THE DISTRICT CODE OF LAW.

Provisions of the Measure as Reintroduced in the Senate.

The municipal code introduced in the Senate on Thursday for this District is the same that was originally introduced four years ago. If the code is passed it will save considerable time and labor, and it will do away with the necessity of passing bills to regulate taxation, &c. The code prescribes disabilities for holding office, filling of vacancies, and provides for a board of three fire commissioners, the duties of all the officials being clearly defined. It provides for the taxation of all real or personal property, exempting the United States and District property and that owned by foreign governments; also the Louise Home, Corcoran Art Gallery, and Soldiers' Home, all church property used exclusively for religious worship, and all property used for endowment of free educational institutions. Household property under $300 in value, and personal property of non-residents. Real property is to be assessed every three years, and provision is made for the payment of assessors, &c. All moneys held or invested, controlled or deposited, and transient or non-resident dealers in merchandise, shall be subject to taxation, and shares of capital stock, of national banks, and other corporations, shall be included in the valuation of personal property, at its cost value, as shall the gross receipts of insurance companies, less the amount paid for local losses and the real and personal property of railways in the District. All personal property shall be subject to seizure and sale for non-payment of taxes.

Licenses are to be assessed as follows: Commercial agents, $200 annually; insurance agents, $50; telegraph companies, $250, and $1 on each telegraph pole in use in the District; telephone companies, $100, and hereafter no more additional telegraph or telephone poles shall be erected within the limits of the cities of Washington and Georgetown; auctioneers, $100; wholesale dealers in distilled or fermented liquors, $100; wholesale dealers in and manufacturers of malt or brewed liquors alone, $100; distillers of spirituous or intoxicating liquors, $200—rectifiers shall pay $50 annually, in addition to the license as wholesale dealer; proprietors of barrooms, sample rooms, and tippling houses, $250, and of beer saloons where malt liquors are sold to be drunk on the premises, $100; proprietors of billiard tables for hire, $10 for each table; proprietors of bowling alleys, $10 for each alley; proprietors of shooting galleries, $10; proprietors of grounds used for horse racing or tournaments, $10 per day when used; proprietors of circuses, $200 each week or $100 each day; proprietors of theaters, $100; proprietors of variety theaters, $500; proprietors of skating rinks, $100; managers of concerts, exhibitions, lectures, fairs, balls, and of all other entertainments and amusements for gain, or games of any kind where an admission fee is charged, $5 a day or $15 each week; wagons drawn by two or more horses, $5; by one horse, $3; carts and drays, $2.50; vehicles for transporting passengers, for hire—two-horse vehicles, $10; one-horse vehicle, $5; other vehicles capable of carrying ten passengers or more at one time, $10; pawnbrokers, $300; peddlers, $50; lawyers, physicians, and dentists engaged in practice, $50; contractors, $5; patent and real estate agents, $25; brokers, $100; building and loan associations, $50; natatoriums, $100. Every person liable to a license tax who shall fail to pay the same before engaging in business shall be fined not less than $5 nor more than $50 for each offense.

Reported from Rockville.

ROCKVILLE, Md., Dec. 11.—The following petitions for claims for damages by citizens in Montgomery county, under act of July 4, 1864, were filed by Congressman McComas on Tuesday last: Isabella Hance, of Montrose, $7,981; W. P. Leaman, $1,225; Thomas E. Holmes, of Washington, D. C., $1,850.

About $32,000 was paid to the employes of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal for the months of May and September, and it is thought that navigation will close Dec. 20. The tonnage for the year will reach over 200,000 tons, and not only has this year's indebtedness been paid by the canal, but also a considerable amount on back expenses, the revenue for November alone being $14,500.

Rev. Dr. Bulleck, ex-chaplain of the United States Senate, will preach in the Presbyterian Church of this town on Sunday next.

Mr. Rufus King has purchased of Mr. T. H. Simpson, of Logansport, Ind., who is visiting his father, Rev. Dr. Simpson, of Rockville, a building lot in the western part of this town for $275. He will erect a cottage, which will be ready for occupancy by spring.

A grand temperance mass meeting will be held at Totomac Chapel on Sunday evening, Dec. 13. Addresses will be delivered by Messrs. James A. Clarke, of Washington, and Daniel S. Riordan, of the county.

E. B. Colwize, a former resident of this town, and a nephew of the Hon. Allen Bowie Davis, was married on Wednesday last to Miss Voss, of Mobile, Ala., at the residence of Bishop McTyeire, president of the Vanderbilt University. Miss Voss is a niece of Mrs. McTyeire, and also of the late Mrs. Commodore Vanderbilt.

Hon. A. B. Davis, president of the Montgomery county school board, has removed with his family from their country residence, "Glenwood," near Brookeville, to their winter home at 370 Madison avenue, Baltimore.

Thomas W. Woodfield declines to serve as postmaster in Clarksburg district, this county, and W. S. Burke is spoken of as applicant for the position.

The sale of the Summit Grove Hotel, at Gaithersburg, advertised to take place to-day, has been countermanded on account of satisfactory arrangements having been made among parties concerned. TOM CARLYLE.

The Sparks Rulings in the West.

Indignant letters from settlers in certain sections in the west, which embraces Dakota territory, where the ruling of Commissioner Sparks suspending the issuance of land patents in that section is in operation, are being received at the general land office. The complaint is that the commissioner's action makes the innocent suffer with the guilty. A strong effort will probably be made to have the ruling changed so as to apply only to persons known to have been irregular in entering their lands.

What Richelieu Robinson Wants.

Hon. W. E. Robinson, who represented the Brooklyn district in Congress last session, is an applicant for the vacant pension agency in New York, but it is understood that the President will appoint an ex-soldier when the appointment is made, which will be some time yet. He is now acting as a newspaper correspondent, and using his privileges as an ex-member to get ahead of his competitors by going on the floor of the House.

A King's Bounty in Bargains.

The King, at his Palace, 814 Seventh street northwest, says he has "wonderful bargains." We believe him, and so will you on calling there. He is the most benevolent being with whom we are acquainted, announcing that now, when the public need is sorest, he has cut down his prices expressly on that account. His cloaks and millinery department will indisputably prove that fact.

Senator Colquitt on Prohibition in Atlanta.

Senator Colquitt, of Georgia, by request of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, the District Temperance Alliance, and others, will give an account of the recent temperance triumph in his state at Mount Vernon Place Church to-morrow afternoon at 3½ o'clock. A grand meeting is anticipated.

Church Medals Not Exempt.

It has been decided by the Secretary of the Treasury that certain Britannia ware medals imported for the use of the Assumption Church of Chicago are not exempt from duty under the provisions which include in the free list regalia and gems, statues, statuary, &c., intended for religious, literary, or philosophical purposes.

RAILWAY NOTES.

The annual convention of the Middle and Western Freight Agents' Association commenced at Pittsburg yesterday. There was a full attendance, delegates being present from all roads represented in the association. The morning session was devoted to the consideration by the executive committee of the report of the classification committee. A member of the committee said there were fewer complaints in regard to classification by shippers than for two years; several changes were suggested and approved by the executive committee. The executive committee, which has charge of rates, made no changes of any consequence, the old schedule remaining in force on all the leading freight lines.

The Toledo and Ann Arbor railroad repair shops, situated at the junction with the Wheeling and Lake Erie and Michigan and Ohio roads, at North Toledo, were totally destroyed by fire yesterday, which caught from an overheated stove. Two engines, a caboose, passenger coach, and a snow-plow were destroyed. A game transfer depot near by was also burned, but the loss is nominal.

It is announced that over one-third of the Nickel Plate first mortgage bonds have been deposited with the Central Trust Company under the notice from the Roosevelt committee, and a member of the committee is credited with the statement that a large number of foreign holders have agreed to deposit their bonds as soon as the transfers can be made. He also says that the committee proposes to foreclose if the bonds are not sold at par and interest.

THE NARDELLO MURDER TRIAL.

A Day Consumed in Arguments Without Concluding.

The trial of Antonio Nardello, charged with the killing of Carmine Rotunno, was nearly concluded in the criminal court yesterday afternoon, and will be given to the jury this morning. When the court opened the argument was immediately proceeded with. Mr. Fields led off for the defendant, and spoke for over an hour, contending that the testimony did not remove doubt sufficiently to warrant the conviction of the prisoner.

Col. Corkhill followed on the same side, and insisted that the evidence strongly implicated the two Pasquales, and showed them to be the guilty parties. He contended that the murder had not been committed at the old house but elsewhere, the body being carried there for secretion, and it was impossible for one person to have done the deed.

District Attorney Worthington summed up for the government, declaring that a clear case of guilt had been established against the accused, and the prosecution was entitled to a verdict. He had not concluded when the court adjourned.

What to Buy

For a Useful and Acceptable Present

For the Holidays

We originated last week the idea of suggesting what to buy for a present which will combine

Usefulness with Acceptable Appearance

We had in last week's issue of this paper some very acceptable articles with the prices annexed published, and since then have had different articles mentioned in the different daily and Sunday papers. We have begun this idea with the feeling of earnestness and shall see it through. So, if you wish to relieve your mind of the consequent worry what to buy suitable for a Man, Woman, or Child,

Read Carefully the List

We are of the firm opinion that any article that is used in a household would make a desirable present, so we will quote here a few articles indispensible to any one.

Now what would please any mother more than to buy something in that direction for her baby a comfortable present. At the same time what would suit better than a nice

CRIB BLANKET.

Well, we have a nice Crib Blanket, plain, for $1.50. A better grade, $2. A real nice one for $2.50; and better goods for $3, $3.50, $4, and so on, as your purse and intention may prompt you.

Then we have a Blanket for the Baby with the word "Baby" beautifully worked in the center for only $2.75.

We have a California Crib Blanket, raw edge, in Pink or Blue Striped Borders, for $3.50; also a California Crib Blanket, with a Grecian Border, for $4.

Fine goods with the same inscription for $3.50, $4, $4.75, $5, $6. Also a nice Crib Spread in Marseilles, which also makes a real pleasing present. While a Blanket and a Spread would be a nice present for a baby, it would also make a most appropriate present for any one.

Every one knows we carry Blankets as low as $1, and as we cannot explain here the virtues of the different grade Blankets we have in stock, we will have to tell you of only a few here. We have a large-size Blanket for $5 in stock which would be nice enough to give to almost any one.

Then we have a 11-4 California Blanket for $7.50; and a 12-4, same quality, for $9. These are handsome as well as good, and any one would with gratitude accept this as a present in preference to some fancy foolishness which might cost twice and thrice the money.

A Marseilles Spread would be a pertinent present. We have a nice Marseilles Spread, large size, $2.

A very handsome 12-4 Marseilles Bed Spread, handsome design, raised pattern, for $3.50. For $5.50 we have a magnificent quality Heavy Marseilles Bed Spread. Why would not a Bed Comfort be an acceptable present? It is as much used as a Spread or Blanket. We have a beautiful

FIGURED SATEEN

Bed Comfort, with Pink, Blue, or Old Gold Sateen lining, for $3.75. This is a beautiful Quilted Comfort, and makes as nice an appearance as it is conducive to personal warmth.

Plain Pink or Blue Sateen Comforts for $2.25, $2.50, &c.

And a Turkey Red Bed Comfort for $2, $2.25, $2.50, &c.

But for a very fine quality Bed Comfort it is really worth your attention to see our Elder Down Bed Comfort. This sells for $12. It is covered with the best quality French Sateen and inlaid with fine Elder Down. Make some housekeeper happy by giving her one of these.

If you want to give a Lap Robe for a present, we can certainly furnish you with any quality and in the newest design.

Elegant large-size Lap Robe for $1.75. A heavy Lap Robe for $2.25. An extra heavy all-wool Lap Robe for $3. These come in beautiful stripes.

PLUSH ROBES

In beautiful patterns for $5. A large-size California Lap Robe for $3.75; also a very fine California Lap Robe, in very rich effects, size 50x60, for $9. Same quality, 50x75, $10. Same quality, 60x80, $11.50, and so on. We have certainly a handsome line of these goods, and cannot see why a Lap Robe would not be a decidedly clever Christmas present. Anything in the line of table wear would make a suitable present. So, particularly for the Holidays, we carry a well-assorted variety of

Consisting of Table Cloth, with Napkins to match, nicely put up in a box; nice sets for $3.50. These are white with red borders.

Fine Tollinette Sets for $5.50. These are 14-4 size, and are mighty pretty. Then for $6.50 we can give you a Double Satin Damask Set; in plain white for $7.50. We have a 12-4 Set, which come only in red border. These are of a superior quality linen.

Fine Holbein Sets, 2¼x2¾ yards, for $10. These are something entirely new in the way of Table Sets, and consequently are doubly acceptable. We have a Momie Table Set, 12-4 size. Then we cary a fine line of Satin Damask Table Cloths, without Napkins, from $4.25 up to some very fine Imported Goods.

We shall continue this list next week, so look out for interesting reading matter, and in the meantime read our suggesting list in the daily Star and Post.
