THE BREVITY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

A shotgun was stolen Saturday from the house of George E. Prevost, No. 1435 Corcoran street.

The Anacostia Baptist church yesterday filed a certificate of incorporation with the recorder.

Articles valued at $27 were stolen from the house of R. A. Charles, No. 1405 Stanton street, on Sunday night.

Charles Clark, who walks on two stump and uses bad language, contributed his usual $5 in the police court yesterday for indulging in his favorite amusement.

Charles O'Neil, a tough from the east side, was charged with disorderly conduct in the police court yesterday, and upon his informing Judge Snell that he could "knock him out" was fined $10.

Frank P. Graffin, by a bill in equity, seeks a dissolution of the livery business carried on by him and Charles E. Handy in this city, and that the latter be restrained from interfering with the affairs of the firm.

Without transacting any business the court in general term yesterday, upon meeting, adjourned for one week. Several heavy cases have been argued recently and the judges wish time to consider them.

Ex-Gov. Ben Butler, of Massachusetts, has telegraphed that he will be in this city to-day. He comes in connection with the cases of Strong against the District of Columbia, which have been before a board of arbitration for nearly a year.

In all the Catholic churches of this archdioceses a circular, addressed by Archbishop Gibbons to the pastors, was read Sunday prohibiting the use of intoxicating drinks at picnics and excursions given under the sanction of the clergymen.

Senator Pike yesterday reported the mechanics' lien bill in the senate, and also the bill to refer to the court of claims the claims of Robert Strahan, John H. Johnson, Samuel M. Bryan, George Combs, Annie Botts, and George A. Hawkins for alleged injury to their property by the change of grade of New Hampshire avenue, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets.

A bill was brought in equity yesterday by J. Bradley Davidson as attorney for Mrs. Sarah C. Bigger against John W. Butterfield, trustee, and others to secure her as an heir of the estate of Joseph A. Coburn, her share in an insurance policy on the life of her father for $5,000, and to enjoin the administrator from paying out any money he may hold or receive until the settlement is made.

Nearly Here.

Well, well, the first of those select Luray excursions on the B. & O. is fast approaching. Just think of it, on next Wednesday week, the 25th, the first of these will take place, and a happy crowd will be hugely pleased.

There is no doubt but many could not visit the Caverns last year, and to them we say, "Here is another chance; go early and often."

Immense improvements have been made at the caves—new walks, plenty of light, and many others. At the inn a first-class dinner is served for 50 cents, so there is no need of being bothered with lunch baskets, and what beats all, or almost all, is the fact that the temperature of the caves is 57°, a treat in itself.

The special train will make rapid time, leaving Baltimore at 7:30, Washington at 8:30 a. m., arriving at Luray at 1 o'clock p. m., where dinner can be enjoyed and the caves visited with no hurry, as the return is not made until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, arriving in Washington at 9:15 p. m. and Baltimore 10:15 p. m., or earlier.

The fare for the round trip is $3.50, which includes admission to the caves; and, as the excursion is limited to 175 tickets from each city, each passenger gets a reserved seat coupon, making his seat his property for the day. Passengers can leave their umbrellas and luggage in the cars while visiting the Caverns, as the cars are locked and specially watched during their absence and perfectly secure.

A special conductor accompanies all the excursions to see to the comfort of the passengers and showing points of interest en route.

Ladies can go on these excursions without escorts with perfect ease of mind of receiving every attention and spending a pleasant day.

Remember June 25 is the first of the Luray excursions on the B. and O.

Diagrams of seats and sale of tickets will commence on Saturday, June 21.

Indianapolis club, Athletic park to-day.

William G. Metzerott's Will.

The register yesterday received the last will and testament of the late William G. Metzerott for probate and record. The deceased leaves $10,000 to Dr. John S. Billings, U. S. A., in trust for the benefit of the Garfield Memorial hospital in this district, to be used under his direction in a ward for the treatment of diseases of the chest and lungs. The testator nominates Samuel Cross and Henrietta Metzerott, the widow, as the executors, and leaves the residue of the estate to them, in trust, to manage until the youngest child of the deceased becomes 21 years of age. The widow is to receive, in lieu of dower, an income of not less than $3,000 per annum, and the children are to be maintained and educated at the institutions they now attend. When they are all of age the property is to be divided equally between them.

Funeral of Louis Ross.

The funeral of Louis Ross, the boy who died from the effects of an overdose of morphine administered by mistake, took place from the National hotel yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Buckley. The coffin, which was covered with white satin, with silver handles, was borne to the hearse by six young men, once playmates of the dead boy. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful in design. A large concourse of prominent people, friends of Mr. Ross, followed the remains to the cemetery. The interment took place at Oak Hill.

The Garfield Hospital.

By reference to the advertised special notices it will be seen that the Garfield Memorial hospital will open for the admission of patients next Wednesday. The advertisement states how application should be made.

The Divorce Court.

The bill of Pierce McDonald for divorce from Mary A. McDonald, charging her with adultery, was dismissed yesterday by Judge Cox in the equity court. She not only made answer denying the charge, but filed a cross-bill complaining that he had been guilty of adultery and went further and sustained the charge by proof. The chancellor while the mill was in operation granted Charlotte Beverly divorce from John Beverly and gave her custody of the children.

Permits to Wed.

The following marriage licenses have been issued: William J. Kerr and Annie E. Curran, William F. Flood and Lizzie Keeper, S. R. Langworthy, of Chicago, Ill., and Gussie Cox, of Riverside, Cal.; Henry B. Fisko, of Lowell, Mass., and Lizzie Hollinger, of this city; James S. Williams and Fannie E. Rennel, Michael Gilfeather, of West Point, N. Y., and Sophia M. Collins, of this city; William K. Cohen and R. Louise Simpson.

To Tourists and Travelers.

A mechanic never goes to work without his tools. Neither should you start on a journey without being fully equipped by always having a bottle of POND'S EXTRACT in your knapsack. In cases of accident, dislocated joints, overstraining, &c., when you are probably far from medical assistance, the importance of having it at hand cannot be overestimated. Pedestrians, oarsmen, base ballers, cricketers, gymnasts, and all athletes will find it a true friend. For relieving and curing sprains, bruises, foot soreness, chafings, swellings, varicose veins, insect bites, and stings it is simply invaluable.

This system entirely obviates the necessity of extracting teeth, does away with artificial teeth, prevents the suffering caused by decay of the teeth and consequent extraction of the roots (producing a change in the expression of the face and mouth), and avoids the pain and excessive annoyance of a plate.
By this method roots and badly decayed teeth, which are firm in position, may be restored to perfect usefulness and beauty, performing the office of mastication like the natural teeth.
