The Latest.

The "cat's eye" is altogether the swell jewel now, and has entirely supplanted diamonds and cheaper gems. It comes from Ceylon, and the popular name by which it is known arises from peculiarities that give it a singular resemblance to the eye of a cat.

Reporters' Notes.

James Fauseman, for fast driving, was fined $20 in the Police Court yesterday. Officer Edelin, who made the arrest, said Fauseman was driving at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour. The defendant denied that he was driving at such a fast rate of speed, but the Judge took the statement of the officer and imposed the usual fine.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday as follows: John E. Mitchell and Rebecca Matthews, Scott Moncue and Mary Smith, John McLaughlin and Jessie R. Cole, all of this city; Richard H. Holland, of Annapolis, and Katie E. Heinline, of this city; James A. Grissett and Margaret A. Kelbuan, both of Westmoreland County, Va.

John Sherman & Co. have sold the corner house of the row just finished by them, at the corner of Fourteenth and Q streets northwest, to Bushrod Robinson and J. L. McFarland, who occupy it jointly as a residence. Messrs. Sherman & Co. have erected, beside this Q street row, another neat row on the corner of Corcoran and Fourteenth streets.

Professors Galway and Miller give their third soiree last evening at their Academy, Washington Hall, and it was one of the most successful affairs of the season. The Professors did everything in their power for the enjoyment of their many guests. They will continue to hold these delightful reunions every Tuesday and Friday through the season.

A serious accident occurred on the Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railroad yesterday morning, between this city and Alexandria, just south of the tunnel at Four-mile Run. The morning was very foggy and two freight trains collided. Both were wrecked, and one was entirely destroyed by fire. Fortunately they were empty. No one on either train was injured.

The Potomac Terra-Cotta Company yesterday took out a permit to erect a new manufactory on the site of their factory, at Terra-Cotta station, on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, which was destroyed by fire about a year ago. The new factory will be built of brick, and be three stories in height and seventy feet front by ninety in depth. The cost of the building is estimated at $8,000.

Thirty-three boats left Cumberland Saturday, with 3,807 tons of coal, as follows: For Georgetown—Consolidation Company, 809.6 tons; Maryland Company, 794.10 tons; New Central Company, 446.11 tons; Barden Company, 347.19 tons; George's Creek Company, 229.8 tons; Blaen Avon Company, 126.8 tons; Individual Company, 119.18 tons. For Alexandria—American Company, 993 tons.

The Societe Francaise de Bienfaisance held its annual meeting Monday evening and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, N. Demongeot; first vice-president, H. Kalusouski; second vice-president, F. Dufossis; secretary, E. Sheridan; financial secretary, M. Prandi; treasurer, C. Ebel; administrators, Messrs. Mallett, Becker, and Lepley, and legal advisers, Messrs. de Chambrun, and Ed. Mallet.

At 9:50 o'clock yesterday morning an alarm of fire attracted fire companies 1, 2, and 6 to 1417 G street northwest, a three-storied brick building owned by Louis Gardner, and occupied by Dr. H. L. Bovee with Turkish and Russian bath-rooms. There was an immense amount of smoke, but not much fire. The fire originated in the basement and was caused by wood being piled too near the furnace. The loss was trivial and covered by insurance.

Senator Anthony visited the office of Register of Wills yesterday in company with the Congressmen from Rhode Island, and inquired regarding the settlement of the estate of the late Senator Burnside. All the property owned by the deceased in this city was the furniture in the house on H street northwest. It is understood that upon the renunciation of the sister of the late Senator, the administrator will take charge of the personal effects.

LOCAL MENTION.

Southward the Southern Generals Fly.

About Thanksgiving times for some years past many of the leading journals throughout the land have chronicled the movements southward of Generals G. T. Beauregard, of Louisiana, and Jubal A. Early, of Virginia, to New Orleans, where they resort semi-annually to conduct under their sole control the Grand Distribution of the Louisiana State Lottery, which will next occur at New Orleans on December 13, when over half of a million of dollars will be cast among the ticket-holders, and the full particulars of which can be had by sending to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La. One hundred thousand dollars is the first prize. Who will get it?

The Star-Route Case.

The National Republican Publishing Company has issued, in pamphlet form of one hundred and twenty-five double-column pages, in clear type and handsome style, the full verbatim report of the recent proceedings and the decision of the Court in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia in the matter of the United States vs. General Thomas J. Brady et al., in which proceedings were attempted to be instituted by criminal information in lieu of presentment and indictment by grand jury. This pamphlet will be valuable to the legal profession throughout the entire country, as it undoubtedly contains the most exhaustive research and thoroughly collated authorities and carefully-prepared arguments upon this important branch of criminal practice that has ever been presented before a legal tribunal.

Copies can be had upon application or by addressing The National Republican Publishing Company, Washington, D. C. Price, $1 per copy.
