THE OLD LADIES' HOME.

Epiphany Church Donation Entertainment Yesterday.

The Epiphany church home for old ladies, No. 1310 H street, presented a busy and cheerful scene all day yesterday. The occasion was the annual donation day, and many hearty contributions were received, including barrels of flour, hams, barrels of potatoes, turkeys, canned fruit, and table luxuries, beside several liberal cash presents. This day has been observed on every Thanksgiving eve, since the establishment of the home. During the remainder of the year the institution is supported by contributions from the congregation of Epiphany church. The lady visitors and many friends were present during the day and evening, and entered cheerfully and heartily into the good and charitable work. Many contributed fancy articles were sold from the fancy booth, while the lunch room reaped a harvest of money. The lady visitors present were Miss Margaret Washington, president; Mrs. Margaret R. Stone, secretary; Miss Emma Janney, Mesdames John G. Parke, M. R. Waite, J. O. Evans, George Maulsby, R. D. Cutts, Frances L. Blanchard, Florence W. Schley, John Rodgers, and C. C. Glover. The rooms of the home are models of comfort, and the nineteen old ladies who occupy them welcomed all visitors yesterday with smiles and expressions of gratification.

BLACKFAN'S FUNERAL.

Last Exercises Over the Remains of the Foreign Mails Superintendent.

The funeral of Mr. Joseph H. Blackfan, late superintendent of foreign mails, took place yesterday at 12 o'clock from his late residence, No. 1130 Twelfth street northwest. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Joseph T. Kelly, the pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church, of which the deceased was an elder. He was assisted by Rev. Dr. Cuthbert, pastor of the Thirteenth Street Baptist church, both of whom spoke in glowing terms of the character of the deceased, and paid him a fitting tribute as a public officer and a Christian gentleman. The floral offerings were exceedingly beautiful. The following gentlemen acted as pallbearers: Hon. Horatio King, Hon. C. A. Walker, Dr. J. C. Welling, Dr. Daniel B. Clarke, Dr. Daniel McFarland, Mr. Thomas McGill, Mr. Henry Beard, and Mr. John Halstead. The interment was made at Glenwood cemetery, to which place a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives followed the remains. The flag on the post-office department was placed at halfmast during yesterday, and the office of the foreign mails was closed out of respect to the memory of the deceased.

Before accepting the above quoted advertisement, we made investigation as to the reliability of the parties, and were thoroughly convinced of the fairness with which they deal with all. Subsequently an attache of this paper, in behalf of an over-modest friend, set to work to learn positively if this treatment is all it is represented. He was soon thoroughly convinced that such is the case.—From a column article on our Company in Chicago Daily Press.

For the first time in the history of this paper, we admit a medical advertisement and yield an entire column on our first page to the Erie Medical Co., of this city. The business office of the Company is within a few doors of our own, and this, with the opportunities of personal friendship, has given us an insight to the business, and we do not hesitate to add our endorsement to that of the many journalists, physicians and others who are on record as its earnest supporters.—Buffalo Daily Mercantile Review.
