PINKEYE.

A Remarkable Cure of a Horse.

In the fall of 1883 I had a valuable horse taken with the pinkeye, resulting in blood poison. After nine months of doctoring with all the remedies to be found in horse books, I despaired of a cure. His right hind leg was as large as a man's body, and had on it over forty running sores. He was a most pitiable looking object. At last I thought of Swift's Specific, and commenced to use it. I used fifteen bottles. In a short time all symptoms of the disease disappeared. There have been no signs of a return, and the horse has done a mule's work on my farm ever since. JAMES L. FLEMING.

THE TELEGRAPH POLE SUIT.

A Hearing to Be Had in the Equity Court—The Commissioners' Directions.

Justice Hagner yesterday changed the time in which the rule was made returnable in the case of Robert C. Hewitt and others against the Western Union Telegraph Company and the District commissioners from June 3 to this morning at 11 o'clock. It seems that after the order went forth last Tuesday for the company and the commissioners to make answer the company put on an additional force and worked late on Tuesday night to get as much of the line built as possible, and have it completed before the time came for the hearing, and yesterday had the poles erected as far down Seventh street from Boundary as K street. Seeing the intention of the company to get the work done before they could be enjoined the complainants came before the court yesterday and stated the circumstances and speed with which the setting of the poles was being done. Justice Hagner thereupon issued another order revoking the time in which the rule was made returnable and fixed it for this morning.

Attorney Riddle has been addressed as follows by the commissioners: "Inclosed to you are the papers left at this office by the marshal of the District of Columbia in the suit of Hewitt vs. the District of Columbia and the Western Union Telegraph Company. For some time the commissioners have been urging the telegraph company to begin putting its wires under ground. While that company claimed to derive its right by concession given long ago, and to be exempt from the control of the laws, they finally agreed to put a portion of their wires under ground and take down about eleven miles of poles if they were allowed to put up about two and one half miles of poles. This arrangement was agreed to. Some years ago the poles of this company were on Seventh street and were removed to Sixth street. Now the trees on Sixth street are being injured, so the permit is for Seventh street, where there are no trees. The plaintiffs having property on Seventh street object and now insist that the commissioners cannot lawfully give permits to erect poles."

The Militia Marauders Exonerated.

The commission appointed to inquire into the alleged misconduct of the National Guard of Pennsylvania during the inauguration have presented their report, in which they say that their investigation shows that these charges were grossly exaggerated; in fact, so much so as to be practically untrue. While there were individual cases of wrong-doing, yet these individual cases appear to have been unaccompanied by any riotous conduct and were the acts of individual members of the guard, and were in no case of such character as to receive the sweeping denunciations that have been made. They feel that the individual cases of disorder that occurred were confined to so few persons that the National Guard of the state should not be unjustly censured by the reports that have been circulated concerning its conduct. The real losses, they say, amount to $62,50, which they recommend to be paid. The recommendations have been approved by the governor.

Jackson, grand larceny; guilty; sentenced. Wm. Holmead, unlicensed dog; guilty. Chris. H. Payne, same. Hillery Green, same. T. Edward Clark, same. Michael O'Brien, same. Assignment for to-day: J. Parder Jordan, assault with intent to commit rape; Sarah Chapman, grand larceny; Henry H. Ruff, forgery.

Checks Not Good for Taxes.

Justice Hagner, in the equity court yesterday, dismissed the cause of Frederick Koones against the District of Columbia, with costs. This was a bill filed to restrain the collector of taxes from selling Mr. Koones's property for alleged non-payment of taxes. The complainant gave a check on the 28th of May, 1884, for $400.44, the amount of taxes due, on Middleton & Co.'s Bank, which suspended on the afternoon of the 30th of May, and the collector failed to present the check for payment until the 31st of May, after the failure of the bank. The complainant contended that through the negligence of Cook to present the check on the 28th of May, it absolved the complainant from all liability. The court held that the collector had no authority to accept a check in payment of taxes, and dismissed the bill, from which decree the complainant appealed.

Must Renounce Politics or Go.

Information has been received at the Navy Department to the effect that Commodore Truxtun, commandant of the Norfolk navy yard, has directed the foreman of the shipsmiths and the foreman of laborers at the yard to deny over their signatures, a statement that they were members of a recent Democratic city convention at Norfolk, or be discharged. The commodore has prohibited political discussions in the yard, and says that any employe who takes a conspicuous part in politics will lose his position.

The Butler Mansion.

Gen. B. F. Butler has declined to receive the keys of his granite building from the sergeant-at-arms of the Senate and Architect Clark and accept a continuation of the lease. He has instructed Mr. O. D. Barrett, his law partner here, to hold the government responsible for the full term of the lease, and, if it is held that the government is not responsible, then he will hold the parties above named, who represented the government in the execution of the lease individually responsible for the suit.

A Writ of Habeas Corpus Issued.

Justice MacArthur yesterday granted a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Jeremiah Hays and W. J. Hays, making it returnable before him Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. This is the case of a father and son who were kept in the station house an entire week without any charge being made against them, though they were arrested for stealing in West Virginia, their trial postponed indefinitely, and they committed to jail.

The Navy Fraud Cases.

The grand jury yesterday brought in another batch of indictments in the navy fraud cases. The public are likely to suppose that these are all new cases, but such is not the fact, as these indictments are found to correct flaws in those previously obtained. In the last there were five against Grenville A. Whitaker, two against J. W. Drew, and one against W. H. Dempsey. In every case Daniel Carrigan is indicted with those above mentioned.

The Bicycle Races.

The bicycle races at Athletic park next Friday afternoon are attracting considerable interest, and quite an audience gathers there each evening to witness the contestants go through their training exercises. The races will commence at 4:30 o'clock, and in addition to the programme it is expected that Messrs. Hansmann and Church, on a sociable tricycle, will run a mile against Messrs. Forney and Davis, on a tandem tricycle—the first event of the kind.

THE MARKETS.

Stocks Dull and Featureless—Wheat Moderately Active, Closed at Lower Price.

NEW YORK, May 20.—The stock market has been very dull all day, and has failed to develop any feature of special interest. The opening prices were generally at or near the highest, and the closing prices within a small fraction of the lowest of the day, and yet the declines are only for fractional amounts, except in two or three cases. Pacific Mail was the only prominent exception to the general sale by scoring an advance of 1½ per cent., and closing with a gain of ⅞.

The weakest stocks were the Vanderbilts, especially Lake Shore, which, after declining from 52½ to 51¼, closed with a loss of 1¼ at 51¾. It is claimed that both the bears and the Vanderbilt party were sellers of this stock. Notwithstanding the dull and drooping character of the market, the bulls claim that the situation is decidedly in their favor, as there are over $57,000,000 surplus in the banks belonging to the Clearing House Association, and the bond market shows unmistakable evidence of a good investment demand, which is interpreted as indicating a desire on the part of capitalists to find more satisfactory employment for their funds than they have at present. They also claim that the short interest is still very large.

Money on call continues easy at 1 per cent., closing at 1. There is very little business doing in foreign exchange, but quotations are steady and unchanged as follows: Actual business 486½ and 488¼, posted rates 487½ and 489¼. There is no change is government bonds quotations except a decline of ¼ in the coupon 4s. There were sales of the coupon 4s at 121½ to 122 and the coupon 4½ per cents. at 112¾.

There is a moderate demand for state bonds, and in some cases quotations are higher, especially in some of the Alabama, Arkansas, and Michigan issues, while the Tennessees are weak. There was a sale of North Carolina 6s at 110¼. Railroad bonds continue active and prices generally about steady, except Erie, which has been active and weak.
