ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS.

William Curtis, of West End, a fireman on the V. M. Railway, had his head badly cut by being struck by an overhead bridge up that road yesterday afternoon.

The steamer Excelsior has gone to Baltimore to run excursions from that city to Bay Ridge. The steamer Keyport has taken the Excelsior's place on the Quantico route.

All the public schools in Alexandria County have closed for the heated term. The schools in Arlington district closed Thursday and the schools in Washington and Jefferson districts closed yesterday.

W. L. Winchell, esq., deputy grand master of Odd Fellows of Ohio, and his son, Cadet Engineer Ward P. Winchell, a graduate of Annapolis Naval Academy, are on a visit to Captain J. V. Davis, of the Soldiers' Cemetery.

Robert Portner, esq., and his son Robert, jr., his brother-in-law, Peter Valier, of Philadelphia, and his sister, Mrs. Wilkening, of Washington, all left here yesterday for New York, from whence they will sail for Europe to-day.

The deck at the foot of Prince street having been filled in and the street repaved, the work of widening and repairing Union street has been commenced. The widening of Union street will be a great convenience to the receiving and shipping merchants. Alexandria has been greatly improved during the past year.

Andrew Jackson Lodge, No. 120, A. F. and A. M., has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Worshipful master, A. S. Dunn; senior warden, French Simon; junior warden, William M. Alexandria Washington Lodge will elect officers at its meeting next Thursday night.

The youthful color and a rich luster are restored to faded or gray hair by the use of Parker's Hair Balsam, a harmless dressing highly esteemed for its perfume and purity.

THE STAR-ROUTE TRIALS.

The Testimony Adduced Yesterday as to Route 38,125.

In the star-route trial yesterday J. McKee Borden, draughtsman in the Post-Office Department, testified that he made the hectograph copy of plats of route from St. Charles to Greenhorn, 38,135, and other routes, and that they were correctly taken from the official maps of the Department. One route was marked in accordance with Mr. Woodward's suggestions. He was cross-examined at length to show that the diagrams represented the route as traveled and not as advertised. John T. Callahan, a clerk in the Inspection office, Post-Office Department, presented the papers to show a recoupment for services not performed on route 38,125, for failure to supply Agate. The first information they had that Agate had not been supplied was in December, 1881.

AFTER MR. BRADY HAD LEFT THE OFFICE.

H. C. Wilbers, of Pueblo, Col., was the next witness. He took a subcontract July 1, 1879, from Pueblo to Greenhorn; sublet it to a man named Howard, who in turn sublet it. The trip was generally made in seven hours. William Hingason had a subcontract over the above route from March 16 to July 1, 1881. Carried it three times a week, making the trip in five to eight hours; used two horses. Mr. Sheenan, of the Sixth Auditor's office, was recalled and produced the warrants on file in the office regarding route 38,125. Route 41,119, from Toquerville to Adairville, Utah, was then taken up. Mr. Sweeney, a Post-Office clerk, identified several papers relating to increase and expedition, and the indorsement, "Do this, Brady," and the handwriting of Turner, French, and Coombs on papers relating to the route. These papers were turned over to Woodward on the 7th of September, 1881. He was examined at considerable long h in regard to the business method in vogue in the Department. This evidence finished the testimony for the day.

To Be Arrested for Contempt.

Franciose C. Fouronier was yesterday granted a divorce from her husband Auguste Fouronier, with alimony at $30 per month and $25 counsel fees and costs. They were married in France in 1872 and have resided here since 1878. The grounds of the divorce were adultery. She alleges in her petition that the defendant is head waiter in one of the largest restaurants in the city and is in receipt of a salary of $150 per month. During the pending of the suit the defendant was ordered to pay the complainant $15 a month alimony. He refused to do this, and a rule was issued to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt. He made no answer to the rule, so Justice Cox yesterday issued an attachment for his arrest, the marshal to produce him next Tuesday at 10 o'clock.

Application for an Administrator.

Yesterday James L. Norris presented a petition in the probate court to be appointed administrator of the estate of the late Sir William Palliser, late of West Kensington, London, England. The petition sets forth that the deceased was the inventor of certain improvements in guns and projectiles for ordnance; that he has no heirs, and that it is desired to obtain letters patent in this country on the improvements, and that they cannot be granted until an administrator has been appointed. The petitioner therefore asks to be appointed, under such bonds as the court may direct.

[Sir William Palliser amassed a princely fortune by the patents on his elastic canon, and also on the patent of the "Palliser shell," a projectile which has been largely adopted by the British government. He was knighted by the Queen.]

The Christiancy Case.

Special Examiner J. J. Johnson yesterday took the depositions of Mr. Harper, the official stenographer in the Christiancy divorce case. He testified that Mrs. Christiancy declined to confront the colored hackman, Dennis Bland, who swore that he drove her from her residence to the St. James Hotel and back; that Mrs. Lugenbeel on one occasion corrected her testimony in regard to certain letters, and that Charles Goodman was permitted to read over the testimony of Mrs. Mary C. Chamberlain before being called upon to testify. On cross-examination he testified that Stephen Chester was intoxicated upon the first occasion that he offered to give his testimony.

Insisted Upon Paying.

Mrs. Electa Smith, employed in the Sixth Auditor's office, called upon Colonel Henderson, the secretary of the Republican Congressional Committee, a few days since, and insisted on making a contribution in aid of the campaign fund. She was informed that nothing was expected from ladies, but she insisted, and the gallant Colonel was obliged to receive the money. Democratic papers please copy.
