PROCEEDINGS IN CONGRESS.

O'Conner Eulogies in the Senate—Night Sessions of the House.

Mr. Pendleton presented a petition in the Senate Thursday signed by judges of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania and of the Common Pleas Courts of Philadelphia and neighboring counties, by the mayor and heads of departments of the city of Philadelphia, and by 2,500 leading men of all classes and professions in the cities of Philadelphia and Pittsburg, asking that appointments to subordinate executive officers, with such exceptions as may be expedient, shall be made by competitive examination, and that removals shall not be made on partisan grounds.

Mr. Maxey, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported favorably the bill for the sale of portions of the Fort Leavenworth military reservation.

Mr. Conger reported from the Committee on Commerce the bill promoting the efficiency of the Life-Saving Service, with an amendment creating an additional station.

After an attempt on the part of Mr. Harris, of Tennessee, to have Mr. Neill Brown, of Tennessee, made chief clerk, which was not agreed to, the Senate proceeded to consider bills on the calendar under the new Anthony rule, which sets apart the interval between the close of usual morning business and half-past one o'clock each day for legislation reported from committees to which there is no objection. The only bills considered were several of private interest only.

The unfinished business being the resolution declaring that the pension arrears act, when about to be repealed was taken up, Mr. Plumb taking the floor, followed by Mr. Teller.

Mr. Call submitted an amendment to the resolution providing pensions for the needy and disabled survivors of the Indian wars prior to 1845, including the Black Hawk, Creek, and Seminole wars.

After further debate Mr. Maxey was interrupted by the arrival of the hour (three o'clock) fixed for the eulogies upon the late Representative Michael P. O'Connor, of South Carolina. The pension arrears resolution was accordingly laid aside as the unfinished business, and encomiums upon the character and services of the deceased member were pronounced by Messrs. Butler, Bayard, Jones of Florida, and Hampton. After the adoption of appropriate resolutions the Senate, as an additional testimonial of respect for the memory of the deceased (at 3:40 p. m.), adjourned until Friday.

House of Representatives.

Mr. Neal, of Ohio, offered a resolution providing for night sessions on Tuesday and Thursday of each week, beginning on Thursday, the 16th instant, for the consideration of the bill establishing a municipal code for the District of Columbia. Adopted.

Mr. Cobb, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported back the resolution calling on the Secretary of the Interior for information as to the names of all railroads to which the Government has granted lands, the amount of land granted to each, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Henderson, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported back the resolution calling on the Secretary of War for an itemized statement of the expenditures for the support of the United States Signal Service. Adopted.

Under the call of committees the following reports were submitted:

By Mr. Buckner, from the Committee on Banking and Currency: For the relief of Freedman's Savings and Trust Company. Referred to the Committee of the Whole.

By Mr. McCook: For the retirement of Brevet Major-General M. C. Meigs, with the rank of major-general. Private calendar.

By Mr. Pound, from the Committee on Public Lands: To require payment of costs in certain cases of trespass or conversion of material from the public lands. House calendar.

By Mr. Jadwin, from the Committee on the District of Columbia (adversely): Bills incorporating the M Street, Thirteenth Street, and Fifteenth Street Railways. Laid on the table.

By Mr. Camp: A bill dividing the State of New York into four judicial districts. Referred.

The House then resumed consideration of the apportionment bill.

Messrs. Colerick, Dibble, McCold, Cox of New York, Tyler, Updegraff of Ohio, and Burrows of Michigan debated on the subject, when the matter went over for the present.

On motion of Mr. Valentine, the Senate amendment was concurred in to House bill appropriating $5,000 for packing, transporting, and arranging certain agricultural and mineral specimens, exhibited at the Atlanta Exposition and presented to the United States, to be placed in the National Museum.

The House then (at five o'clock) adjourned.

Good Words.

To the Editor of THE REPUBLICAN:

The affirmative of that part of your editorial in paper of the 8th instant, "To Republicans," in reference to sustaining the Liberals of the South, is the true policy. I know what it is for a man to assert his independence of Bourbon authority. A gentleman of my acquaintance, who had always voted with the Bourbons, declared his intention to vote the Republican ticket before the last Presidential election, not with any political signification, but merely as a compliment to the candidate for the Vice Presidency.

HIS FAMILY CONNECTION

ramified through many of the Bourbons of the State. He must be stopped; but they mistook their man. Never before having had any cause to pull out of the Bourbon ruts, he, like a great many others, had been content to follow the line chalked down for the masses. The attempt to drive him from his purpose was met by an unyielding determination to carry it out. To strengthen the stand he had taken, the Democrats divided on the debt question. The Bourbons would not affiliate with the Readjusters, which forced them to put a second Hancock ticket in the field. Then it was that he saw that this division might bring about the electoral ticket, therefore did all in his power to encourage the split and widen the breach. At the same time was not idle in posting the Republicans as to their duty. I give you this individual case, one of many in support of your proposition, "When you find a rebel against Bourbon authority you have found an ally in the cause of law and order." Some of our friends need looking after. They are those who last spring joined the Bourbon crew in their

ABUSE OF SENATOR MAHONE.

Many of these voted the Liberal ticket, and yet some are still tainted with the old Bourbon prejudice and will not do to depend upon unless they are encouraged by a cordial recognition. It is conceded that our State will have ten Representatives in the next Congress, one more than the present number. We can defeat the Bourbons for all save one with a Liberal majority. At some future time I wish to submit a plan by which the Bourbon ascendancy in that one can be overcome. I will close this with the chief reason of addressing you this communication—the action of a newspaper in our State from the National Capital that supports the Liberal movement South. On the lines of railroads south of this place I have never yet seen THE REPUBLICAN at way stations. Let me ask you to do something to extend its circulation in our section. PIEDMONT, VIRGINIA.

Arrangements have been made to place THE WEEKLY REPUBLICAN in every town in the South as well as Virginia.

The Potomac Manufacturing Company have commenced repairing the wharf-ground the Pioneer Mills, in this city. The timber for the repairs has been purchased, and Captain Rodgers has been engaged to drive the piles. From rheumatism I have been a great sufferer during the past seven years, and part of that time I have been confined to my bed. The last attack kept me in bed for seven long months, in which time I employed the best medical skill without securing relief. I was induced to try St. Jacobs Oil, which remedy has entirely cured me. My hands have become straight, and can be used as well as ever. I have induced others afflicted with rheumatism to use it, and they have experienced the same happy result. I wish it was in my power to tell suffering humanity of the curative powers of St. Jacobs Oil.

The Oyster-Boat Case.

The charge of larceny of an oyster-boat made against Henry Erhardt, which has been before the Police Court for several days, has been finally disposed of by Judge Snell dismissing the case. Erhardt was the owner and captain of the boat, but it was levied on by Constable Carter to satisfy the claim of the crew for money due them for wages. Mr. A. B. Williams, defendant's counsel, claimed that a vessel licensed by the United States could not be attached. The court said that the boat was taken by the defendant under a claim of right, and not clandestinely, and therefore the offense could not be larceny, but trespass, and he would dismiss the case.

"I conclude, therefore, that the water imported under the name of Apollinaris Water is an article which is produced by nature, and is not the handiwork of man; that it is a natural and not an artificial water."
—CHARLES J. FOLGER, Sec. U. S. Treasury, Jan. 29, 1882.
The above extracts dispose completely of the various attacks made upon APOLLINARIS WATER by interested manufacturers of aerated waters.

Dr. Frazier's Root Bitters.
Frazier's Root Bitters are not a dram-shop whisky beverage, but are strictly medicinal in every sense. They act strongly upon the liver and kidneys, keep the bowels open and regular, make the weak strong, heal the lungs, build up the nerves and cleanse the blood and system of every impurity.
For Dizziness, Rush of Blood to the Head, tending to Apoplexy; Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, Dropsy, Pimples and Blotches, Scrofulous Humors and Sores, Tetter, Ring Worm, White Swelling, Erysipelas, Sore Eyes, and for young men suffering from Weakness or Debility caused from imprudence, and to females in delicate health, Frazier's Root Bitters are especially recommended.
Dr. Frazier:—"I have used two bottles of your Root Bitters for Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Weakness, and Kidney Disease, and they did me more good than the doctors and all the medicine I ever used. From the first dose I took I began to mend, and I am now in perfect health, and feel as well as I ever did. I consider your medicine one of the greatest of blessings." MRS. M. MARTIN, Cleveland, Ohio.
Sold by all druggists everywhere at $1 per bottle.
