HASH.

A gay party playing croquet,
Drank a little too much old Toquet,
The game was half over,
When each was a Rover,
But they smiled some and thought it Oquet.

A roystering damsel in Worcester
Climbed a big tree with no one to borcester.
Her grasp was too slimb;
She fetched up on a limb—
The neighbors turned out and imborcester.

A young lady stood on the quay,
Looking thoughtfully out on the suay,
When an easterly wind,
Coming up from behind,
Showed her stocking clear up to her knuay.

There was a bad man in Hong Kong,
Who played like a ghoul on the gong,
They declared him a nuisance,
A short week or tuisance,
And the sentence he got—it was long.

A leprous old coon in Shanghai
Got a hit with a brick in the ai,
And he told his old wife,
When he came back to life,
That he sadly had feared he would dai.

He was the boss thumper of Zan-zi-bar,
But one day he kicked an old man-so-fur
He was tied with a rope
And given a dope
Of feathers and three or four cans-o'-tar.

LOVE-MAKING.

"Do you love me, Birdie?"

She gave answer by placing her white arms around his neck and throwing herself madly on his shirt-front.

"Do not hug so hard, darling, as you love me, or my collar stud will raise a carbuncle on the back of my neck," he said, in low, mellow tones.

"It is only the deep, passionate longing of my love, Oscar. It reeks not of carbuncles. But you are right. Too much pressure on the cervical vertebra will cause an exostosis. My professor of anatomy told me that."

"And we'll be married in the fall, my sweet."

"Yes, Oscar, in the rich, hazy, sensuous days of Indian summer, when the low note of the farmer's boy seeking the lost cow is heard, as he sits on the vine-embowered stile and blasphemes until the fire-fly leaves for a cooler spot. You must take all my money, Oscar; it must be yours to do as you will with it; to attain the glorious fame that awaits you; for I know that my love's name will some day be known through the length and breadth of the land. Surely you have an ambition?"

"I have," said Oscar, kissing her, while she held her breath.

"And will you let any false pride stand in the way of using my money to attain the height you fain would reach?"

"No, darling, I will not. You say you have $100,000 in 4 per cents. It is enough. To-morrow I will act, and in less than a day my name will be as familiar throughout the world as that of England's proud queen."

"Oh, Oscar, what will you do?"

"I shall purchase Maud S."

Two minutes later a human form fell with a dull thud on the front porch of the haughty pork packer's residence. It was Oscar Harris. The old man had fired him out.—From Sayings of Notable Men.

DULL TIMES,

Both in the Departments and About Town —Only Routine Business Being Done.

The annual reports in the various Departments are being rapidly prepared. As there is no special business being transacted, the gigantic intellects have full play in collating the startling facts which annually electrify the country. Usually at this season of the year the Cabinet officers have returned and the public business is going on with a rush. Now all the members of the Cabinet are away from the city except Secretary Kirkwood, and only routine business is being transacted. All the Departments have acting Secretaries, who are authorized to sign papers in the absence of the Secretaries. There are, however, matters which require the personal attention of the Secretaries, and these are deferred until their return. The business which requires the personal attention of the President is of course necessarily postponed; but nothing of very great importance has as yet arisen, and at the Departments it is said that the public business

HAS NOT SUFFERED ON THIS ACCOUNT.

The hotel-keepers and others who are pecuniarily interested in having the city full of strangers look forward to a very dull fall. There is nothing to cause the usual influx of strangers this year, and the rush will not begin until Congress meets. The summer season was an unusually dull one, and the prospect is that it will continue until late in the fall. During the Yorktown celebration a slight boom is anticipated, as it is thought that nearly all the visitors will find their way to this city. But the ubiquitous politician and the hangers-on will be a wanting quantity in the elements that go to make up life at the National Capital. The long continuance of the dull season will balance the rush which began before the 4th of March and continued up to the hot weather, making one of the most prosperous seasons ever known to hotel and boarding-house keepers in this city.

THE LATE J. PRICE KEPNER.

Resolutions of Sympathy and Condolence of the Surgeon-General's Office.

At a meeting of the clerks of the Record and Pension Division, Surgeon-General's Office, held September 14, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God, in his inscrutable providence, to remove from our midst our friend, J. Price Kepner, late chief clerk of the Record and Pension Division of the Surgeon-General's Office: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by us, his late clerks and associates in office, That we bear testimony, cheerfully and sincerely, to his usefulness, energy and fitness for the responsible duties of the position which he so long and ably filled. As an executive officer he was conspicuous for ability, accomplishing great undertakings with but little attrition or waste, administering his duties firmly, but with uniform kindness, and commanding the confidence and respect of his superiors and his subordinates. As a friend he was characteristically loyal and true, and as a man worthy of the honors which came to him and the trust with which he was dignified.

Resolved, That we sincerely deplore his loss, both for the public service and social world, since by his death the Government loses a valuable officer, society a good citizen and an urbane gentleman, his family a loving heart, and we a true friend. The memory of his excellences will outlive our official life, and the influence of his beneficent kindness will survive to us even though we see him no more.

Resolved, That as a mark of our respect we attend the funeral in a body.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be engrossed and presented to his stricken family, with whom we condole and offer all the consolation which true sympathy can afford.

Senator Van Wyck's Address.

United States Senator Charles H. Van Wyck, of Nebraska, on Wednesday delivered an address at the State fair, Chicago, his principal topics being finance, transportation, civil service, and the Indian question. He denounced the present system of Indian management, and maintained that it should be turned over to the War Department. He opposed the project of modern civil-service reformers, and expressed the view that business qualifications should be preferred to competitive examination. He urged a liberal modification of the tariff to relieve the people of an unnecessary burden of taxation, and advocated further improvements on Western rivers.

Suit Against General Banks.

Notice was issued in New York Tuesday to General N. P. Banks that a suit brought against him by William R. Hodges, of New Orleans, would be placed on the calendar of the United States Circuit Court for November. Mr. Hodges was in business in New Orleans as a commission merchant in 1863, when General Banks levied a tax on various articles taken by him to New Orleans. Under threats of having the property seized Mr. Hodges paid a tax of $3,551, and began an action against General Banks in 1875 in the State Supreme Court. The case was transferred to the United States Circuit Court. The plaintiff, on the ground that the tax was illegal, asks $20,924 damages.

Mississippi Assassination.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Sept. 16.—General W. T. Tucker was assassinated last night at Okolona, Miss. He was called to the front door of his residence and shot down by an unknown party. Death resulted almost instantly. Circumstances point to Houston Parish, a negro boy, eighteen years old, with whom General Tucker had some trouble a few days ago, as the assassin. Parish has been arrested and is now in custody. The deceased was a prominent citizen of the State, having commanded a brigade during the late civil war.

Breadstuff Exports.

The Chief of the Bureau of Statistics reports that the total values of the exports of domestic breadstuff from the United States during the month of August, 1881, were $25,547,521 and during August, 1880, $31,734,859. For the two months ended August 31, 1881, $45,584,228; and for the two months ended August 31, 1880, $62,964,537; for the eight months ended August 31, 1881, $157,565,205, and during the corresponding period in 1880, $185,321,222.

Assassination in Arkansas.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., Sept. 16.—The Democrat has the particulars of a terrible tragedy enacted yesterday near Booneville, Ark. Two young men, Robert and William Hamby, brokers, while riding homeward from town, were fired on by an assassin. Robert was killed on the spot; William was fatally wounded, having received two buckshot through the intestines and two in the arm.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Stock and Bond Quotations—Baltimore and New York Produce Markets.

The following observations on the transactions in the financial market yesterday, together with opening, highest, lowest, and closing quotations, are furnished by the banking-house of H. D. Cooke, jr., & Co., 1429 F street, Washington, D. C.:

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16, 3:15 p. m.—To-day's stock market opened at about yesterday's closing. There were alternate periods of strength and weakness, and the market closes with the trunk-line stocks ¼ to 1 per cent. higher; Union Pacific and Western Union 1 per cent. lower; the coal stocks and the general list showing small changes. The strength of Erie led many to believe that the oft-repeated story of the settlement of the railroad war was at last a true one. With regard to Western Union one rumor has it that Gould has been a large seller for some time past, taking advantage of the reported large increase in earnings. Another has it that Keene and the Mutual Union people are largely short of the stock, and that Gould is only too willing to have them increase their line. There is no change in the general situation. Money continues at 6 per cent., with occasional loans at 5 per cent. Government bonds close at a decline for the 4 per cents and the extended 6s of ¼ per cent.

WALL STREET GOSSIP.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16, 10 a. m.—The Vanderbilt following, especially the railroad men, were talking very blue last night over the unsettled railroad matters. John Tillinghaste said there was a big war going on, and affairs were very shaky. Joe Mills said John Newell had stated to him that there were absolutely no prospects yet of compromise. Still Vanderbilt tells his friends that the net dividend of Lake Shore will be 2 per cent., and also the three next regular following payments, and it is stated that the Michigan division will be 1 per cent. The bulls claim that another large short interest was secured yesterday, and there will probably be another upward turn to-day. Sage declares he has sold no stocks lately; he has none for sale, and has great confidence in higher prices. Henry Hart says he is bulling Pacific Mail for 75. He says the business of the line is large and remunerative, and the Central America trade is simply booming. Mr. Dow's friends say that the Hannibal and St. Joe lawyers will to-day advise against the issue of new stock against the convertible bonds, and unless the shorts settle privately they will have to climb for their stock at 400 or 500. The 100 shares sold yesterday at 300 was by Ford, and was bought by Cox. Ten shares sold at 400, or 400 for the lot. The Manhattan Elevated people claim that the New York Elevated will not succeed in recovering control of their property, and say Manhattan is going to 50 again. The Central Pacific people say there will be a great rise in their stock later on, and there are large orders in the market to buy it if it should decline. The bulls generally believed in a rally in the market to-day which would hold. The Wagner Palace Car Company has been reorganized, and the former general superintendent of the Iron Mountain Railway Company has been elected vice-president. Gould and Sage have taken $2,000,000 of the new stock, and the Wagner cars are to be put on all the Gould roads and the Pullman is thrown out. The bears in telegraph declare that it is evident from the statement of Dr. Green, and also of one of the directors, that the company has since January 1 sold securities in the treasury and have realized $1,036,000, which has been credited as current revenue. Only $400,000 cash has gone into the treasury during the last quarter, which has all been expended for new work. The street is full of points to buy Reading.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Money was easy at 3@6 per cent. on call and closed at 3@4 per cent. Exchange was firmer and the nominal rates were advanced ½c to 481½ for sixty days and 485 for demand, with actual business at 480¼@481 for long and 484@484½ for short sight. Governments were weak and all the issues declined ¼ per cent. State bonds were dull and almost entirely nominal. Railroad bonds were fairly active, but irregular. The stock market opened weak and generally ⅛@1¼ per cent. lower, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, however, being a notable exception, opening at an advance of 1½ per cent. In the early dealings there was a decline of ½@1½ per cent., which was followed by an advance of ½@⅞ per cent., but at the first board the speculation became depressed and prices fell off ½@2¼ per cent., the latter for Chicago, Burlington and Quincy—Northern Pacific preferred and Denver and Rio Grande being also prominent therein. Toward midday there was a recovery of ½@1¼ per cent., in which Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Northern Pacific preferred, and New Jersey Central were most prominent. During the afternoon the market was irregular on slight fluctuations. First there was a reaction of ½@1 per cent., but in the late dealings prices rallied ½@¾ per cent. Hannibal and St. Jo common sold at 250, 300, and 350 each, being a 100-share lot, and closed at 300 bid, 400 asked. The directors held a meeting to-day, at which the exchange of the convertible eights into common stock was authorized, in case the court now trying the suit in which this question is involved should render a decision favorable thereto. Sales to-day aggregated 271,744 shares, including Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, 26,700; Denver and Rio Grande, 12,000; Erie, 18,300; Lake Shore, 18,100; Louisville and Nashville, 900; Michigan Central, 9,100; Memphis and Charleston, 100; New Jersey Central, 6,500; New York Central, 5,000; Northern Pacific, 19,000; Ohio and Mississippi, 6,100; Reading, 6,000; St. Paul, 12,000; St. Paul and Omaha, 6,800; Union Pacific, 11,300; Wabash Pacific, 9,400; Western Union, 64,700; Sutro Tunnel, 6,800.
