A Representative and Champion of American Art Taste! Prospectus for 1875—Eighth Year. The Aldine, THE ART JOURNAL OF AMERICA, Issued Monthly.

"A Magnificent Conception, wonderfully carried out."

The necessity of a popular medium for the representation of the productions of our great artists, has always been recognized, and many attempts have been made to meet the want. The successive failures which so invariably followed each attempt in this country to establish an art journal, did not prove the indifference of the people of America to the claims of high art. So soon as a proper appreciation of the want and an ability to meet it were shown, the public at once rallied with enthusiasm to its support, and the result was a great artistic and commercial triumph—THE ALDINE.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or hasty interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, contained in a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other paper of the kind. The Aldine is published at a price which affords a real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the close of the year.

While other publications may claim superior cheapness, contained in a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other paper of the kind. The Aldine is published at a price which affords a real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the close of the year.

The national feature of THE ALDINE must be taken in no narrow sense. True art is cosmopolitan. While THE ALDINE is a strictly American institution, it does not confine itself entirely to the reproduction of native art. Its mission is to cultivate a broad and appreciative art taste, one that will discriminate only on grounds of intrinsic merit. Thus, while placing its chief reliance on the production of the most noted American artists, attention will always be given to specimens from foreign masters, giving subscribers at all the pleasure and instruction obtainable from home or foreign sources.

The artistic illustration of American scenery, original with THE Aldine, is an important feature, and its magnificent plates are of a size more appropriate to the satisfactory treatment of details than can be afforded by any inferior paper. The judicious interspersions of landscape, marine, figure, and animal subjects, sustain an unabated interest, impossible where the scope of the work confines the artist too closely to a single style of subject. The literature of THE Aldine is a light and graceful accompaniment, worthy of the artistic features, with only such technical discussions as do not interfere with the popular interest of the work.

Every subscriber for 1875 will receive a noble portrait, in oil colors, of the same noble dog whose picture in a former issue attracted so much attention. "Man's Unfaithful Friend" will be welcome in every home. Everybody loves such a dog, and the portrait is executed so true to the life, that it seems the veritable presence of the animal itself. The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage tells that his own Newfoundland dog (the finest in Brooklyn) barks at it. Although so natural, no one who sees this premium chromo will have the slightest fear of being bitten.

Besides the chromo, every advance subscriber to THE Aldine for 1875 is constituted a member, and entitled to all the privileges of THE ALDINE ART UNION.

The Union was the originator of all the Aldine pictures, which, with other paintings and engravings, are to be distributed among the members. To every series of 5,000 subscribers, 100 different pictures, valued at over $2,500 are distributed as soon as the series is full, and in awards of each series as made, are to be published in the next succeeding issue of THE Aldine. This feature only applies to subscribers who pay for one year in advance. Full particulars in circular sent on application enclosing stamp.

TERMS. One Subscription, including THE Aldine one year, the Chromo and the Art Union, $6.00 per annum in advance. (No charge for postage.) Specimen Copies THE Aldine, 50 cents. The Aldine will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rates; each for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers, direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES STURGES, late of the Aldine.

CANVASSERS WANTED. Any person wishing to act permanently as a local canvasser will receive full and prompt information by applying to THE ALDINE COMPANY, 68 Maiden Lane, New York, Oct 15, 1874.

DYSPEPSIA. A CERTAIN CURE FOR Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Biliousness, Sick Headache, and Habitual Constipation.

What is life without the enjoyment of food? If you had the wealth of Croesus and suffered with Dyspepsia or its kindred diseases, you could not enjoy life. Dyspepsia is the prevalent disease in the United States. Brought about by our habits and irregularities. The Materia Medica has been exhausted and vainly tried, and the skill of the most tested Physicians has failed to effect a cure. Notwithstanding this declaration we unhesitatingly say: "MILLER'S DYSPEPSIA" is a Certain Cure for Dyspepsia and the many complaints incident thereto. It has been before the public a sufficient length of time to fully test its merits, and in every instance where it has been used according to directions, it has resulted in giving relief and effecting a cure. With each bottle is a Circular describing the symptoms of the disease named, and for which only we claim it as a specific. It is a safe and pleasant rest assured you will be benefited.

PREPARED BY A. J. MILLER, FINE DAVIS & MILLER, Wholesale Druggists, BALTIMORE.

For sale by Druggists, Apothecaries and Merchants throughout the country. Jan 15-17.

FIRE! FIRE! FIRE! DWELLINGS, FURNITURE, BARNES, OUT-HOUSES, FARM PRODUCE, &c., &c., insured on the Mutual Plan by the STATE OF MARYLAND MUTUAL FIRE Insurance Company OF BALTIMORE, Office No. 17 South street. B. G. HARRIS, President.

DIRECTORS. S. T. Caughy, Noah Walker & Co., Philip George, George & Jenkins, T. D. Anderson, Anderson & Bro., John Stack, Carpenter and Builder, Hon. George Brent, Court of Appeals, George P. Jenkins, Charles county, George Combs, St. Mary's county, B. G. Harris.

This is a Home Company, gotten up expressly in the interest of the citizens of Southern Maryland, to enable them to overcome the difficulties they experienced in procuring insurance in the ordinary Insurance Companies, with a view to the directors well known in that community.

It has been in business now over four years. All losses accrued, and they have been promptly paid, which is our best guarantee for the future.

The plan adopted is the safest and cheapest known in insurance, and affords to all insured by its exact cost, and ought to be encouraged by all who wish to protect their selves against loss or damage by fire.

If those interested will get it in patronage and insurance themselves in the increase of its business, in a few years it will rank among the largest Insurance corporations in Maryland, a credit and benefit to all, and an honor to the State.

Vol. IV THE [1874]. Science of Health. An Independent Journal, not the organ of any person or institution, but the earnest teacher of the laws of life and health, which includes all that relates to the art of recovering and preserving health.

To Retain Health. It is better to preserve health by obeying the laws of life than to regain it when once lost. Learn to avoid the causes of disease.

Disease and its Treatment.—The theory of disease is explained by competent writers, and philosophical and practical methods of treatment given.

Invalids should read THE Science of Health regularly, and learn the nature of their diseases, and the methods prescribed for self-treatment and cure.

"Doctors' Bills" can easily be saved in many families; enough to pay for ten times the subscription price every year, by simply following its plain teachings.

Women and Children.—Every number is devoted largely to domestic interests, considering the health and needs of Women, and especially the physical wants of Children. It will tell how to feed, clothe, and care for the young.

Household Department.—Healthful Cookery, and the publication of articles on "Seasonable Dishes," written expressly for this Magazine. In the same department will be given an amount of information in short, brief paragraphs, worth in themselves the price of the Science of Health.

Terms.—$2 a year in advance; sample numbers, 20 cents; ten copies, $15, an extra copy to agent. List of Premiums sent on application.—Cash Commissions given. Local Agents wanted. Address S. R. WELLS, 389 Broadway, New York, Jan 8, 1874.

The American Farmer. Begins a new volume January 1. This is an old established standard FARMER'S PAPER, devoted to agriculture and its interests. Special attention is paid—besides that given to the staple crops, artificial and home-made manures, &c.—to Live Stock, Fruit Growing, the Dairy, &c. Some of the ablest American agriculturists write for it. It is Practical, Substantial, Reliable. $1.50 a year. To clubs of five or more only $1 each. Very liberal and handsome premiums for clubs. Last three numbers of 73 free to all new names received before Dec 31. Specimen numbers free.—Agents wanted everywhere. S. M. SANDS & SONS, Publishers, Baltimore, Md. Nov 6, 1874.

Boarding. MR. J. C. MILBURN, formerly of St. Mary's County, to 163 W. Lombard st., between Sharp and Liberty, and is prepared to receive permanent and transient Boarders. 4-10 1874—11.

Attention Farmers! I am now prepared to furnish planters with my Patent Tobacco Pipe, upon the shortest reasonable notice. This Pipe is now being quite generally used in this locality and has, so far, given universal satisfaction.

The advantages it possesses over all other Pipes now in use are too varied and manifold to admit of description in this advertisement. It is conceded by all who have used it to be a great economist of labor, and it is admitted that it places Tobacco in the market in a condition very superior to that of any other Pipe now in use.

Price with railway attachment to prize two lbs. alternately, $50. With out railway, $60. JAMES A. CLEVELAND, Joseph T. Gough, Rev J B DeWolf, Geo S Mattingly, John Dillaway, and many others who have the pipe in use on their estates. J. FELIX MORGAN, Leonardtown, Md. THE 10, 1873-11.
