Tuesday Morning.

This cut represents the man who went out in the driving rain of Monday night with a pair of trousers that had not been properly shrunken.

All our goods are thoroughly shrunk by a patent steam process which removes all false finish and makes the fabric firm and close. In our stock of Men's Trousers we keep all sizes—long and slender, short and stout.

MAKING CLOTHING TO ORDER.

It is a fact quite noticeable and easily proven that since we opened our store, but little more than a year ago, with reduced prices on Custom Clothing that other dealers are advertising to make goods to order at lower prices than ever before. Not because materials or labor cost less, but because people demand lower prices and we have shown that lower prices can be named and still give first-class work.

Suits to order, made up by custom hands, not by ready-made workmen, from $25.
New styles English Cheviots, $28.

Indigestion Cured!
I suffered for more than five years with indigestion, scarcely able to retain the simplest food on my stomach. The burning sensation was almost intolerable, and my whole system was deranged. I was wakeful and could not sleep, and consequently more or less nervous all the time. I declined in flesh, and suffered all the usual depression attendant upon this terrible disease. In a word, I was miserable. At last, failing to find relief in anything else, I commenced the use of Swift's Specific. I began to improve at once. The medicine toned up the stomach, strengthened the digestive organs, and soon all that burning ceased, and I could retain food without difficulty. Now my health is good, and I can eat anything in the shape of food, and digest it without the slightest difficulty. I most cheerfully bear this testimony, because there are hundreds suffering as I was, and I am sure they can be as readily healed. Take the prescribed dose after eating, instead of before. ## SOME VIRGINIA RESORTS.

Bear and Deer Hunting and Trout Fishing Within Half a Day of Washington.

HEALING SPRINGS, BATH COUNTY, VA., Oct. 14.—Up in the Alleghany region of Virginia a well-built mountain stage road connects with the Chesapeake and Ohio railway at Millboro' station and runs north by west along the east side of the Warm Springs mountain some eight miles, where it turns south by west, or rather the summit, 3,000 feet above the level of the sea, and runs down on the west side through Warm Springs valley to Covington station, some two or twelve miles west of the starting point. The bit of stage road, thirty-six miles in length, runs through a most remarkable region—a wilderness, in fact—containing bears, deer, and smaller game, rapid running trout streams, and numerous mineral springs, that in many respects are acknowledged to be superior to any others on the continent—and all within half a day's ride of Washington.

To seekers for health or recreation this mountain wilderness offers the natural advantages of the Adirondacks, White mountains, and Saratoga Springs combined. Ten miles from Millboro' station we come to the Warm Sulphur Springs, where we find two substantial pools, each fifty feet in diameter and from four to seven feet deep. At each pool the clear, warm sulphur springs—98° temperature—bubbles up out of the ground at the rate of 1,200 gallons per minute. There are no pipes bringing the water from distant sources. The bathers plunge directly into the clear, natural-flowing warm sulphur springs. There are also private baths and drinking fountains—each from a separate spring. The combined flow from all the springs is upward of 6,000 gallons per minute.

Five miles further on we come to the Virginia Hot Springs, owned by Ben Holliday, the Delaneys, and Col. Mebos, the manager. The temperature of the different springs here ranges from 50° to 110°, and the waters are said to rival in efficacy the celebrated hot springs of Arkansas. The hotel is one of the best in the mountains.

Three miles further down the valley brings us to the Healing Springs, Mrs. Mattie Esbank proprietor and Mr. E. N. Esbank manager. The most remarkable property of the waters of these springs is a soothing influence over the nervous system, a power of "inducing tranquillity and reparative sleep," good for both body and mind. No better place can be found for rest and recreation. The temperature of the healing spring most in use is 83°. There are others here and in the immediate neighborhood, one of them remarkable for its enormous flow of water, which comes out of the side of a spur of Warm Springs mountain at the rate of 7,000 gallons per minute. It is used mainly to drive a ride country flour mill. The hotel here is good—equal to any in the valley.

People, however, who require hotels with electric bells, elevators, speaking tubes from their rooms to the office, and all other very late hotel improvements, should not come here. It should be remembered that this is a wild mountain region, with a sparse population living mostly in log cabins, and that all hotel supplies, except vegetables, used here are hauled many miles over steep mountain wagon roads having a rise in places of upward of 600 feet to the mile. A ride over these roads in a light spring wagon behind a pair of stout horses is a delightful affair, worth coming many miles to enjoy, but hauling heavy loads over the same roads is quite another matter—very expensive at all events. I mention these things to show that hotels here in the wilderness among the mountains—miles away even from the sound of a locomotive whistle—cannot reasonably be expected to have all the luxuries that are found in establishments in or near large cities. The accommodations are, however, very good—excellent, all things taken into consideration; good tables and clean and comfortable lodgings. The usual rates are $17.50 per week, or $60 for four weeks. The attractions, briefly stated, are clean, healthy giving mountain air, beautiful scenery, drives, horseback rides and walks among the mountains, hunting and fishing, and the free use of the greatest variety of the largest and most healthgiving mineral springs in the world. The nights during the season are cool. During the month of September—the most delightful month of the season—we had roaring wood fires, in old-fashioned open fireplaces, in the hotel parlors and reading room, and I had a similar fire in my room whenever I desired it. This is a good place for people living near the seacoast, or in malarial countries, or in cities anywhere. I speak from two seasons' experience.

Visitors from Washington and cities north can come here best by the Virginia Midland and Chesapeake and Ohio railways. The accommodations on both roads are excellent. Parlor cars run through without change. It is better to take the train which leaves Washington at 11:15 a. m. and arrives at Millboro or Covington about dark. There is a fairly good hotel at Millboro and another not so good at Covington, where it is well to stop over night so as to enjoy the mountain stage road by daylight. I shall, however, return to Washington by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway and the Potomac Steamboat Company's line, so as to visit the vineyards near Charlottesville, and the celebrated all-the-year-round seaside resorts at Newport News and Old Point Comfort, about which I shall have something to say later on.

"HOW CROSS WAS THE MAN?"—This question was asked in a recent law suit concerning a man who had acted implacably. The answer was, "He was so cross that when he called up the cows at milking time it made the milk sour." Probably the poor fellow has dyspepsia. But the worst dyspeptic can be cured by using Brown's Iron Bitters. Mr. J. M. Courtwright, of Cocora, Minn., had dyspepsia, but now writes: "Brown's Iron Bitters are truly the best remedy I ever used for dyspepsia and bilious complaint."

The Duffy Brand of Whisky.

In Baltimore the Duffy Malt Whisky Company have just moved into their new quarters on Baltimore street, near Hanover. Their new store will be the finest of its kind in this country. It is an iron building, seven stories high, depth 150 feet, width 25 feet. The entire first floor will be used as a counting room and private offices, while in show cases will be displayed the company's own distillations in malt and rye.

On the second floor is found the advertising department, which is under the management of Mr. T. B. Ekers, a gentleman of experience, who for many years held a similar position with the Charles A. Vogeler Company, one of the largest advertising firms in the country. This floor is also fitted up in the most complete manner. Around the walls and reaching to the ceiling are already files for 4,000 newspapers, and others are to be put up to accommodate 10,000, the upper sections being reached by a hanging gallery.

The third and fourth floors embrace the most complete bottling department in the country, and the fifth and sixth are for storage of old whiskies.

The officers of the company are: President, Walter B. Duffy, who is also president of the Rochester Distilling Company, established in 1840, and is also president of the Duffy Cider Company, the largest concern of the kind in the world. The vice president, Mr. George Fleckenstein, and the secretary and treasurer, Mr. Thomas J. Hurley, are well and favorably known to the citizens of Baltimore as public-spirited and enterprising business men. Mr. Hurley is also president of the Bay Ridge Transportation Company, one of the most enterprising corporations in the city.

The Duffy malt whisky is in use in the leading hospitals, and thousands of testimonials have been received as to its purity, and its power as a cure for wasting diseases.

BERKELEY, a pure rye whisky, the best on the market for the price, $4 per gallon, $1 a quart, and 50 cents a pint, 25 cents a sample bottle. Tharp, 815 F street northwest.

BROOKE Park Hotel will be open during moonlight nights until 12 o'clock.

Will Join Their Beaus on the Farm.

"Take these girls' names," said Sergt. Daily yesterday morning to the stationkeeper of the eighth precinct, as four colored girls stood up before the railing. Ella Green, Sylva Boldin, Annie Robinson, and Johanna Johnson were put down on the books for disorderly conduct in Lincoln Park. The girls had provided dainties for their beaus, who are in the workhouse, and were on their way when a dispute arose among them as to the good looks of their incarcerated swains. Angry words arose, which soon culminated in a general fight. A visit to the battle ground after the fracas showed the remains of bologna sausage, cheese, pies, and cigars. A few minutes after the girls were locked up in the cells they drowned their sorrow in singing "Safe in the arms of Jesus."

A MAN who gazes at a red sunset has a golden prospect before him. So has a man who uses Red Star Cough Cure—the prospect of soon finding his lungs as strong as ever.

To-Day in History.

OCTOBER 19.

(1745.)

In wit and satire bright and keen,
Long famous, droops now, dies the Dean,
Dies as himself predicted: "See,"
One day he said, "yon blighted tree;
'Tis withered at the top; so I—
You need not smile—will also die!"
And Swift, who charmed and stung—at last
An idiot from our world-scene passed.

(1781.)

The Revolution brightens. Now
Cornwallis all his force surrenders!
"We'll crush the rebels!" England's vow
Is broken—and can find no menders.
Alas, 'tis likely worse remains—
For English blood yet swells our veins!

(1781.)

A pleasant day for England—more,
A pleasant day the wide world o'er,
For now Leigh Hunt is born. His way
From scene to scene to Heaven was bright,
Illumed with some diviner light
Than other souls are blessed with. Yes,
It lingers round us fondly still,
It cheers us, shines 'mid shades of ill,
And pales them, or disperses. See,
How grand one little life may be!

(1826.)

When Talma left our stage, for him
Drooped Tragedy, the lights grew dim,
The music ceased, and France stood still,
Lost in the chaos clouds of ill.

FOURTEENTH STREET FIRMS.

The Business Houses from New York Avenue to Boundary.

No street in Washington, not even grand Pennsylvania avenue itself, is better known or more fashionably frequented than Fourteenth. A broad thoroughfare, smoothly concreted, with continual passage of cars, the rush of wagons, the rolling by of magnificent equipages, built on either side, almost connectedly, with stores and beautiful dwelling houses and hotels—it is a favorite resort, both of business and pleasure.

Some of its merchants remarked to the writer a few days since: "I have never known any enterprise start on Fourteenth street without meeting with full success."

The importance of this grand thoroughfare is steadily and rapidly increasing. At this time many buildings are being erected for stores, even to the base of the northern hills, and it is sooner is one finished than it is occupied. The display of goods of all kinds along the route is rapidly becoming as attractive as any in the city, and the ability and courtesy of its merchants cannot be excelled.

The retail trade of this street is well established, and will now progress at an unexampled rate. Investments here will prove highly remunerative, and the attention of capitalists is at present eagerly directed to this rapidly approaching realization. From an extensive and fruitful region of Maryland, produce and trade enter the city by this avenue, as they have done for many years, though never in such liberality as they now do.

The beautiful hilly region bordering the boundary also contributes much to the prosperity of this street, so widely and tastefully is that section adorned with cottages, villas, and fine rural mansions.

A full and complete directory of the business of Fourteenth street, alphabetically arranged, commencing at New York avenue and extending to Boundary, here follows:

WORK AND WAGES.

There are three local assemblies of the Knights of Labor in Fort Wayne, Ind.

Mine laborers in Berks county, Pa., are paid 60 cents a pay. The laborers in the rolling mills get 90 cents.

An attempt, which will doubtless be successful, is being made to organize the harness makers of this city.

The Harrisburg printers promise moral and financial aid to all movements to prevent the importation of Chinese labor.

The organization of the cigar makers is going on rapidly. There were five unions formed last week and four the week previous.

The co-operative bakers of Toronto presented an enormous cake to T. V. Powderly upon his re-election as G. M. W. of the Knights of Labor.

The hands employed at S. Riddle & Son's mill, at Rochdale, Pa., have struck for an advance of wages, and the mill has been stopped.

The strike at the Gloucester (N. J.) gingham mills still continues. The strikers are receiving assistance from all parts of the state, and are confident of success.

The Oldham, England, strike is ended, and 20,000 operatives have resumed work. A compromise was effected on the basis of a 5 per cent. reduction of wages.

Nearly 100 men were suspended indefinitely in the Philadelphia and Reading car shops in the freight department Saturday. The company expects to build 1,000 new cars for next season's business.

There is considerable trouble throughout the interior of Pennsylvania over the employment of Hungarians and Italians in the mines and on railroad work, which promises to become serious if these foreigners are allowed to remain.

The hatters, at the late regular meeting of the national body at Philadelphia, held a lengthy discussion in regard to the importation of hats in the rough as raw material, and resolved to petition Congress for redress in the matter.

There were 150 miners at work at Neil's two mines near Pittsburg Saturday at the reduced rates. President Costello, of the Miners' Association, was unsuccessful in his attempt to persuade Neil's men to quit work. The operators say that under no circumstances will they pay the prices demanded.

THE MARKETS.

Stocks Active, Feverish, and Irregular—Wheat Firm and Lower.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The stock market today has been very active, feverish, and irregular, but on the whole strong as indicated by the net advances made by prices. The upward movement was, however, very irregular. Comparing prices tonight with those of a week ago everything is higher, the gains ranging from fractional amounts to 5 per cent, the latter Oregon Railway and Navigation, but Lackawanna is up 3¾, Jersey Central 4½, St. Paul 3⅞, Erie 3¼, Reading 3⅛, Manitoba and Northwestern each 3, and other smaller fractions.

The highest prices of the year for many of the active stocks have been made this week. The business of the week has also been the largest of any week this year, the sales aggregating 2,986,675. As has been already noted, however, from day to day about 50 per cent. of the business has been done in half a dozen stocks.

Money on call continues easy at 1½ to 2 per cent, closing at 1½. Foreign exchange continues dull and nominally unchanged. Actual business 484 for sixty-day bills and 485¼ for demand. Posted rates 485 for sixty-day bills and 487 for demand. Government bonds are dull and strong. State bonds are active and firm.

Treasury balances: Coin, $156,928,206; currency, $15,228,022.

The Washington Stock Exchange.

"A CONTINUAL dropping on a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike." No wonder, poor souls, they are such slaves to headache. One 25 cents spent for a bottle of Salvation Oil will restore harmony in the household.

Exact Figures for the Water Works.

The following are the exact figures, showing the amounts of original contracts for the new water works, with the variations from them that have been necessary on account of change in original plans and unexpected difficulties encountered: Original appropriation for Great Falls dam, $145,333; actual cost, $148,000 and dollars less. The original appropriation for the tunnel was $399,534.55. Estimated cost, July, 1885, $993,422.16. Balance needed to complete work, $593,887.61. Besides the causes for extra expense enumerated above, greater expense was necessitated for engineering, inspection, office expenses, due to difficulties encountered, and consequent extension of time to contractors; also to secure a better quality of rock the tunnel was run at a greater depth than originally planned. The original appropriation for the new reservoir was $431,276.75; estimated cost, July, 1885, $625,635.80. Balance needed to complete work, $194,362.85.

BROOKE Park Hotel will be open during moonlight nights until 12 o'clock.
