

MALTY HOUSE.
BALTIMORE, MD.
C. E. HOGAN, - PROPRIETOR.
REDUCTION OF FARE.
In consideration of the general decline in cost of all necessities pertaining to Hotel keeping, the price of board will be reduced on and after January 1st, 1870, to $2.50 Per Day.
It is determined that nothing will be left on the table in the future to make the Malt House what has been the past—second course in the city.

LET US HAVE THE BEST.
WORLD RENOWNED NEW SINGER
Sewing Machine.
THE returns of sales of the different sewing machines, during last year, show the "Singer Machine" to be by far the most popular of all in the market, the number sold being 181,269, out of a total of 610,194, of twenty-five different patterns. It appears, too, that the Chicago R. S. M. Committee, which undertook to furnish sewing machines to persons needing them, supplied 2,427 Singer machines against 517 of all other kinds. This preference for the Singer machine is due to its intrinsic superiority, and seems likely to be maintained against all competition. I will visit around and give all instructions to persons purchasing of me free of charge. All of the extras furnished by me.

FIRE! FIRE! FIRE!
D. W. ELLINGS, FURNITURE, BARN, OUT-HOUSES, FARM PRODUCE, &c., &c., insured on the Mutual Plan by the STATE OF MARYLAND MUTUAL FIRE Insurance Company
OF BALTIMORE,
Office No. 17 South street.
B. G. HARRIS, President.
DIRECTORS:
G. H. Coughlin, Noah Walker & Co., Philip T. George, George & Jenkin, T. D. Anderson, Anderson & Bro., John Stack, Carpenter and Builder, Hon. George Brent, Court of Appeals, George Combs, St. Mary's county, B. G. Harris.
This is a Home Company, gotten up expressly in the interest of the citizens of Southern Maryland, to enable them to overcome the difficulties they experienced in procuring insurance in the ordinary Insurance Companies, with a majority of its Directors well known in that community. It has been in business now over four years. All losses accrued, and they have been unusually large, have been faithfully and promptly paid, which is our best guarantee for the future. The plan adopted is the safest and cheapest known in Insurance, and affords to all insurance at its exact cost, and ought to be encouraged by all who wish to protect themselves against loss or damage by fire. If those interested will get their patronage and interest themselves in the increase of its business, in a few years it will rank among the largest Insurance corporations in Maryland, a credit and benefit to all, and an honor to the State.

Edinburgh Review, (Whig.)
London Quarterly Review, (Conservative.)
Westminster Review, (Liberal.)
British Quarterly Review, (Eclectic.)
AND
Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine,
REVISED BY
LEONARD SCOTT PUBLISHING CO.,
140 Fulton street, New-York.
By arrangement with the English Publishers, who receive a liberal compensation.

These periodicals constitute a wonderful miscellany of modern thought, research, and criticism. The cream of all European books worth reviewing is found here, and they treat of the leading events of the world in masterly articles written by men who have special knowledge of the matters treated. The American Publishers urge upon all intelligent readers in this country a liberal support of the Review, which they have long and so cheaply favored, feeling sure that no expenditure for literary matter will yield so rich a return as that required for a subscription to the leading Review of Great Britain.
PERIODICALS OF GREAT BRITAIN.
TERMS:
About one-third the price of the originals.
For any one Review, $4.00
For any two Reviews, $7.00
For any three Reviews, $10.00
For all four Reviews, $12.00
For Blackwood's Magazine, $4.00
For Blackwood and one Review, $7.00
For Blackwood and two Reviews, $10.00
For Blackwood and three Reviews, $13.00
For Blackwood and four Reviews, $16.00
Postage two cents a number, to be prepaid by the quarter at the office of delivery.

CLUBS.
A discount of twenty per cent. will be allowed to clubs of four or more persons. Thus: four copies of the Review for $12.80; four copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $48, and so on.
Of instances of new subscribers to any two, three, or four of the above periodicals, may have one of the four Reviews for 1873; subscribers to all five may have two of the four Reviews, or one of Blackwood and Magazine for 1873.
Neither premiums to subscribers nor discount to clubs can be allowed unless the money is remitted direct to the Publishers. No premium can be given to a club.
Circulars with further particulars may be had on application.

The Best Paper! Try It!
BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED.
The Scientific American, now in its 29th year, enjoys the widest circulation of any weekly newspaper of the kind in the world. Its contents embrace the latest and most interesting information pertaining to the Industrial, Mechanical, and Scientific Progress of the World; Descriptions, with Beautiful Engravings, of New Inventions, New Processes, and Discoveries, and the latest progress in the Applications of Steam, Steam Engineering, Railways, Ship-Building, Navigation, Telegraphy, Telegraph Engineering, Electricity, Magnetism, Light and Heat.
Farmers, mechanics, engineers, inventors, manufacturers, chemists, lovers of science, teachers, clergymen, lawyers, and people of all professions, will find the Scientific American useful to them. It should have a place in every family, library, study, office and counting room in every reading room, college, academy, or school.
A year's numbers contain 822 pages and several hundred engravings. Thousands of volumes are preserved for binding and reference. The practical receipts are well worth ten times the subscription price.—Every number contains an interesting and useful Specimen cent free. May be had of all News Dealers.
In connection with the Scientific American, Messrs. Munx & Co. are collectors of American and Foreign Patents, and have the largest establishment in the world. More than fifty thousand applications have been made for patents through their agency. Patents are obtained on the best terms. Models of New inventions and sketches examined and advised in the ordinary manner published in the Scientific American the week they issue. Send for Pamphlet, 110 pages, containing laws and full directions for obtaining Patents.
Address for the Paper, or concerning Patents, MUNX & CO., 37 Park Row, New York. Branch Office, Cor. F and 7 Sts., Washington, D. C.

Harper's Magazine.
Notices of the Press.
The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. In fact, we think it is one of the most important organs of the Republic and incorporated in its institutions. Seeking an alliance with oligarchy or "Rings," it has been subjected to no corrupt influences, but has always labored without fear or favor for the general good. It has, therefore, been the persistent and vigilant advocate of all reforms, general as well as municipal.
Receiving no aid from official patronage, the Age relies on the subscriptions and support of Democrats, and of fair and intelligent citizens who desire to see our country more justly governed, and our principles more firmly established. The Age is now the best defense of all private rights and public interests.
In the varying fortunes of parties, the intelligent and patriotic will rally to sustain free, pure, civil government, for the people and by the people, to oppose corruption and usurpation, and to preserve and purify the Abrahamic institutions that made our country the "Model Republic" of the world. Its administration, in the spirit in which it was formed, can only be conducted on what we deem to be true Democratic principles, for which the Age will still contend with an abiding faith in their ultimate triumph.
"THE DAILY AGE CONTAINS:"
1. The latest intelligence from all parts of the world.
2. Articles on Government, Trade, Politics, Finance and all the current questions of the day.
3. Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotations, Marine and Commercial Intelligence.
4. Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Legal Reports and Book Notices.
5. Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music.
6. Agricultural Matters, and Discussions of all Subjects of General Interest and Importance.
7. Special Telegrams, and all the Dispatches of the Associated Press, from every part of the World.
"THE AGE" is the only Democratic morning paper in Philadelphia in the English language, and is therefore one of the best mediums for Advertising.
THE WEEKLY AGE
is a newspaper for those outside of the great cities who are without regular daily mail facilities, but desire to be kept informed of what is transpiring around them, combining home duties with domestic instruction and recreation. Its columns are devoted to: Stories, original and selected by the best authors; Poetic Gems, from every available source; Choice Miscellany, Scientific, Amusing and Instructive; a column of Sunday Reading and Religious Intelligence; an AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, conducted by a practical Agriculturist, Mr. Thomas J. Edge, now carrying a living upon a rented farm in Chester county, in which all questions are considered which have an interest for the tillers of the soil; Weekly Contributions for the Children; Editorial Briefs; News Items, &c.; Able Editorials, and a carefully prepared compendium of Foreign and Domestic News; Washington, New York and Miscellaneous Correspondence; Financial and Commercial Statistics; Full Markets; Select Advertisements, to which a very limited space is appropriated, &c. With all these advantages, the Weekly Age is acknowledged to be the best Family Journal printed in Philadelphia.

1873. THE AGE. 1873.
A LEADING DAILY AND WEEKLY NEWSPAPER.
The Firm Advocate of Democratic Principles. No Republican and Energy Opposed to Autocracy in the First Rank of Journalism.
For the past two years, The Age has been the ablest and most powerful defender of the most principles enunciated by the founders of the Republic and incorporated in its institutions. Seeking an alliance with oligarchy or "Rings," it has been subjected to no corrupt influences, but has always labored without fear or favor for the general good. It has, therefore, been the persistent and vigilant advocate of all reforms, general as well as municipal.
Receiving no aid from official patronage, the Age relies on the subscriptions and support of Democrats, and of fair and intelligent citizens who desire to see our country more justly governed, and our principles more firmly established. The Age is now the best defense of all private rights and public interests.
In the varying fortunes of parties, the intelligent and patriotic will rally to sustain free, pure, civil government, for the people and by the people, to oppose corruption and usurpation, and to preserve and purify the Abrahamic institutions that made our country the "Model Republic" of the world. Its administration, in the spirit in which it was formed, can only be conducted on what we deem to be true Democratic principles, for which the Age will still contend with an abiding faith in their ultimate triumph.
"THE DAILY AGE CONTAINS:"
1. The latest intelligence from all parts of the world.
2. Articles on Government, Trade, Politics, Finance and all the current questions of the day.
3. Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotations, Marine and Commercial Intelligence.
4. Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Legal Reports and Book Notices.
5. Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music.
6. Agricultural Matters, and Discussions of all Subjects of General Interest and Importance.
7. Special Telegrams, and all the Dispatches of the Associated Press, from every part of the World.
"THE AGE" is the only Democratic morning paper in Philadelphia in the English language, and is therefore one of the best mediums for Advertising.
THE WEEKLY AGE
is a newspaper for those outside of the great cities who are without regular daily mail facilities, but desire to be kept informed of what is transpiring around them, combining home duties with domestic instruction and recreation. Its columns are devoted to: Stories, original and selected by the best authors; Poetic Gems, from every available source; Choice Miscellany, Scientific, Amusing and Instructive; a column of Sunday Reading and Religious Intelligence; an AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, conducted by a practical Agriculturist, Mr. Thomas J. Edge, now carrying a living upon a rented farm in Chester county, in which all questions are considered which have an interest for the tillers of the soil; Weekly Contributions for the Children; Editorial Briefs; News Items, &c.; Able Editorials, and a carefully prepared compendium of Foreign and Domestic News; Washington, New York and Miscellaneous Correspondence; Financial and Commercial Statistics; Full Markets; Select Advertisements, to which a very limited space is appropriated, &c. With all these advantages, the Weekly Age is acknowledged to be the best Family Journal printed in Philadelphia.

Harper's Bazar.
Notices of the Press.
The Bazar is edited with a contribution of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.
The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household to the child, by its droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion-plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to the paternalists and luxurious by its elegant gowns. But the reading-matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide spread popularity for the fire-side enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.
SUBSCRIPTIONS.—1873.
