The interminable colt case received another lift yesterday by Miss Jones' attorneys taking out writs of garnishment and attachment against James Smith.

The New Hampshire Club, of Concord, will leave Boston April 10 on an excursion to Richmond, and on their return will stop in Washington two or three days.

During the past week the food inspectors condemned 79 bunches of fish and inspected 7,120 bushels of oysters; 4,321 bunches of fish, 21,000 herring, and 7,733 shad.

The Right Rev. William Pinckney, D. D. (bishop), will preach, administer rite of confirmation, and celebrate the Holy Communion in Grace Church, southwest, to-morrow, at eleven a. m.

The District Auxiliary Women's National Relief Association will give a donation party, concert, and dance at Willard Hall this evening, for the benefit of the sufferers by the Mississippi floods.

A colored boy named Arthur Smith, thirteen years old, died suddenly yesterday afternoon at his home, 799 Ninth street northwest. The coroner has been notified and will investigate the matter.

It has been stated by one of the directors of the late Citizens' Insurance Company that the stockholders would get all their money back except $150, which would be divided pro rata. There will be no assessment.

Captain John G. Morrill, Doorkeeper of the Senate, had a successful surgical operation performed Thursday on his leg by Drs. Ford Thompson and C. M. Ford for necrosis, caused from a wound received during the late war.

On motion of Mr. W. S. Abert, David S. Houndshell, of the bar of Virginia, was yesterday admitted to practice at the District bar. On Mr. J. K. Redington's motion, Mark D. Brainard, of the Alexandria bar, was also admitted.

License Agent Henry Raff yesterday swore out a warrant against Roswell F. Pickert, of the Importers' Tea Company, for running a gift enterprise. He was arrested by Officer Herbert and gave his personal bonds to appear in the Police Court to-day.

A German theatrical performance entitled "Die Lieder des Musikanten" was rendered last evening before a large audience at Abner's Hall, the principal characters being in the hands of Mrs. Lovie Fellman, of Baltimore; Mr. Colignon, and Mr. Strauß, of this city.

It is said that some Baltimore parties have made the owners of the Imperial Hotel an offer for the property, and if it is accepted the present building will be torn down and another will be erected containing about 125 rooms, which will be used as a hotel, to be run on the European plan.

Mr. Whitney, manager of the Western Union Telegraph Office in this city, notified the parties interested yesterday that a branch telegraph office would be established at 209 Pennsylvania avenue east as early next week as is practicable. The citizens are much pleased at this action of the company, as a telegraph office is badly needed in East Washington.

In the Criminal Court yesterday Mr. William Henry Browne, counsel for Christiana Taylor, charged with murder, asked the court when his client would be tried. The District Attorney said the case would be set down for trial next Monday. It was ordered by the Court that the defendant be allowed fifteen witnesses, to be paid by the Government.

The alarm of fire from box 28 at 4:50 o'clock yesterday afternoon was caused by fire being discovered at 1917 Harewood avenue, Le Droit Park, the residence of A. L. Barber. The fire was extinguished by the neighbors before the department arrived, after doing about $200 worth of damage, which is fully covered by insurance. The blaze was caused by fire catching from the furnace in the cellar.

At a meeting of the congregation of the Unity Presbyterian Church (at present worshipping in Clabaugh Hall, Fourteenth street), a unanimous call was extended to Rev. George B. Patch to be their pastor. This church has entered on their work with an earnestness and liberality of spirit which betokens a bright future for them, and their present quarters are becoming too small for their rapidly growing congregations.

At Dr. E. P. Howland's lecture to-night, at Lincoln Hall, the anæsthetic properties of nitrous oxide will be shown and its effects illustrated. There will be experiments in polarization of light, and one of the illustrations of the wonders of the microscope will be Webb's writing on glass with a diamond of the Lord's Prayer on the one hundred and thirty thousandth part of an inch—so small that eight whole Bibles, and 3,963 Lords' Prayers for a margin, could be written on a single square inch.

An Improvement Down the River.

The Potomac Fruit Growers' Improvement Company have completed the purchase of the Alhambra or Brazilian building from the Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia. This building, about 40 by 70 feet on the ground, is of wood and iron filled with corrugated glass beautifully stained in red, blue, and gold, and is to be placed on that airy and beautiful bluff between the two wharves at Glymont as a pavilion for the use of excursionists. It is hoped to have it in readiness for the opening of the season. The purchase also includes the Chinese court so well remembered by all who visited the Centennial for its beauty and elaborate workmanship. The company now have the deed of the farm and full possession of both it and the Glymont property and have made arrangements to commence, on Monday, the removal of fences, enlarging and beautifying the grounds and other preparations for the opening of the excursion season on the 1st of June.

Sudden Death from Apoplexy.

Mr. William E. Kennaugh died suddenly yesterday afternoon at the printing office of Thomas McGill & Co., No. 1107 E street. The first notice of his illness was his dropping in his chair. He was unconscious and remained so without any indication of suffering, until he died, about one hour and a half after he was first attacked. Mr. Kennaugh was well known to the old residents of Washington. Belonged to one of the earliest families of the District, and was highly respected as an honorable and very intelligent gentleman. His health has been feeble for several years. He leaves a wife and three children.

DISTRICT COMMISSIONERS.

Current Transactions at the Various District Offices.

Building permits were issued yesterday to Benjamin Chariton & Co., to make repairs at 474 C street northwest, to cost $3,000; W. Behrends, to make repairs at the corner of Seventh and H streets northwest, to cost $25; Stephen Gatti, to make repairs at 714 Seventh street northwest, to cost $500; Frank T. Rawlings, to build one brick stable in alley between Ninth and Tenth and P and Q streets northwest, to cost $300; W. D. Harlan, to build one frame dwelling Blair's Road, county, to cost $275; M. R. Welch, to build one brick dwelling on Sixth, between M and N streets northwest, to cost $500.

Arrangements are being perfected by the Engineer-Commissioner for the letting of contracts on May 1 for the building of the fourth section of the great Boundary-street intercepting auxiliary sewer.

Judge Hagner has addressed a letter to the Commissioners protesting against the Washington and Georgetown street railroad being permitted to make a back-stand of the Avenue at Eighteenth street where the one-horse-cars stop.

The Commissioners have addressed a letter to the Hon. E. H. Rollins in response to the request for their views on the petition praying for legislation to prohibit the sale of liquor within two squares of a school-house. The letter states that the Commissioners have no objection to such legislation.

Complaints have been received in regard to a frame house, No. 415 Thirteenth-and-a-half street southwest, which is reported to have become so dilapidated that it is abandoned by tenants, and is the harbor for tramps, mischievous boys, and untidy persons.

The proprietors of Ford's Opera-House have complied with the request of the Building Inspector relative to the strengthening of the outside stairways and portices of that building, so that it is now secure in the event of any panic. The alterations in and about the proscenium will be made within the time specified.

WEST WASHINGTON.

The steam tug Hercules, of Baltimore, after taking on coal at Borden's wharf, left last evening for the bay. She came here late Thursday night from Philadelphia with three barges of coal for the gas company.

The herring received from the upper landings yesterday met with a ready sale at $15 per 1,000. Mr. Norman S. Boope caught a salmon in his net while fishing off the lower end of Analostan Island, Thursday morning. Several small ones were captured in the same spot last year, and the impression prevails that there will be quite a number this season.

Emily Payne, a colored woman, twenty-seven years of age, was taken to the Freedman's Hospital yesterday, upon the certificate of Dr. Suter, physician to the poor. She lived at the corner of Twenty-eighth and Olive streets, and was in very destitute circumstances.

Mechanics' Lodge, No. 18, received a semi-annual visitation from the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. last night.

Very little damage was done to Beckett's Hall by the fire Thursday night. It is believed to have been the work of an incendiary.

Hermione Lodge, No. 12, K. of P., proposes celebrating their fourteenth anniversary on the 14th proximo, at Curtis Hall. It will be a complimentary entertainment, and no doubt a very fine one, as some of the best musical and literary talent in the District has been engaged. Tickets can be had of any member of the lodge.

The proprietor of the West End Hotel is expecting the arrival of the celebrated German naturalist, Dr. Narrenfalle, whose articles on pisciculture have attracted so much attention of late. His object in visiting this locality is to test an invention of his for catching fish without materially injuring them. His experiments will be watched with a great deal of interest.

High Tide.—April 1 (Saturday), 6:13 a. m., 6:38 p. m. April 2 (Sunday), 6:51 a. m., 7:16 p. m.

Reception to Rev. Dr. Deale.

An informal reception was tendered Rev. Dr. Deale at Foundry Church last night by his many friends in this city, who desired to extend to him their congratulations upon his accession to the presiding eldership. The reception was in charge of a committee of ladies composed as follows: Mrs. Thomas P. Morgan, Mrs. King, Miss Juliet Gardner, Miss Faddis Brown, and Mrs. B. H. Stinemetz. After the company present had shaken hands with the reverend gentleman the Young People's Literary Society of Foundry Church presented the following programme for the amusement of the assemblage: Recitation by Master Georgie Kraft; reading by Miss Katie Brown; recitation by Master Willie Chandler; music—solo, "Twickenham Ferry," by Miss Graff; recitation by P. H. Taylor; reading by Miss Weller; music—solo, "Sing, Sweet Bird," by Miss Morrison. Recitations were also given by Mrs. Clark and Mr. David C. Bangs. The evening's entertainment was voted a decided success, and was most heartily enjoyed by the number of distinguished divines who were in attendance. Among those present were Commissioner Morgan, Comptroller Lawrence, Rev. Dr. Wilson, of McKendree, and Rev. Dr. Woodward, of Wesley Chapel; William Sibley, esq., and family, and Thomas Summerville, esq., and family.

For Betty and the Baby.

Among those who have been most earnest in their sympathy for Mrs. Sergeant Mason and her baby none have been more generous in contributing to her assistance than Mlle. Rhea, and she proposes to give a matinee for her benefit at Ford's Opera-House on Tuesday afternoon next. She offers the services of herself and her entire company for this purpose, and they will come from Baltimore, where she plays next week, especially to give this performance. She intends to see some prominent gentlemen, and it is believed that the boxes will readily be disposed of at $100 each. This performance will be a means of adding to the funds that have already been secured for Mrs. Mason, and a handsome sum should be realized. Mrs. Mason called at THE REPUBLICAN office yesterday and expressed her thanks for the kindly treatment she had received at the hands of the press. She confidently expects that her husband will shortly be released.

Is It Carelessness or Corruption?

It now appears that the failure to prosecute the street railway companies for failing to pay their license taxes is not because the companies cannot be found, as was the natural inference, but because the prosecuting authorities have not issued the warrants. About ten days ago informations against the Metropolitan and Washington and Georgetown lines were sworn out by the special license agent, and he, like the general public, is at a loss to know why the corporations cannot be prosecuted as private individuals would be. The only question seems to be whether this delay arises from careless and inexcusable neglect or from corruption and bribery. The facts in the case are that the District law specifically imposes an annual tax of $10 for each car owned and used by a railroad company. This tax was regularly paid until about three years ago, since which time it has been persistently violated.—Evening Critic.

An Accomplished Young Sneak Thief.

In the Police Court yesterday a colored girl, named Lillie Shueman, thirteen years of age, was tried for a series of petit robberies, which show her to be an accomplished sneak thief. Miss Eleanor Gaines, a young lady residing at No. 1223 G street northwest, testified to finding the girl in the dining-room of her residence on the 23d instant, and that the girl made an explanation of her presence there, which, after her departure, proved to be false. Miss Gaines discovered that the girl had stolen a pair of gaiters belonging to her. Mrs. Garret, living at No. 1011 G street, also testified that the girl had stolen a pair of bracelets from her under similar circumstances. Judge Snell postponed sentence in the case to give the parents of the defendant an opportunity to give security that the young thief would be committed by them to a reformatory.

The Biological Society.

The Biological Society held its twenty-fifth regular meeting in the lecture-room of the National Museum yesterday evening. Eighty members were present, Professor Ward in the chair. Dr. Prentiss read a very interesting paper on "Mesmerism in Animals," and at its close successfully "mesmerized" a canary bird and a hen. An animated discussion of the phenomena of mesmerism followed, in which participated Dr. Schaeffer, Dr. Billings, Professor Ellsey, Dr. Coves, Mr. Willey, Professor Riley, Mr. True, Dr. King, Mr. Gilbert, and Dr. Gibson. Professor Alexander Agassiz, Professor A. S. Packard, jr., of Brown University; Professor E. S. Morse, of Salem, Mass.; Dr. Robert Collet, of Bergen University, Norway, and Professor Oscar Grimm, of St. Petersburg, Russia, were elected corresponding members.

James A. Garfield Post.

No. 7, Department of Potomac, G. A. R., is the name of a new post of the Grand Army of the Republic which was organized last night and mustered in under the direction of Department Commander S. S. Burdette. There was a good attendance. Speeches were made by Commander Burdette and others, who expressed themselves as well pleased with the promising beginning of the new post. The officers of the post are: Commander, Stanton Weaver; senior vice-commander, Horace H. Brown; junior vice-commander, William Winans; adjutant, G. S. Emery; Q. M., George W. Carr; chaplain, George J. P. Wood; officer of guard, Henry H. Hough.

Projected Improvements.

The Washington Market Company intend, in the course of the next two weeks, to paint their buildings, inside and outside, and improve the present appearance of the market. They also intend to continue the bridge which now spans the park on the north side of the market, so as to connect with the second story of the wholesale stores. The upper rooms will be turned into offices, as they are directly accessible from the Avenue by means of the bridge.

Carroll Branch, No. 224, Catholic Knights of America, was organized last evening by the election of the following officers: Spiritual director, Rev. J. A. Walter; president, W. P. Welch; vice-president, Ed J. Hannan; recording secretary, F. N. Devereux; financial secretary, C. L. Clarke; treasurer, S. B. Ellery; sergeant-at-arms, A. McKenna; sentinel, C. B. Dowden; trustees—J. Fitzpatrick, J. H. Clarke, and J. T. Harbin.

Prisoners of War.

The prisoners of war held a meeting last evening to determine as to the various bills relating to themselves and their comrades, now in course of preparation, as well as those which have already been before Congress, and have determined to meet again at seven o'clock p. m. on Monday, the 3d instant, in the west wing of the City Hall for final agreement.

Ford's Opera-House.

Mlle. Rhea will close a remarkably successful engagement at Ford's Opera-House with to-day's matinee and to-night's performance. One remarkable feature of her engagement has been the character of the audiences who have been in nightly attendance. The best of our citizens, the most prominent representatives of our fashionable society, the members of the diplomatic corps, of both houses of Congress, have been regular attendants, and have proved their gratification at her performances by repeating their visits. The beauty of face and form of Mlle. Rhea, her elaborate toilettes—more exquisite in combination of color, in richness of material, and abundance of trimming than has been seen here—are of course valuable adjuncts to her success; but were she as plain as Charlotte Cushman, her refined intelligence, cultured experience, grace of movement, and the vital and natural presentation of her characters would place her foremost in the rank of dramatic artists. Her performance of "Camille" last night was thoroughly enjoyed, and even the most blase play-goer was startled into admiration and applause by its excellence. At the matinee to-day "Adrienne Lecouvreur" will be given, and to-night, which will be made a souvenir occasion, "Camille" will be repeated.

National Theatre.

Wilson, Barlow, Primrose, and West's Minstrels, which have been furnishing great heaps of fun during the past week, will give but two more performances—a matinee and the night performance. The excellence of their entertainments, both as to their singing, witticisms, and the variety and novelty of their olio programme, should induce full houses.

Bicycle Races To-Day.

The Union Bicycle Club, composed of juveniles, will give a series of races at Iowa Circle to-day, at half-past four p. m. The exhibition given by these young lads last summer was very interesting and a good crowd will undoubtedly be present to-day.

LOCAL MENTION.

Only Two More Days—To-Day and Monday—We Close Monday Night, April 3, at Nine o'Clock.

This morning early we will put FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS in one can and put it on our shelves. If it is sold at any time during the day within fifteen minutes from the time of sale another can with another FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS will be put in its place. Our object is to have all the time in stock and for sale one can and only one with FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS in it. The person that selects that can is perfectly welcome to it, with its entire contents, on paying the price, $1. All other cans will contain each a sum of money, either $250, $200, $175, $150, $140, $125, $100, $75, $60, $50, $40, $30, $25, $20, $15, $10, $5, $3, $2, $1, or 75 cents, 60 cents, 50 cents, 40 cents, 30 cents, 25 cents, 20 cents, 15 cents, or 10 cents. Remember no can will contain more than $500 nor less than 10 cents. Our tea is of an excellent quality—none better; and, as for our coffee, it is a pure Mocha and Java mixed—the best in America. WE WILL PAY ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS GOLD FOR EVERY OUNCE OF ADULTERATION FOUND IN EITHER TEA OR COFFEE PURCHASED FROM US. While we sell the best goods we also sell the cheapest; we repeat it, THE CHEAPEST. If you buy one can of coffee and find but 10 cents in it, you only pay about 27½ cents per pound for coffee that will cost you elsewhere from 30 to 35 cents per pound—generally the latter amount. If you should buy 6 cans for $5, and find but 10 cents in each of the 6 cans, which is most probable, you would then pay per pound less than 23 cents. If you buy a larger number of cans the price per pound is correspondingly less. Figure it yourself. Our price to one dollar is $1 per can, 6 cans for $5, 12 cans for $10, 25 cans for $20, or 65 cans for $50, with not less than 10 cents, perhaps more, in each can. We have given away since we opened here, nearly three months ago, more than thirteen hundred watches, more than three hundred articles of diamond jewelry, and over eight thousand dollars in money to our patrons. We have paid thousands of dollars for advertising our goods, and not a paper in this city but what has repeatedly indorsed us as a fair and square dealing firm. We have closed negotiations for our store in Boston, and will begin to ship our goods next Tuesday. To-day and Monday will be our last two days here in Washington. If you want tea or coffee now is your chance to get a supply cheap. We wish to leave a good trade for our agent here after we leave. We claim that it is impossible for you to lose anything on a can of tea or coffee that you buy from us, and you may get enough in the can you buy to keep you for a year. Orders by mail promptly forwarded to all parts of the United States. Don't forget we will most positively close Monday night at nine o'clock sharp. Address

A TRUE TONIC.

WEST WASHINGTON, D. C., March 6, 1882.
GENTLEMEN:
Having tested Brown's Iron Bitters by constant use in my family, it affords me great pleasure to state that as a tonic it has proved itself to be all that is claimed for it; and in cases of dyspepsia and general debility I shall in all cases continue to both use and recommend it.
Yours, respectfully,
F. G. LOOKERMAN, D. D. S.
[Consumption, kidney diseases, liver complaints have been cured by Brown's Iron Bitters.]

CHEW J. B. Pace's "Diadora" tobacco. Morcoe's, 1207 Pennsylvania avenue (wide-open doors.)

THE finest display of spring goods will be next Monday at Baum's grand spring opening. A handsome opening souvenir to all the patrons of the house.

"THE JEWEL" cigar, 5 cents straight. Morcoe's (wide-open doors), 1207 Pennsylvania avenue northwest.

Highest Prize Port Wine.

The best wine in the country, that took the highest premium at the Centennial, is Speer's Port Grape Wine, which has become the most celebrated product of New Jersey. This wine and his P. J. Brandy are now being used by physicians everywhere, who rely upon them as being the purest to be had. It is unsurpassed for weakly females and old people. Used by the best Fifth avenue society as an evening social wine.

"Alderney Dairy Wagons."

Fresh Alderney butter churned every morning, and delivered in 1-lb. "Ward" prints, at 55c. per lb. Also cottage cheese, 5c. per ball; buttermilk, 5c. per quart, and sweet milk 5c. per quart.
