Dr. Frazier's Root Bitters.

Frazier's Root Bitters are not a dram-shop whisky beverage, but are strictly medicinal in every sense. They act strongly upon the liver and kidneys, keep the bowels open and regular, make the weak strong, heal the lungs, build up the nerves and cleanse the blood and system of every impurity.

For Dizziness, Rush of Blood to the Head, tending to Apoplexy; Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, Dropsy, Pimples and Blotches, Scrofulous Humors and Sores, Tetter, Ring Worm, White Swelling, Erysipelas, Sore Eyes, and for young men suffering from Weakness or Debility caused from imprudence, and to females in delicate health, Frazier's Root Bitters are especially recommended.

Dr. Frazier: "I have used two bottles of your Root Bitters for Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Weakness, and Kidney Disease, and they did me more good than the doctors and all the medicine I ever used. From the first dose I took I began to mend, and I am now in perfect health, and feel as well as I ever did. I consider your medicine one of the greatest of blessings." MRS. M. MARTIN,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Sold by all druggists everywhere at $1 per bottle.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Staunton has two cases of smallpox and Clifton Forge one.

E. S. Fries has been commissioned postmaster at Cedar Grove, Frederick County.

The Baldwin (Augusta) Fair have arranged for a ten-mile go-as-you-please walking match at their October fair.

Martinsville, the county seat of Henry, will open the next season, probably, with four tobacco factories and one warehouse.

William T. Brooke, of Warrenton, Fauquier County, has been elected to the position of civil engineer of the city of Norfolk.

Messrs. Marshall & Bispham have established in Warrenton a paper-bag factory and printing and wrapping-paper establishment.

The Tappahannock Index says that William I. King, of that place, has recently shipped from counties bordering on the Rappahannock over fifty thousand bushels of corn.

Mr. N. W. Pearson, of Fairfax County, has been requested by the New York Chamber of Commerce to prepare a paper on Virginia, to be read at their next annual meeting, and is now engaged on that work.

A colored man was before Justice B. T. Tatem, of Berkeley, on the charge of seduction, and was sentenced to marry his victim, and an officer was dispatched with him to see that the sentence of the court was inflicted.

A number of German settlers in the Roanoke Valley have given a wonderful impetus by their example to the fruit-growing business. The farmers in Botetourt and Roanoke are setting out fruit trees by the thousand.

The chaplain of the Ninth New Hampshire Regiment has just returned to the original owner, Dr. F. W. Johnston, of Fredericksburg, an Episcopal prayer-book, which fell into his hands when Fredericksburg was invaded in 1862.

One of the most popular and clever letter-carriers of Indianapolis, Ind., Mr. J. H. Mattern, was cured by St. Jacobs Oil of a severely stubborn sprain that had afflicted him since the war. The Great German Remedy is very popular in the Indianapolis post-office.

ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS.

Mr. F. A. Howell has left here for Harrisburg, Pa., to take a position as conductor on the Northern Central Railroad.

Mr. P. A. Burdick, of New York, will commence a series of temperance meetings in the hall of the Reform Club to-night.

It is understood that a movement is on foot for the building of a new ship-yard in this city just south of the Potomac Company's works.

The passenger train due here at 12:45 yesterday did not arrive till half-past three, in consequence of the engine getting off the track at Danville.

A four-handed match game of pool, for the championship of Alexandria and a gold badge, was commenced in Mr. Euben's restaurant Monday night last, and will be continued until fifty games are played.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Great Falls Manufacturing Company was held at Green's Mansion House, in this city, yesterday. A good deal of important business was presented for consideration, but the election of officers was postponed.

City Superintendent Carne and Thomas Leadbetter, esq., of the city school board, tried the experiment yesterday afternoon of how soon the Peabody building could be emptied in case of fire, exclusive of the little children on the ground-floor, who have four doors for escape. There were 336 pupils present, and all were on the pavement with hats, shawls, books, &c., in two minutes and a half; without them in two minutes.

Mr. John W. Campbell, deputy sergeant of this city, died at his home, on Wolfe street, Wednesday night, from the effects of a cold, which resulted from his attendance on the sale of S. C. Neale's effects. Mr. Campbell was a native of Alexandria, and for many years carried on the business of a carpenter. He was always a prominent Democrat, and served for some years as inspector at the custom-house. He has been connected with the city sergeant's office for many years. One of the earliest members of Potomac Lodge and of Marley Encampment, I. O. O. F., he remained connected with these institutions until his death.

EVERY one delighted. Every purchaser recommends German Corn Remover. Get the genuine. 25 cents.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

Clara Coleman, a vagrant, has been committed to the work-house.

William Brooks struck Edward Harris in the mouth, for which he paid $10 fine.

Samuel D. Phillips violated the building regulations, and paid $10. Judge Snell made the assessment.

It is evident that Daniel Webster still lives, as he was fined for orating too boisterously in Tincup alley.

Charles West and George Strange, two little boys, stole a set of harness, and have gone to jail for thirty days.

Jenny Cochran, a white girl, was charged with being a common prostitute, and sentenced to ninety days in the work-house.

Martha Chase, a colored servant girl, robbed Mrs. Crimmons, her employer, of several articles of underwear, and was sentenced to sixty days in jail.

Thomas Davis, colored, was charged with assaulting William Cahill, and the case was dismissed. Davis was the watchman in charge of some property, which Cahill attempted to remove and Davis undertook and succeeded in defending.
