are recognized as authority in the medical world, and by members of the profession he was universally esteemed. He was in his fiftieth year, and leaves a widow and six children. An investigation as to the cause of his death was made by Coroner Patterson yesterday afternoon, who ascribed it to apoplexy. He retired Saturday evening shortly after 8 o'clock apparently in excellent health, and had not recently complained of being sick. His remains will be taken to Philadelphia for interment by his son, who will arrive here this morning.

Baltimore's Celebration.

Baltimore proposes to wind up its Sesqui-Centennial celebration, which has been such a remarkable success, in fitting style, and elaborate programmes have been arranged for continuing the celebration to-day and to-morrow. To-night there will be a grand torchlight procession, and to-morrow night is the time fixed for the illumination of the city and a magnificent display of fireworks. The Baltimore & Ohio road, which has fairly outdone itself during the celebration in the enterprise shown in providing for the vast amount of travel to and from Baltimore, has arranged to run to-day and to-morrow, in addition to its regular trains, special trains, leaving Washington at 9.05 a. m. and returning, leaving Baltimore at midnight. The round-trip tickets, which are good for two days, will be sold at $1.20. The Baltimore races begin to-morrow.

Hyattsville Republicans.

The Hyattsville Garfield and Arthur club is to be addressed next Monday evening by Professor R. T. Greener of this city and Mr. J. B. Askew of Baltimore. Appeals are to be made to those voters who obtain their living by daily labor to ignore party affiliations of the past and vote in November with the republicans, especially the congressional ticket. The prospects for republican representation from the fifth Maryland district are daily growing brighter.

The Boat Clubs' Battle.

The Analostan boat club held a special meeting Saturday evening to consider the proposition of the Columbia club for a new race between the three boat clubs of the District for the citizens' badges and the challenge of the Potomacs to row for a stand of colors. In the discussion which took place it was claimed that the Analostans were entitled to the badges, but would row the Potomacs for the colors they proposed, and the secretary was instructed to notify them accordingly.

THE SEASON CLOSED.

The Chicagos Again Defeated by the Nationals.

The Nationals last Saturday played their final game of ball this season, and for the seventh time administered a defeat to the Chicago club, the champions of the league. They have done what no club in the league was able to accomplish this year, and that was to defeat the champions by winning a majority of a series of games. In almost every instance they have confronted the same strong team that has been pitted against the league clubs. Many persons claim that the Nationals should enjoy the laurels of champions. They downed every club in the national association, and finally were left alone. Then they went hunting for league nines, and of all that they encountered only one, the Clevelands, can claim to have got the better of them, but in the last series with that club honors rested easy between the two nines.

Mr. Goldsmith, one of the pitchers of the Chicagos, umpired the game and gave general satisfaction, despite the growls of Corcoran. It was an unpleasant position for the gentleman, but he filled it ably and acted honestly with both clubs.

Appended is the score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Nationals	2	0	0	1	0	0	0	1	0	1	5
Chicagos	0	1	0	0	2	0	1	0	0	0	4

The National nine disbanded last Saturday. Some of the players will remain here next year, but which of them and how many is not yet known. The directors have called a special meeting of the stockholders to-night at Cosmopolitan hall, Eighth and E streets northwest, at 7 o'clock, when the affairs of the club will be settled up and a decision made as to the doings for the next year.

CITY NOTES.

—Benedictine Malt Wine Beer. Finley & Koch, agents, 1206 Pennsylvania avenue.

—The only Turkish bath in the city, 509 E street, near Judiciary Square. Best shampooer this side of New York. Dr. Bovee.

—The supreme council of the southern jurisdiction, A. and A. rite, will convene in Scottish Rite hall this morning.

—The police made forty-seven arrests during Saturday and Saturday night. Fourteen were registered as "drunks."

—The Capital Bicycle club and their guests, six members of the Philadelphia Bicycle club, paraded on the Avenue last evening.

—The highest cash price paid for dresses and gents' clothing, watches, jewelry, etc. Call or address Herzog, 308 Ninth st., near Pa. ave.

—Turkish, Russian and Sulphur Baths at the well-known place, 903 E street, near Ninth. The only reliable place in the city for genuine baths.

—Officer Daily yesterday arrested a colored boy named James Jones, who is charged with picking the pocket of Mr. John Dowling of some papers at the fair grounds Saturday.

—Coroner Patterson pronounced heart disease to be the cause of the death of Mary Sanders, the colored woman who died on the sidewalk on K street, near Tenth, Friday night.

—William Townsend, a colored boy, was arrested Saturday evening by Officer Salkeld of the fourth precinct for stealing a rug from Dr. Townsend and some jewelry and money from Mrs. Herberger.

—Mr. Sousa, the new leader of the Marine band, is the composer of the celebrated "Resumption March," and he has placed it as the first number on the programme for the serenade to Mr. Sherman to-night.

—Luther Chrisman and Louis Kay, two white boys, became engaged in an affray on Tenth street last night, during which the latter was cut in the breast with a penknife. Officer Oliver arrested the assailant and locked him up at the fifth precinct station.

—The commissioners have informed the Washington cadets that they would be glad to accept the services of the company as a part of the District militia, but are unable to furnish any arms or accoutrements, as the quota allowed the District has been exhausted.

—William H. Estep and his wife, Amanda, have entered suit for $10,000 damages against Thomas D. Lewis. The ground of action is a slanderous expression used by Lewis on July 1 last, to Charles F. E. Richardson, regarding Mrs. Estep, who, he intimated, was an improper person.

—James Borton and Thomas Mackey, both colored, engaged in an affray at the corner of Fourth and I streets, Saturday night, during which their razors were freely used. Mackey received several cuts in the hand and Borton in the head, but Dr. Herbert, who attended them, pronounced them not of a serious character.

—Mit Jones, the billiard man, a heretofore strong Hancock man, has "weakened" on him and "come out" for Garfield. He carried a torch and wore a "tospath" badge in the procession Saturday night. A number of enthusiastic young democrats, who had made bets on the general result and left their forfeits in the hands of Messrs. Miller & Jones, have surrendered their forfeit money.

—The dead body of a colored female child was left at the Freedman's hospital Saturday by a colored woman named Lucinda Coleman, living in Bates' alley. She stated that the child was left with her two weeks ago by its mother, a woman named Mary Brown, who promised to pay her for taking care of it, but had not returned since. Coroner Patterson viewed the body and gave a certificate of death from inanition.

—The alarm of fire yesterday morning from box 721 was caused by the burning of the feed-store of John Leech, at the corner of Water and High streets, Georgetown. The damage to the stock is estimated at $700 and the building $200, fully covered by insurance. Metz's storehouse, No. 146 Water street, was discovered to be on fire at the same time, but the flames were extinguished by Mr. B. Bronzo, and no alarm was turned in.

BAD habits are easily contracted; so are Colds, and both are very hard to get rid of. The Colds are quickly and surely cured by Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

AMUSEMENTS.

National Theatre—Fanchon.

To-night Miss Maggie Mitchell will appear in her well-known character of Fanchon, concerning which the Cincinnati Commercial says of a recent performance in that city: "It is hardly the correct thing to say that last night Maggie Mitchell appeared as Fanchon; the way the statement should be put is, that after an absence Fanchon came back, and we all heard her marvelous, thrilling, coaxing voice, saw her elfish, child-woman, and then woman-child ways; saw her, heard her, it is repeated, and—loved her better than ever. There are familiar and lovable persons in life, concerning whom we never talk about connectedly; we only refer to them by pet names. That seems to be the only manner left for any one to speak of Maggie Mitchell's Fanchon, or, rather, of Fanchon itself, for be it understood that Fanchon is not played, is not represented—she has been and is a flesh-and-blood creation as she is known on the American stage to-day.

Ford's Opera House—"The Galley Slave."

Bartley Campbell's excellent play, entitled "The Galley Slave," will be presented at Ford's opera-house this evening. In regard to this play the New York World says: Mr. Campbell, with "The Galley Slave," has the double satisfaction of having done his work well and having his well-done work appreciated. The story of "The Galley Slave" is what might vulgarly be called a "fat narrative;" there is a great deal in it. Although it fills up five acts and occupies three hours in performance, one leaves the theatre with a sort of puzzling wonderment how so much was gotten through with.

Theatre Comique.

The managers of the Comique offer to their patrons this week another new variety company, including some famous specialty artists. One of the principal events of the performance to-night will be the first appearance in this city of Idaletta and Wallace, the water queen and mermaid.

THE SERENADE TO-NIGHT.

Arrangements for the Demonstration in Honor of Secretary Sherman.

All friends of Mr. Sherman desiring to participate in the compliment to be tendered him this evening are specially invited to meet in front of the republican headquarters, No. 1317 F street, at 8 o'clock sharp, to form a line and proceed by the nearest practicable route to his residence, on K street. The full Marine band will be present. Mr. Sousa, leader, promises to furnish such music for the occasion as will be appreciated by all musical people. It is understood that the various organizations will appear with their torches and banners. A band of singers will be in attendance. The fireworks will be sent off from Franklin square. K street will be illuminated with calcium lights and Chinese lanterns between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets. A stage will be erected and appropriately decorated in front of Mr. Sherman's residence for the convenience of the speakers. The line of route will be from 1317 F street to Fifteenth street, following Pennsylvania avenue to Seventeenth street, thence north to K street, and down K to residence. Hon. A. G. Riddle has accepted an invitation to make the address of welcome.

Another Miraculous Cure.

To the Editor of The National Republican:

SIR: The writer cheerfully recommends Dr. Dewey's treatment for nasal catarrh. Washes, snuffs and inhalations I have tried in my case, and I found them useless. Dr. Dewey has restored me to perfect health, and it was done at one sitting at No. 508 Eleventh street northwest. Dr. Dewey is an expert in his specialty, and his extirpator is most sovereign. Reader, if you are troubled with catarrh, by all means call and see me at No. 1308 Sixteenth street northwest, and I will convince you that nasal catarrh has found a master. JOHN A. SIMMS.

A Happy Restoration.

I can truly say that I owe my present existence and happy restoration to the hopes and joys of life to the use of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, and I say to every one suffering from any manner of kidney, liver or urinary trouble, "Use this remedy and recover." W. E. SANFORD.
