A Jolly Party Coming.

GRAFTON, W. VA., May 5.—The western delegation of physicians, on their way to Washington to attend the medical convention, took dinner at this place to-day. Before the party left the table, Dr. A. Reves Jackson, of Chicago, arose and said:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: I crave your attention for a moment. When a man or a woman performs a good action it should receive consideration and acknowledgment. This by way of prelude. Now, we are fortunate in being upon picturesque Baltimore and Ohio and in having with us one who has performed not one, but many such actions looking to our care and comfort. I refer to J. E. Pangborn, who has been appointed to take charge of this party of innocents by those who know our needs. He was selected for the purpose by the company he so ably represents, because of his good looks, good manner, good temper, and fairly good character. In the performance of his onerous duties he has filled our stomachs with good food, our heart with gladness and gratitude, and our laps with picturesque literature, the latter from his own facile pen. He has placed the ladies of the party under especial obligations by his graceful gifts of beautiful flowers, and for all these things we desire to express our thanks. It was thought the testimonial should consist of a purse containing about a $1,000, but I was informed the gentleman is already wealthy, and only retains his position in the company in order that he may be of service to the traveling public, and that he would promptly refuse any such offer as I have named. This proves he has never been a Cook county commissioner or Chicago alderman. I was glad to receive this information, for it made it possible for us to do that we wanted to do in a less costly manner. So instead of presenting him with a purse we have determined to give him a resolution of thanks, and I submit the resolution without a whereas.

Resolved, That the ladies and gentleman composing this company of excursionists to the American Medical association desire to express their high appreciation of the liberality of the Baltimore and Ohio in placing so magnificent a special train at our disposal, and their sense of the kind, courteous, and efficient care of Joseph G. Pangborn, of Baltimore, the assistant general passenger agent of the company, whose efforts have made our journey thus far a most enjoyable one and one which will long be remembered with pleasure.

The speech and resolution were received and adopted amid shouts of applause. Mr. Pangborn responded with some fitting remarks, after which the train proceeded on over the most interesting and picturesque portion of the Baltimore and Ohio road.

On arriving at Cumberland the party voted by a large majority to lie over at the Queen City hotel, have a dance, and go on through the valley of the Potomac and Harper's Ferry in the morning.

A KIND HEART REMEMBERED.

Resolutions of Respect to the Memory of Mrs. Stilson Hutchins.

The executive committee of the Humane society held its regular monthly meeting yesterday, and at the conclusion of its routine business the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That in the death of Mrs. Sarita Brady Hutchins this society, and the cause for which it stands, has lost a brave, true, wise, and generous advocate—one whose tender sympathies and loving heart were ever open to the calls of mercy; whose devotion never flagged, and whose patient hands were never weary in serving the cause she loved.

Resolved, That this society will ever remain under a debt of gratitude to Mrs. Hutchins for her tireless and faithful service as its secretary during a critical and trying period of its history, when the only possible motive for the performance of such duty was her grand and beautiful devotion to the cause of the suffering and oppressed.

Resolved, That the members of this committee mourn the loss of an associate and a friend, in whom, with the rarest intellectual endowments, were blended a gentleness, kindness, and pureness of heart and a grace and beauty of character which rendered association with her a pleasure and her friendship the happiest privilege.

Resolved, That, as a slight mark of esteem for one whom we thus knew and loved and honored, and whose untimely loss is to each one of us a deep personal grief, these resolutions be spread upon the minutes and printed with the report of our society.

Mr. George L. Douglas presented the resolutions and delivered an eloquent eulogy upon Mrs. Hutchins. He spoke of her kindness, tenderness, and sympathy, and gave some personal recollections of her appeals for humanity during the years that she was an active supporter of the society.

A NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

Patrick Haley's Quick Trip to the Bottom of the Water Work's Shaft.

Patrick H. Haley, foreman of the water work's shaft, being sunk near Howard university, had a narrow escape from death last night. He was coming up the shaft, which is 107 feet deep, in one of the large buckets. When within about twenty feet of the top, the cog-wheel pin slipped out of its place and let the 500-pound bucket descend with lightning rapidity. Actuated by a strange presence of mind, Haley sprang from the bucket when it was within twelve feet of the bottom. He landed on his feet, breaking his ankle, and before he could recover, one of the buckets struck him on the back seriously injuring his spine. He was at first removed to his residence 1740 Sixth street northwest, and from there to Providence hospital in the police ambulance. One of the miners said after the occurrence, "If he had not sprang from the bucket he would have been crushed to death between the two buckets." Haley is an old miner. He has been in that business for twenty-six years. He worked in one shaft in California that was 550 feet deep. His brother was killed in a mine in that state several years ago by an accident similar to the one that occurred last night.

The Medical Editors.

The annual meeting of the American medical editors was held last night at Medical hall, corner of Sixth and F streets. The annual address was delivered by the president, Leartes Connor, M. D., on the "American Medical Journal of the Future as Indicated by the History of American Medical Journals in the Past." A discussion on the topic, "How far can legislation aid in elevating the standard of medical education in this country," was opened by Dr. N. S. Davis, and the following participated: Drs. A. B. Palmer, Henry O. Marcy, L. S. McMurtry, C. H. Hughes, Frank Woodbury, William Brodie, A. N. Bell, William B. Atkinson, W. C. Wile, W. R. D. Blackwood, Henry Leffmann, and Deering J. Roberts. At the close of the discussion the meeting finally adjourned.

John V. Shoemaker, M. D., of Philadelphia, is secretary of the association, which has a representative membership from various portions of the country.

STRAYED AWAY.

Twenty-Eight Lost Children and a Lot of Lost Parents.

Babies Who Loved Jumbo More Than Homes and Suppers.

"Were there any children lost to-day?" repeated the police officer at headquarters to a REPUBLICAN reporter last night, who had asked him that question. "Well I should say so," with emphasis. "The different stations have already reported twenty-eight youngsters missing, and we are on the lookout for them. Nine of them were lost after dark. They are mixed—white and black. The presence of the circus accounts for their disappearance."

The reporter looked over the record of "lost children," at headquarters, and found the following entries: Missing—George Gray, colored, 7 years old, resides on Maryland avenue, between Sixth and Seventh streets, northeast; Arthur, Thomas, and Alexander Gass, white children, G street, southeast; Frank and James Edwards, white, 9 and 11 years old, respectively, of 714 I street, southeast—Frank is deaf and dumb; Charlotte Edwards, colored, 10 years old, lives in the northwestern portion of the city; Henry Regnier, white, 9 years old, stranger in the city, resides at 906 G street northwest; Edward Muller, white, 8 years old, dark gray suit, knee pants and round cap, resides on Howard street, Mount Pleasant; Lionel O'Brien, white, 8 years old, resides at 927 C street southwest; Joe Conners, white, 5 years old, resides at 48 G street northwest; Eva Johnson, white, 3 years old, blue calico dress, sealskin cap, resides at 469 Pennsylvania avenue; Bennie and Bessie Guy, 2 and 3 years of age, reside at 1224 S street northwest; John Faber, white, 3 years, 2021 Eighth street northwest; Frank Junghan, white, dark clothes, resides corner of Second street and Massachusetts avenue, has been missing since yesterday; Alex. Licarioni, white, 4 years, 1121 Pennsylvania avenue southeast; Harriet Carroll, a one-legged colored girl, from her home, 1110 I street southeast, with her brother, 6 years of age. The girl is supposed to be insane. They went to Sunday school last Sunday, and have not been seen since. It is supposed that the white elephant and Jumbo were more attractive than the school, and that they are leading a guerrilla life in the vicinity of the circus.

The lost children reported by the different police stations last night were: Sixth precinct, found a lost colored girl, 3 years old, who gave her name as Henrietta Brown; same precinct, found a colored girl, 5 years of age, could not tell her name or residence—no hat, black dress, and white apron. Sixth precinct, found a colored girl, 3 years old, who gave her name as Morrison. Second precinct, found an unknown colored child, 3 years.

The different police stations were besieged until a late hour by anxious parents in search of their lost little ones, and many amusing and pathetic incidents occurred.

James Edwards, a bright-looking boy of 11 years, stalked into the eighth precinct station about 9 o'clock, leading his little deaf and dumb brother by the hand. Lieut. Greer and several officers were standing about the room. "We are the two boys that were lost," said James, in a manly tone, "and I have just dropped in to say that we are found. I got two tickets and took brother to the circus." A general laugh followed as the boys departed.

THUNDER AND LIGHTNING.

The Electric Performance Last Night Shocks an Operator and Adjourns a Meeting.

A flash of lightning during the shower last evening caused a general rattling and banging of telephones and extinguished all the electric lights in the city, including those on the capitol dome, Washington monument and Smithsonian institution. The same shock rang the fire-alarm bells and banged the bells in the church spires. Mr. W. G. Kendig, telephone operator at police headquarters, received quite a shock while trying to work the police telephone during the storm. The receiver was knocked from his hands, and he was almost thrown to the floor. Several other minor accidents occurred. The rain overflowed several sewers.

A crowd of ladies, the board of managers of the Homeopathic hospital, attempted to hold their regular monthly meeting last evening in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. building. They had not yet done any business, when a stroke of lightning shattered the flagstaff in the building, and frightened the ladies so that the meeting was immediately adjourned. Nobody was hurt or shocked, but small pieces of the flagstaff strewed the sidewalks for some distance in that vicinity.

Veteran Corps Election.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Union Veteran corps (first company) last night, the following officers were elected unanimously: M. A. Tappan, captain; M. E. Urell, first lieutenant; W. R. Ramsey, senior second lieutenant; D. V. Fenton, junior second lieutenant; Dr. D. L. Boree, surgeon; Wm. Thomson, first sergeant; Wm. S. Simmons, second sergeant; John Welch, third sergeant; C. H. Bliss, fourth sergeant; T. J. Dolan, fifth sergt.; Lewis T. Jewett, quartermaster sergeant. The following honorary members were elected: Hon. J. F. Dezendorf, Hon. Harry Libby, Hon. Horatio Bisbee, jr., O. P. Temple, Capt. J. C. Wall, Geo. O. Miller, T. P. White, J. P. Hamilton, Wm. C. Riley, C. A. Mander, Geo. W. Newell, A. T. Stone, and Patrick O'Hawes. Arrangements were completed for the grand entertainment and ball at Abner's hall to-morrow evening.

Three Children Abducted.

The mysterious abduction of a pretty pair of twin girls, 10 years of age, named Nellie and Hattie Roys, from their home, 525 Eighth street southeast, and their little sister, Celia Roys, 4 years of age, has caused some excitement at the Navy Yard. Their mother, Mrs. Emily Roys, is a well-known school teacher. The twin girls are very pretty. They have bright blue eyes and light complexion and hair. Celia, the baby, has dark hair and eyes. Police headquarters telephoned all of the station houses last night to keep a sharp lookout for the missing children. Those who know of the abduction say it is surrounded by mystery.

The Kelley-Sparklin Wedding.

The marriage of Mr. Howard M. Kelley and Mrs. Alice A. Sparklin, both of this city, was celebrated last evening at the residence of the bride. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. B. B. Shippen at 8 o'clock. Immediately after the wedding feast the happy pair left for a trip north. The marriage was quite private, only the members of the family and a few intimate friends of the parties being present. Among those present were Hon. S. L. Milliken, Mrs. Scott, Miss Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, Miss Boyd, Mrs. Dr. Fleming, Messrs. Rogers, Lothrop, R. H. Scott, and G. H. Levis.

Fishing Club Picnic.

The Columbia Fishing club gave its first picnic and reunion of the season at Juenemann's garden last night. Beer drinking, music, cigars, and dancing were the order. The Columbia club is the oldest piscatorial association in the district, and includes on its list many old and respectable citizens.

Preparing to Decorate.

A meeting was held at Grand Army hall, corner of Ninth and D streets, last night by the memorial committee of the Grand Army of the Republic to take action in reference to Decoration day—May 30. Besides the appointment of a committee to receive donations of money very little business was transacted.

A Swimming Match.

Henry Fowler, a colored man, and Frank Bennett, white, swam a race in the Eastern branch yesterday. The match was for $10 a side. The distance was about two miles, from a point below the jail to Benning's bridge. The contestants sprang into the water at 4:50, and Bennett touched one of the right hand piers of the bridge at 5:20, three minutes and twenty seconds ahead of Fowler.

NOT THE NATIONAL'S DAY.

The Baltimores Whip Them by a Score of 12 to 5.

The hard hitters from Baltimore had on their war paint yesterday, and knocked down, stamped on, and dragged out the Nationals. They outbatted the home club, they outfielded them, and more, they had decidedly the best luck. Three of their long hits dropped over the fence, allowing the batters to make comfortable home runs, and each time these hits occurred men were on bases to be brought home. When Lockwood's delivery began to be punished Wise was brought in to pitch, but his swift curvers were thumped all over the field as easily as Lockwood's had been. The Nationals hit hard, but unluckily many cracking hits going directly to Say and Phelan, and nothing got away from those players—in fact, their cool, brilliant work at short and second was the best done here this season. Phelan has certainly proved himself a model second baseman. Baker and Sweeney each caught well, but Baker seemed weak in his throwing. O'Brien made a beautiful running catch. The Nationals have started west, and will not be back until June. They play first at St. Louis, and will be very lucky if they win a ball from the powerful club located there. The score follows:
