A Companion for His Sister.

Mr. R. W. Arthur says that he brought Miss Irene Wolfe, of Carroll county, Md., to his sister's house Monday night by her own consent as a companion for his sister. She told him that her father was willing for her to come here. Miss M. E. Arthur stated that she wanted the young girl as a companion and not as a servant. When she learned that Irene had come on here without her father's consent she at once insisted that she should return home with her father.

THE Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company announces great reduction in rates over its line for the holidays. Round trip tickets will be sold July 2, 3, 4, and 5, good to return until the 6th instant, between all stations, at 2 cents per mile. Round trip tickets to Baltimore under this reduction are $1.60. The train service of this unrivaled line is such as commends itself to all traveling for business or pleasure. Sixteen trains between the two cities. The stations of this popular route are centrally located. The only line using the block signal system in movement of trains. For information inquire at ticket offices of company or consult the advertisement.

Wanting Improvements.

A petition, signed by all the property owners on I street, between Eighth and Thirteenth streets southeast, has been sent to the District commissioners, asking that that street be graded, paved, and lighted. They can see no reason why their street should be neglected when surrounding streets are improved.

Reduced to $10.

Men's suits that ranged from $11 to $15 reduced to $10. Eiseman Bros., manufacturers, corner of Seventh and E streets.

Not Yet Discharged.

While the jury selected to appraise the ground and improvements it is proposed to condemn for the new library site have completed their work they will not be discharged until the 6th instant. This is done to guard against any question being raised by those dissatisfied with the verdict.

ALL persons indebted to the late R. H. Taylor will confer a favor by calling at the office, 933 Pennsylvania avenue, where they will find their itemized accounts ready, and I earnestly request an early settlement of same. Wm. H. McKnew, administrator.

Our Establishment Will Be Closed Monday, July 5.

A GRAND SUCCESS.

Our method of showing "remnants" of Embroideries last Friday was a complete success, and we shall continue to show them in the same manner hereafter. In a word, it is this: They are so arranged that we can show you all the "Remnants" we have in a certain width or quality in one lot, so that you can examine the widths and qualities suited to your purpose without being obliged to look over the entire stock of "Remnants," thus making selections easy. The assortment is large and unusually attractive to-day, viz:

23 "Remnants" of Narrow Edgings.
69 "Remnants" of Medium Cambric Edgings.
74 "Remnants" of Medium Nainsook Edgings.
59 "Remnants" of Medium Swiss Edgings.
27 "Remnants" of 21-inch Flouncing.
19 "Remnants" of 40-inch Flouncing.
11 "Remnants" of 45-inch Flouncing.
All the above come in different lengths.

"Remnants" in Colored Embroideries.

12 "Remnants" of Colored "All-Overs."
60 "Remnants" of Narrow Colored Edgings.
39 "Remnants" of Medium Colored Edgings.
27 "Remnants" of 12-inch Colored Flouncing.
Different lengths, all marked at extremely low "Remnant" prices. A great saving can be made.

(Second floor—Take elevator.)

Secret Sessions

When the Senate of the United States go into the committee of the whole and hold their secret sessions they do their work so that it is rarely ever found out how it was done and how long it took to do it. With us it is different. Our daily sessions are open to all. We do a terrible lot of work, and do not keep it a secret. We are only too anxious for the public to know how marvelously low we are supplying the trade with fresh, seasonable goods.
