THE COURTS.

Ward Found Guilty of Manslaughter—The Others Acquitted—Other Legal Business.

VERDICT IN THE MURDER CASE.

Mr. Browne, the counsel for Ward in the trial of Armistead Ward, Alfred Warren, Joseph Marshall, and Washington Curry, concluded his argument in the criminal court yesterday morning, and Dist. Atty. Corkhill made the closing address.

Judge Wylie charged the jury that unless they believed that there was preconcerted action to kill Creek they could not hold all responsible for the act of one. There was no evidence against Curry and he should not be held. The evidence was insufficient as to the other defendants excepting Ward, where the case was different. The testimony as to Ward was conflicting.

The testimony of the physicians was that the blow that caused Creek's death could have been inflicted with an ax, and the question was who inflicted it. There was no testimony to show that Ward was in danger of life or injury. There was evidence that a quarrel was going on in the front room, and if they believed that Ward hearing the quarrel seized the ax and went in and inflicted the blow when there was no quarrel between him and Creek, it was murder, and the law will not reduce the crime below murder. If they had reasonable doubt they should give it to the prisoner, but it should not be a fanciful one, but upon the evidence.

The jury retired at 1:05 and at 2:20 they came into court and stated that they had agreed upon a verdict. The verdict was announced as follows: Ward guilty of manslaughter; Warren, Marshall, and Carry acquitted and discharged. It is understood that a motion for new trial will be made by Ward.

Campbell Carrington, as attorney for Bettie Rathbone, who stole the $2,500 from Miss Anna Wilson, appeared in the criminal court yesterday and handed Judge Wylie an affidavit which the girl had made stating that the money was handed to her by another party, and that she had concealed it where it was found. Judge Wylie ordered the money be returned to Miss Wilson, which was done by property clerk Sylvester.

The examination committee yesterday reported that they had examined the following gentlemen for admission to the bar and found them qualified: S. G. S. Roberts, George W. Upton, James S. Morrell, and Thomas Hampton.

Nothing Like It.

No medicine has ever been known so effectual in the cure of all those diseases arising from an impure condition of the blood as Scovill's Sarsaparilla, or Blood and Liver Syrup for the cure of Scrofula, White Swellings, Rheumatism, Pimples, Blotches, Eruptions, Venereal Sores and Diseases, Consumption, Groitre, Boils, Cancers, and all kindred diseases. It purifies the system, brings color to the cheeks and restores the sufferer to a normal condition of health and vigor.

It is asserted that the ordinary cosmetics used by ladies are productive of great mischief. We believe this is so, and that a better means of securing a beautiful complexion is to use some good blood medicine like Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup which cleanses the blood and gives permanent beauty to the skin.
