FROM OTHER LANDS.

A Rumor That Admiral Courbet Has Been Defeated in Tonquin.

Election of a Parnellite Member of Parliament from Limerick.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—A Paris dispatch to a local news agency asserts that Admiral Courbet, who is in command of the French forces in Tonquin, has advised the French government to declare war with China, and the government has transmitted orders to the admiral to act in accordance with the requirements of the situation.

The correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company at Paris declares that the sensational reports of a breach of friendly relations between France and China, and of the re-enforcement of the French squadron in Tonquin, are without foundation.

A Cairo dispatch to Reuter's Telegraph company says it is understood there that the legal advisers of the Egyptian government decidedly oppose M. de Lesseps's claim to the right to widen the Suez canal without the permission of the government.

M. de Lesseps arrived here this morning. He paid a visit to the exchange, where he was well received. He delivered a speech, in which he assured the merchants that he was anxious to do everything possible to meet their wishes relative to the management of the Suez canal.

LIMERICK, Nov. 16.—The election for a successor to Mr. Richard O'Shaugnessy (liberal), who resigned his seat in the House of Commons as the member from this city, took place to-day and resulted as follows: Edward McMahon (Parnellite and nationalist), 922; James Spraight (conservative), 473; McMahon's majority, 449.

PARIS, Nov. 16.—It is reported on the bourse that Admiral Courbet has been defeated in Tonquin. The France professes to have similar news. The Liberte positively contradicts the report. It is generally believed, however, that the French forces have commenced their advance. A man has been arrested on the bourse on the charge of spreading alarmist news.

The last dispatch received by the government from Admiral Courbet, dated Nov. 8, announced the arrest of the transports Aveyron and Shamrock. He expected the transports Bienhoa and Tonquin to arrive on the tenth, and stated that he would attack Sontay between the fifteenth and twentieth instants.

The committee of the chamber of deputies, which is considering a resolution authorizing the granting of credits for the expenses of the Tonquin campaign, is favorably inclined to the principle of credits, but desires that the government shall give a complete explanation of the subject.

The Gaulois estimates the French forces now in Tonquin at 18,000, including soldiers and sailors, or 4,000 above the figures given by the minister of marine.

BERLIN, Nov. 16.—The Boersen Courier states that Prince Bismarck and M. de Giers, the Russian minister of foreign affairs, met at the railway station upon his arrival at Friedrichsruhe, and received him in a formal but friendly manner. They drove to the mansion of Prince Bismarck, where they remained several hours in conversation. M. de Giers subsequently proceeded upon his journey to Montreaux, on the Lake of Geneva, via Hamburg.

Prince Bismarck, the Courier states, looks ill and thin; his face is yellow from the effects of his recent attack of jaundice, and his gait is heavy, but his eyes retain their natural force and fire.

The crown prince to-day took affectionate leave of his father, the emperor, at the palace. He will leave to-morrow for Spain.

VIENNA, Nov. 16.—The Tagblatt states that the rebel Paschitch, who led the recent revolt in Servia, has taken refuge at the Russian consulate in Widdin, Bulgaria, near the Servian frontier.

GENEVA, Nov. 16.—M. de Giers arrived at Montreux to-day. He will remain there several days with his daughter.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—A dispatch from Shanghai to Reuter's Telegram company says it is stated that Chinese troops are being concentrated at Canton in order to keep back the Black Flags when the French drive them from Tonquin.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 16.—The Will of the People (the nihilist organ) states that the sentence of death, which was passed by the nihilist central committee on an informer, was carried out. It says their party has lost many valuable members recently, but that the gaps are being rapidly filled. More blood will flow, the responsibility for which will fall not only upon a senseless government but upon those who, knowing the pressing needs of the country, sit still and do nothing. The paper contains two letters from convicts in Siberia, which give horrible details of the treatment of prisoners there.

It is reported that of the two female nihilists who were recently arrested at the Imperial Marie institute, at Warsaw, one, Sonia Woskrepenicky, was executed privately, while the other, named Osinski, committed suicide before the time arrived for her trial.

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 16.—A letter has been received here which states that a new gold field has been discovered in Lower California. It is much richer than those already explored.

A telegram to the government says that the men who robbed the train near Laredo spoke English and Spanish. The government newspaper thinks that they are an organized band of train robbers from the United States.

Honors for Humane Services.

The President has presented a gold watch to Rocco Oneto, master of the Italian ship Nipote, in recognition of his services in rescuing the crew of the sinking American ship Crescent City at sea, Oct. 12, and another to Larno Neelson, master of the British ship Lotus, for similar services to the crew of the wrecked American bark Illie at the Solomon islands, March 4, 1883. He has also presented a silver watch to Mono. Faddern, mate of the Italian bark Letitia, for rescuing the shipwrecked crew of the American schooner James Bliss at sea, April 1, 1883.

A Chicago Editor's Style.

Pittsburg Telegraph.

The other day Mr. Story came down to the office, and his wife left him there while she went to do some shopping. He jumped up pretty soon with his old time vigor and remarked that he would walk home. One of the clerks was sent to follow him, and discovered the old man plunging along in the wrong direction. Under the pretense that he was wanted at the office on some important business the clerk coaxed him back, and he was detained on one pretext and another until his wife returned. He goes to the telephone at his house sometimes and calls up Mr. Dennett to give him some instructions, but usually before the latter gentleman reaches the place he has forgotten what he wanted to say.

Recently he has taken a notion that some one wants to poison him, and Benny Lamb, his wife's nephew, a bright boy to whom he has taken a great liking, goes to his house three times a day to feed him, as he will receive food from no other hands. Nearly every day he rides down to see the new house and quarrel with his architect. He has had four of them since the house was commenced, and were not the man in charge at present gifted with infinite patience he would have resigned long ago. Each visit develops some new whim on the owner's part, and alterations are ordered accordingly. The bill for extras in changing the construction has so far this year, it is said, amounted to over $30,000.

Not long ago Mr. Story caught ex-Congressman Farwell down there looking over the palace, and took great delight in showing him around and pointing out the features of the structure.

"This is the drawing room," he said; "this the dining room, and this the library. Here is the billiard room, and there is the chapel"——

"What in h—l do you want of a chapel?" asked Charley Farwell.

"I guess I need a chapel as much as a billiard room," quietly observed Mr. Story.

"I guess you do," solemnly responded the ex-congressman.

THE Celebrated Orator should be interviewed.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

Before accepting the above quoted advertisement, we made investigation as to the reliability of the parties, and were thoroughly convinced of the fairness with which they deal with all. Subsequently an attache of this paper, in behalf of an over-modest friend, set to work to learn positively if this treatment is all it is represented. He was soon thoroughly convinced that such is the case.—From a column article on our Company in Chicago Daily Press.

For the first time in the history of this paper, we admit a medical advertisement and yield an entire column on our first page to the Erie Medical Co., of this city. The business office of the Company is within a few doors of our own, and this, with the opportunities of personal friendship, has given us an insight to the business, and we do not hesitate to add our endorsement to that of the many journalists, physicians and others who are on record as its earnest supporters.—Buffalo Daily Mercantile Review.
