You can publish a three-line advertisement of "Wanted," "For Rent," "For Sale," or "Lost," three times for twenty-five cents in THE REPUBLICAN.

Special attention is called to the advertisement in another column of Mr. Blanchard's free lecture this evening.

Johnny Naugle, "the converted sailor-boy," will lead the noonday prayer-meeting at Foundry Church, twelve to one to-day.

It was noticed yesterday morning that the hills along the Potomac, in the neighborhood of Arlington, were covered with snow.

The usual semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent. was declared yesterday by the directors of the Farmers and Mechanics' National Bank.

On January 1 the work of lengthening the locks on the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal will begin. The material is now being distributed at the different locks.

The many friends of Mr. James W. Deeble will be glad to know that he is expected to be out in a few days, after having been confined to his house for some weeks by malaria.

The increase in the subscription list of the Daily Critic is said to be enormous. People are beginning to require a paper served to them in the evening that contains the news of the day.

Dr. E. Carroll Morgan has been called to the chair of professor of diseases of the throat and chest, and John F. Hanna has been appointed a member of the board of directors of the Central Dispensary.

During the fire on Saturday night at the residence of Mr. A. Cluss, the architect, No. 413 Second street northwest, Mrs. Cluss had her hands badly burned, and has been confined to her rooms ever since.

A bill for divorce was filed by Mr. P. Edwin Dye yesterday for Annie E. Williams, against George Williams. They were married January 12, 1880, by Rev. T. G. Addison, of Trinity, and she charges him with cruel treatment, injuring her health, &c.

It is the present idea of a majority of the members of Company A, Washington Light Infantry, to accept the invitation of the Brooklyn Thirteenth, and visit the Thirteenth on Washington's birthday. This is supposed to be entirely unofficial, but it is a fact.

The house of Mr. S. H. Nealey, on Thirteenth, near G street northwest, was entered by a thief through a back window early yesterday morning, and two diamond rings, twelve silver spoons, and other articles of value were stolen and carried away, all belonging to Mrs. Nealey.

Mrs. Imogene R. Morrell, the artist, will give her first reception this season at the academy, Corcoran building, on Monday evening. These receptions have become quite a feature among lovers of art in Washington, and the issuance of formal invitations has therefore been dispensed with.

The following have been drawn to fill vacancies on the juries: Louis Auerbac, 623 Pennsylvania avenue, for the grand jury of the December term of the Criminal Court; and W. D. Trunnel, 1520 Thirty-fourth street; C. W. Thorn, 315 Ninth street and Frank P. Acker, 133 Estreet, for the petit jury.

Hillery Jordan, a colored undertaker, states that the body of a colored man named Robert Coles, sixty-one years of age, who died in the almshouse hospital and was buried in the Potter's field, has been stolen. The discovery was made when he went with the widow of the deceased to remove the body to Harmony Cemetery.

Mr. D. J. Macarthy, the well-known carpenter and builder, was quite severely injured yesterday morning, after leaving the Light Infantry ball for home in company with a lady member of his family, his carriage being run into by another vehicle. His lip was badly cut with glass from the broken window, and Dr. Townshend was called upon to dress his wounds.

Rev. R. S. Laws, pastor of the Virginia Avenue Baptist Church, states that in the case on trial in the Police Court a few days since no testimony was given by him, or the young man who testified, that there was a ball in that edifice, nor was $7.50 paid for holding an entertainment there, the usual rate being $10; also that the Court stated clearly that the entertainment was within the limits of the law, and he would, therefore, dismiss the case.

Mr. W. B. Webb, for Sarah Burnett, yesterday filed a suit against C. B. Church, W. T. Walker, J. Harrison Johnson, Oliver T. Thompson and others, trading as the First Co-operative Building Association, to recover $255.65. She states that on May 28, 1873, she purchased of defendants a certain house and lot, and they undertook to pay all assessments over and above $100, which they failed to pay, and she charges that there is due her $160.18; with $105.47 interest.

Wesleyan University Alumni.

The alumni of the Wesleyan University resident in this city held their first annual reunion and banquet at the National Hotel last evening. The president, Judge MacArthur, presided, and there was a good attendance of the members. Many of the speeches made were extremely interesting, and the members felt when the hour for separation arrived that they had not only passed a most enjoyable evening, but had been drawn nearer to each other, and that the future meetings would be eagerly anticipated.

LOCAL MENTION.

GENTLEMEN'S GOODS.

DO MEN
READ ADVERTISEMENTS!
We believe they do, but we also believe that experience has taught them to discount about 50 per cent. of what is generally represented.
We do not propose to inflate this to allow for paring down.
We represent in our advertisement only what
WE ARE PREPARED to PROVE.
In the first place we are the only
Manufacturing Clothiers in Washington City.
We have dealings only with the Mills Manufacturing Cloths, Cassimeres, &c.
Our prices are naturally 15 to 18 per cent. less than any other house in the city.
Our stock of
SUITS AND OVERCOATS
is large and varied, and prices to suit all purses.
LIKES, BERWANGER & CO.,
One-Price Clothiers,
No. 310 Seventh Street Northwest.
