MISCELLANEOUS.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

A Sure Cure Found at Last! No One Need Suffer!

A sure cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching, and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. William (an Indian remedy), called Dr. William's Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of twenty-five or thirty years' standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments, and electuaries do more harm than good. William's Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching (particularly at night after getting warm in bed), acts as a poultice, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared only for Piles, itching of the private parts, and for nothing else.

Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry, of Cleveland, says about Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment: "I have used scores of Pile cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. William's Indian Ointment."

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Aaron Beans has been appointed postmaster at Waterford.

John B. Anglim has been appointed a postmaster at Penn's Store.

Saturday last was the centennial anniversary of Fredericksburg as an incorporated town. The day was not celebrated.

A vein of silver-bearing quartz, mixed with galena, has been found in the Silver Spring Mine, about eight miles west of Liberty, in Bedford County.

A mass meeting of the colored citizens of Richmond was held on Tuesday, and a resolution was adopted urging the superintendent of public schools to appoint colored teachers in the colored schools.

An extensive revival of religion is in progress among the colored people of Petersburg, evidences of which are daily to be seen in the hand-shakings and exhortations on the streets. One or two cases of insanity have resulted from over-excitement about religious matters.

The Readjusters have been engaged in making some amendments to their congressional reapportionment bill. It is understood that Pittsylvania will be put back into the Fifth District and Rockbridge back into the Sixth (Lynchburg) District, and that several other changes will be made.

The Hampton Monitor says that a man got drunk in that town the other day, and, among his other freaks, engaged in a desperate conflict with a clothing-store dummy, which he finally succeeded in knocking down. Being arrested for disorderly behavior and carried before a magistrate, he swore the other man struck him first.

Richard Hobbs (colored), who was recently fined $40 and costs by the mayor of Petersburg upon conviction of a misdemeanor, has hired himself out to a citizen of one of the adjacent counties at twenty-five cents per day to work until the 23d of next August, to enable him to pay the fine. Satisfactory papers being made out, Hobbs has been released from jail.

ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS.

Rev. Father Clark, of Baltimore, preached in St. Mary's Church last night.

At the meeting of the Old Dominion Building Association $5,000 was sold at an average discount of 27½ per cent.

John Penn was before the mayor yesterday, charged with an assault on his sister. He was discharged with a reprimand.

The Midland Railroad Company paid over to the treasurer of Culpeper County a few days ago for county and school taxes the sum of $1,724.

The new steam tug, the Gilmore Meredith, built at Wilmington, Del., for Georgetown parties, passed up the river yesterday with her colors flying.

Mrs. John Webster, formerly of this city, died at her home, near Broad Creek Church, Md., Tuesday, of consumption. The funeral will take place this afternoon.

The board of supervisors of Alexandria County held a meeting at the old court-house yesterday. The report of Dr. Meade, of the Washington health office, concerning the smallpox at Freedman's village was presented and discussed. An order will be made to secure the vaccination of all persons unprotected there.

The Good Templars of Washington, to the number of 200, have chartered a train, and will visit Golden Light Lodge, No. 357, of this city, on Tuesday night. Hon. W. W. Berry, G. W. C. T. of Virginia, will formally receive the visiting delegation at the hall of Golden Light Lodge at eight p. m. A banquet will be provided for the visitors.

Hon. John S. Barbour having decided to award the West Point cadetship at his disposal to the boy standing the best examination, Messrs. K. Kemper, T. H. Ficklin, and J. S. Blackburn, the examiners selected, commenced the said examination at Mr. Blackburn's school-room at five o'clock last evening. Among the competitors for the prize are James Barbour and Orville Nalle, of Culpeper; Smith D. Turner, of Warren; James B. Lovett, of Winchester; Fisher Harris, Fred Downman, Harry Shepherd, and William Clarke, of Fauquier, and Benly Mott, of Loudoun.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

John Lynch paid $5 for assaulting Patrick Foley.

Charles Jacobs was sent to jail thirty days for stealing the feed from the horse of John T. Pyles.

Mazy Curts, a white woman, was sent to the workhouse for thirty days for begging in the streets and violating the vagrant laws.

Charles Gibbs, a colored newsboy, robbed a white companion named George Gerhold of an amethyst ring, valued at $2.50, and was committed to jail for fifteen days.

A young man named Edward C. Mason was fined $10 for assaulting Mr. Blackford F. Clark, who told the court that the defendant caned him with a loaded cane at the Mount Vernon House.

James C. Sherwood, while on a large-sized spree, abused his family, cut his son Albert's head open with a glass, and cursed and swore to an unlimited extent. Judge Snell fined Sherwood $5 or fifteen days for the profanity and $20 or sixty days for assaulting his son.

Damages Awarded for Slander.

Yesterday, in the Circuit Court, the suit of Mary M. Tyar against John McC. Perkins, an action for slander and defamation of character, was tried. Messrs. Charles S. Moore and Thomas F. Miller appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. L. G. Hine for the defense. In March, 1880, the plaintiff lived at the defendant's house as a servant, and during that time the house was robbed. Perkins went about among her friends slandering her, accusing her of being instrumental to the burglary, and called her a regular thief, and liar, and saying that she stole about $300 worth of stuff from him. She was arrested and taken to the Sixth Precinct Station-House, where she was kept four days without being allowed to communicate with anybody. She asked to be allowed to send for her priest, and was told that if she would confess to the robbery he would be sent for. Finally she was taken to the Police Court, and acknowledged to having taken a little tea, with which she made herself some tea while acting in her capacity as servant. She was sentenced by Judge Snell to pay a fine of $10 or thirty days in jail. She paid $5 and was released. The jury awarded her $250 damages.

MULTITUDES of people who have been in mortal dread of rheumatism, neuralgia, and other painful diseases now rest perfectly easy, knowing full well that St. Jacobs Oil will cure those troublesome ailments without possibility of failure.
