Summer Opening at the Palais Royal.

Newspaper reporters are credited with abundance of confidence, but the little army of the fairer sex that greeted our scribe as he insinuated his way through the crowded doorways of this popular establishment somewhat confounded him. To report an "opening" and give descriptions of what can be seen may be easy work to an athlete, but our reporter is small, and the "souvenir" tables were in possession of eager purchasers who soon suppressed a mere on-looker. If a crowded store, if an enormous array of pretty fabrics and colors, if the appeals of ladies to be "waited on," if the frantic efforts of salesladies to wait on half a dozen at once, if the bewildered appearance of the floorwalkers, and if the hasty escape of our "pen-driver" is a sign of a successful "opening," then that of the Palais Royal has been a giant success. Saturday at 5 p. m. terminates this memorable "opening."

Important Notice—A Reduction of Rates on the New York and Chicago Limited Express.

The passenger department of the Pennsylvania railroad announces a reduction of rates on the New York and Chicago limited express. Hereafter tickets for this train will be sold at the same rate as now charged on all other first-class trains, the excess ticket, however, being still required. Under this new arrangement the rates from Washington, including, of course, a double berth in Pullman sleeper, will be as follows, Columbus, $18.50; Cincinnati, $16; Indianapolis, $18.50; St. Louis, $23.50; Fort Wayne, $21, and Chicago, $22. Four daily fast trains leave the Baltimore and Potomac railroad station: 9.40 a. m., New York and Chicago limited express; 9.40 a. m., fast line; 7.10 p. m., Chicago and Cincinnati express, and 10 p. m., Pacific express.

WE would advise every one to call as early as possible at R. H. Taylor's, No. 933 Pennsylvania avenue, to secure the great bargains he is offering in Ladies' Undergarments, slightly damaged by smoke and water at the fire which occurred at his store last Saturday; also in Children's Lawns and Woolen suits slightly rumpled.

Building Improvements.

The vestry of St. Paul's P. E. Church, Twenty-third street, below Washington circle, has taken out a permit to build an extension 17 by 49 feet, a one-story stone structure, and a brick addition 28 by 31 feet and one story in height. The architecture will be in keeping with the church building. The additions will increase the seating capacity and give more room for chancel purposes. The brick addition will be used for the Sunday school and choir. The cost of the improvement will be $3,000. The following building permits were also issued: E. J. Hill, to build five two-story bricks on Second street, near G northeast, to cost $8,000; W. A. Wormley, to build one three-story and basement brick on Sixteenth street, near M, to cost $9,000; R. H. Taylor, to repair 933 Pennsylvania avenue, to cost $400; John Leetch, to improve 1409 Congress street, to cost $200.

Now our stock is at its height, but it is getting late, and we shall make our prices move them. Look out for bargains in clothing. Eisenman Bros., the most prominent clothiers and tailors, cor. 7th & E.

The Rockville Fair Opened.

Rockville, in Montgomery county, Md., is having a fair, and 2,500 people crowded the fair grounds and looked at the agricultural machinery and implements on exhibition yesterday. Some handsome flowers were also shown. The display of machinery is larger than at any previous fair. Some of the Washington exhibitors are G. T. Dunlap, P. H. Heiskell & Co., John A. Baker, Cropley, Boteler & Crampton, and F. L. Moore. After examining the exhibits for a time the crowd gathered in front of the town hall, and Congressman Bradley T. Johnson opened the fair in an eloquent address. Mr. H. C. Hallowell also made a short address. The premiums awarded yesterday for flowers were as follows: First premium, Henry C. Hallowell; second premium, Mrs. E. J. Hall; third premium, Mr. F. E. Waters; fourth premium, Charles R. Hartshorne.

Fatal Result of Superstition.

Dr. Holden, assisted by a number of physicians, attempted on Tuesday evening to perform a delicate surgical operation upon a colored man named William Harris, living in O'Neill's alley, Second street, between F and G southwest, but was prevented by a mob of ignorant and superstitious colored people, who mistook the physicians for "night doctors" and drove them from the house. Harris died during the night. A permit for burial was refused by the physician in charge until a post-mortem was held.

Sewer Pipe Proposals.

Bids were opened yesterday at the District office for furnishing a quantity of sewer piping. The bidders were the Potomac Terra Cotta Company, Akron Sewer Pipe Agency, Calumet Fire Clay Company, Clay Manufacturing Company (N. W. Walker), McMahon, Porter & Co., L. O. Howell, and Thos. Somerville & Sons, of this city. The Akron Sewer Pipe Agency seemed to be the lowest bidder. No awards have been made.

THE MARKETS.

Stocks More Active—Wheat Active, Unsettled, and Nervous.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The stock market has been a little more active to-day than yesterday, and yet very dull from the opening to the closing of the board. The lowest prices were made just after the opening of the board, but they were immediately succeeded by a moderate rally and continued strong on very slight fluctuations. The final changes are all in favor of higher figures.

Money on call continues easy at 1 to 1½ per cent., closing at 1. Foreign exchange continues very dull, but without change in quotations. Actual rates are 484¼ and 487¼; posted rates, 487 and 488½. There has been a good business in government bonds this afternoon, and quotations for the 4 and 4½ per cents. are up ¼, while the 3s are ¼ lower. There has been only a small business in state bonds.

For Killing His Father-in-Law.

A colored boy named Alfred Collins was tried in the criminal court yesterday on the charge of manslaughter in killing his father-in-law, Alexander Betters. The family lived near Giesboro', not far from the Maryland line, and the testimony showed that on the night of the 24th of last April Collins came home and first had words with his mother. Her husband took it up, and ordered Collins from the house. A scuffle ensued and was kept up until both had landed outside of the house. When Collins broke loose from Betters the latter was in a stooping position, and Collins, picking up a thick piece of wood, hit him a blow over the head, which resulted in death two days later. Collins, testifying in his own behalf, claimed that while his father-in-law was bending down he thought he was trying to get hold of something with which to hit him (Collins), and struck the blow in self-defense. The jury was out only a few minutes when they returned a verdict of guilty as indicted. Notice was given of a motion for a new trial.

"Itching Piles"—Symptoms, Moisture.

Like perspiration, intense itching, worse by scratching, most at night, seems if pin-worms were crawling. "Swayne's Ointment" is a pleasant, sure cure.

A Convict's Opinion of Witnesses.

Willis Campbell, alias Tink Campbell, was convicted in the criminal court yesterday of the larceny of a satchel, which he snatched from the hand of Sarah Clements.

"What have you got to say why sentence should not be passed?" asked the judge.

"All I have got to say," replied the prisoner, "is, I hope the $1.25 these witnesses lied for will do them some good."

"You are sentenced to eighteen months in the Albany penitentiary at hard labor," said the judge.

WILLIE.—We are sorry that a fall on roller skates has interfered with your holiday. Still it need not do so any longer. Use St. Jacobs Oil at once and you will be all right.
