THE MARKETS.

The Operators Taking a Breathing Spell and Looking Around.

The Lull Not Especially Encouraging to the Bears.

Special Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The market opened and was reactionary until noon. Fluctuations averaged ⅛ to 1¼ per cent. under free realizing and heavy sales by traders. About noon the bulls bought, and the market rallied sharply. Vanderbilts were quiet and steady, Gould stocks dull and strong, grangers quiet, and coal stocks very strong. Trading was much less in volume than yesterday. Principally in Oregon Transcontinental, Union Pacific, Reading, Delaware and Lackawanna, and Northern Pacific preferred Loaning rates were easier. Bonds were moderately active and higher. In the last hour the market was dull and strong.

Leading commission houses anticipate no reaction of moment, and say the movemet denotes a bull market and no mistake. If quotations drop off a little they say the market is a purchase, and the Gould people say they believe prices will be 3 to 4 per cent. higher all around by Saturday night, but observant brokers say that the Gould party sold many long stocks, particularly Western Union and Texas Pacific, yesterday. A St. Louis dispatch says the Mississippi legislature has created a railroad commission, power to fix rates, and this causes excitement in railroad affairs.

The obligations of the Oregon Transcontinental company to the Oregon and California are that the Oregon Transcontinental shall complete the road to the California state line, and that the Oregon Transcontinental leases the road for three years, with the option to extend it indefinitely.

A Chicago dispatch says: At the Iowa pool meeting to-day the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy people declined to attend, and did not enter the convention.

Sales of stocks to-day aggregated 357,509 shares, including the following: Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, 41,840; Kansas and Texas, 5,000; Lake Shore, 8,790; Louisville and Nashville, 6,820; Missouri Pacific, 9,500; Northwestern, 12,110; New York Central, 5,000; Reading, 19,400; St. Paul, 44,100; Texas Pacific, 6,200; Union Pacific, 65,897; Western Union, 13,915; Oregon Transcontinental, 32,375; Northern Pacific preferred, 23,900; Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, 5,980.

BULWER LYTTON'S GYPSY LOVE.

The Novelist's Marriage to a Young and Beautiful Romany Girl.

"Before leaving Cambridge," writes Lord Lytton, in his autobiography, "I had enriched my experience with some vacation adventures, including an encounter with a highwayman, a night in a lonely cottage, where an attempt was made to murder me, and an armour with a pretty young gypsy, in whose camp I spent five or six days of romantic dalliance.

"One morning she was unusually silent and reserved. I asked her, reproachfully, why she was so cold.

"'Tell me,' she said, abruptly, 'tell me, truly, do you love me?'

"'I do, indeed.' And so I thought.

"'Will you marry me, then?'

"'Marry you?' I cried, aghast. 'Marry? Alas! I would not deceive you—that is impossible.'

"'I don't mean,' she cried, impetuously, but not seemingly hurt at my refusal—'I don't mean as you mean—marriage according to your fashion; I never thought of that; but marry me as we marry?'

"'How is that?'

"'You will break a piece of burnt earth with me—a tile, for instance, into two halves.'

"'Well?'

"'In grandmother's presence. That will be marriage. It lasts only five years. It is not long,' she said, pleadingly. 'And, if you want to leave me before, how could I stay you?'

"Poor, dear child—for child, after all, she was in years and in mind—how charming she looked then. Alas! I went farther for a wife and fared worse."

An Invaluable Article.

An article like Ely's Cream Balm has long been desired, and now that it is within the reach of sufferers from Catarrh, Hay Fever, and Cold in the head, there is every reason to believe they will make the most of it. Dr. W. E. Buckman, W. E. Hamman, druggist, and other Eastonians have given it a trial, and all recommend it in the highest terms. —Easton (Pa.) Daily Argus. (Price, 50 cents.)

Analysis by Dr. A. Voelcker, F. R. S., Consulting Chemist Royal Agricultural Society, England, shows only a trace of nitrates in Blackwell's Bull Durham Tobacco. The soil of the Golden Belt of North Carolina, in which this tobacco is grown, don't supply nitrates to the leaf. That is the secret of its delicious mildness. Nothing so pure and luxurious for smoking. Don't forget the brand. None genuine without the trade-mark of the Bull. All dealers have it.

When feline concerts drive away sleep, your best solace is found in Blackwell's Bull Durham Smoking Tobacco.
