THE MARKETS.

Another Dull and Rather Uninteresting Day in Wall Street.

Prices Tend Downward Generally But the Feeling Strengthens at the Close.

GOSSIP OF THE DAY.

Special Dispatch.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Exactly what struck the market late yesterday afternoon was not settled last night, but it was evident that the room traders easily knocked down prices, upon rumors which the trunk line commissioner denied. There were stories of further embarrassments in Chicago, and when this did not work there came a story that the Erlangers were selling out their American stocks.

The Denver bonds showed weakness in both classes, and this affected the stock. Denver consols sold at 94¾ against 101 a few weeks ago. Three and a half per cent. should come off the consols soon if the interest is met, and the company's friends say the funds are on hand for this purpose. Several up town bulls declare they were surprised at yesterday's reaction, and they declare it was caused by a combination of bearish room traders, and that the market continues greatly oversold.

The street is bearish again to-day, but Sage declares there is nothing warranting short sales. He goes to Saratoga for the season on Saturday.

The Mills party are doing nothing, but they talk bullish. W. L. Scott and Osborn continue bulls on St. Paul and Manitoba stocks.

The Western Union has ordered a reduction to fifteen cents for western night messages.

Plock & Co., Erlanger's correspondents here, declare he is perfectly solvent, and the suits in Paris refer to old matters.

The Boston Journal says one of the strongest evidences of stability of the trunk line pool is it bids fair to strangle the grain exporting traffic from Boston.

A Nashville dispatch says the Tennessee state board begin funding state bonds on the fifteenth proximo.

The Gould people tell their friends to sell nothing short on this market, and intimate a very sharp advance twist in prices before Saturday.

William Redmond was the principal seller of St. Paul. The principal sellers of telegraph were Scranton, Willard, and Berdan. Rogers bought telegraph, and Kirkner was the main buyer of Union Pacific.

L. L. White bought most of Erie. Probst and the Germans were the main sellers of Lake Shore. Ed. Leavitt was the largest buyer of New York Central. Bell & Kirkner hammered New York Central on 1,000 and 500 share lots. Herrick also offered the stock. Heath bought.

The Chicago market opened firm, but later grew week, and grain went down ½ cent. A good deal of long grain has been closed out in preparation for the July deliveries, and when August is placed the bulls think prices will touch bottom. There is no more trouble in Chicago, and none anticipated.

Twenty thousand pounds sterling sold at $4.84⅞. Commercial bills are scarce.

R. H. Parks & Co. made an assignment today to James A. Patterson, of William M. Patterson & Co., who has entered upon his duties. At 1:30 stocks were dull and uninteresting.

REVIEW.

The whole market opened steady. After the first hour there was an improvement of ¼ to ½ on light trading. William Redmond sold a considerable amount of St. Paul early in the day and the Osborn brokers bought it. The room traders hammered New York Central very freely. This stock lent flat; Jersey ¼ and the others about 2; money at 2½ to 3; sterling unchanged; United States 4 per cents. were strong.

At noon the market was dull and lower. New York Central was the most active, selling down to 118⅞ under the raids of the room traders, but very few actual holders were selling at the quotations. A good deal of Central was sold at 119, seller 3, and bought at 119 regular. This stock lent at 1-64 for its own use.

On the second call stocks became ¼ to ½ above the lowest prices at noon, but still fractionally below the opening. At 2 p. m. prices were at about the lowest figure of the day, and there was no important trading going on. New York Central touched 118⅝. Two thousand shares New York Central was sold at 117½, seller 60.

At 2:30 stocks had a decidedly better tone, and Jersey was especially strong. New York Central reacted to 119⅛, and it was reported that the Trunk line meeting had progressed harmoniously. Toward the close the general feeling was firm, but with no outside business going on.

The market closed dull but with a stronger undertone than has prevailed for several days.

LONDON, 1 p. m.—United States 4's ½ lower; Erie, ½ lower; New York Central, ¼ lower; Reading, ⅛ lower; Ontario and Western, ¼ lower; Illinois, ¼ higher.

NEW YORK MONEY MARKET.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Money very easy at 2@3 per cent. on call, closing at 2½ per cent. Foreign exchange was quiet at 484½@484¾ for long and 487¾@488 for short sight. Governments were strong. State bonds steady. Railway bonds were irregular. The share speculation during the greater part of the day was weak and unsettled. There was considerable pressure to sell New York Central and Lake Shore, which declined 1 and ¾ per cent. respectively. Michigan Central, Denver, Jersey City, Reading, and Union Pacific were also weak. The market was entirely at the mercy of the room traders, the prominent operators and the outside public doing little or nothing. In the last half hour of business the shorts made efforts to cover and a general advance took place, the rise in prices ranging from ¼ to 1½ per cent., the latter in Jersey Central. The improved feeling was due to statements by Commissioner Fink that the meeting of the trunk line representatives held here to-day was harmonious; that the Lake Erie and Western would not withdraw from the pooling arrangement, and that the Lackawanna difficulty would be satisfactorily adjusted. Some amounts of stocks were taken for European account. As compared with yesterday's closing prices show a decline of ¼ to ⅝ per cent. for some shares and an advance of ¼ to ⅞ for others. In the specialties Alton and Terre Haute declined 2 per cent. to 83, C. C. C. & I. 1½ to 72, Hannibal and St. Jo preferred 1¾ to 93¾, Manhattan Beach 1 to 27½, and Richmond and Alleghany ¾ to 5⅝. ANOTHER MURDER TRIAL.

Failure to Get a Jury—Other Business Transacted in the Courts Yesterday.

The trial of Armstead, alias Olmstead Ward, Alfred Warren, Joseph Marshall, and Washington Curry for the murder of James Creek, was begun in the criminal court yesterday. Mr. A. K. Browne appeared for Ward, H. C. Clagett for Warner and Marshall, and C. Carrington for Curry. The murder, it will be remembered, occurred on the twenty-ninth of November last at a pound party, at which an altercation took place between the prisoners and Creek. Creek died a few days after from an axe blow alleged to have been inflicted by the defendants. The work of selecting a jury occupied the entire day yesterday, and but two jurymen were received. James A. Golden, John L. Voigt, David Nack man, W. H. Scott, Conrad Becker, all had conscientious scruples. John H. Wise and George F. Pyles were accepted. John W. Croit, James A. Lambie, John L. Schneider, W. B. Cannon, Victor J. Becker, Thomas Lucas, E. F. Simpson, E. H. Hughes, and Andrew Archer were all excused.

The panel being exhausted, the court directed that twenty-five names be drawn from the box and adjourned the court until 10 o'clock this morning. The following were drawn as talismen: George W. Bauer, 1148 Seventh street southwest; W. H. Gaskins, 5 High street northwest; James W. Ormo, 1202 K street northwest; D. C. Turner, Four-and-a-half and N streets southwest; John T. THE FENNER-NUGENT HOMICIDE.

Mr. Walker, the counsel for Henry Fenner, indicted for the murder of Samuel Nugent, appeared in the criminal court yesterday and called up the case saying, "Justice, yes, humanity demands that I call it up." He asked the court to fix a day for trial. While he said he had no charges to make against officers of the jail, his client was not treated as a poor demented man should be. The district attorney stated that he believed Fenner to be insane, he having been an inmate of a Kentucky insane asylum. The court asked that if acquitted would Fenner be sent to an insane asylum. The district attorney said that Dr. Godding had pronounced him a confirmed, hopeless, and dangerous maniac. The court said that if acquitted of the charge of murder he would order his commitment to the insane asylum. A trial was arranged for an early date.

A FRAUDULENT DEED OF TRUST.

Metzger Bros., by their attorney, Frank T. Browning, yesterday entered suit in equity against George T. Bananger and others, asking that a deed of trust made to Irwin B. Linton be set aside and declared null and void on the ground of being fraudulent.

A DIVORCE GRANTED.

In the equity court yesterday Judge James granted a decree of divorce to Mary Ida Holmes from George Holmes, with leave to resume her maiden name of Mary I. Savoy, and that the defendant pay costs. The bill was filed in April, and charged desertion, &c.

ADMITTED TO THE BAR.

On motion of Mr. Wells, W. W. Worden was yesterday admitted to the bar of the district.
