Death of William C. Goddard.

Mr. William C. Goddard, a resident of this city for more than fifty years, died at his residence, 911 Tenth street northwest, on Monday morning. He came to this city from Charles county, Md., in 1830, and soon afterward received an appointment in the Treasury Department, which position he held for thirty-four years. He was a member of Foundry M. E. Church until the building of the McKendree Church, when he joined that church. During all his long service he had the entire confidence and respect of all his friends and associates. The funeral will take place this afternoon from his late residence.

Dr. Benley's Wonderful Tonic.

Thousands of ladies troubled with nervousness and female troubles have been cured by using Dr. Henley's Celery, Beef, and Iron. The purest, pleasantest, and most effective tonic the world ever knew.—Barbour & Hamilton, wholesale agents, Washington.

An Old-Fashioned Oyster Roast.

In company with a number of gentlemen, a reporter of the NATIONAL REPUBLICAN enjoyed an old-fashioned oyster roast last night at Ford's Hotel, corner of Eleventh and G streets southwest, and it was a treat indeed. By this means the whole natural fine flavor of the oyster is retained, and it is the only way of serving oysters by which that result is secured. Mr. Ford has the only oven in the city prepared or suited for roasting oysters, and he is prepared to serve them to large or small parties on short notice.

MR. H. C. BOOBY, of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, of New York, states: That he was cured of lumbago by Salvation Oil, the pain cure.

Laid Away to Rest.

The funeral of the late Dr. William F. Wallace took place yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended. The floral offerings were varied and elaborate in design. Rev. Rush R. Shippen, of All Souls' church, conducted the services, and, in an admirable and appropriate discourse, paid a fitting tribute to the life and character of the deceased. The pallbearers were Messrs. Wm. H. Morrison, W. C. Murdock, H. A. Willard, Dr. Lippincott, J. S. Pettit, and George A. Mason.

OUR sale on Overcoats this season indicates the popularity of clothing of our own manufacture, and that the public is aware it saves fully 20 per cent. at our corner. Eisman Bros., 7th and E, the only Manufacturers of Clothing in Washington.

The Children's Hospital.

The annual report of the Children's Hospital shows the property to be worth $89,000. During the year treatment was given 181 children, 12 white and 94 colored. In the dispensary 1,821 children were treated, 1,329 of which were colored. The receipts were $12,677.53 and expenditures $12,866.97.

$3 per gallon, 75 cents a quart bottle. No. 1 Rye Whisky, best in the world for the money, at McGee's, Ninth street, near D.

Home for Destitute Colored Women.

The annual report of the Home for Destitute Colored Women and Children shows that the home is worth $18,000. The house has room enough for 125 children and fifteen aged women. The daily average of inmates was for the past year 110. A larger appropriation is asked.

Make a Note of It!

We are daily selling more Boys' and Children's Clothing than any other house in Washington. The question arises: Why is this? We will tell you: Simply because we sell better goods for less money than has ever before been offered in the District of Columbia. We do not ask you to take our statement alone, but we refer you to the hundreds of mothers who have patronized us this season for their Boys' and Children's Clothing. We ask you to exercise your judgment in your own interest; make inquiries, look around, examine goods and prices elsewhere, then pay us a visit of inspection, and if we do not agreeably surprise you we are much mistaken. We are compelled to replenish and fill up our Boys' and Children's stock almost every other day. The supply is inexhaustible. We are in a position to meet the heaviest demands that can be made on our resources. The prices are away down, down, down—lower than you have ever seen them. The material, cut, finish, and make are of the highest standard of excellence. We state the naked facts and are kept busy backing our statements up by deeds. Our stock is too large to enumerate here, but for anything in the Clothing Line for Man, Boy, or Child, whether it be for Labor, Business, School, or Dress Purposes, at the lowest prices possible, visit the
