Gould's Alleged Purchases of Wabash Preferred Stock.

The Prominent Buyers and Sellers in Wall Street Yesterday.

GOSSIP.

Special Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—It is said Gould has placed in his own name 2,500 shares of Wabash preferred. It is announced that the Reading company will to-day begin paying all arrearages of interest upon all indebtedness upon property. Decker and Howell say the short interest in Northern Pacific preferred is 150,000 shares, and virtually cornered. The second mortgages have been all taken at 87. Cammack says the Texas Pacific last year ran behind operating expenses $20,000. He has no interest in Denver, but believes it will come up again. Cammack says the reason he covered shorts in Union Pacific and St. Paul was because of disturbing dreams, and he would allow himself to be worried, but he still believed they were a good sale.

It was announced that the Texas land grant income bondholders began proceedings to collect two years' interest.

Woerishoeffer is very bearish on Oregon Transcontinental, and he says it will go much lower. Joe Mills says the whole market is demoralized. Some old bull houses tell customers to prepare for lower prices and to sell on the rallies, especially if considerable. It is said insiders in Lackawanna and its officials are short of it. The bears stopped selling Jersey because stock is scarce and hard to borrow.

WALL STREET.

Osborn's brokers and Elliott were the sellers of the market. Clews & Co. bought New York Central. Oswin O'Brien sold Northern Pacific preferred and Bauvier offered Northern Pacific common, seller ten days. S. V. White and Neilson sold Lackawanna. Burrass and Green sold Oregon Transcontinental. Denver was sold by Floyd, and Jones and Brandon offered stock, seller 30. Loaning rates for stocks unchanged. Money, 2.

Foreign houses have no confirmation of the large impending failures in London that are spoken of in to-day's Herald. Brown's sterling rates 82 to 85.

The feature in bonds is a heavy fall in Texas Pacific, Rios, with very free selling of about 200,000, down to 70 against 78¼. The selling is generally attributed to Jay Gould's account. Stocks generally weak and declining. Even those who are bullish hesitate from fear of the Pacific fancies, which may break 10 to 15 points after books close.

It is reported the Pennsylvania railway has a circular making sharp reductions in rates from Pennsylvania points to points in New York states along the West Shore road, in opposition to the New York Central.

All active stocks lend at a premium this afternoon, and short interest is very large. The Denver directors are discussing the financial policy and arrangement of rights to subscribe for new bonds and stock. The right will expire on the twenty-fifth.

REVIEW.

The market opened fairly steady on Union Pacific, New York Central, Reading, Delaware and Lackawanna, and the grangers, and firm on Jersey, which sanguine parties declare is going to 90. The soft spots were the Villards, Denver, and the Gould shares. The general list was heavy, but Northern Pacific preferred later on recovered the decline of 1 per cent., with the exception of Burlington, which at noon was ¼ better than closing. Stocks at that hour were weak and ⅛ to ¼ lower. Oregon Transcontinental, Denver, Omaha, and Northern Pacific common declined 1 to 1½, the latter on Denver and Oregon. The Texas Pacific and Rios sold freely down to 70. Money, 2. Stocks lent as yesterday. After 12 o'clock the market was dull and a shade harder, the strong feature being Union Pacific, and on the second call values were ¼ to ⅜ higher. Union Pacific and Oregon Transcontinental were most active, and all active stocks lent at a premium. Early in the last hour stocks advanced on shorts covering, and improved ¼ to ½. Near the closing stocks weakened on reports of big failure in London, and names were freely used. The market closed weak.

Closing prices compared with yesterday show the following changes:

Advanced—Central Pacific, ⅜; Lake Shore, ⅜; Union Pacific, ⅜; Kansas and Texas, ¼; Pacific Mail, ¼.

Declined—Western Union, ½; Erie, ⅜; Michigan Central, ½; Lake Shore, ⅜; Louisville and Nashville, ½; Jersey Central, ⅜; Wabash common, ½; Wabash preferred, ⅜; Missouri Pacific, ¼; Denver, ⅜; Lackawanna, ⅜; Oregon Transcontinental, 1¼; Northern Pacific, 1½; Northern Pacific preferred, ¼; Canada Southern, 1½; Texas, ½; Canada Pacific, ½; Reading, ⅜.

LONDON, Oct. 11, 12:30.—United States bonds unchanged; Erie, ½ lower; New York Central, ¼ higher; Ontario and Western, ¼ higher; St. Paul, ½ lower.

BALTIMORE STOCK MARKET.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 12.—Virginia 6s, consolidated, 40; new 10-40s, 33; new 3s, 51; North Carolina 6s, old, 105½ bid to-day.

NEW YORK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Money in excess of the demand; call loans quoted at 1½@2, closing at 2 per cent. on call. Prime mercantile paper, 6@7 per cent. Bar silver, 119⅝. Subsidiary coin, ¼ discount buying; selling par. Foreign exchange weak at 481½ for long and 484¼ for short sight; nominal rates are down to 482@485. State bonds dull. Governments stronger; the 4s rose to 121 bid, the 4½s registered to 114½ bid, and do. coupon to 114⅞ bid. Railway bonds firmer for the West Shore firsts, which rallied to 77½ after selling down to 76½; Kansas and Texas seconds lower at 52, and Texas Pacific incomes at 49@49½. The stock market opened weak to-day and declined ½ to 1 per cent., but this decline was soon recovered. Northern Pacific preferred monopolized the speculative attention in the early trading. After 11 a. m. the little support accorded the market was withdrawn, and speculation continued weak until after 2 p. m. Prices declined ½ to 1¾, the latter in Oregon Transcontinental, which fell off to 47½. Denver fell 1⅜. Northern Pacific preferred ¾ to 63⅝, and the other active shares ½ to ¾ per cent. This was succeeded by a steadier tone, which after 2 p. m. developed into comparative buoyancy. Many shares advanced to the highest point of the day. Northern Pacific rose to 29⅝, preferred to 64¼, Union Pacific to 88⅝, Northwestern to 120⅝, St. Paul to 99½, preferred to 117½, Louisville and Nashville to 47⅝, Lake Shore to 99⅝, Missouri Pacific to 88⅝ and Western Union to 79¼. Just before the close there was a sudden raid on Lake Shore, which fell off 1⅝ and caused a sympathetic decline of ¼ to ¾ in the general market. The raid was based on a report that the Pennsylvania road had issued a circular making a sharp reduction in rates from Pennsylvania points to points in New York state along the West shore road in opposition to the New York Central. The decline in the market was brought about before the report could be investigated. After business hours it was learned at the offices of the companies concerned that the reports were made out of whole cloth, and that the incomplete state of the West Shore road, if nothing else, precluded the possibility of any such action as was attributed to the Pennsylvania company. The denial was made on the highest authority. Here it may be said that a prominent bear operator who had been credited with a desire to cover was indirectly the cause of the circulation of the report. Other reports which attracted considerable attention were to the effect that the West Shore road had been leased to the Grand Trunk of Canada, and still later to the Pennsylvania. No official confirmation of which could be obtained. It is admitted that negotiations of importance to the West Shore are in progress, but they are not yet sufficiently advanced to permit of any positive statements in regard to the matter. It is intimated that the difficulty between the Texas Pacific and its dissatisfied income bondholders is likely to be compromised by the payment of back interest claimed, partly in scrip and partly in cash.

Denver was weak on the issue of $5,000,000 new bonds and $5,000,000 new stock. As compared with last night's closing, prices are ½ to 1½ lower for Denver, the trunk lines, Oregon Transcontinental, and the Gould stocks. Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Lackawanna, Manitoba, and Union Pacific, however, were ½ to ⅜ higher. The changes in the specialties were again important. Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburg fell off 3⅛ to 11 and the preferred 6¼ to 38. The former subsequently rallied to 12 bid and the latter to 40 bid. Alton and Terre Haute preferred sold down 1 to 81, Milwaukee, Lake Shore and Western preferred 3½ to 36⅝, Minneapolis and St. Louis 1 to 20, Oregon Improvement 2¼ to 75, Colorado Coal ¾ to 18¼, and New Central Coal 1 to 9.

Transactions aggregated 320,975 shares, including Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, 21,300; Denver and Rio Grande, 20,700; Erie, 16,700; Lake Shore, 20,600; Louisville and Nashville, 9,750; Michigan Central, 7,020; Northwestern, 5,800; Northern Pacific, 30,285; Reading, 9,200; St. Paul, 13,800; Texas Pacific, 7,675; Union Pacific, 25,600; Oregon Transcontinental, 47,110; Northern Pacific preferred, 27,025; Wabash preferred, 6,300.
