Sham Civil Service Reform.

A clerk in the Post-Office Department writes to THE REPUBLICAN complaining bitterly of the manner in which old and efficient Republican clerks are treated, himself among the number. On last Saturday he says "a gentleman was appointed a $1,600 clerk in this Department who was not a soldier, who did not pass a competitive examination, whose only claim was that his father is a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, and yet I have been a clerk for four years in the Department and doing the work of a $1,600 clerk at a salary of $1,200 per year."

[This is civil-service reform "on business principles," by James, of New York.]

Judge Hunt Wants to Stay.

Secretary Hunt has been candid enough to say that he desires to be retained in the Navy Department by President Arthur. He gives as a reason for his wish the fact that he relinquished a life place in the Court of Claims. He also says that he had the promise of the vacancy in the Supreme Court for which Stanley Matthews was nominated, in case the latter was rejected, as he certainly should have been. The reasons which seem to Judge Hunt so strong for his retention in office do not appear to us to be conclusive. He became Secretary by an accident, and he gave up a life office in order to gratify his ambition to occupy a place for which he was wholly unfitted. Nevertheless, such candor as Judge Hunt's is as refreshing as it is rare.—New York Sun.

A Colored Soldier Speaks.

To the Editor of THE REPUBLICAN:

In your issue of Friday I find under the caption, "Give the Colored Ex-Soldiers a Chance," the following remarkable statement: "In the Pension Office not one of the colored clerks employed there before Colonel Dudley took charge, served either in the army or navy, or have a vote anywhere. * * * These are facts, and the names of each and every one above referred to can be given, and the facts, as stated, can be easily proven." I am not prepared to speak for others, but for myself allow me to state that I am now and was a clerk in the office named above when Colonel Dudley took charge of the same; that I am a citizen of Zanesville, Ohio, and a legal voter in the Fourth Ward of that city; that I was appointed as a clerk in the Pension Office in October, 1873, and that I have voted every year at the October election in said city since my appointment, except 1877, when, by reason of unavoidable circumstances, I could not go home, and that I am now on my annual leave of absence, and expect to start home to Ohio in a day or two to vote. As to the soldier question, I beg to state that before the United States Government would take colored men into the army, as soldiers, I served as a steward to the colonel of an Ohio regiment, and later I served as a private and sergeant-major in the One hundredth United States Infantry, and by reason of said service I hold my membership in O. P. Morton Post, No. 4, Grand Army of the Republic for the District of Columbia. I trust, sir, that you will give the above a place in your columns, and I hope the same will satisfy "Colored ex-Soldier" that at least one of the old colored clerks in the Pension Office was a soldier, is a voter, and goes home to vote, and can prove the facts, ex-soldier's statement to the contrary notwithstanding. Allow me to add that if "Colored ex-Soldier" was disabled, as I was, while in the army as a soldier, he shall never have it to say that I was so ungraceful as to rush into public print without knowing the facts, charging that his disabilities were not contracted as he may claim, and may be able to prove, while he was doing his duty as a soldier of his country.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Charles R. Carder has been appointed postmaster at Woodville.

Hog cholera is reported as prevailing disastrously in several parts of the State.

John Albright, aged eighty-five years, a pensioned soldier of the war of 1812, died on Thursday near Harrisonburg.

The exports of manufactured tobacco from Petersburg the past week amounted to 166,000 pounds. The internal-revenue collections for the week were $33,903.

Last year J. E. Yates, of Rappahannock County, purchased 275 sheep, for which he paid $3.50 apiece. The lambs and wool this year brought him $1,700.

Rev. Dr. J. L. Burrows, formerly of Richmond, but recently of Louisville, Ky., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Freemason Baptist Church, Norfolk.

In Locust Grove, Floyd County, a few nights ago, Mr. William P. Conner and a party, with their dogs, killed three bears in a few hours. Another was killed the next morning.

G. W. Hoge, esq., Readjuster, woke up the citizens of Waterford, Loudoun County, and to use a slang phrase, "Cheered the Bourbons and spat them out" on the 8th instant.

A shark chased a dog near Onancock, Accomac County, last week, and got ashore in its eager efforts to seize its prey. It was captured and killed, proving to be nine feet in length.

During recent favorable tides in the Appomattox sora were slaughtered by tens of thousands. Some sportsmen bagged as many as three hundred each and found the birds very fat.

More than three hundred students have already matriculated at the University of Virginia. The law class is the largest so far, numbering one-half of the whole number of students.

Captain Frank Blair, the Readjuster candidate for attorney of Virginia, who has been seriously ill at his home in Wytheville with malarial fever, is convalescing and will soon be able to take the field again.

The following postmasters were commissioned yesterday: C. Cain, Garfield, Fairfax County, Virginia; A. Chambers, Kansouth, Marshall County, West Virginia; W. T. Marshall, Grantsville, Calhoun County, West Virginia.

Mr. William H. Chambliss, of Greenville County, while driving to Petersburg with a load of cotton, set the cotton on fire with a match which he had used to light a cigar, and made a narrow escape with his life. He lost $100 worth of cotton.

At a meeting of the Readjusters of Washington magisterial district, Alexandria County, held on Saturday evening last, the nomination of Sewell B. Corbett (the plain farmer of Arlington), as their candidate for the house of delegates, was warmly indorsed.

Three men entered the depot at Leesburg last Friday night, drew revolvers on the agent, then tied him, threatening his life if he made an alarm, and then opened the money-drawer and took therefrom $36. The robbers did not get into the safe. No arrests have been made up to date.

Friday last Mr. Daniel Trigg, a prominent Democratic lawyer of Abingdon, and Judge George W. Ward, the Readjuster county judge of Washington County, accompanied by Drs. Johnson and Hickman, left for the Tennessee line with the view of fighting a duel. Ward was arrested at Bristol and bound over to keep the peace. Trigg reached the proposed place of meeting and waited until the appointed hour for the hostile meeting. His opponent not putting in an appearance, Trigg returned to Bristol, where he was also placed under bail. Politics was at the bottom of the trouble.

ALEXANDRIA NEWS.

Mr. William Cowling, who has been spending the summer in Giles County, has returned.

Mr. C. E. McCluer, superintendent of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, is in the city pushing along the work of establishing an exchange here.

The city gave an appeal bond yesterday in the Delehay surcties case, and now has sixty days within which to enter an appeal if one be deemed advisable.

The schooner Walak, hailing from Cersport, passed up the river yesterday with her foretopmast and outer jib-boom gone, having lost them in a heavy storm she encountered on her trip to this port.

Mr. C. M. Kemp, of this city, who has been employed by the Virginia Midland Railroad Company as telegraph operator at Manassas, has been appointed assistant operator in the Western Union Telegraph office here.

A splendid new ten-wheel freight engine, weighing thirty-eight tons, just completed at the shops of the Virginia Midland Railway Company in this city under the supervision of Mr. James E. Wadley, master mechanic, was out on the road yesterday, working splendidly.

Mr. Jacob Thomas, for many years a resident of Alexandria, died suddenly from heart disease in Fairfield County, Iowa, a few days ago. Mr. Thomas, who was a prominent and respected member of the M. E. church of this city, had many friends here, who will regret to hear of his death.

The steamer Mystic caught her wheel on a sunken pile at her wharf again yesterday, and after that there was but one boat on the ferry between here and Washington, and the trouble and inconvenience attending communication between the two cities was of course considerably increased.

The case of the Commonwealth against Edmund Burke for assault on L. E. Payne a short time ago was called before the corporation court yesterday, but Judge Chilton did not think it proper that he should sit in the case on account of his intimacy with Burke, and therefore postponed it until the January term.

Minister Foster's Wish to Resign.

The Hon. John W. Foster, Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to Russia, was at the New Denison recently, and conversed with a representative of the Journal. Mr. Foster said that he had been in St. Petersburg for over a year, and had enjoyed the best of health and a pleasant sojourn, notwithstanding the fact that during the entire period of his residence there he had lived, as it were, in the very presence of death. The day after his arrival at the Russian capital the Empress died at Ems, on the very day on which he was to have been presented to the Czar. The court was ordered into mourning for six months, and a short time after the mourning was doffed Alexander II. met his fate at the hands of the Nihilist assassin. The court was thereupon again ordered into mourning for one year. In June Mr. Foster received leave of absence and left for this country, arriving at New York the day after the removal of the President to Long Branch, and now, after a stay of comparatively brief duration, he finds this Nation in mourning. The Minister stated that some time ago he had asked to be relieved by the United States Government, feeling that he had been in the diplomatic service as long as he cared to remain, but that his resignation had not been accepted, for the reason that a great number of changes had already been made in the service, and it was not desirable to place too many new and inexperienced men in the service at one time. However, he expected to retire next spring, and will return to this country and engage in business. He sails for St. Petersburg about October 10.—Indianapolis Journal.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Stock and Bond Quotations—Baltimore and New York Produce Markets.

The following observations on the transactions in the financial market yesterday, together with opening, highest, lowest, and closing quotations, are furnished by the banking-house of H. D. Cooke, Jr., & Co., 1429 F street, Washington, D. C.:

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10, 2:15 p. m.—From the opening of business until noon the market was strong, on the belief that the Secretary of the Treasury would increase his bond purchases to-day, and the general list advanced ½ to 1 per cent. When it was announced that no change was made in the advertised plan, and but $2,000,000 of bonds were taken, the advance was checked and the market, with fractional rallies, declined until near the close, by which time the general list showed a decline of ¼ to 2 per cent. A sharp rally then occurred, and on buying for both long and short account the market closed strong at an advance of ¼@¾ from the lowest prices of the day, but ¼@1¼ lower than the close of Saturday. Money loaned at 1-32 and interest early in the day, but the majority of the loans were at six per cent., the rate declining to 4 per cent. at the close. The fact that the Secretary did not increase his bond purchases led to considerable sales for the short account, and the strength referred to was in a large degree due to the covering of the same. It is thought by those well informed that Secretary Windom will to-day or to-morrow offer to redeem $5,000,000 to $10,000,000 bonds of the last call on presentation, with interest to date.

WALL STREET GOSSIP.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10, 11:30 a. m.—Chicago advices contain rumors that an advance in freight rates had been agreed upon Saturday, but nothing positive is known about it here. Grain contracts were made to Baltimore on Thursday for 9½ cents, and the Vanderbilt rates were then as low as 10 cents. It is stated that the Grand Trunk and Erie Railway have hitched teams to city Vanderbilt, and Pullman sleepers, with hotel cars attached, will soon run through to New York via Buffalo. Private Washington dispatches to a prominent Broadway banking-house say that Judge Folger will be the new Secretary of the Treasury. The earnings of Union Pacific for the first week in October increased $24,500; average daily earnings, $118,000. John W. Gillespy, an old member of the Stock Exchange, is dead.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Money loaned up to 6 per annum and 1-32 per diem, but closed easy at 3 per cent. Exchange steady at 478¼@479 for long and 482¼@483 for short sight. Governments weak for 4½s and regular 4s, which declined ¼ per cent. The other issues are unchanged. State bonds dull and generally nominal. Railway bonds in fair demand, but the market was irregular. The stock market was irregular and unsettled throughout the entire day and prices fluctuated widely and with much frequency. Manhattan Elevated opened 2 per cent. and the general list ¼@¾ per cent. higher than Saturday's closing figures, and Manhattan recorded a further rise of 1 per cent. The speculation, however, soon became weak, and prices fell off ¼ to 3 per cent., the latter New York and Manhattan Elevated. Subsequently there was an advance of ¼ to 1¼ per cent. in which New Jersey Central, Texas Pacific, New York Central, Reading, Central Pacific, Western Union, St. Paul and Omaha preferred were prominent, which was followed by a reaction of ¼@1¼ per cent., and later by a rally of ¼ to 1½ per cent., C. C. C. & I. leading in both cases. During the afternoon the dealings were feverish, but in the main tended downward, and after the second call prices showed a decline of ¼@2¼ per cent., the latter in Peoria, Decatur and Evansville, the other shares prominent in the downward movement being Western Union, Union Pacific, Northwest, Louisville and Nashville, and Denver and Rio Grande. In the late transactions the market became firmer, and closed at a recovery of ¼@1 per cent. Hannibal and St. Joe common, which had been quiescent for some time, sold down from 100 to 98. Sales aggregated 356,200 shares, including Central Pacific, 11,000; Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, 21,500; Denver and Rio Grande, 16,300; Erie, 35,300; Kansas and Texas, 6,400; Lake Shore, 45,000; Louisville and Nashville, 7,300; Michigan Central, 11,700; Manhattan Elevated, 10,900; Memphis and Charleston, 1,100; Missouri Pacific, 5,300; Northwest, 10,700; New Jersey Central, 15,300; New York Central, 25,700; Northern Pacific, 5,400; Ohio and Mississippi, 4,100; Reading, 19,900; St. Paul, 13,100; St. Paul and Omaha, 6,100; Texas Pacific, 8,900; Union Pacific, 20,500; Wabash Pacific, 16,500; Western Union, 41,600.
