The Missing Boy Jules Thomas.

The police have sent notices throughout the South of the disappearance from his home in this city, on Decoration Day, of Jules Thomas, a sixteen-year-old boy. They ascertained some days since that the runaway was in the neighborhood of Richmond. Mr. Thomas, the father, went and searched unsuccessfully for his boy, but notified the railroad officials and others to ship him home whenever he turned up. On Sunday a telegram was received stating that the youth had been put upon the train at Richmond. Yesterday it was ascertained that he had not continued far on the homeward journey, but, evading the care of the conductor, left the train at Milford, Caroline County, Virginia, and again secreted himself. The parents of the young adventurer are very anxious for his return, and will make strenuous efforts to find their son.

The Grand Jury Again at Work.

Yesterday the grand jury resumed its labors. They examined into star route No. 35040, from Pembrino to Fargo, under J. M. Saulsbury's contract. SCHOOL COMMENCEMENTS.

Examination of the Girls' High School Yesterday—The Successful Graduates.

The closing exercises of the Girls' High School were held yesterday afternoon at the Seaton Building. The large hall was completely filled with the pupils and their friends. Many prominent persons were present in the audience, and upon the platform were seated Superintendent Wilson, Trustee Lovejoy, Emerson Hodges, General Hovey, S. R. Bond, Professor Rock, and Miss Lane.

The following programme was rendered which showed to great advantage the advancement of the pupils: Physical Geography (Junior Class)—Subjects: "The Earth as a Whole," "The Lands," "The Waters," "The Atmosphere." Latin (Senior and Junior Classes)—Subject, "Virgil's Eclogues and Fables." History (Junior Class)—Subject, "Ancient and English History." Geometry (Senior Class)—Subject, "Problems of Construction and Exercises in Original Demonstration." English Literature (Senior Class)—Subjects: "Shakespeare and Contemporaries," "Bacon's Essays;" song, "National Song," by the school; essay, "A Matinee," Daisy Boyd; recitation, "Lochinvar," Maggie Wallacupter; "Whittier Leaflets, class C; song, "See Our Oars;" essay, "Turning Over a New Leaf," Julia Erb; recitation, "The Victim," Beulah Paisons; quotations from Lowell and Holmes, class B; essay, "Two Views of the Ocean," Blanche Jones; song, "Ave Verum Corpus;" recitation, selections from "Merchant of Venice," Marietta Bear; essay, "Æstheticism," Mary McKinney; quotations from Emerson, class A; song, "The Mourner;" essay, "The Water Babies," Susie Sipe; Longfellow Leaflets, class D; reading, selections from "Lady of the Lake," Florence Roach; essay, "Shakspeare," Phoebe Holmes; recitation, "Sandolphon," Josephine Bettis.

Miss Lane then announced that the young ladies whose names follow had passed the examination necessary for their admission

INTO THE NORMAL SCHOOL NEXT YEAR:

Summerscales, Margaret Turkenton, Fannie Wiss, and Edith E. West. The following are the names of the graduates: Agnes Sidney Bartlett, Marietta Tweddle Bear, Daisy Walton Boyd, Hanna Augusta Brecht, Nellie Charlotta Colcazier, Sarah Marian Coomes, Jessie Zitella Cox, Ida May Daly, Emma Eisenbeis, Julia Margaret Erb, Mary Young Henderson, Ida May Humphrey, Margaret Johnson, Blanche Tyler Jones, Mary Cecilia Kelly, Helen Adelia Lake, Margaret Marie Maher, Carrie Hall Narin, Louisa Gertrude Nash, Mary Grace Ravenburg, Florence May Roach, Laura Shackleford, Susan Bender Sipe, Ida Isabella Summerscales, and Mary Eleanor Tippett.

Fatality of the State Department.

The State Department building is a grand edifice—one of the handsomest in the world. And yet it is located in the foulest spot and most unhealthy place in this or any other city. The reeking odors from the marshes and swamp lands south of it are filled with the rankest miasma, carrying disease and death wherever wafted. In the day-time much of this foul and poisonous air is rendered less harmful by the action of the sun; but on summer nights insidiously it creeps over the earth, entering dwellings wherever an opening or crevice, and there leaving disease and death. Within the past four years the watch force of the State Department has been reduced 33 per cent. through the deaths of the faithful guardians of government property. Men who faced the bullets and stormed the batteries of our enemies in the late civil war, and, though mutilated, yet escaping with life to come home and fall victims to a more insidious enemy. God help those who remain. Why was this magnificent building erected in these deadly swamps? Was there jobbery in it? Either the flats must be reclaimed, the poison removed, or else a much larger mortality swell the list of those gone before, the abandonment of the building being the final ending.

Father Alig's Funeral.

The funeral services of the venerable Father Alig, who for nearly half a century had been the pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church, took place in the sanctuary, where for so many years he had ministered, yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock. The church was heavily draped with black inside and outside, as were also the pastor's residence and the schoolhouse. The attendance was very large. The floral tributes were numerous and some of them of great beauty. Requiem mass was celebrated by Father Walter, of St. Patrick's, assisted by Dr. Ryan, of the Immaculate Conception, and Father O'Sullivan, of St. Peter's. The pallbearers were Messrs. N. Happ, M. Menke, Bernard Geier, R. Eichorn, Philip May, and George Bergling, who took it to the hearse. The cortege was then formed, St. Bonifacius', St. Joseph's and St. Michael's societies, and the Knights of St. George, No. 1 and No. 2, headed by Donch's band, composing the escort, and the remains were borne to St. Mary's Cemetery, on Lincoln avenue, where the interment took place.

Will of the Late Jacob Hess.

The will of Jacob Hess, who died so suddenly last Sunday under very suspicious circumstances, was yesterday filed with the Register. The testator leaves $500 to his sister, Anna Megal, now residing in Cologne, Prussia, she being his only surviving relative. The residue of the estate of every description is left to John B. Isler, of Federalsburg, Md., who is constituted sole executor, without bond. The will was offered by the wife of the executor, her husband now being in New Mexico, who was attended by the Swiss vice-consul. A petition for letters of administration on the estate was filed last Friday by Samuel S. Bond, secretary of Dawson Lodge, No. 16, F. A. A. M., in which the petitioner states that the only effects of the deceased were $45 on deposit in the Bank of Washington and his wearing apparel, and that the deceased was buried at the expense of the lodge.

Boys' High School.

This afternoon the exercises attendant upon the commencement of the Boys' High School will take place at the Franklin School Building. An interesting programme will be rendered. The following are the graduates: George Frederick Auld, Charles Chester Bassett, William Fletcher Bayly, Rudolph Watson Bishop, George Shepherd Brock, Charles Edward Burden, Appleton Prentiss Clark, Jr., James Breathed Delaplaine, Albert Bruce Hall, William David Hoover, George Foreman Landers, James Augustine Maher, Roger Ignatius Manning, Robert Henry Phillips, William Clark Prentiss, William Adolph Rosenbaum, Henry Wireman Sohon, Howell Stewart, Schell Stutzman, Eben Eveleth Winslow, and Mosheim Fletcher Fair Swartzell.

The Theatre Comique.

Every seat in the Comique Summer Garden was occupied last night, and the audience was most enthusiastic. The bill was an excellent one, the "Swinging First Part" being quite a novelty. Avery and Clifton, the gymnasts, created a decided sensation, their feats being marvelous exhibitions of skill and training. The sparring match between Kelly and Murphy was very fine. Miss Annie Hindle, Johnson and Swain, Mr. Mack and Miss Bosheli, Miss Nellie Forrester, Miss Clara Franklin, Miss Ophelia Starr, Mi s Jessie Forrester, Miss Grace Burton, and others entertained the multitude, and the entertainment closed with the funny burlesque, "Out of Patience." There will be a matinee to-day at 2 p. m.

Carroll Institute Excursion.

The Carroll Institute excursion to Marshall Hall to-morrow offers a variety of attractions to those desiring to spend a day down the river during the heated term. The chief feature will be a race in single gigs for a cup and the Institute championship, for which there are five entries from the ambitious young oarsmen of the society. In addition there will be an exciting game of base-ball between single and married nines, rifle shooting, and dancing unlimited. The reputation of the Institute for pleasant excursions will be maintained on this occasion, a committee of one hundred having been appointed to preserve order, besides a floor committee of fifteen, and two others of the same number on amusements and reception.

Driver's Garden.

Driver's Garden was crowded as usual last night, and the programme was better, if possible, than it has heretofore been. Over a thousand persons visited the cosy resort during the evening and were pleased by the performance. In addition to Mr. Danforth and last week's attractions, a number of splendid artists appeared. Miss Lilian De Vere has an exquisite soprano voice, and she displays much taste in the selection of her songs. Messrs. Sellous and Burns are good vocalists and fine dancers, and Mr. W. T. Dwyer's motto songs gained several encores. If you wish to enjoy yourself take your family to Driver's.

Plumbing for the City Hall.

Bids for plumbing for the new extension of the City Hall were opened at 12 m. yesterday in Architect Clark's office at the capitol, and the following were the bidders and the amounts bid: W. W. Ropley, $1,595; C. T. Bride, $3,859; R. R. Bond, $2,889; F. King, $3,755; M. J. O'Brien, $1,294.89; W. Daniels, $1,289; T. Fritz, $2,741; J. Ragan, $2,257; G. W. Goodall, $2,241; C. F. MOUNT VERNON.
The frequent arrival of steam launches and of private yachts at Mount Vernon, bringing parties who land without being willing to pay the usual charge, has convinced the ladies of the Mount Vernon Association, who have just closed their annual council, that some misapprehension must exist in the mind of the public, and they therefore publish the following notice, hoping that it will prevent the Association from further infringement of its rights:
RESOLUTION IN COUNCIL:
Whereas no boat except the steamer W. W. CORCORAN, which holds an exclusive contract with the Association, is entitled to land passengers at Mount Vernon: Therefore, if any such boat shall come to MOUNT VERNON, it will only be permitted to land passengers by payment of the same amount per capita as that received upon the regular boat, two-thirds of which amount belong to the Captain of the W. W. Corcoran and one-third to the Mount Vernon Association, for the maintenance of the place. jn9-TuThSat-tuif

THE BRIG GENERAL ARMSTRONG.
Whereas by the act for the relief, &c.:
The Secretary of State is directed to examine and adjust the claims of the captain, owners, officers, and crew of the said brig, growing out of the destruction at Fayal, in September, 1814, upon the evidence established in the Court of Claims, and to draw requisition in favor of said claimants, their heirs, executors, administrators, agents, or assigns, for the amount which may be found due to said claimants, not exceeding $75,739:
Now, therefore, notice is hereby given to all whom it may concern to transmit to the Secretary of State, on or before the 30th day of June next, statement in writing of the amount of their claims, and whether they claim on behalf of the captain, the owners, the officers, or the crew, and if a co-owner, officer, or crew, the name or names of the person on whose behalf, and the amount of the interest, with reference to the part of the proof which sustains such claim. Said statement should also show in what capacity the claimant claims, whether as original claimant, or as heir, executor, administrator, agent, or assignee of an original claimant, and should be accompanied by proof of title as such.
