SNOW WHITE BREAD and beautiful Rolls and Biscuits will be guaranteed if you use STERLING, the celebrated Minnesota Patent-Process Flour, which was awarded the First Premium over all other competitors at the National Fair in 1879, and again the First Premium, in the shape of a very handsome medal, in 1880 and 1881. The millers claim that one barrel of Ceres will turn out forty loaves more bread than any other flour in America. STERLING'S ST. LOUIS FANCY, one of the best family Winter-Wheat Patent Flours ever offered to the trade. It is unexcelled by any other Patent except Ceres, and will please the most exacting housekeeper and satisfy the most fastidious epicure. RELIANCE, a splendid Minnesota Patent Flour, made by the celebrated Hungarian Process. It is a very clean and beautiful Patent, within the reach of all classes, and we guarantee will give satisfaction to every one who will try it. GOLDEN HILL, the old reliable standby and the Standard Family Flour of the District, and equal to a great many so-called Patent flours. The millers or manufacturers of Golden Hill have spent about $10,000 in remodeling their mill, and have introduced the so celebrated Roller system, and consequently Golden Hill is not only a magnificent Family Flour, but it is really a patent flour with the great advantage that it can be bought for considerably less money than a great many Patent-Process flours not near as white nor as nutritious as Golden Hill. For sale by all Grocers, Wholesale Depot, corner First street and Indiana avenue.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Women's Work in the Conversion of the Heathen—Gratifying Reports.

There was on Thursday last, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m., a large and enthusiastic meeting in the Metropolitan M. E. Church of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Baltimore Branch. Mrs. Bishop Andrews presided. Mrs. Clara Roach conducted the morning's devotional exercises. Mrs. Louise E. Deane delivered an able and extremely happy address of welcome. Reports were read from Foundry, Wesley Chapel, both junior and senior; Metropolitan, Fourth Street, McKendry, senior; Ryland, Waugh, Hamline, Grace, Dunbarton, and Annapolis, first and second charges. Calls were made for churches of other denominations. Mrs. J. E. Dexter responded for the Baptist Church, and Mrs. Collins for the United Presbyterian. Bishop Andrews made an address. Mrs. Stevens, of Wilmington, Del., conducted the devotional exercises after luncheon. Miss Cora Walker, of Ryland Chapel, read an original poem. Miss Belle Hart, corresponding secretary of the Baltimore Conference, read an address. Mrs. Seis, who has been a missionary in China for twenty years, told many interesting facts about that country. Her two children—Miss Elsie, aged 5 years, and Master Freddie, aged 3 years—spoke and sang in Chinese, dressed in Chinese costumes. Mrs. Soper, a returned missionary from Japan, presented her little one dressed as a Jap. Mrs. Tillon recited an original poem. Miss Jennie Cutter presided at the organ. Miss Gray and Mr. Woodman each sang a solo. Rev. Richard Norris pronounced the benediction. Mrs. Deane, corresponding secretary of the Metropolitan Auxiliary, reported as last year's results: $107,923.45 paid into the treasury of the society; eight new missionaries sent into foreign lands; the number of annual members is 65,662; life members, 3,623; subscribers to Heathen Woman's Friend, 18,007. The Baltimore Branch, the smallest of the branches, paid in $11,029.65.

A Shocking Murder.

A shocking murder occurred at Dennison, a few miles east of Newcomerstown, Ohio, which has caused most intense excitement. Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson keep a saloon in Dennison, and Mr. Steve Ryan, Mrs. Robinson's brother-in-law, came in with a friend named Sterling and demanded whisky. The demand not being complied with, Ryan then called for beer, and after drinking a glass began to abuse Mrs. Robinson and drew his revolver to shoot. Mrs. Robinson, being large, robust woman, seized the revolver and took it from Ryan, whereupon, infuriated by drink, he dealt her a terrible blow and at the same time knocked the counter over against her, crushing her against the wall. Ryan then left. Mrs. Robinson sat down in a chair and began to spit blood. She told her husband to have Ryan arrested, for she was going to die, and scarcely had she uttered the last word of the sentence when she dropped to the floor a corpse. As soon as the news spread through town that she had been killed the greatest excitement arose and Ryan was immediately arrested. He remarked when he heard of her death that he was glad of it.

Mrs. Morrill's Receptions.

At Mrs. Imogene Robinson Morrill's last reception a select and appreciative audience enjoyed a delightful evening in viewing the works of art that adorn Mrs. Morrill's school of painting and in listening to her dissertation upon the technique of art. Among those who contributed to the exercises of the evening were Mrs. J. G. Mills, who was several times demanded by the company to favor them with selections from her rich and cultured contralto voice and repertoire. Mr. B. H. Pierce, a new teacher of elocution from Wisconsin, recited with great acceptance "The Wolves" and "The Faces of the Children." Mrs. Case recited "Maude Muller" in excellent style. Miss Sullivan gave "An Order for a Picture," and Mrs. Naller, who recited "The Maid of Bregenz," was not excused until she gave, by unanimous request, her inimitable rendering of "The Jinere." The Misses Clues and Mr. Collins also added to the musical features of the evening.

A Fight in Alaska.

The Secretary of the Navy has been requested to order the United States steamer Wachusett, now at Sitka, to Harrisburg to preserve order. He will probably grant the request.

On the farm of Rev. J. C. Willis, which is located in Orange County, there was plowed up in 1858 the remains of an Indian chief—supposed to be from the "jewels he wore," which were a finely wrought turban, a string of beautiful shells, and a blanket.

The water is all right again in the canal, it having been drawn off for half a day only in order to repair a break in the log-wall level. A party of excursionists who started for Great Falls early yesterday morning had not been heard from up to a late hour last night, and the probabilities are they're footing it home. If our memory serves us correctly, that is just what we had to do once, when we were in a hurry. A canal-boat is an elegant concern for a man to travel on who can stand lots of rest, but it is a good idea for a person to arrange his business for several days ahead if he contemplates a trip to Great Falls by canal. [N. B.—This is not a paid ad. for the Packet Company.]
