DOS PASSOS
ON STOCK-BROKERS
AND STOCK EXCHANGES.

A Treatise on the Law of Stock-brokers and Stock-Exchanges, By John R. Dos Passos, of the New York Bar. 8vo, 1083 pages, Law Sheep, $7.50.

From BRAYTON IVES, Esq., Chairman Law Committee, New York Stock Exchange.

"I am greatly pleased with the extent and accuracy of the information concerning the history and customs of stock exchanges, and the dealings of brokers. In view of the magnitude and importance of the interests involved, and the general lack of knowledge concerning them which has hitherto prevailed, I feel that you have conferred a favor both on brokers and the public by your intelligent and exhaustive labor."

Regarding the treatise as a whole, it may be said that, whatsoever of principle or precedent exists, whatsoever of lawful usage and custom has been established in relation to stock-brokerage in transactions and remedies between broker and dealer in this city or elsewhere, will be found exhaustively stated and discussed by Mr. Dos Passos. No investor or speculator or broker or banker ought to transact his business affairs without owning and consulting this treatise.—N. Y. World.

The subject is as fresh, as regards any thorough and elaborate treatment of it, as it is important, and the value of this contribution to it cannot fail to be recognized.—Boston Journal.

It is, so far as we are aware, the only one which covers the whole of the ground here occupied; and it really does cover the ground which it undertakes to occupy. * * * We are inclined to consider it one of the few books which will be indispensable to the commercial lawyer.—Boston Advertiser.

Published by HARPER & BROTHERS, New York.
☞ Sent by mail, postage prepaid, to any part of the United States, on receipt of the price.

SUMMER STORMS.

The Showers Saturday and Yesterday—The Sidewalk Brigade.

The storm on Saturday afternoon was evidently the first of the usual series of summer cyclones for which Washington has become famous. What the storm lacked in duration it fully made up in vigor, and for nearly a half an hour Pennsylvania avenue bore a strong resemblance to some of the Pennsylvania rivers upon which some hundred thousands have been expended for improvement of navigation. In front of Willard's the usual Saturday army of "judges, majahs, and kannels" were congregated discussing the deadlock and doing the statue act for the edification of the fair promenaders. There were a number of new spring suits in the crowd, and as the first drops of the shower came rattling down there was rapid retreat made to the lobby and bar of the hotel. Just in the midst of a round of Kentucky nectar in which it was proposed to shrink one of the spring suits,

A FULL GROWN THUNDER BOLT

dropped on the chimney of Squier's bank and sent a shower of bricks half way across the Avenue. The blaze of electricity and the deafening crash of the thunder demoralized the group of bibulous gents for a second, then realizing that glass was a non-conductor each man stuck his tumbler to his lips and drank success to the storm-king. In Georgetown and the northwestern section of the city considerable damage was done by the flooding of cellars, the blowing down of signs and chimneys, and the stripping of the limbs from the trees. Near the corner of Thirty-second and O streets the sewers were unable to carry off the storm-water, and the flood at some points reached a depth of four feet. George B. Lockart's drug store, the grocery stores of P. T. Berry, Renshaw, and Hanlon & Lyddane were all flooded and considerable damage done. All along between O and P streets with water, and the occupants of the houses will suffer considerable loss. Freeman's fancy store, Schreiber's tailoring establishment, and Payne's shoe store were all drowned out, and in fact all along in this vicinity the damage will be considerable, and some extensive repairs will be required on the sidewalk and streets, which were badly washed out in dangerous holes. Never before within the memory of the oldest inhabitant has the water risen to such a height at this point. The storm yesterday afternoon were comparatively slight, but the rainfall was considerable, and at midnight the indications are that further additions will be made to it. No serious damages have been reported on the river or on the railroads leading out of the city, but the telegraph and telephone wires in and around the city received much damage and a thorough tangling up.

THE CELLARS AND BASEMENTS WERE FILLED

TEMPERANCE WORKERS.

What the Cold Water People Did Yesterday for the Cause.

The Dashaway Reform Club closed their meetings in Lincoln Hall last evening for the summer months. The meeting was one of unusual interest, Mr. G. M. Nye presiding. On the platform were seated the Hon. P. O. Hawes, of Omaha, Neb.; also, a delegation from the recent International Convention of Good Templars held in Charleston, S. C., consisting of Rev. John H. Boswell, Camden, N. J.; T. F. Parker, Eldred, Pa.; George E. Brackett, Belfast, Me. Speeches were made by Judge Hawes, of Omaha; T. F. Parker, past grand worthy chief Templar of New York, and Charley Nye. A large number signed the pledge.

WOMEN'S TEMPERANCE WORK.

Mrs. Clara L. Roach led a very profitable meeting in Masonic Temple yesterday. Rev. T. F. Parker, of Pennsylvania, author of "The History of the Good Templars," gave a very interesting address, setting forth Christ as the example in all temperance work. Hon. I. W. Quinby, of Ohio, gave an account of the battle with rum in his State, and Mr. J. N. Stearns, of New York, correspondent secretary of the National Temperance Society, made an earnest speech, full of good sense and kindly feeling. Mr. Taylor, of Washington, also made an effective address.

BUD EAGLESTON'S TENT.

Last evening the tent was densely thronged, notwithstanding the rain. In the afternoon the tent was blown down by the breaking of a hook of one of the guys. It was speedily raised again by the volunteer aid of the employes of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company and Messrs. Robert Gales and Allen Hughes, of the Government Printing Office. These gentlemen have always been ready and willing to sustain Bud in his work. In the absence of the chaplain prayer was offered by Brother Eagleston. Mrs. Moulton and Mrs. Ryan were introduced, who gave many reasons why the people should sign the pledge. That old veteran, James Devine, and Dr. Carpenter also spoke. The music, under the direction of Professor Bagel, was good, Miss Burlingame presiding at the organ.

The Mount Vernon Regents.

The session of the regents of Mount Vernon Saturday was devoted entirely to the consideration of appropriations necessary for repairs during the ensuing year. Among the transactions was an arrangement made for telephone communications between Mount Vernon and Alexandria. Also the adoption of complimentary resolutions and the bestowal of valuable gifts on Superintendent Hollingsworth as a token of appreciation by the society of his ability and services. The officers of the association yesterday attended Pohick Church in a body, the pew occupied by General Washington having been secured to the association at a rental of $30 per annum. The energetic vice-regent of West Virginia, Mrs. Colonel Washington, has collected and placed on exhibition in the mansion several more old relics of the family, principal among which is a chart showing a geographical survey of Mount Vernon made by General Washington, which fixes the elevation of the mansion at 124 feet 10½ inches above the river. Also a book printed in 1667, giving biographical data in the life of the Duchess of Newcastle, to whom the Washingtons and Bascis were closely related. Owing to the press of important business before the council it is officially stated that they will not reach a final adjournment before the middle of this week.

Garfield Memorial Hospital.

A certificate for incorporation was filed Saturday with the Recorder in the name of the Garfield Memorial Hospital. The object of the organization is to establish a general hospital "as a memorial to the late James Abram Garfield," for the gratuitous medical and surgical treatment of all persons without distinction of race, sex, or creed, provided that such persons able and willing to defray their expenses of treatment may do so upon terms to be prescribed. The directors for the first year are: General William T. Sherman, Carrie S. Harrison, Fanny Ricketts, Matilda W. Emory, Jean M. Lander, Mary E. Blair, Cornelia W. Ferris, Anna M. Aldrich, Ida G. Candler, Mary J. Bell, Miranda Tullock, Stella B. Couger, Samuel F. Miller, William Windom, James G. Blaine, David B. Swain, James Gillilan, John A. Baker, Arthur MacArthur, Samuel C. Busey, Benjamin G. Lovejoy, Francis A. Ashford, Joseph M. Toner, J. Ford Thompson, Henry A. Willard, A. S. Solomons, J. H. Saville, John W. Thompson, Lewis J. Davis, Smith Townshend, Henry W. Garnett, W. G. Metzerott, E. F. Riggs, Josiah Dent, W. S. Palmer, Eliza N. Blair, and Reginald Fendall.

District Affairs.

The statement of the amount of funded indebtedness shows that up to April 1 it was $20,107,800, and of the late corporation of Washington, $1,775,650, making a total of $21,883,450. The amount of funded debt retired since July 1, 1878, is $948,900. The reduction of annual interest charge in the same time is $56,492.63; issue of the District of Columbia 3.65 bonds (limited to $15,000,000), $14,468,950.

The contractor for paving C street, between Third and Four-and-a-half streets has put a gang of workmen at work tearing up the old block prior to putting down the asphalt pavement.

The contract of Mr. B. J. Coyle for the construction of the fourth section of the big Boundary street sewer has been executed by the contractor, but awaits the arrival of Major Lydecker before the papers can be completed. Messrs. Neiss & Acker are at work on the third section, which is a very difficult job, on account of the impediments encountered in excavations, &c.

Death of Mr. George A. Caswell.

Mr. George A. Caswell, commissioner and intendant of the Washington Asylum, who has been ill with pleuro-pneumonia for the past four days, died at the Asylum building Saturday night. He was unconscious in his last hours, but suffered much pain. Mr. Caswell was a native of New Hampshire, but for many years past has been a resident of Washington. He was a clerk in various government departments and also in the Board of Public Works. He was subsequently given a clerkship in the office of the District Commissioners, and was appointed commissioner of the Almshouse in 1878, and a few months after he was made intendant. He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Mahon, who survived the birth of her first child but a few months. He then married Miss Deering, who was a teacher in the public schools, by whom he has had one child.

Local Base-Ball.

The game on Saturday at the arsenal grounds, between the United States soldier boys and the Post-Office nine, was decided in favor of the latter, the game standing Post-Office nine, 18; Arsenal, 1. The Post-Office Club have secured the old National base-ball grounds, where they expect to play hereafter. This club, under the able management of George Page, bids fair to cut rival the old Nationals. The men have been selected with great care, and the club is made up of some of the best material in the country. They have played so far several games, and have been victorious on every occasion. The club will soon receive their new uniforms, when they expect to present an appearance that will be creditable to the District.

St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum.

A meeting was held at St. Joseph's Male Orphan Asylum yesterday evening to make preliminary arrangements for the annual festival in aid of that deserving institution. Lieutenant J. P. Kelley presided; P. J. Donahue, secretary, and Thomas J. Myers, treasurer. Among those present were John Bingham, A. B. Coppes, D. J. Murphy, P. A. Duffy, T. J. Trodden, Henry Behiman, George Fisher, Dennis Connell, John Mawdsley, C. L. Clarke, Charles McCarty, H. W. Rest, and George F. Harlin. Committees were appointed to select a suitable park for the festival, and to secure music for the occasion. At the meeting next Sunday the final arrangements will be perfected.

The Criminal Court.

The following is the assignment for to-day in the criminal court: Henry Young, Charles Lancaster and Edward Gibbs, Robert Orr and Frank Gallagher, Robert White, Edward Boyd, Peyton Randolph, John Clark and Dennis Lyles. For arraignment, Thomas J. Lazenby.

WINDSOR FOR POSTMASTER.

Who the People of Alexandria Want for the Office—A Sunday Discussion.

A representative of THE REPUBLICAN paid a visit yesterday to the city of Alexandria. There was but little to be seen on the streets of this ancient old town on a Sabbath day. Now and then groups of men could be seen standing on the street corners discussing the result of the late municipal elections in the State. In front of the post-office were gathered a number of the knowing politicians who seemed to know how things should be run politically and otherwise. THE REPUBLICAN halted a few paces to the windward, and soon caught the drift of an excited discussion which was going on between two ward politicians.

THEY WERE DISCUSSING

the postmastership of Alexandria. One of the excited party-workers said: "I am a Stalwart Republican Coalitionist, and I believe in giving positions and office to those who stand by their party colors under all circumstances. As between Colonel Windsor and Mr. McKenzie I am for Windsor against any body. He is consistent. He voted for Grant; McKenzie for Horace Greeley. Windsor voted for the Republican nominee for Congress in 1880; McKenzie voted against his party for Farrow; the Bourbon. Windsor entered into and supported the Coalition party; gave his time and money for the success of his party; the other man did nothing. Windsor has always supported his party and stood firmly by the Administration, whilst the other man has not. Windsor is a live, active, party worker, the other is not. If the Administration wants a man to stand up and work for its success, I think I have shown that David A. Windsor is the man."

As the Stalwart turned away THE REPUBLICAN ambassador chipped in the following:

"Have the people and party leaders indorsed Colonel Windsor for postmaster?"

"Yes, sir, I should say they had. We have filled up a petition, nine feet long, with the names of the best people in our city. Nothing can be said against him in any manner. If he is appointed he will conduct the office strictly within the limits of the law and give entire satisfaction to his friends. I have told you the truth," said the genial Virginian, "about our post-office. David A. Windsor is the man the people and the party want."

CONSPICUOUS among the influential men of the Domin ou is Mr. J. H. Metcalf, member of Parliament from the city of Kingston, Can. Coming to a personal matter, we would mention that Mr. Metcalf was formerly subject to extreme soreness of the chest, for which, as he himself says, "I could find no remedy but St. Jacobs Oil, the great German Remedy. I would not be without it for ten times its selling price."

WEST WASHINGTON.

During the fishing season a report concerning the condition of the water at Great Falls will be published each day, as furnished by the Washington Aqueduct office, Georgetown, using the following scale of measurement: Very turbid, 0 to 8; turbid, 8 to 15; slightly turbid, 15 to 22; clear, 22 to 36. Condition of the water, Saturday, May 27: At Great Falls, 14; at receiving reservoir, 30; at distributing reservoir, 36.

General Hazen reviewed the troops at Fort Myers yesterday morning. Quite extensive improvements have been made during the past three months in and about the fort, and it is the intention of those in charge to continue beautifying the place to the full extent of the appropriation for that purpose.

The funeral of Mr. Thomas C. Cox, late Water Registrar, was largely attended. The remains were taken to Oak Hill Cemetery.

The storm Saturday evening did considerable damage in certain portions of Georgetown. Trees were blown over, chimneys, fences, and one or two signs brought to the ground rather suddenly, besides several cellars filled with water. Messrs. Lockhart, P. T. Berry, Schreiber, Renshaw, Payne, Freeman, Hanlan, and Lydane's stores were more or less flooded. Mr. Berry will probably be the heaviest loser. The water fell in such torrents that at the corner of Thirty-second and O streets it was unable to pass off by the sewers, and for a few minutes reached a depth of nearly four feet. The amount of damage done cannot as yet be estimated, as some of the cellars—that of Mr. Lockhart, particularly—contained goods which will have to be dug out of the mud before their condition can be ascertained.

High tide, May 29 (Monday), 4:52 a. m. and 5:17 p. m.

A Valuable Addition.

Because it is beneficial to the scalp and adds to personal beauty by restoring color and luster to gray or faded hair, is why Parker's Hair Balsam is such a popular dressing.

Glass Ball Shooting.

The members of the Capital City Gun Club made the following scores at twenty balls each, on their grounds last Saturday afternoon: Wagner, 20; Dufour, 19; Stoddard, 19; Farnsworth, 18; McKelden, 18; McLeod, 18; Taylor, 15; Hosford, 14; H. King, 14; Van Ansum, 14; Peck, 13; Case, 11; Young, 9; Short, 8; Goodrich, 7.

The Washington City and the Capital City Gun Clubs will have a friendly contest at glass balls on the grounds of the latter club at 10 o'clock to-morrow (Decoration Day). Several informal shots will take place at single and double balls, and from one to five traps will be in use. Both clubs will have crack shots on the ground, and some fine shooting may be expected.

Catholic May Festival.

The May festival held yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the Catholic schools of Georgetown was a beautiful sight. Several hundred little ones, appropriately dressed, the girls in pure white, decorated with exquisite flowers, formed the procession at the school and marched to Trinity Church, where the services, consisting of singing and addresses, were conducted by Father Kelly and others. Owing to the storm, part of the programme (marching to the Convent) was necessarily omitted.

VIRGINIA NOTES.

The large new depot at Pocahontas, on the Richmond and Petersburg Railroad, is approaching completion.

The body of Mr. J. Y. Carter, of South Boston, who so mysteriously disappeared on Friday night last, was found on Friday floating in the Dan River.

The Richmond Howitzers have extended an invitation to the Light Artillery Blues of Lynchburg to be present at their annual target practice to take place on the 29th instant.

Samuel V. Farson has been commissioned postmaster at Shenandoah Alum Springs; William F. Kilgore at Wise Court-House; Benton H. Goodloe, Crain, Nelson County, and Leah R. McFarlane, at Malone, Buchanan County.

The following-named postmasters have been commissioned: John L. King, Potomac; Henry Long, Glenn Branch; Joel E. Brady, Lint; Plymouth; George Y. Bloxom, Guilford; Edward A. Will, Borden, Shenandoah County; Aaron B. Ill, Lee Bell, Randolph County.

The receipts of loose tobacco during last week, at Petersburg, were unusually large for the season. This fact is attributable to the long season of cool and wet weather, which has prevented the farmers from making preparations for planting. The tobacco plants are said to be plentiful this year, but the unfavorable season has kept down their growth, and they are as yet generally very small.

About $500 was raised at Danville on Saturday for the destitute of Patrick County, and other amounts have been contributed. Mr. T. B. Fitzgerald and his employes (house-builders) have raised among themselves $115. Hon. George C. Cabell has directed that ten bushels of corn be sent up on his account, and promises a load from his plantation.

The increase of purchases by the merchants of Petersburg as shown by the commissioner's returns for the license year 1882-'83 over 1881-'82 amounts to $815,000. The increase of 1880-'81 over the previous year was about $400,000, showing an increase for the two years of nearly $1,250,000. The statistics as to commission merchants and manufacturers show a corresponding increase, and indicate a very satisfactory and healthy condition of trade for the city.

Professor J. K. Campbell has shown the Highland Recorder a map of the celebrated "Wilson Survey," comprising 41,000 acres in Bath, Augusta, Highland, and Rockbridge Counties, with geological section extending from Fort Lewis, on the Cow-Pasture in Bath County, to the Big Calf-Pasture River, executed by himself. The land in question is the property of Hon. Benjamin F. Butler, of Massachusetts, and Colonel Samuel Strong, of Washington city.

At the recent term of the Circuit Court of Chesterfield County Judge Weisiger rendered a decision reversing the judgment of the County Court in the case of Lester vs. the Board of Supervisors, and ordered a new trial. This was a suit against the county to recover money loaned to purchase salt during the war, and the claim amounts to between two and three thousand dollars. The lower court decided in favor of the county. Judge Weisiger suspended judgment to give opportunity for an appeal, which it was intimated would be taken. Some eighty or ninety chancery decrees were entered during the term.

"I have used Simmons Liver Regulator for constipation of my bowels, caused by a temporary derangement of the liver, for the last three or four years, and always, when used according to directions, with decided benefit.

If you come home late bring your wife a bottle of German Corn Remover. Result: happiness.

SNOW WHITE BREAD
and beautiful Rolls and Biscuits will be guaranteed if you use CERES, the celebrated Minnesota Patent-Process Flour, which was awarded the First Premium over all other competitors at the National Fair in 1879, and again the First Premium, in the shape of a very handsome gold medal, in 1880 and 1881. The millers claim that one barrel of Ceres will turn out forty loaves more bread than any other flour in America. STERLING'S ST. LOUIS FANCY, one of the most beautiful Winter-Wheat Patent Flours ever offered to the trade. It is unexcelled by any other Patent except Ceres, and will please the most exacting housekeeper and satisfy the most fastidious epicure. RELIANCE, a splendid Minnesota Patent Flour, made by the celebrated Hungarian Process, it is a very cheap and beautiful Patent, within the reach of all classes, and we guarantee will give satisfaction to every one who will try it. GOLDEN HILL, the old reliable standard and the Standard Family Flour of the District, and equal to a great many so-called Patent flours. The millers or manufacturers of Golden Hill have spent about $10,000 in remodeling their mill, and have introduced the so-celebrated Roller system, and consequently Golden Hill is not only a magnificent Family Flour, but it is really a patent flour with the great advantage that it can be bought for considerably less money than a great many Patent-Process flours not near as white nor as nutritious as Golden Hill. For sale by all Grocers. Wholesale Depot, corner First street and Indiana avenue.
