THANKSGIVING DAY.

Thanksgiving Day is nearly done;
I fear 't has been a thankless one—
For why should I be grateful?
What wondrous good have I received?
Am I not lonely, sad, bereaved,
And would not thanks be hateful?

Instead of thanks I should complain
Of hours filled with heartache, pain,
And many a weary longing;
Instead of praising I should say
My life is but a dreary day,
With saddened memories thronging.

I asked for bread, received a stone;
No one to love me, me alone—
No one to whom I'm dearest;
No one but has a stronger claim
In husband, children, home, or fame—
And mine is but the merest.

So what have I my life to bless,
It has been one of bitterness,
And unfulfilled desiring;
And so I will not thankful be
For what I have not and can see
No hope of yet acquiring.

* * * * * *

O thankless heart, why wilt thou be
So full of sad complaining?
Know'st not that Christ has died for thee?
Is there no hope remaining?

Is He not better, truer far
Than any earthly blessing?
And durst thou let such thoughts debar
Thee from His love possessing?

O guilty, bitter, thankless heart
To idols thou art clinging!
But choose thou now thy better part
By love and worship bringing.

And thank thy Father, Saviour, Friend,
For all His loving kindness,
For health and strength that He doth send,
Forgiving thee thy blindness.

And thank him, too, that He doth give
A work thy woes to lighten,
And pray that you while you may live
Some other's path may brighten.

O guilty pride, that can't not see
Thy Father o'er thee bending,
Contrite and lowly bend the knee,
Thy grateful praise ascending.

* * * * * *

Father, I thank Thee that Thy care
Has been about me everywhere;
That every night and every day,
And every step upon life's way,
And every thought, for all our good,
All has been noted, understood.

I thank Thee for the gladsome days,
And for the winding, devious ways,
That Thou hast led me safely through,
Albeit with moaning not a few,
But most I thank Thee, Saviour mild,
That Thou hast loved Thy erring child.

I thank Thee that in every shock
Thou'rt like the shadow of a rock;
O glad am I Thou ask'st no deed,
That faith is all Thy children need;
So nothing in my hand I bring,
But simply to thy cross I cling.

Vermin in the Post-Office.

To the Editor of THE REPUBLICAN:

Meeting an old employee of the Post-Office Department this morning, he startled me with the information of his candid belief that the Post-Office building would be untenable as a secure place for its records, or even to transact business in its another four years from the accumulation and ravages of rats, mice, roaches, as also water and bed-bugs. "Why, sir," said he, "Room 59 is respectable in comparison to room 49, same floor. The vermin in the latter—bed-bugs in particular—so far exceed in number and rapacious insolence any estimates ever indulged in by the most acute calculators of the former that I assure you seriously it is a brave man who dare enter the latter less be be well armed and the possessor of a paid-up life insurance policy." More verm-in-ous than Room 59, thought we. Well, it would be just about as well to give this public institution a wide berth by going a full square to leeward, and we did so, yet feel the information is most startling and calls for congressional intercession.

An agent of the Clyde line of steamers was in Elizabeth City last week measuring wharf property at the Lawrence ship-yard. The proceeding was thought to give point to the report that another railroad from Norfolk through that way is one of the things to be in the near future.

A note to Messrs. A. M. Davies & Co., of Lynchburg, dated The Temple, London, November 7, from Hon. Judah P. Benjamin, late secretary of state for the confederate States, says: "There are no funds on deposit in England for account of the confederate States. The assertions to the contrary emanate from speculators on the Stock Exchange. The bonds are intrinsically worthless."

The report of Mr. H. H. Dyson, second auditor of Virginia, just published, places the debt of the State at the close of the last fiscal year at $29,614,793 principal, being a decrease of $70,866, caused by the purchase by the commissioners of the sinking fund of bonds issued under act of March 30, 1871. In addition, there is $15,239,370 recognized by Virginia as West Virginia's proportion of the debt, for which certificates have been or will be issued.

It is a pleasure, when afflicted with rheumatism, to cure yourself when it can be done so effectually and inexpensively as with St. Jacob's Oil. Mrs. Ann Dougherty resides at 364 E street, South Boston. She is an elderly lady, and has been afflicted with salt rheum between her fingers for over sixteen years. She suffered terribly, and tried all kinds of remedies without obtaining any relief. She used St. Jacob's Oil four times, and by that time she could sleep at night, which she could not do before. She used St. Jacob's Oil again and got better and better, until now she is entirely cured. She commenced the use of St. Jacob's Oil about two months ago, and now thinks there is nothing like it. Her hand used to swell terribly, but all that has gone now. Her disease commenced to abate about the time she first used the Oil, but she has had no swelling since.

BANKERS' EXCHANGE.

Three-day bills ..... 484 | Sixty-day bills 480

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The exports of domestic products for the week were valued at $6,286,799. Money loaned down from 6 per cent. per annum and 1-64 per diem to 2 per cent. per annum, and closed offered at 1 per cent. Exchange was weak and the nominal rates were reduced ½c to 480 for sixty days and 484 for demand, with actual business at 479@479½ for long and 482@482½ for short sight. Governments were quiet and unchanged. Railroad bonds were generally weak and lower. Boston, Hartford and Erie firsts were most active, and sold up from 69½ to 74, reacted to 70, and closed at 71. The share speculation was heavy throughout the entire day. At the opening prices showed a decline of ¼@1½ per cent. from yesterday's closing figures, and the market immediately took a downward turn. A heavy pressure to sell prevailed during the morning, and the quotations fell off sharply throughout the entire list. During the afternoon there were occasional slight recoveries, but the tendency was decidedly toward lower figures, and in the late dealings the depression was quite pronounced, the market closing weak at the lowest point of the day. The decline ranged from ¼ to 4 per cent, the latter Oregon Navigation, Denver and Rio Grande selling off 3¼, Michigan Central and Peoria, Decatur and Evansville 2¼, and Indianapolis, Bloomington and Western 2 per cent. Richmond and Danville rose 2¼ and reacted 2 per cent. Manhattan Elevated advanced 1¼ per cent. The sales to-day aggregated 370,290 shares, including Central Pacific, 7,300; Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, 21,400; Denver and Rio Grande, 34,000; Erie, 36,300; Kansas and Texas, 10,800; Lake Shore, 46,800; Louisville and Nashville, 6,300; Michigan Central, 15,800; Northwestern, 6,000; New Jersey Central, 13,000; New York Central, 16,500; Northern Pacific, 10,200; Pacific Mail, 8,700; St. Paul, 13,000; Texas Pacific, 19,200; Union Pacific, 11,700; Wabash Pacific, 22,100; Western Union, 17,800; Eastern Tennessee, 2,000.
