Dr. Frazier: "I have used two bottles of your Root Bitters for Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Weakness, and Kidney Disease, and they did me more good than the doctors and all the medicine I ever used. Two Washington Lawyers Sold.

A couple of young Washington lawyers, whose faces are familiar to every one in the Patent Office—fledglings from Swing's lunch-counter and Ward's milk ranche on E street—recently visited New York city and went to the Astor House for dinner. The waiter pranced up to them, and, without waiting for the usual formalities, began to inquire if he could bring them this, that, and the other, all the viands mentioned being the most expensive dishes. Without a moment's hesitation, they said, "No." "Let me bring you a bottle of champagne—port wine—sherry—a bottle of claret, at least," said the waiter. Getting out of patience at what seemed to them an unwarranted officiousness on the part of the waiter, they remarked that they would order their dinner. When they were ready to pay for their frugal meal the waiter had vanished; and one of the young men walked over to the cashier's desk to settle, with his order-slip in hand, which he laid upon the desk, with the inquiry, "How much?"

"Oh, it isn't anything. The house is giving a free blow-to-night. It's the eighth anniversary of the management," said the cashier.

The young lawyers looked back upon the tables loaded with flowers, and gay parties of ladies and gents enjoying the best New York can give, and quietly remarked—but what's the use of repeating words bordering on profanity?

Coming Weddings.

Mr. James B. Burnside, son of Colonel J. O. P. Burnside, will be married on Thursday afternoon at Epiphany P. E. Church to Miss Marie, the charming daughter of Commodore Whiting, of the Navy.

Mr. H. C. Davis and Miss Ida Schneider will be married on Monday next at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. They are both well known in social circles.

Mr. J. H. Small, the popular florist, will be married to Miss Meriam E. Ruff on Wednesday, the 11th instant, at Waugh M. E. Church.

The invitations for the wedding of Miss Leonora, daughter of Mr. A. Kiesecker, to Mr. George H. Rouse, the Washington correspondent of the Army and Navy Journal, at Memorial Church, on October 19, have been issued.

Hulse, Captain Rowe, 150 bushels oysters; schooner Bob Sutton, Captain Wise, 250 bushels oysters; sloop American Eagle, Captain Ellis, 150 bushels oysters; pungy William B. Driver, Captain Southard, 300 bushels oysters; sloop John Brooks, Captain Young, 100 bushels oysters; pungy Ocean Queen, Captain Bundick, 300 bushels sweet potatoes for city dealers; steamer Sue, Geohegan, merchandise for Stephenson & Bros.

J. M. PINKHAM, Esq., foreman C. F. Sampson's Manufacturing Company, North Adams, Mass., says: St. Jacobs Oil is surely possessed of miraculous powers, for it cured me of a severe case of rheumatism when other remedies failed.

What Washington Wants.

What Washington wants badly has just gone into use in Philadelphia. The Pennsylvania railroads have built a lot of Hansom cabs similar to those long in popular use in London, but have a number of improvements in detail, and are constructed with all the attractiveness of the modern carriage-builder's art. Twenty of these cabs will be put into service in the next few weeks, with ten "four-wheelers," not essentially different from the old-fashioned hack, but built to carry luggage on the top. The fare for the cabs is to be but 25 cents for any distance not exceeding a mile and a half.

Satisfaction for Ten.

In our family of ten for over two years Parker's Ginger Tonic has cured headache, malaria, and other complaints so satisfactorily that we are in excellent health and no expense for doctors or other medicines.—Chronicle.

The Georgetown Law School.

Hon. Jere M. Wilson, of the well-known firm of Shellabarger & Wilson, has been added to the regular faculty of the above institution. The Judge takes, as his department of instruction, the law of real property and the law of corporations. With this valuable addition to its already well constituted corps of instructors, the Georgetown Law School should be second to none in the country. The initial exercises for the ensuing year, which are open to the public, will take place at the lecture-rooms, No. 1425 New York avenue, on Wednesday of this week, at 7 o'clock, p. m.

A Varied Performance.

Many wonder how Parker's Ginger Tonic can perform such varied cures, thinking it essence of ginger, when in fact it is made from many valuable medicines, which act beneficially on every diseased organ.

Beauties of Avenue Car Travel.

A representative of THE REPUBLICAN boarded an Avenue car yesterday afternoon on his way home. The front windows and door of the car were open; seated in the car were a number of passengers, most of them elderly ladies, possibly mothers; standing on the front platform were three well-dressed young men, each puffing a bad smelling cigar, and the smoke therefrom rolling into the faces of the elderly ladies. A young man "as full as a tick," fast asleep in a corner, completed the picture.

THE poor sufferer that has been dosing himself with so-called Troches and thereby upset his stomach without curing the troublesome cough, should take our advice and use at once Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and get well.

A Divorce Asked For.

Jane Trainor has filed a bill for divorce against James Trainor. They were married in Georgetown November 29, 1874, and lived together until July, 1880, when the defendant deserted the plaintiff. She also charges him with being a habitual drunkard and having frequently assaulted and threatened her. He has abducted her three children, and she does not know where they now are.

Loss of hair and grayness, which often mar the prettiest face, are prevented by Parker's Hair Balsam.

"The Century Magazine."

Recent sales of both The Century Magazine and St. Nicholas have been unusually large. A new edition of the September Century is on the press, and the publishers have just ordered a second printing of the October number. The New York Evening Post, in referring to the increased circulation of that magazine in this country and England, calls it "now perhaps the most judiciously edited magazine in the world."
