THE MARKETS.

Stocks Feverish, Active, and Irregular—Wheat Easier and Slightly Lower.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The stock market today has been feverish, active, and irregular. At the opening this morning the first prices varied from a small decline to an advance of ¼ per cent. over Saturday's closing figures, Lackawanna, Union Pacific, and Reading being most prominent for the gains established, while Missouri Pacific and New York Central were weak. The market was extremely active in early dealings, as is shown by the fact that the reported sales for the first half hour were over 112,000 shares, for the hour 165,000 shares, and for the forenoon 331,910 shares.

While the market was more or less irregular during the forenoon, the general tendency for a time was upward, followed by a reaction in which the early gains were lost, and then another strong market that with irregular and moderate fluctuations continued until nearly 2 o'clock, the gains by that time ranging from fractions to over 2 per cent. It must be noted, however, that there were a good many exceptions to this rule. The market closed irregular and decidedly feverish with only changes of small fractions in most cases from Saturday evening's final figures.

Money on call has been active and firm at 2 and 3½ per cent., closing at 2½. Foreign exchange continues quiet and quotations unchanged. Actual business at 483½ for 60-days bills and 485 for demand. Posted rate 485. For 60-day bills and 486 for demand. Government bonds are dull and strong. State bonds have been very dull and heavy.

Treasury balances: coin $163,509,001; currency, $11,146,862.

The Law Department of Howard University.

EDITOR NATIONAL REPUBLICAN: It is a matter of regret that Mr. William H. H. Hart, who is a graduate of the college department of Howard University, should have thought it necessary, in his correspondence with President Welling, published in your issue of today, to disparage the law department of his alma mater. While the law rooms are less commodious than we could wish, they answer their purpose, and are said to be better than those used a few years since by some other law schools. Scores of graduates can testify to the value and thoroughness of the instruction. Mr. Hart's letter is evidence of the good work done in our college course, and we can do equally good work in our law school. When he states that it is "destitute of revenue except from the pitiful fees of some dozen students," it shows that he wrote without making proper inquiry—a bad thing for a lawyer or anyone else to do. The law school does not share in the congressional appropriation, but it has, aside from the fees of students (whose number Mr. Hart understates), a revenue arising from a partial endowment of $15,000, which we hope will in time be largely increased by the friends of the colored race. WM. W. PATTON,

President of Howard University.

In Life's Decline

infirmities beset us to which our youth and maturity were strangers. Weakness of the loins, rheumatic ailments, dyspepsia, loss of appetite and unquiet sleep, are among these. As a means of counteracting the infirmities of age, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is unrivaled. It quickens and enriches the sluggish and impoverished circulation, begets a hearty appetite and youthful relish for the food, and enables the stomach to digest it. It soothes and invigorates the nervous system and checks a tendency to rheumatism. Its quieting action upon the great sympathetic nerve, which connects the stomach with the brain, results in the speedy departure of the restlessness by night and disquietude by day, which are the reflected manifestations of dyspepsia. It is a most effectual antidote to the poison of malaria, gives a healthful impetus to the action of the kidneys and bladder, and is an admirable means of reanimating vigor when impaired by overwork or other cause.

To-Day in History.

NOVEMBER 3.

(1800.)

"On Linden, when the sun was low,"
Red Battle stained the virgin snow.
What now of all the rage remains,
The earthquake of those peaceful plains?
And where was wrong, and where the right,
The "glory" of the Reindish fight?
No more than this: A poet saw
The cruel scene sublime; with awe,
Yet admiration strange, surveyed
The havoc frantic passion made,
Then gave it to the world in song,
To thrill the startled years along.
To thrill—till Pity's tears should flow,
And Man to Man no more be woe!

(1880.)

Was joy throughout the land: one Voice
Cried "Garfield!" Vainly ye rejoice,
Ye people, for ye may not see
The sorrow presently to be,
Your Chosen of to-day struck down
By Madness from his high renown.

(1881.)

So rolls the world! Is joy again:
A wonder bounds across the main—
'Tis Paul, hoped and prayed for long,
Proud Empress of the Realm of Song.
Her dainty feet now press our shore:
The strings—and we can sigh no more.

THE COURT RECORD.

The United States Supreme Court yesterday rendered a decision in the case of Peter C. A. Van Weer, of the Netherlands, vs. Frederick H. Winston. The allegation is that Mr. Winston, as president of the Chicago and Southwestern Railway Company, perpetrated a fraud in connection with the issue of the bond transaction of the company. The Supreme Court is of opinion that Mr. Winston committed no fraud in the matter; that appellant has shown no right to relief, and that the action of the circuit court dismissing the bill is therefore approved. Mr. Winston is the recently appointed minister to Persia.

The court also rendered a decision in the cases of John H. Starin and the Independent Steamboat Company, appellants, vs. the Mayor, Alderman, and Commonalty of the City of New York. Original suit was brought in equity in 1881 against appellants in these cases to restrain them from operating the Staten Island Ferry Company without a license or permission of the appellees. The suit was removed upon petition by the present appellants to the circuit court of the United States, and the record in the state courts having been filed, the circuit court remanded it, whereupon an appeal was taken to the Supreme Court of the United States. The latter sustains the action of the circuit court, declaring that the case was properly remanded.

Opinions were also announced in the following cases:

No. 14, Richard D. Lancaster, plaintiff in error, vs. Henry E. Collins; in error to the circuit court of the United States for the eastern district of Missouri. Judgment affirmed, with costs. Opinion by Mr. Justice Blatchford.

The Dying Civil Service Board.

The last meeting as a board of the civil service commission was held on Saturday, when Messrs. Eaton and Thoman retired, leaving Dr. Gregory the only member. There is a great deal of speculation over the reorganization of the new board, and a great many prospective candidates have been named. The President will, it is thought, appoint the successors to the retiring members on his return.

EPITHELIOMA!

OR SKIN CANCER.

For seven years I suffered with a cancer on my face. Eight months ago a friend recommended the use of Swift's Specific and I determined to make an effort to procure it. In this I was successful, and began its use. The influence of the medicine at first was to somewhat aggravate the sore, but soon the inflammation was allayed, and I began to improve after the first few bottles. My general health has greatly improved. I am stronger, and able to do any kind of work. The cancer on my face began to decrease and the ulcer to heal, until there is not a vestige of it left—only a little scar marks the place. MRS. JOHN A. MCDONALD.

ATLANTA, GA., Aug. 11, 1885.

I have had a cancer on my face for some years, extending from one cheek bone across the nose to the other. It has given me a great deal of pain, at times burning and itching to such an extent that it was almost unbearable. I commenced using Swift's Specific in May, 1885, and have used eight bottles. It has given the greatest relief by removing the inflammation and restoring my general health. W. BARNES.
