PILES! PILES! PILES!

A Sure Cure Found at Last! No One Need Suffer!

A sure cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching, and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. William (an Indian remedy), called Dr. William's Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of twenty-five or thirty years' standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments, and electuaries do more harm than good. William's Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching (particularly at night after getting warm in bed), acts as a poultice, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared only for Piles, Itching of the private parts, and for nothing else.

Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry, of Cleveland, says about Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment: "I have used scores of Pile cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. William's Indian Ointment."

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Fredericksburg is about to expend between $2,000 and $3,000 on a new poor-house.

Several cases of small-pox have been developed at Wimbush's, Campbell County, about six miles from Lynchburgh.

Last week's tobacco sales at Lynchburg aggregated only 310,700 pounds—a falling off from the previous week of 32,780 pounds.

The following postmasters have been commissioned: Henry J. Jennings, Purchase, Scott County; Charles H. Stevens, Arrington; Edward F. Collins, Spout Spring, Va.

On Tuesday, Mayor Lamb, of Norfolk, was attacked on the street by J. C. Baker, the present city attorney. No weapons were used, nor was any injury sustained by either party. A warrant was issued for Baker's arrest.

Pleasant Hicks, who lived on Dr. McCandish's farm, in Henrico, about seven miles from Richmond, was found Tuesday in a friend's house near the city, where he retired late monday night, lying lifeless, with his head in the fire. It is supposed that he had a fit and fell over in the fireplace and was burned to death. His clothing was on fire when he was discovered.

A case to test the validity and constitutionality of the Virginia law governing sample merchants was brought before in the United States district court in vacation at Norfolk on Tuesday. The case is brought at the instance of a Baltimore firm, whose agent was arrested for selling goods without lawful license, and who, in default of bail, was put in jail, but subsequently released on writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Hughes, his recognizance being taken for his appearance in Richmond before the United States circuit court on the 15th instant.

Mr. E. G. McClannahan, of Roanoke, has sold to the Roanoke Land and Improvement Company his Big Spring mills and water-power thereon, with two hundred acres of mountain land, for $35,000 cash. This is a valuable property, the mills have a fine reputation, and the flour produced there is always in demand. It is the intention of the Land and Improvement Company to erect a reservoir at once, with which to supply the town in water. The Land and Improvement Company has been exceedingly fortunate in its purchase, and we congratulate our people upon the prospect of having in the near future ample water protection.—Roanoke News.
